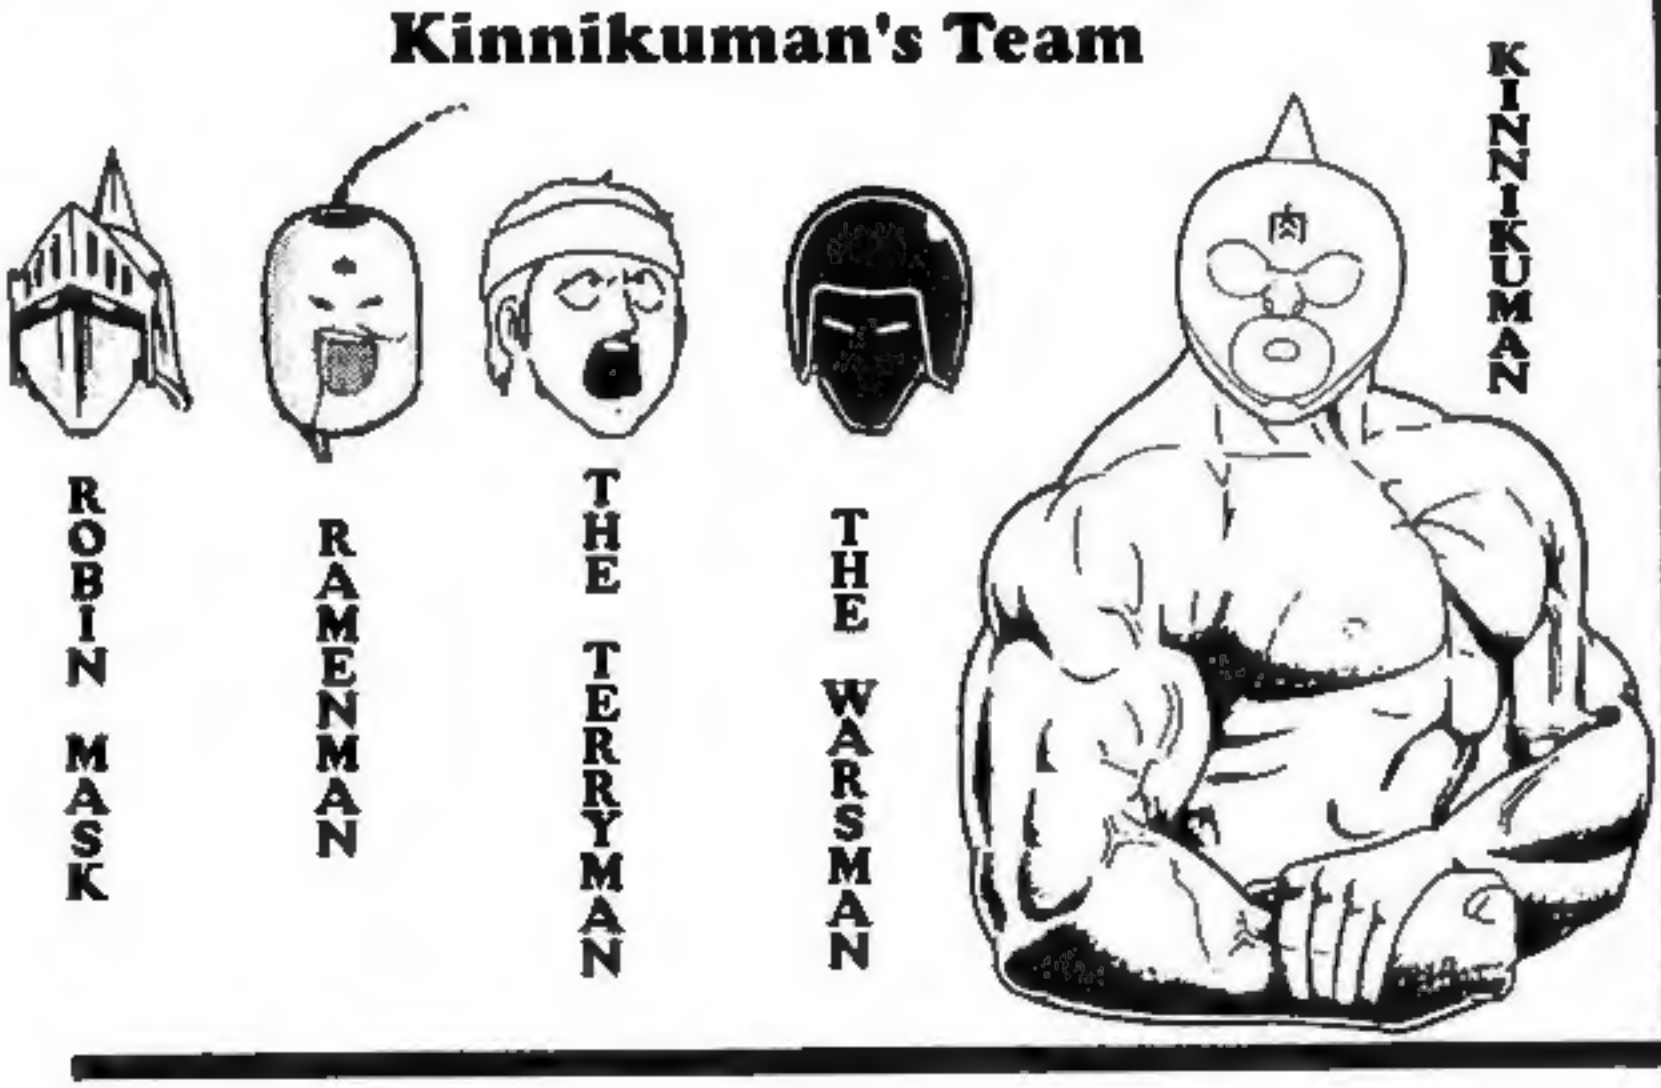
The Dreadful Prophecy!

Character Introduction



Scramble for the Kinniku Throne 37

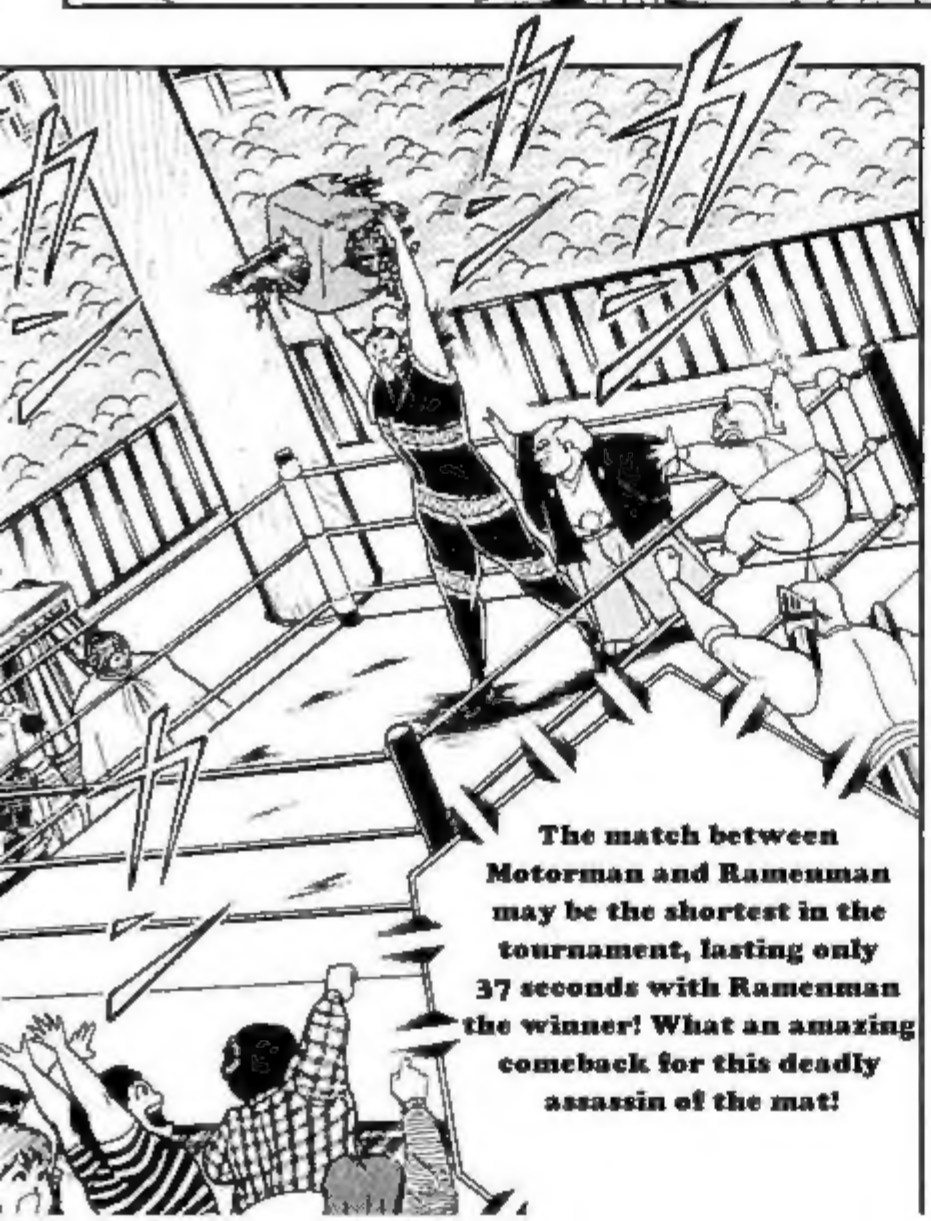
Terror! Thunderdome

A-TEAM KINNIKU RELEASE

And with his long-awaited Camel Clutch, Ramenman has torn Motorman in two!
I've never shivered so much from watching a Justice Choujin wrestle...
Ramenman... You've become strong...
That was truly the strength of the Devil himself...
Even stronger than when he defeated Brockenman...

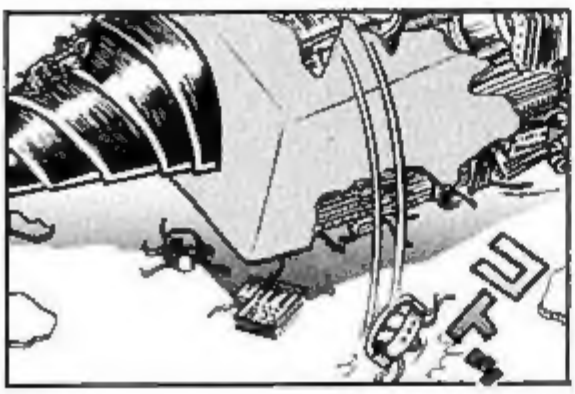
Hey old-timer! Get up there and declare Ramenman the victor already!

O-Of course...

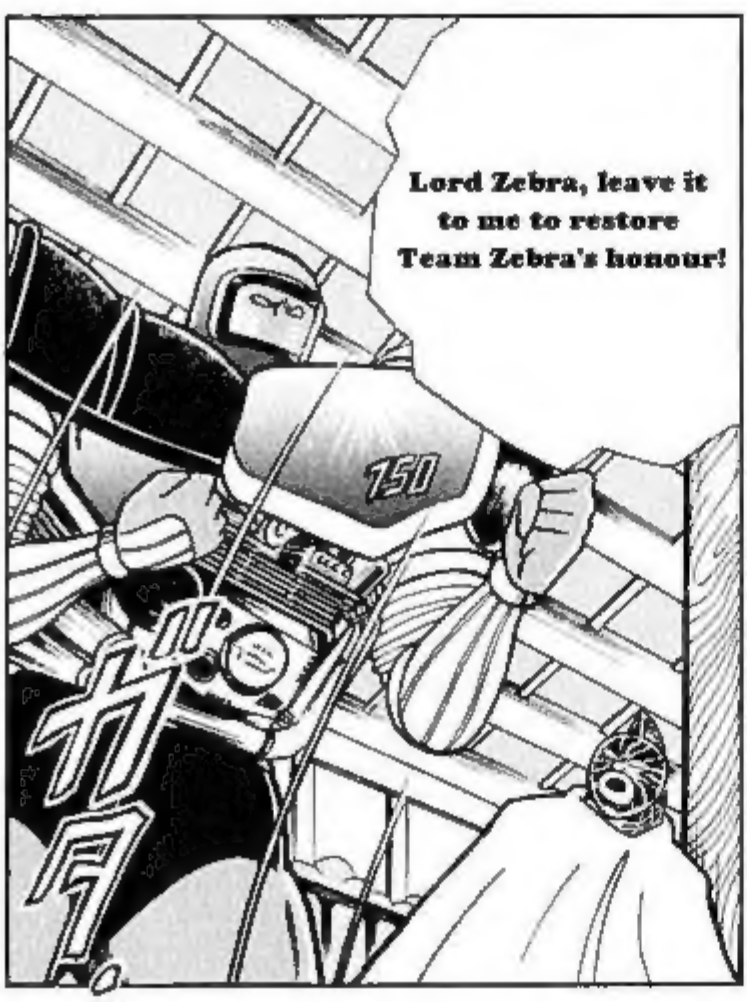


The match between Motorman and Ramenman may be the shortest in the tournament, lasting only 37 seconds with Ramenman the winner! What an amazing comeback for this deadly assassin of the mat!

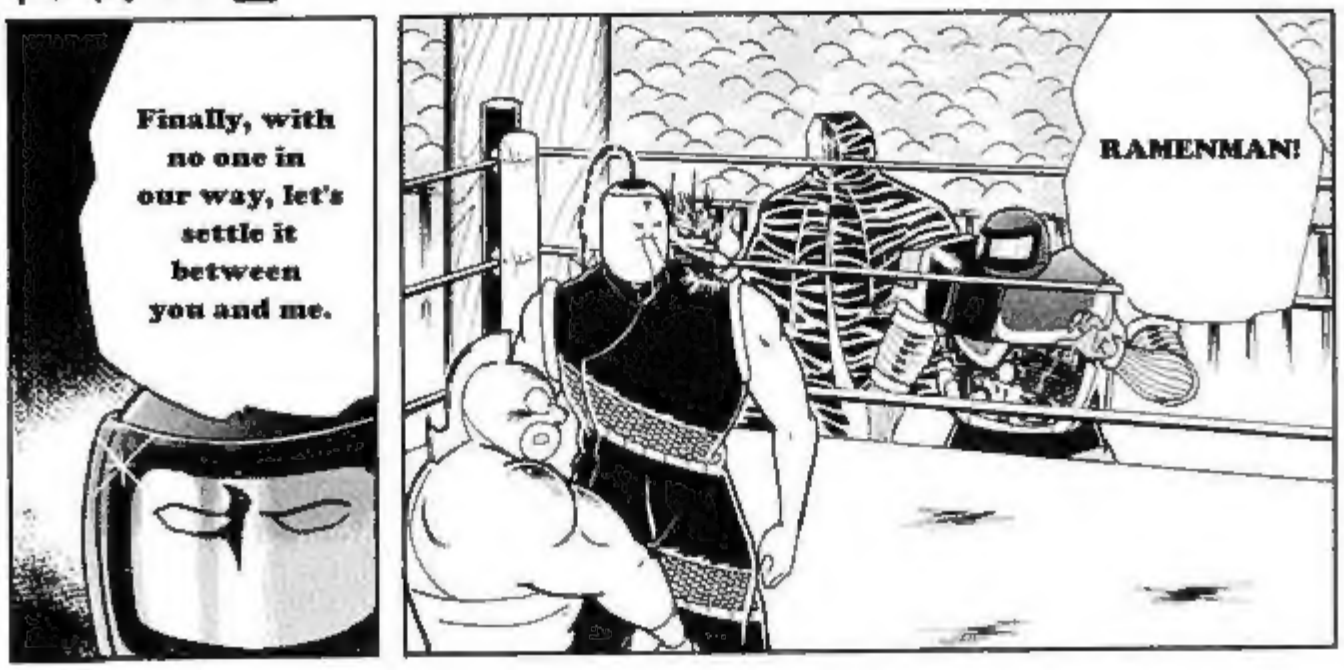
Ramenman is the victor!



Even with Meat, Warsman and Terryman defeated, Team Kinnikuman are still going strong with Ramenman backing them now!
Never leave us! We need you on our team!
Hahaha! Don't leave us, Ramenman!

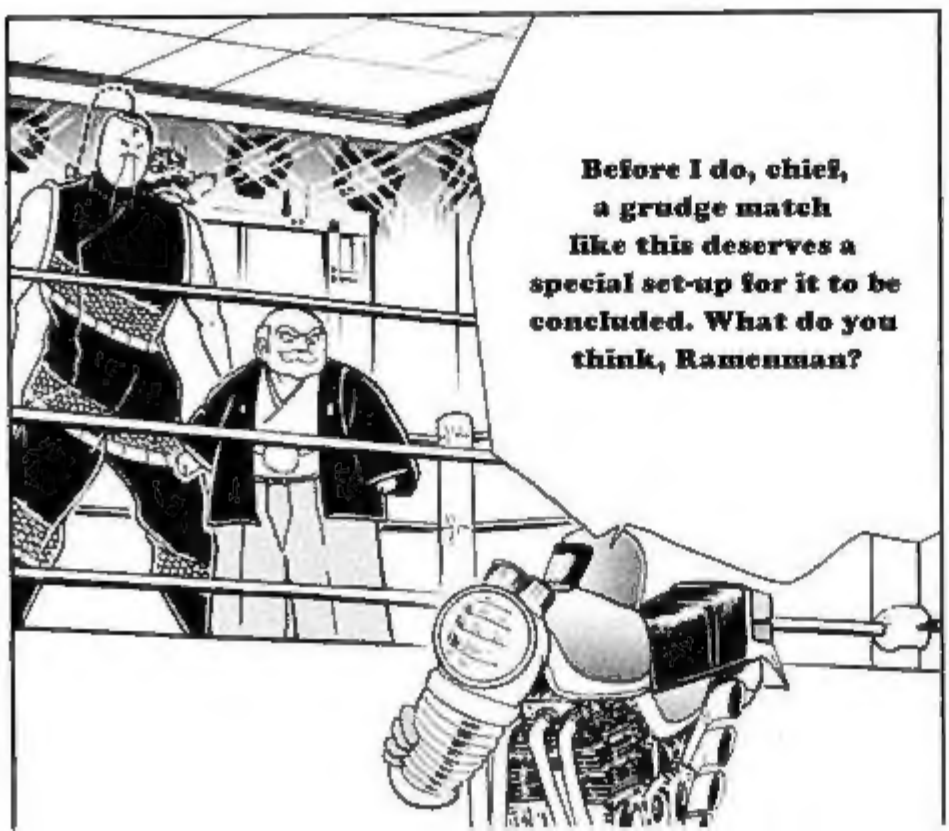


Lord Zebra, leave it to me to restore Team Zebra's honour!



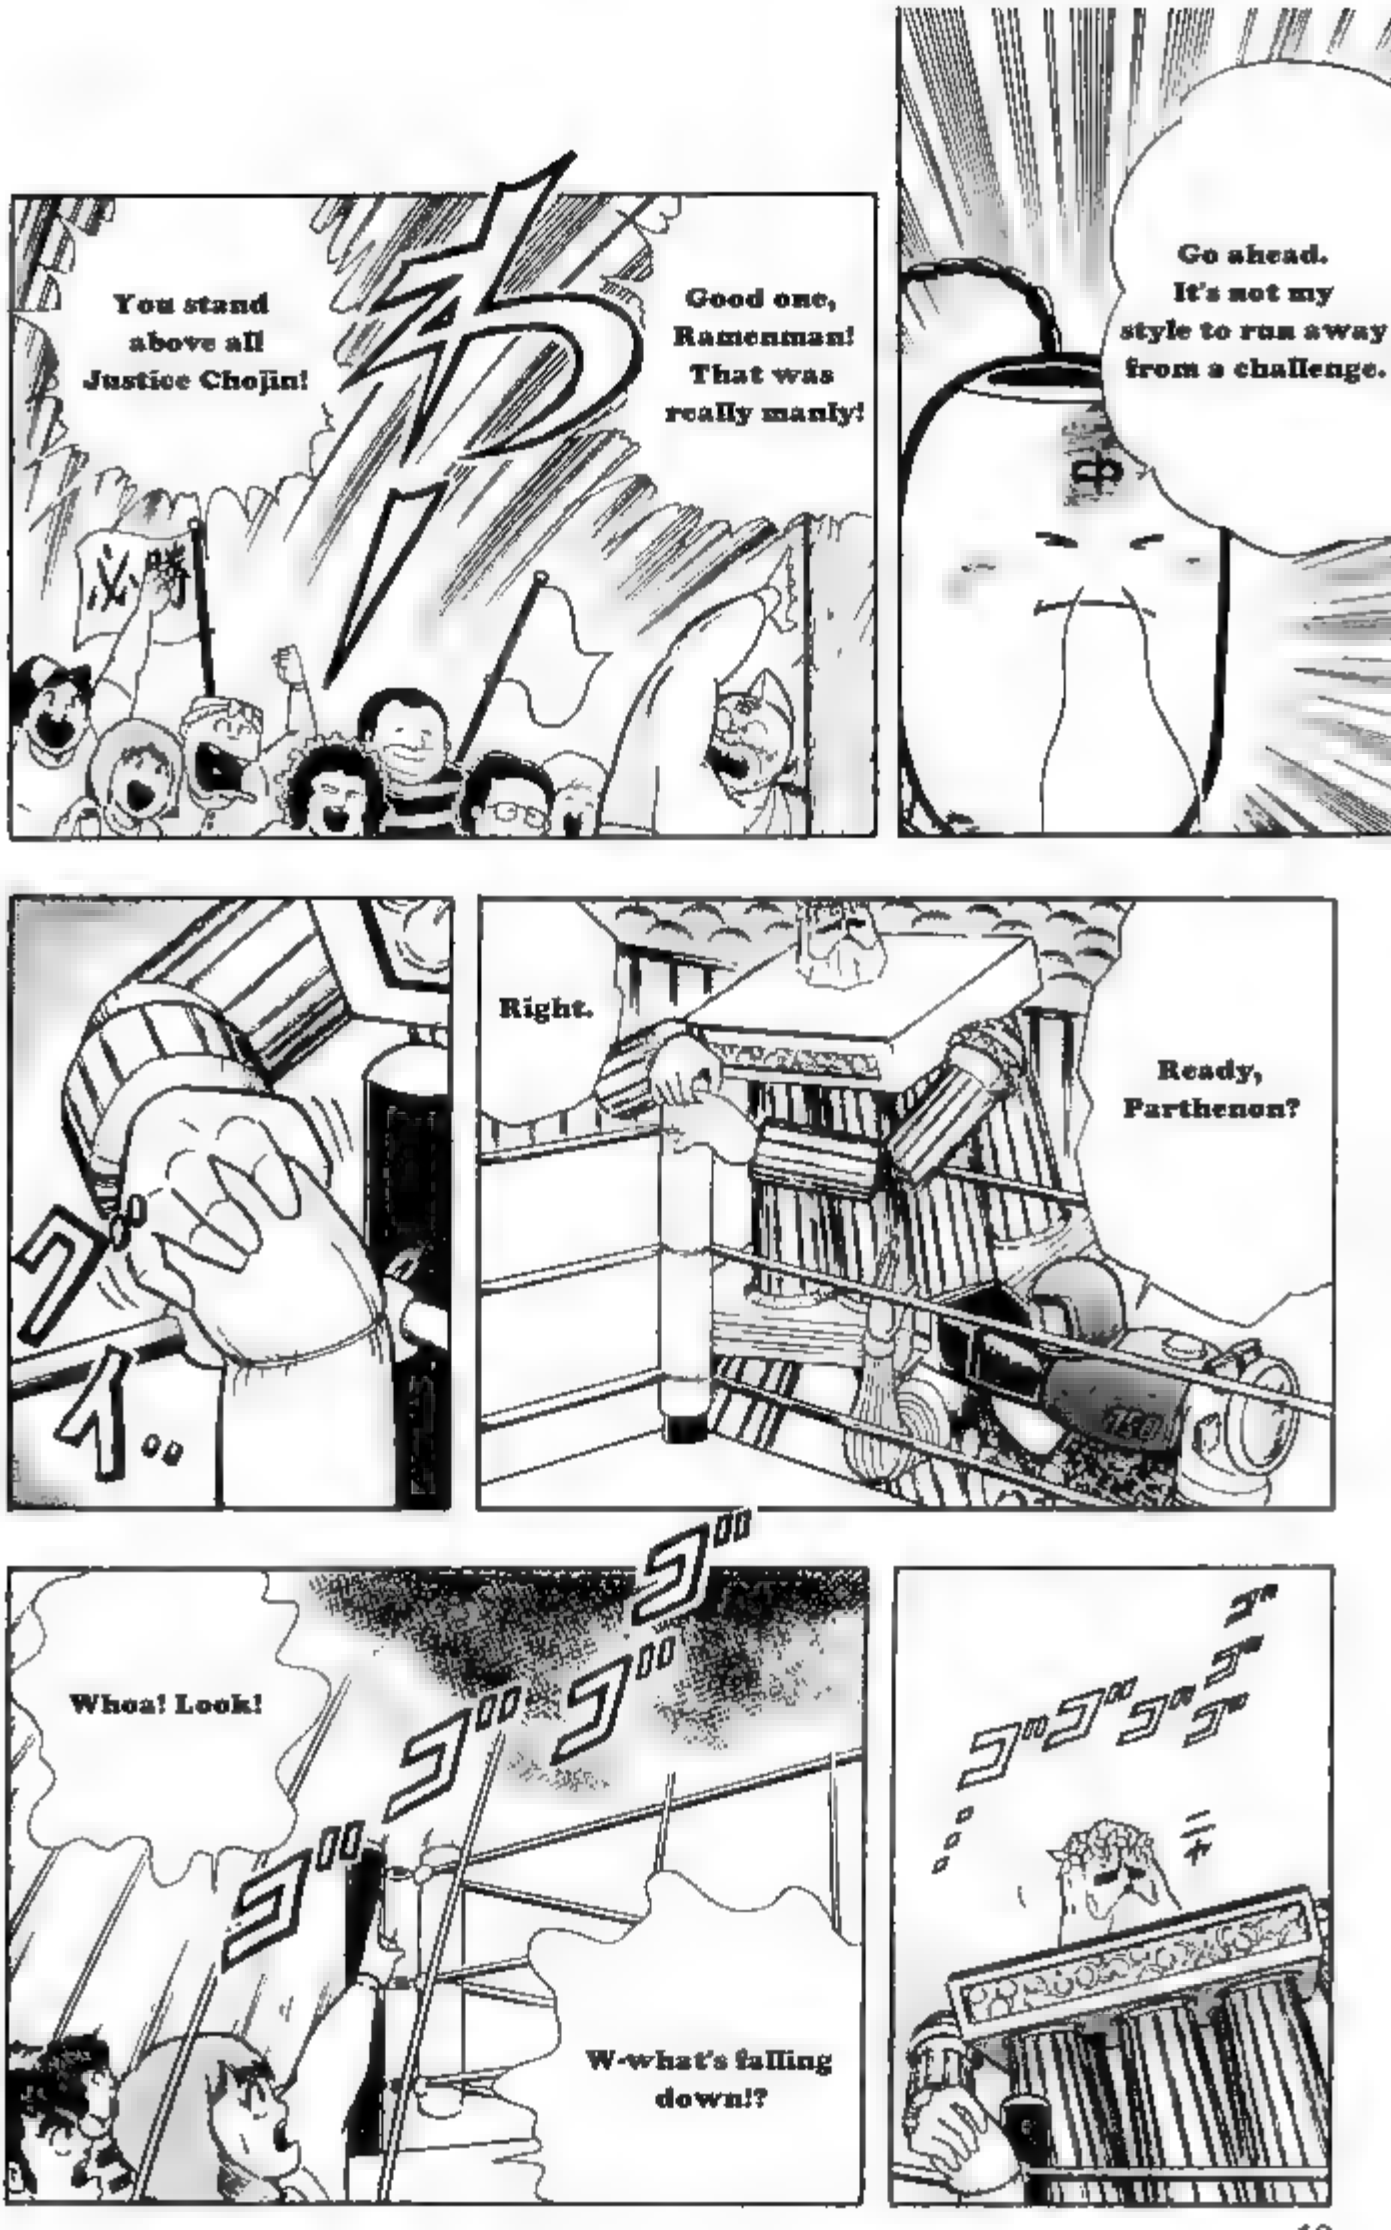
Finally, with no one in our way, let's settle it between you and me.
RAMENMAN!

Here comes a new challenger for the revived Ramenman to face next! The Main Body of Team Zebra, Bikeman!
Those kicks you landed on me earlier still sting. Now, I'm gonna make sure I repay the debt.



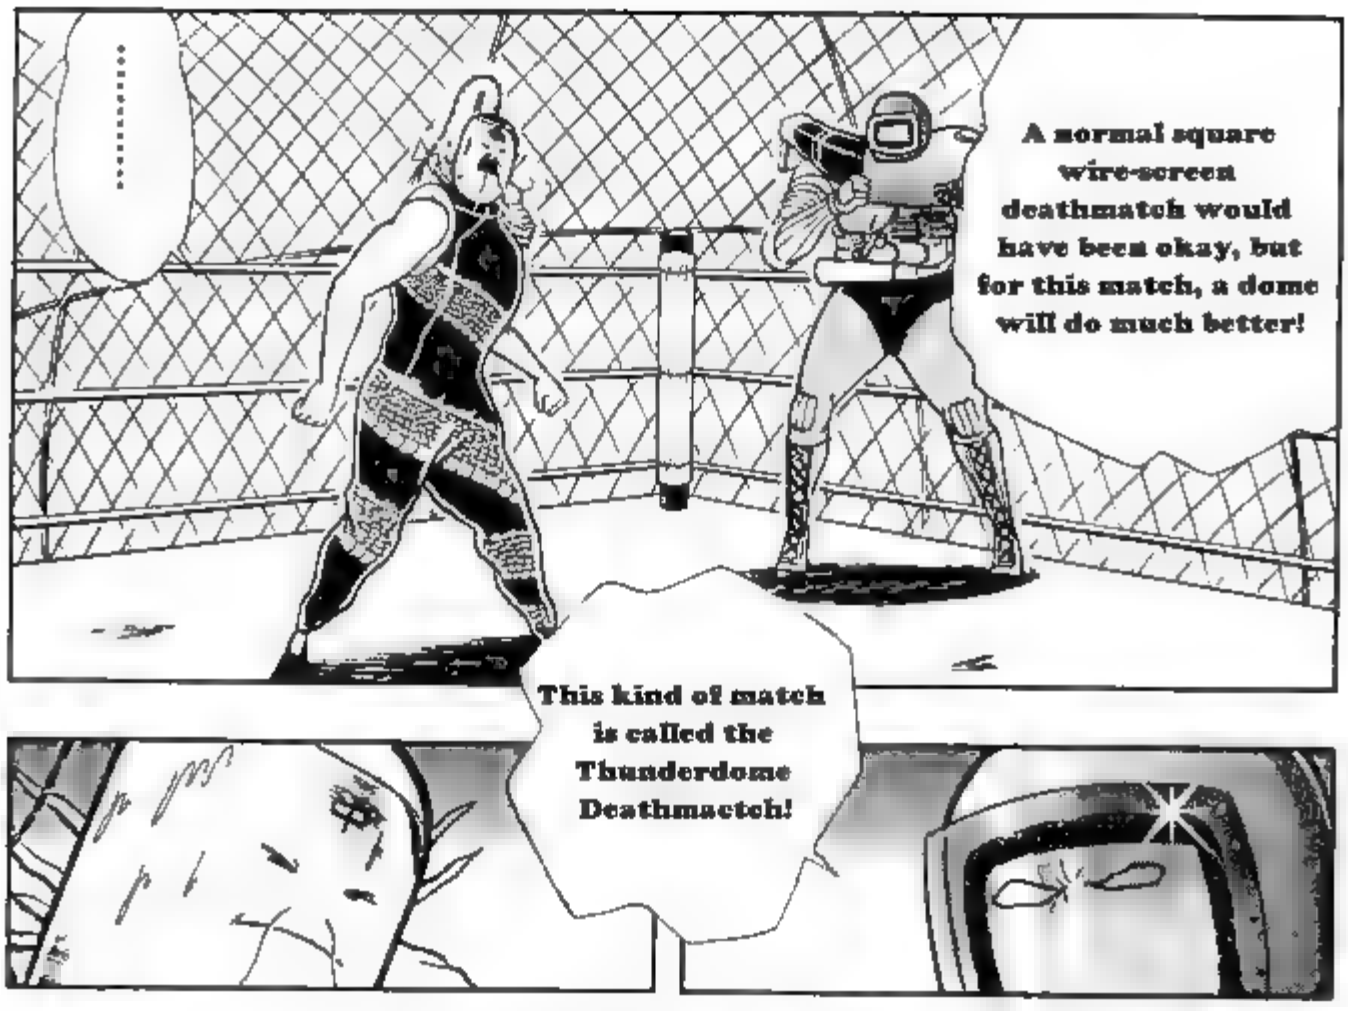
Before I do, chief, a grudge match like this deserves a special set-up for it to be concluded. What do you think, Ramenman?

Main Body of Team Zebra, Bikeman, enter the ring please.

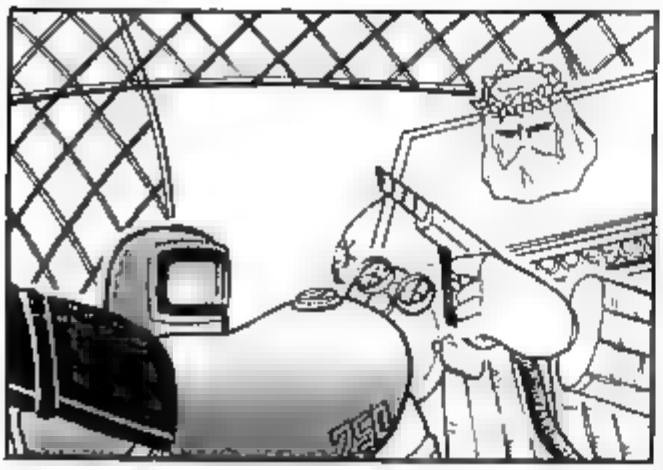


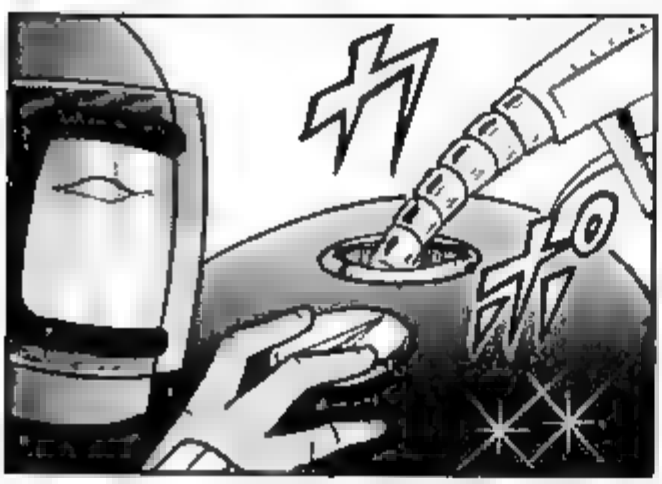
You stand above all Justice Chojin!
Good one, Ramenman! That was really manly!
Go ahead. It's not my style to run away from a challenge.
Right.
Ready, Parthenon?
Whoa! Look!
W-what's falling down!?

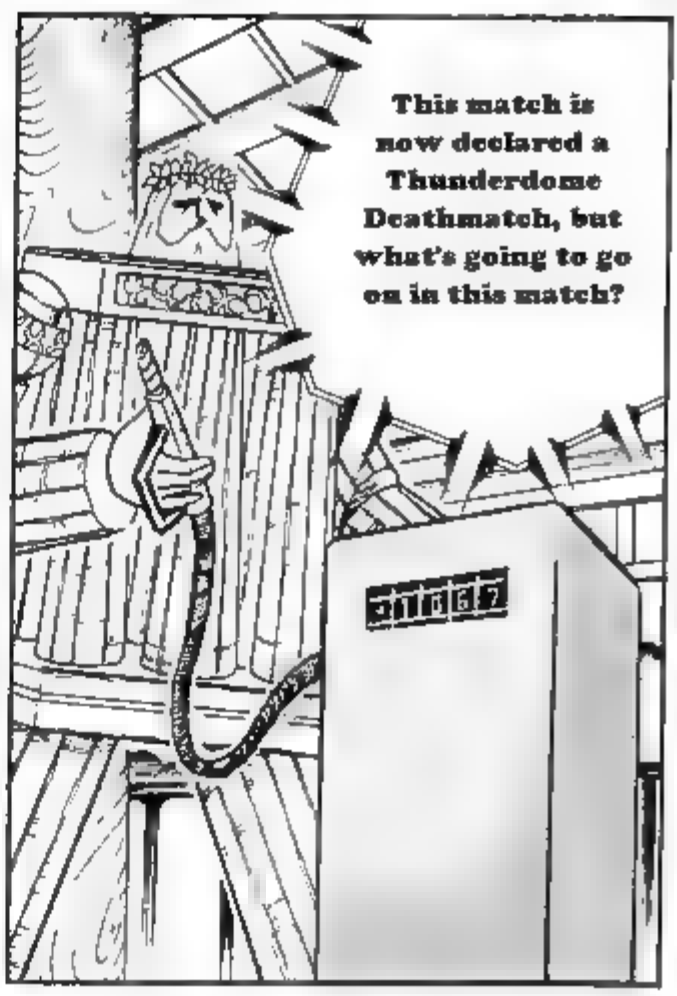
A giant wire-screen dome has fallen from the ceiling and landed over the wrestling ring!



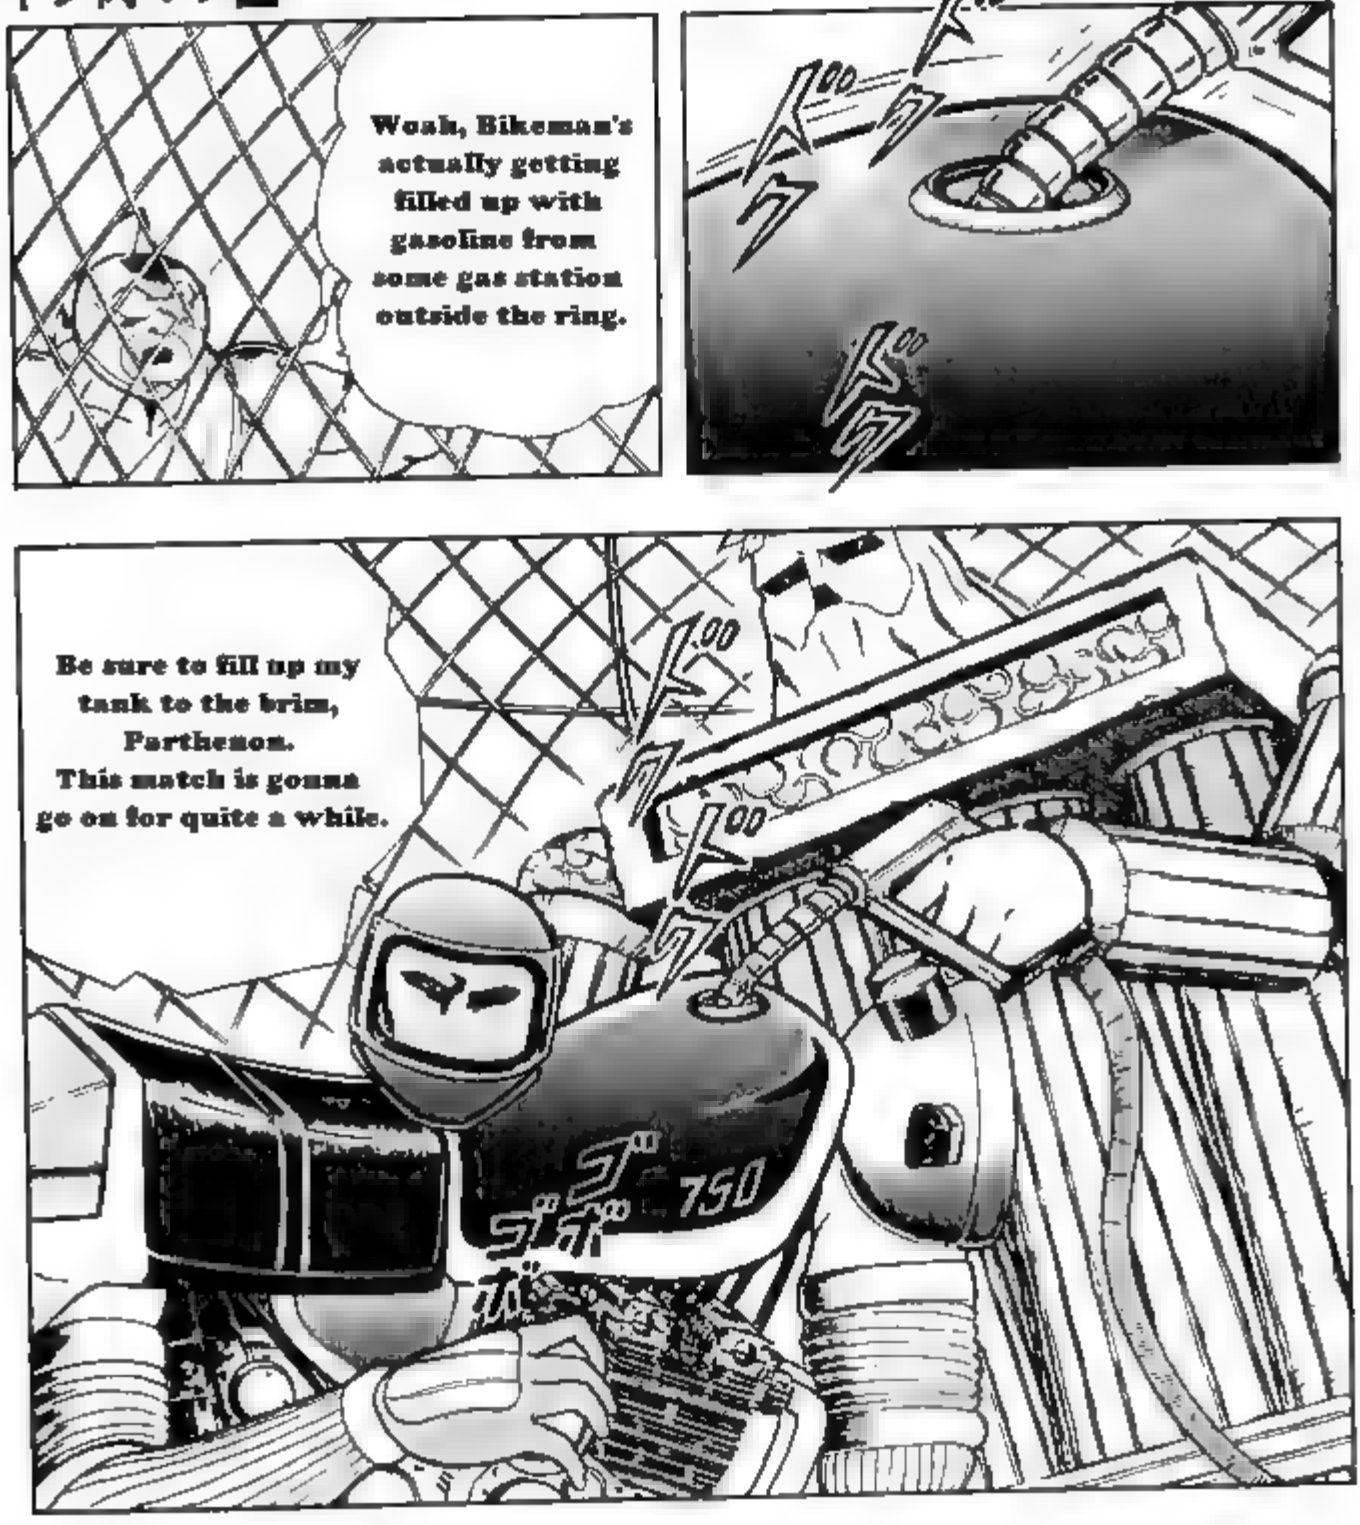
.....
A normal square wire-screen deathmatch would have been okay, but for this match, a dome will do much better!
This kind of match is called the Thunderdome Deathmactch!



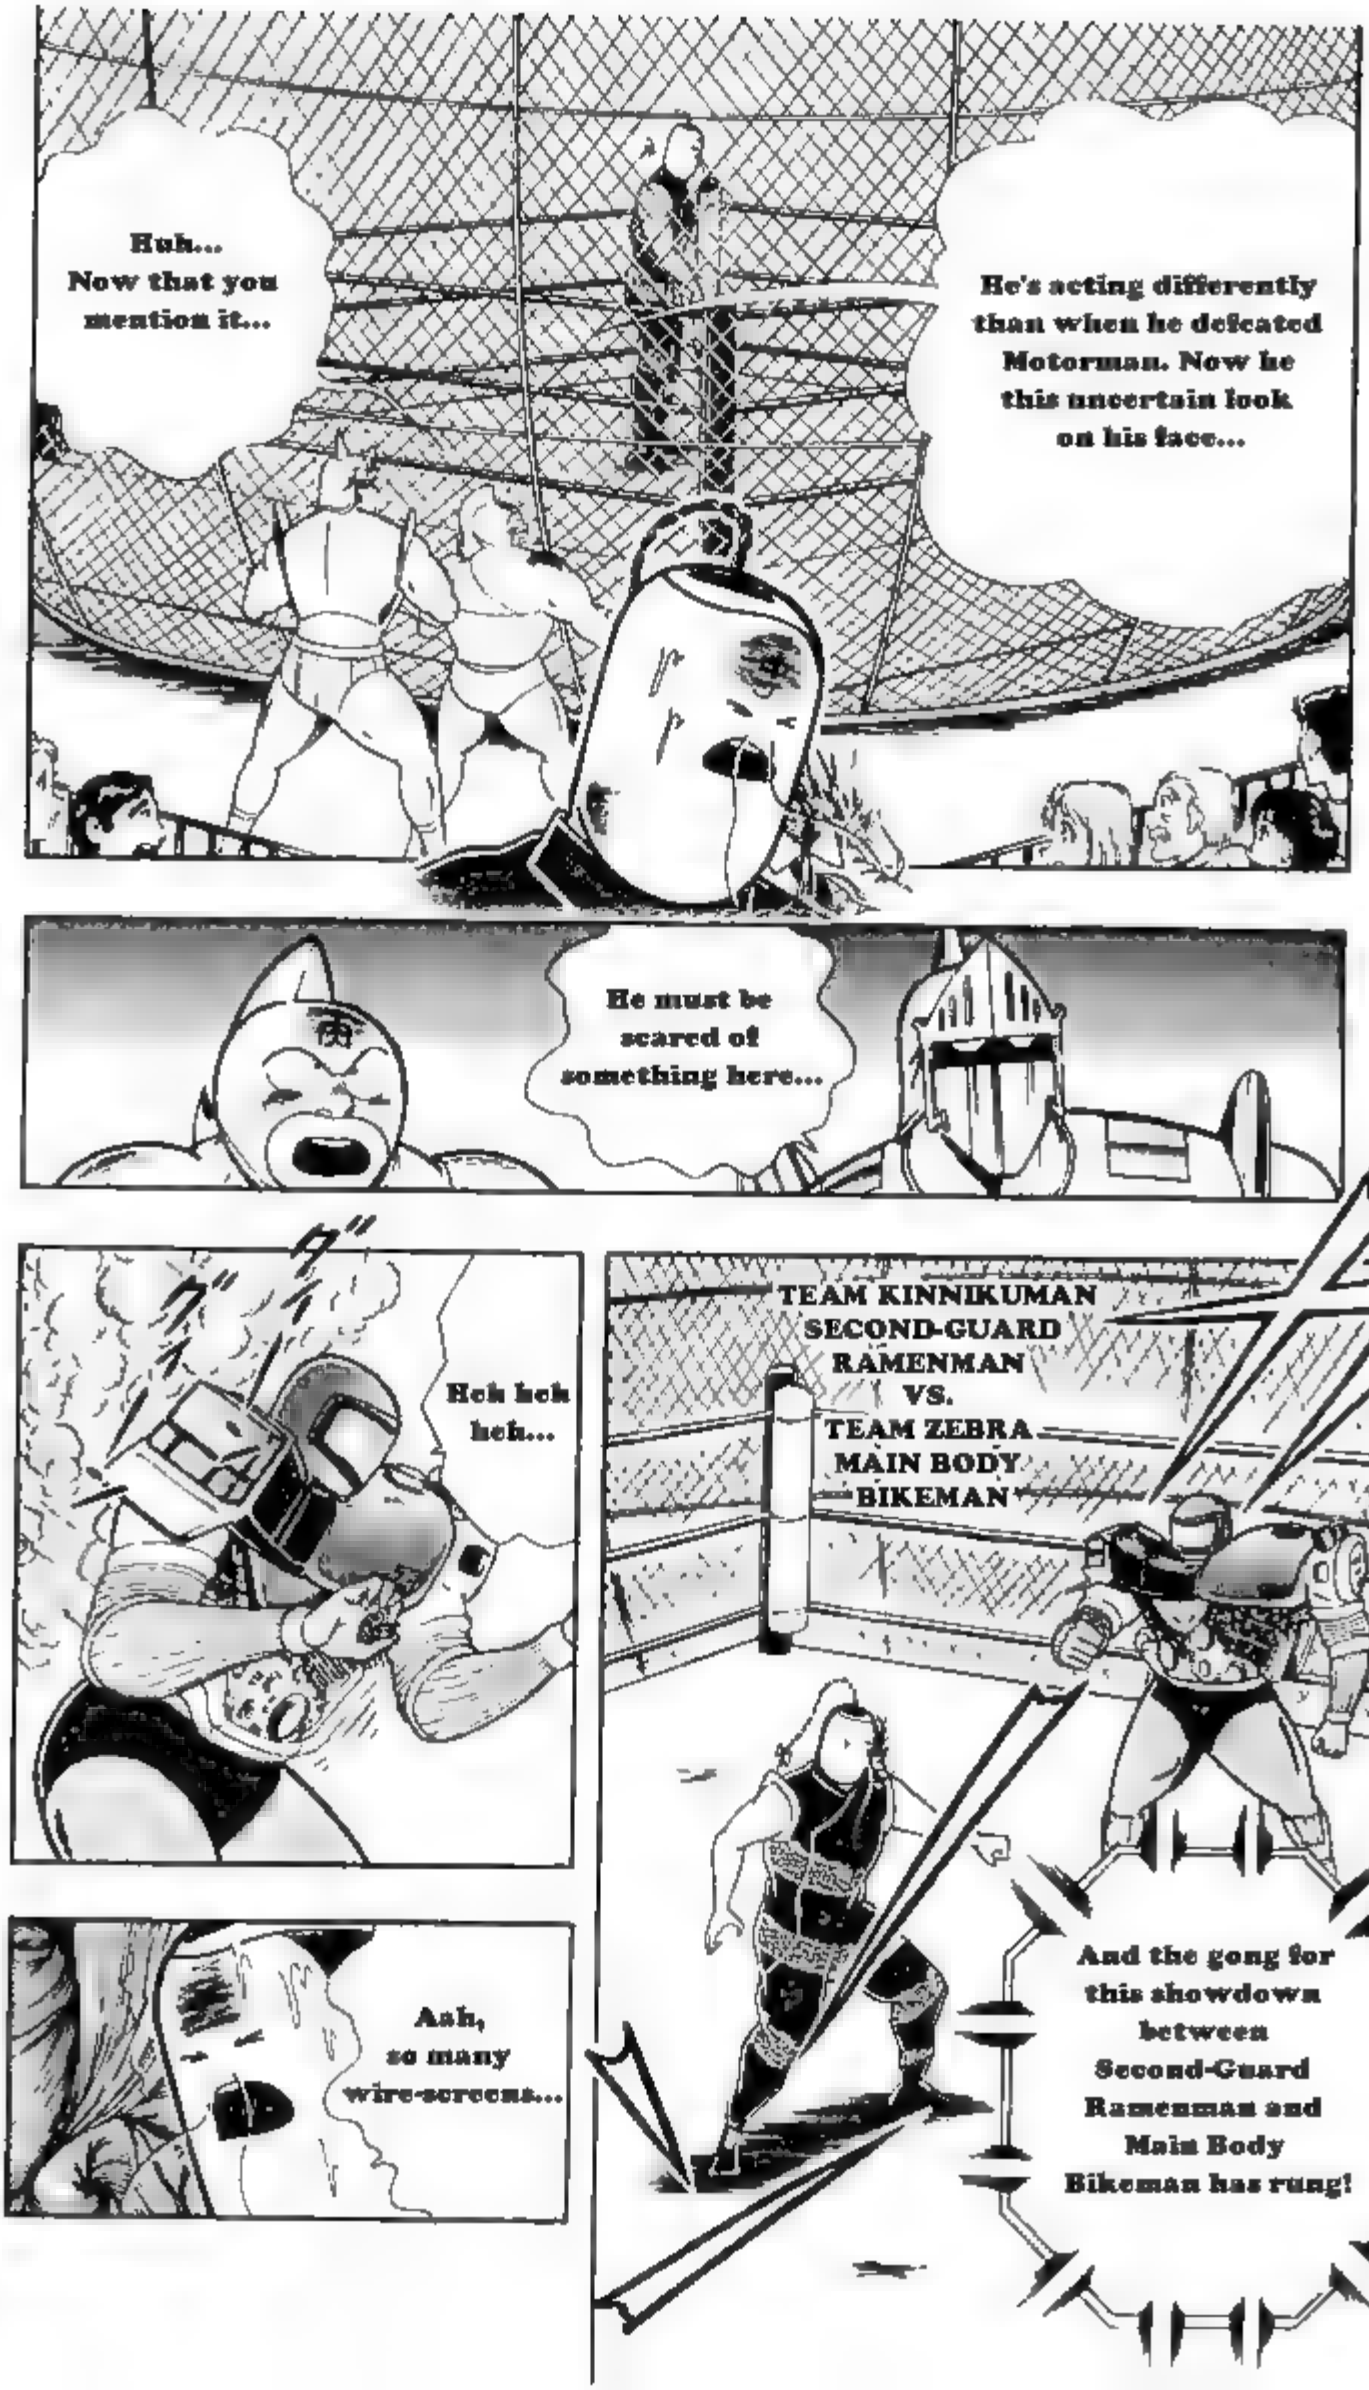




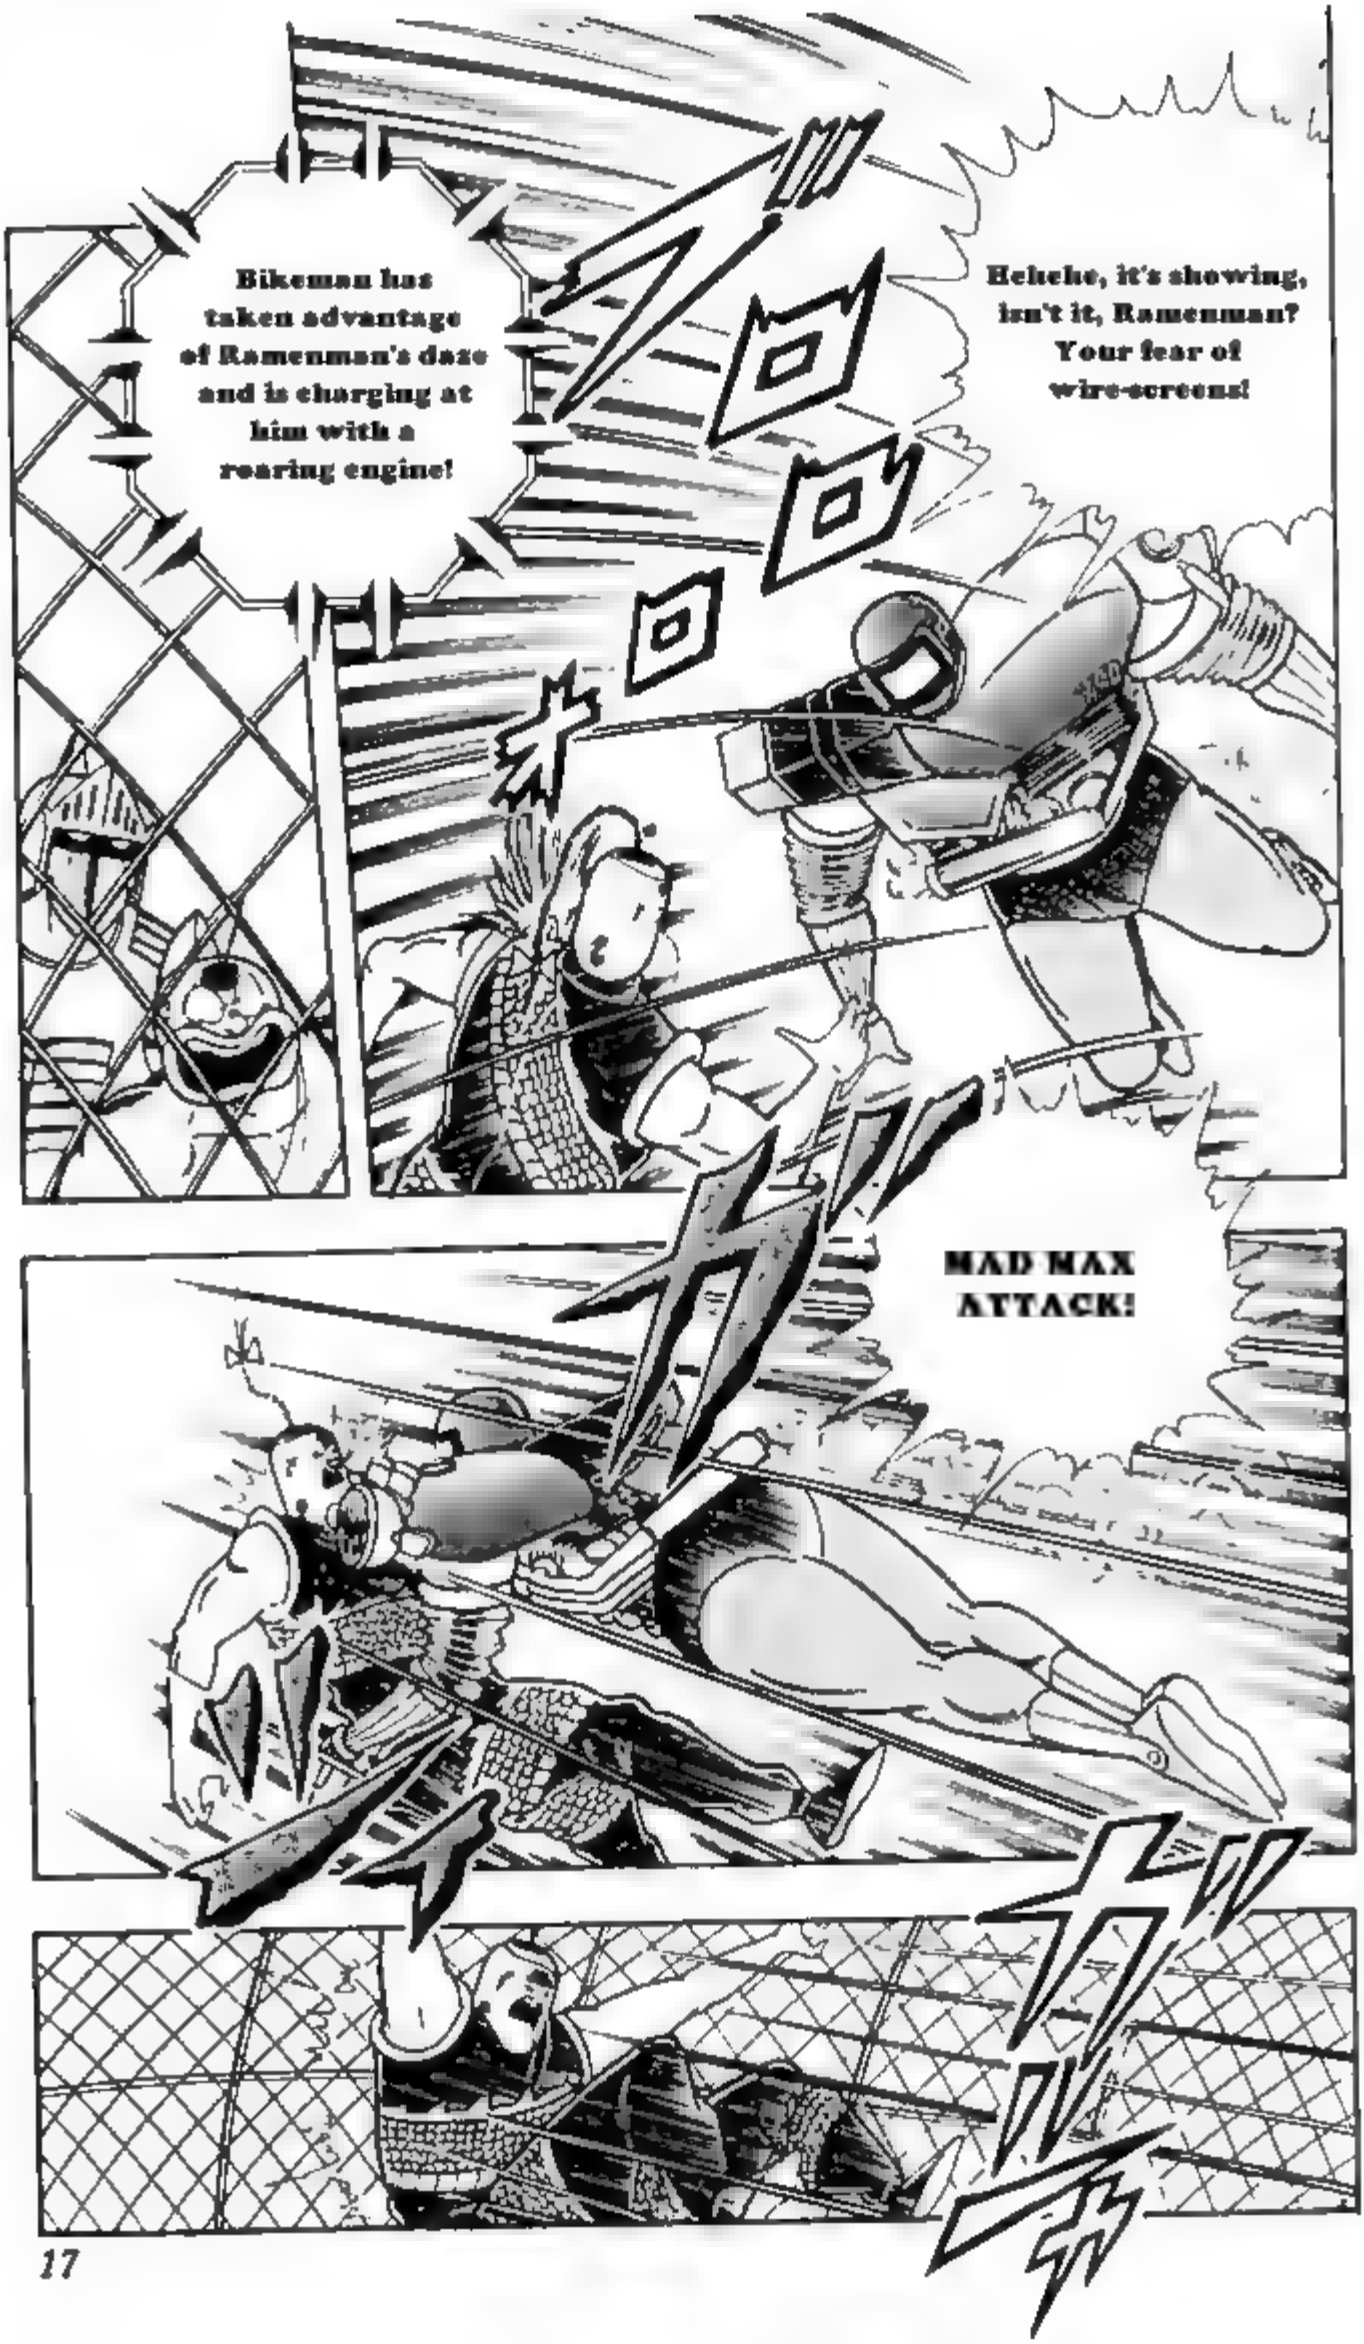
This match is now declared a Thunderdome Deathmatch, but what's going to go on in this match?



Woah, Bikeman's actually getting filled up with gasoline from some gas station outside the ring.
Be sure to fill up my tank to the brim, Parthenon. This match is gonna go on for quite a while.
What's wrong, Robin?
Hrm... This is troubling.
Man, that guy creeps me out. I'm glad I don't have to fight him.

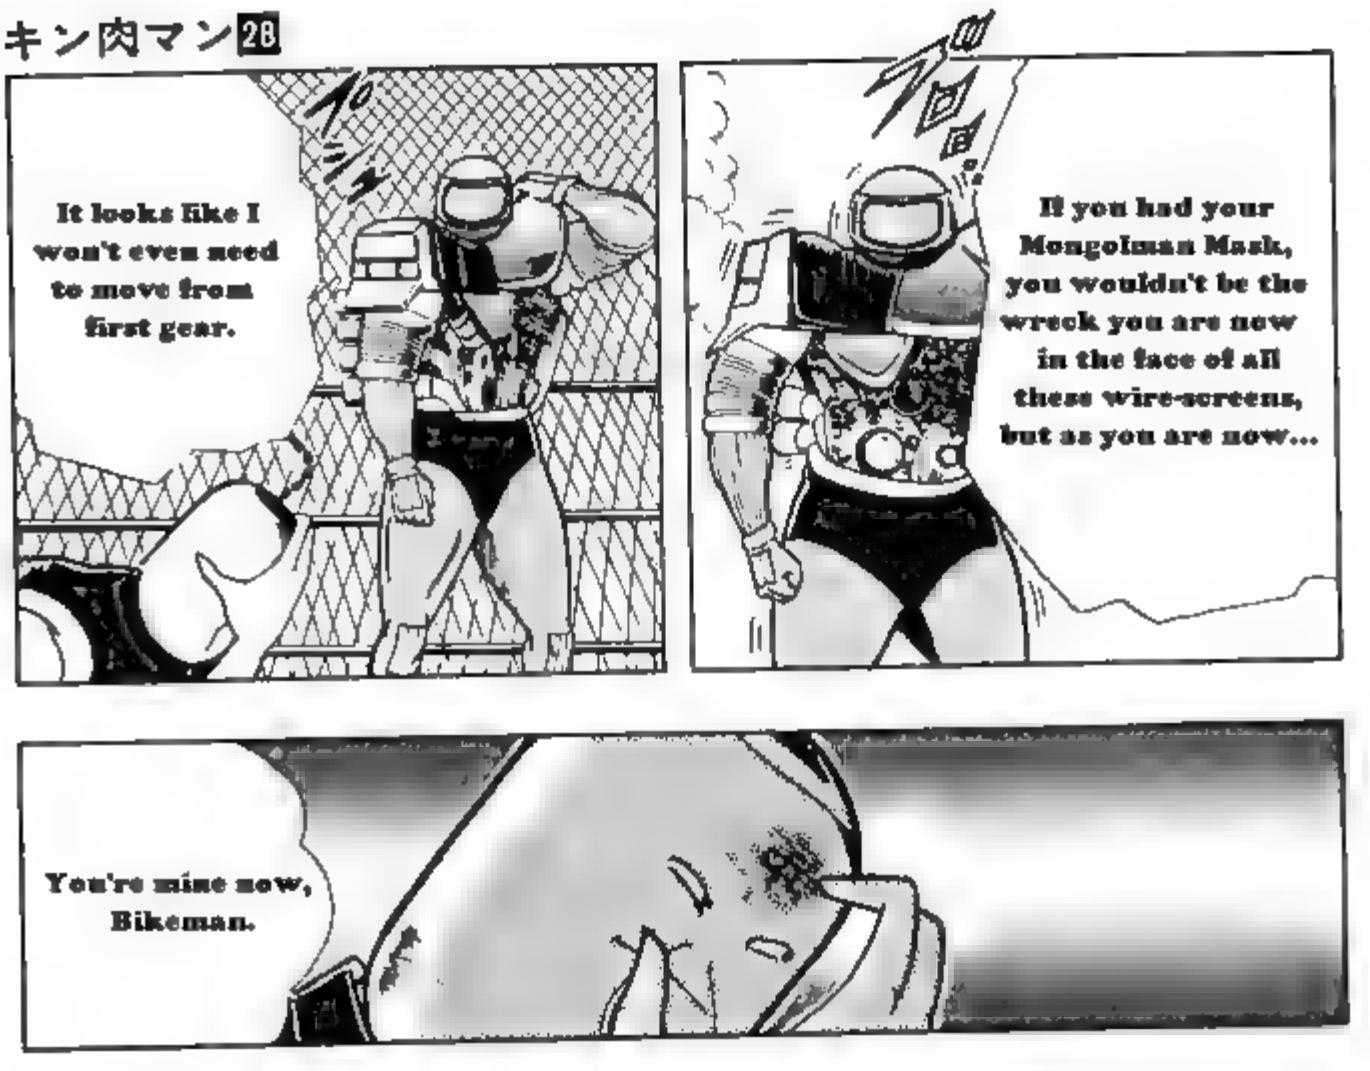


Huh... Now that you mention it...
He's acting differently than when he defeated Motorman. Now he this uncertain look on his face...
He must be scared of something here...
Heh heh heh...
TEAM KINNIKUMAN SECOND-GUARD RAMENMAN VS. TEAM ZEBRA MAIN BODY BIKEMAN
Aah, so many wire-screens...
And the gong for this showdown between Second-Guard Ramenman and Main Body Bikeman has rung!

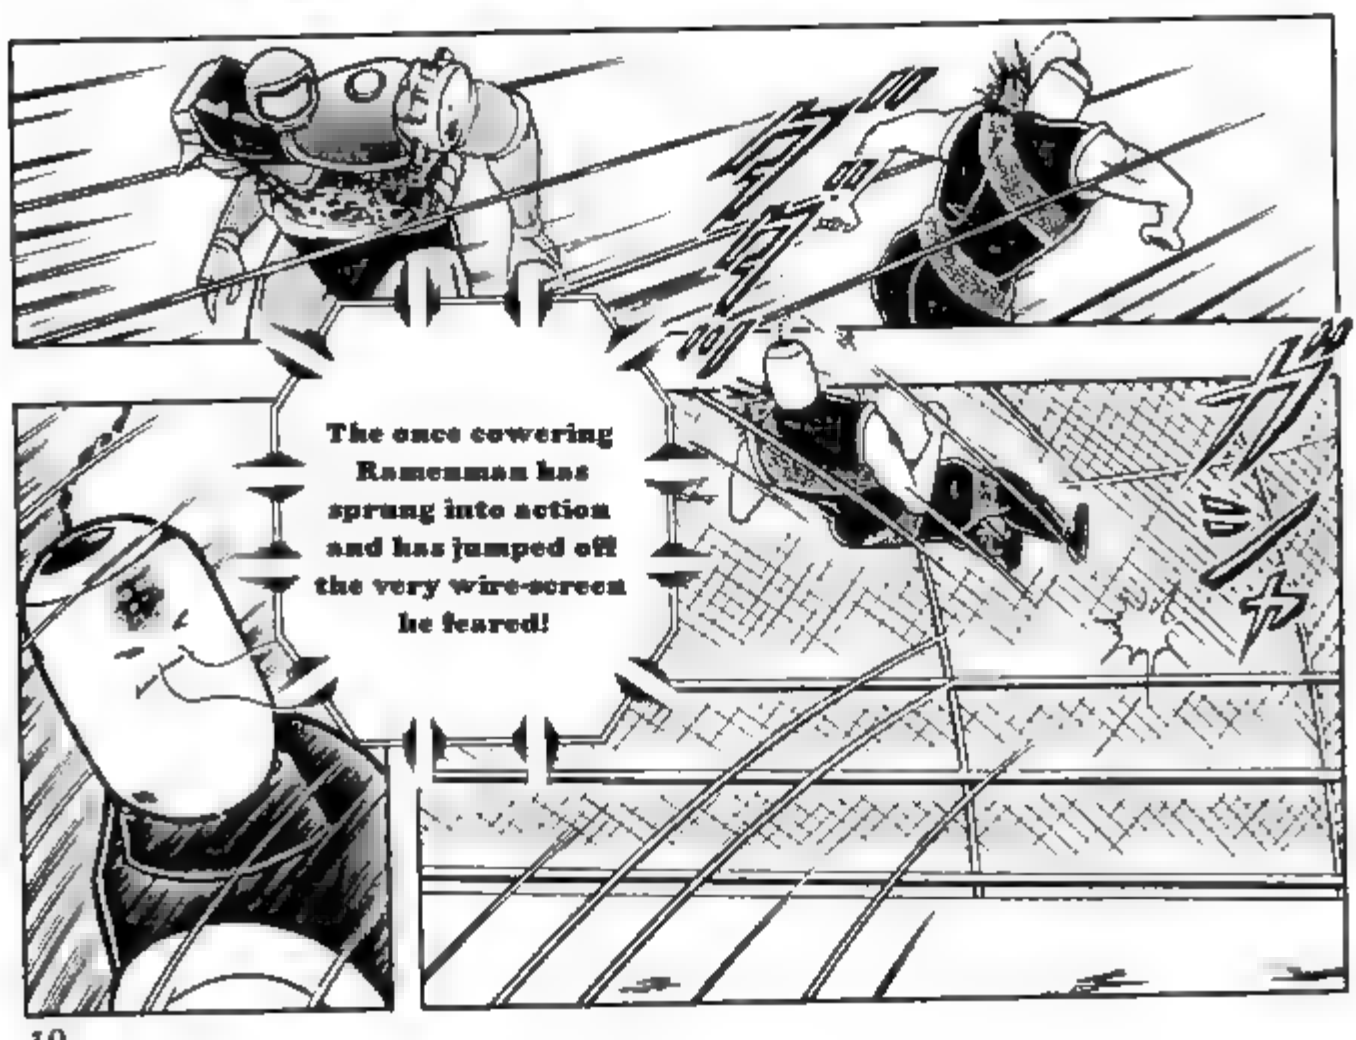


Bikeman has taken advantage of Ramenman's daze and is charging at him with a roaring engine!
Heheheh, it's showing, isn't it, Ramenman? Your fear of wire-screens!
MAD MAX ATTACK!

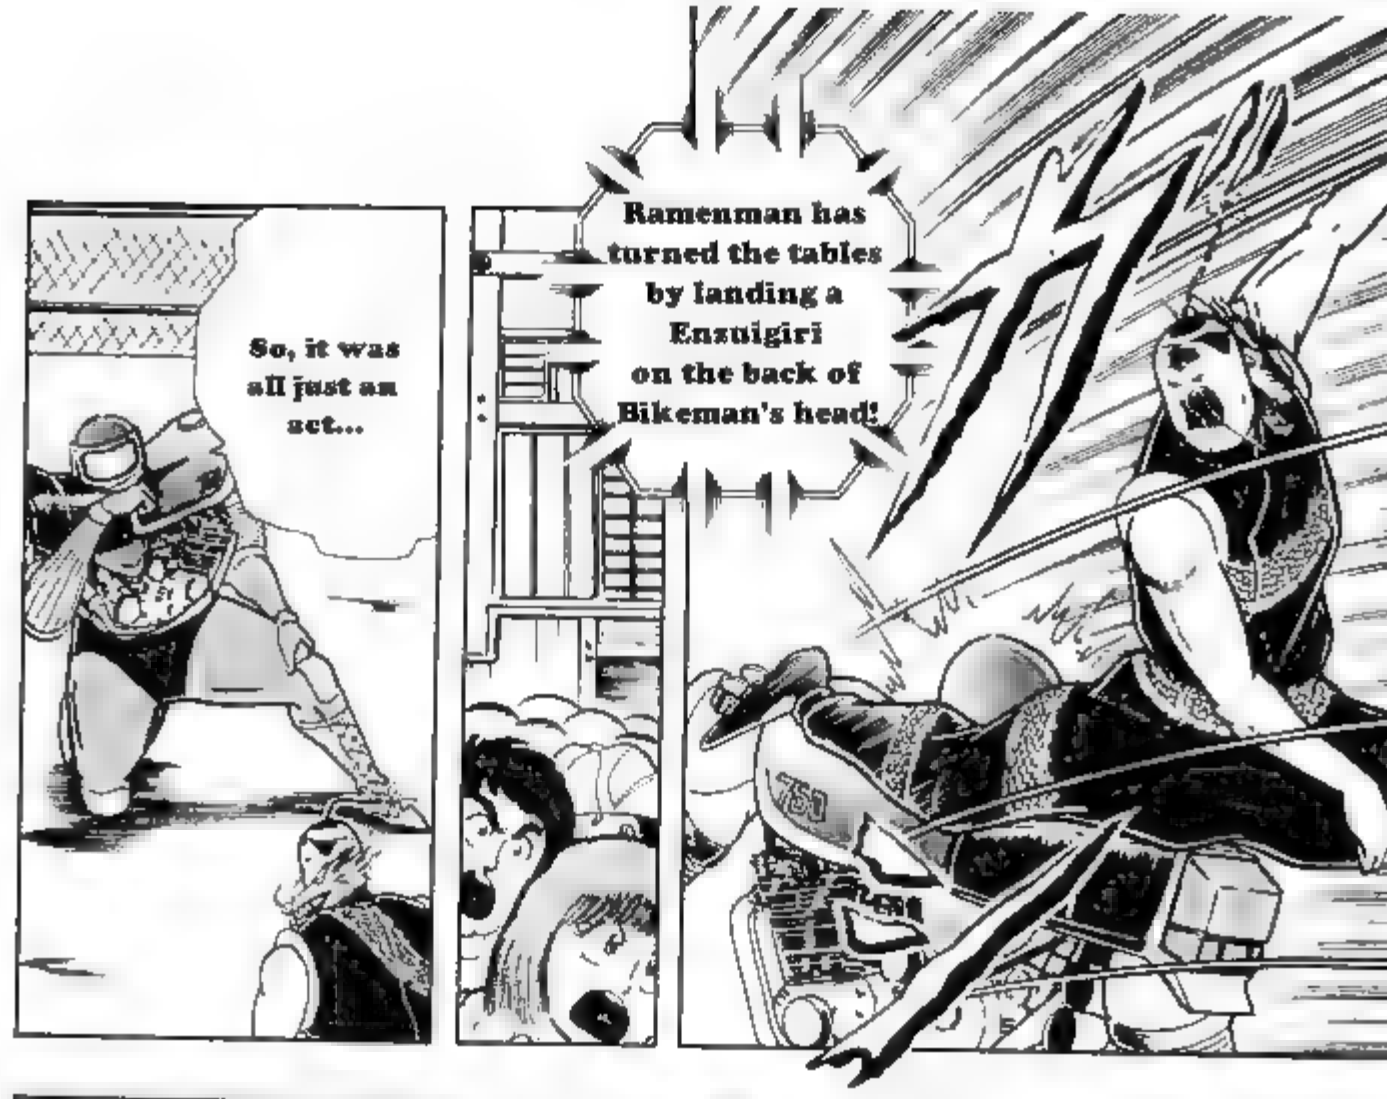
Huh... I get it now.
What's going on? Ramenman's going into a panic after being slammed into the wire-screen dome!
Aah! No! Not the wire screens!
After going through such an experience for 4 years, it would be natural for him to have a phobia of wire-screens and to freeze up looking at this much wire screeen.
Ah, of course, Ramenman had his head injured in the Big Fight during a wire-screen deathmatch against Warsman, which turned him into a vegetable.
Aaah! Please! Someone get me out of here!
That coward Bikeman! He knew of his phobia and he still challenged him to this wire-screen style deathmatch! What a rotten cheater!



It looks like I won't even need to move from first gear.
If you had your Mongolman Mask, you wouldn't be the wreck you are now in the face of all these wire-screens, but as you are now...
You're mine now, Bikeman.

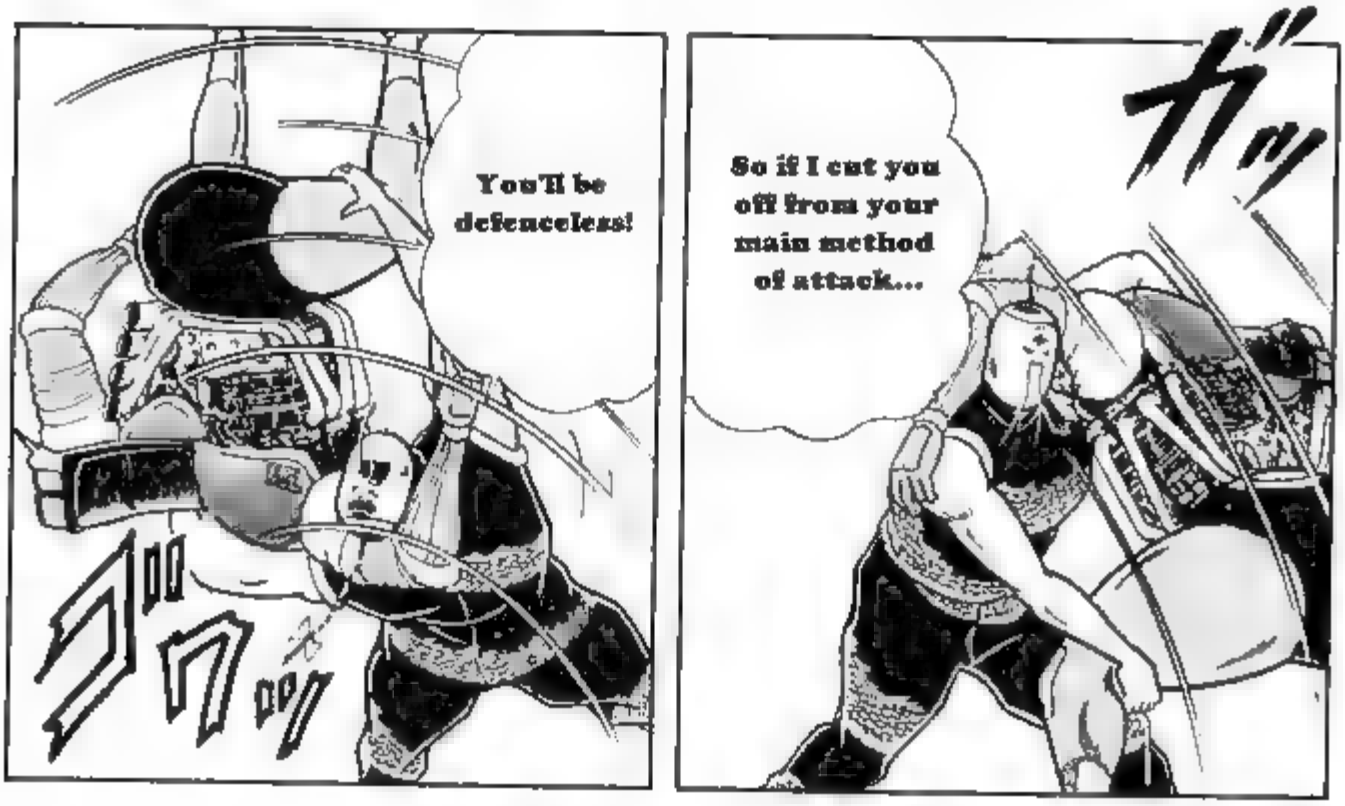


The once cowering Rameuman has sprung into action and has jumped off the very wire-screen he feared!



So, it was all just an act...
Ramenman has turned the tables by landing a Enzuigiri on the back of Bikeman's head!

Yes, it was. I faked my phobia so I could find out more about your fighting style, and I've got it. You use your engine to propel your attacks.



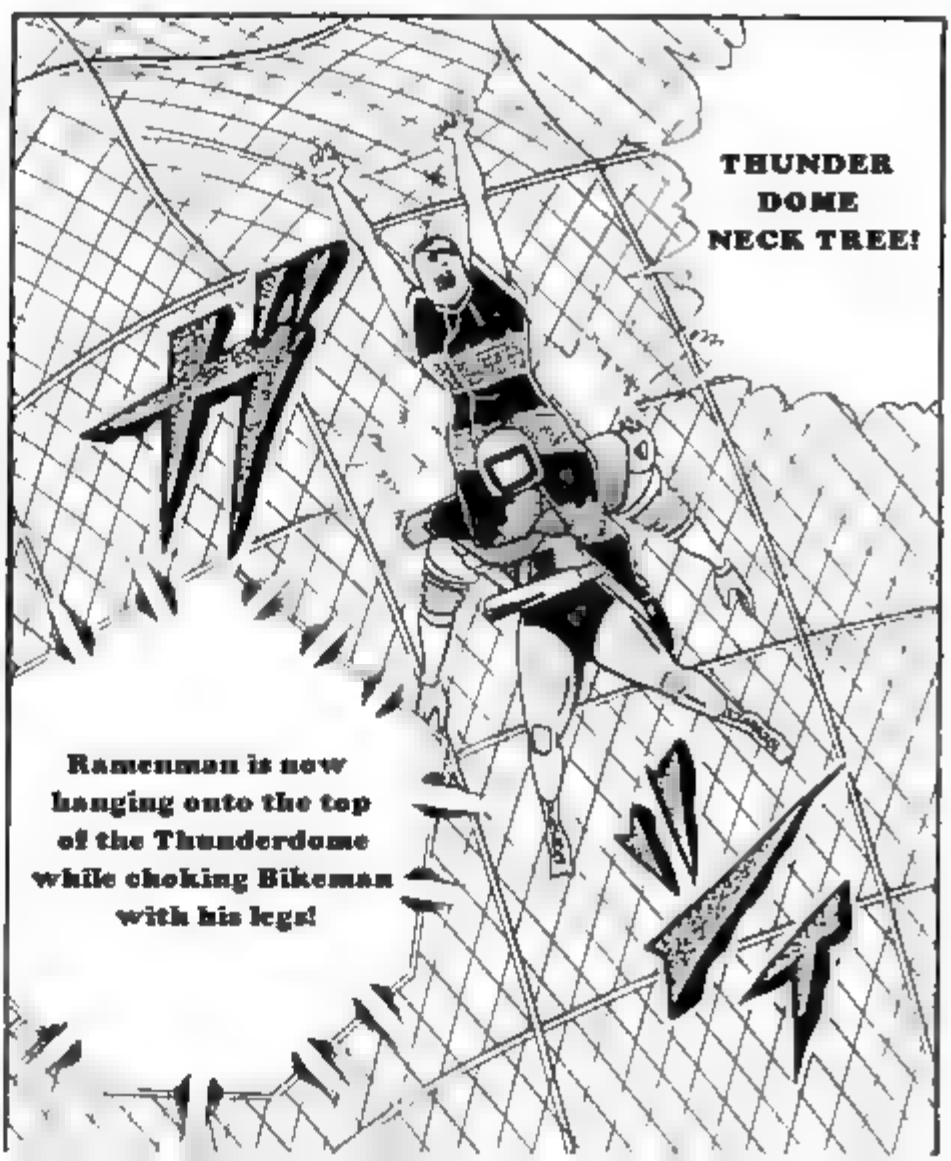
You'll be defenceless!
So if I cut you off from your main method of attack...

And Ramenman slams Bikeman with a lightning quick Fisherman Suplex!
He's finally healed his wounds and conquered his fears of wire-screens!
Good job, Ramenman!
Hiyah!

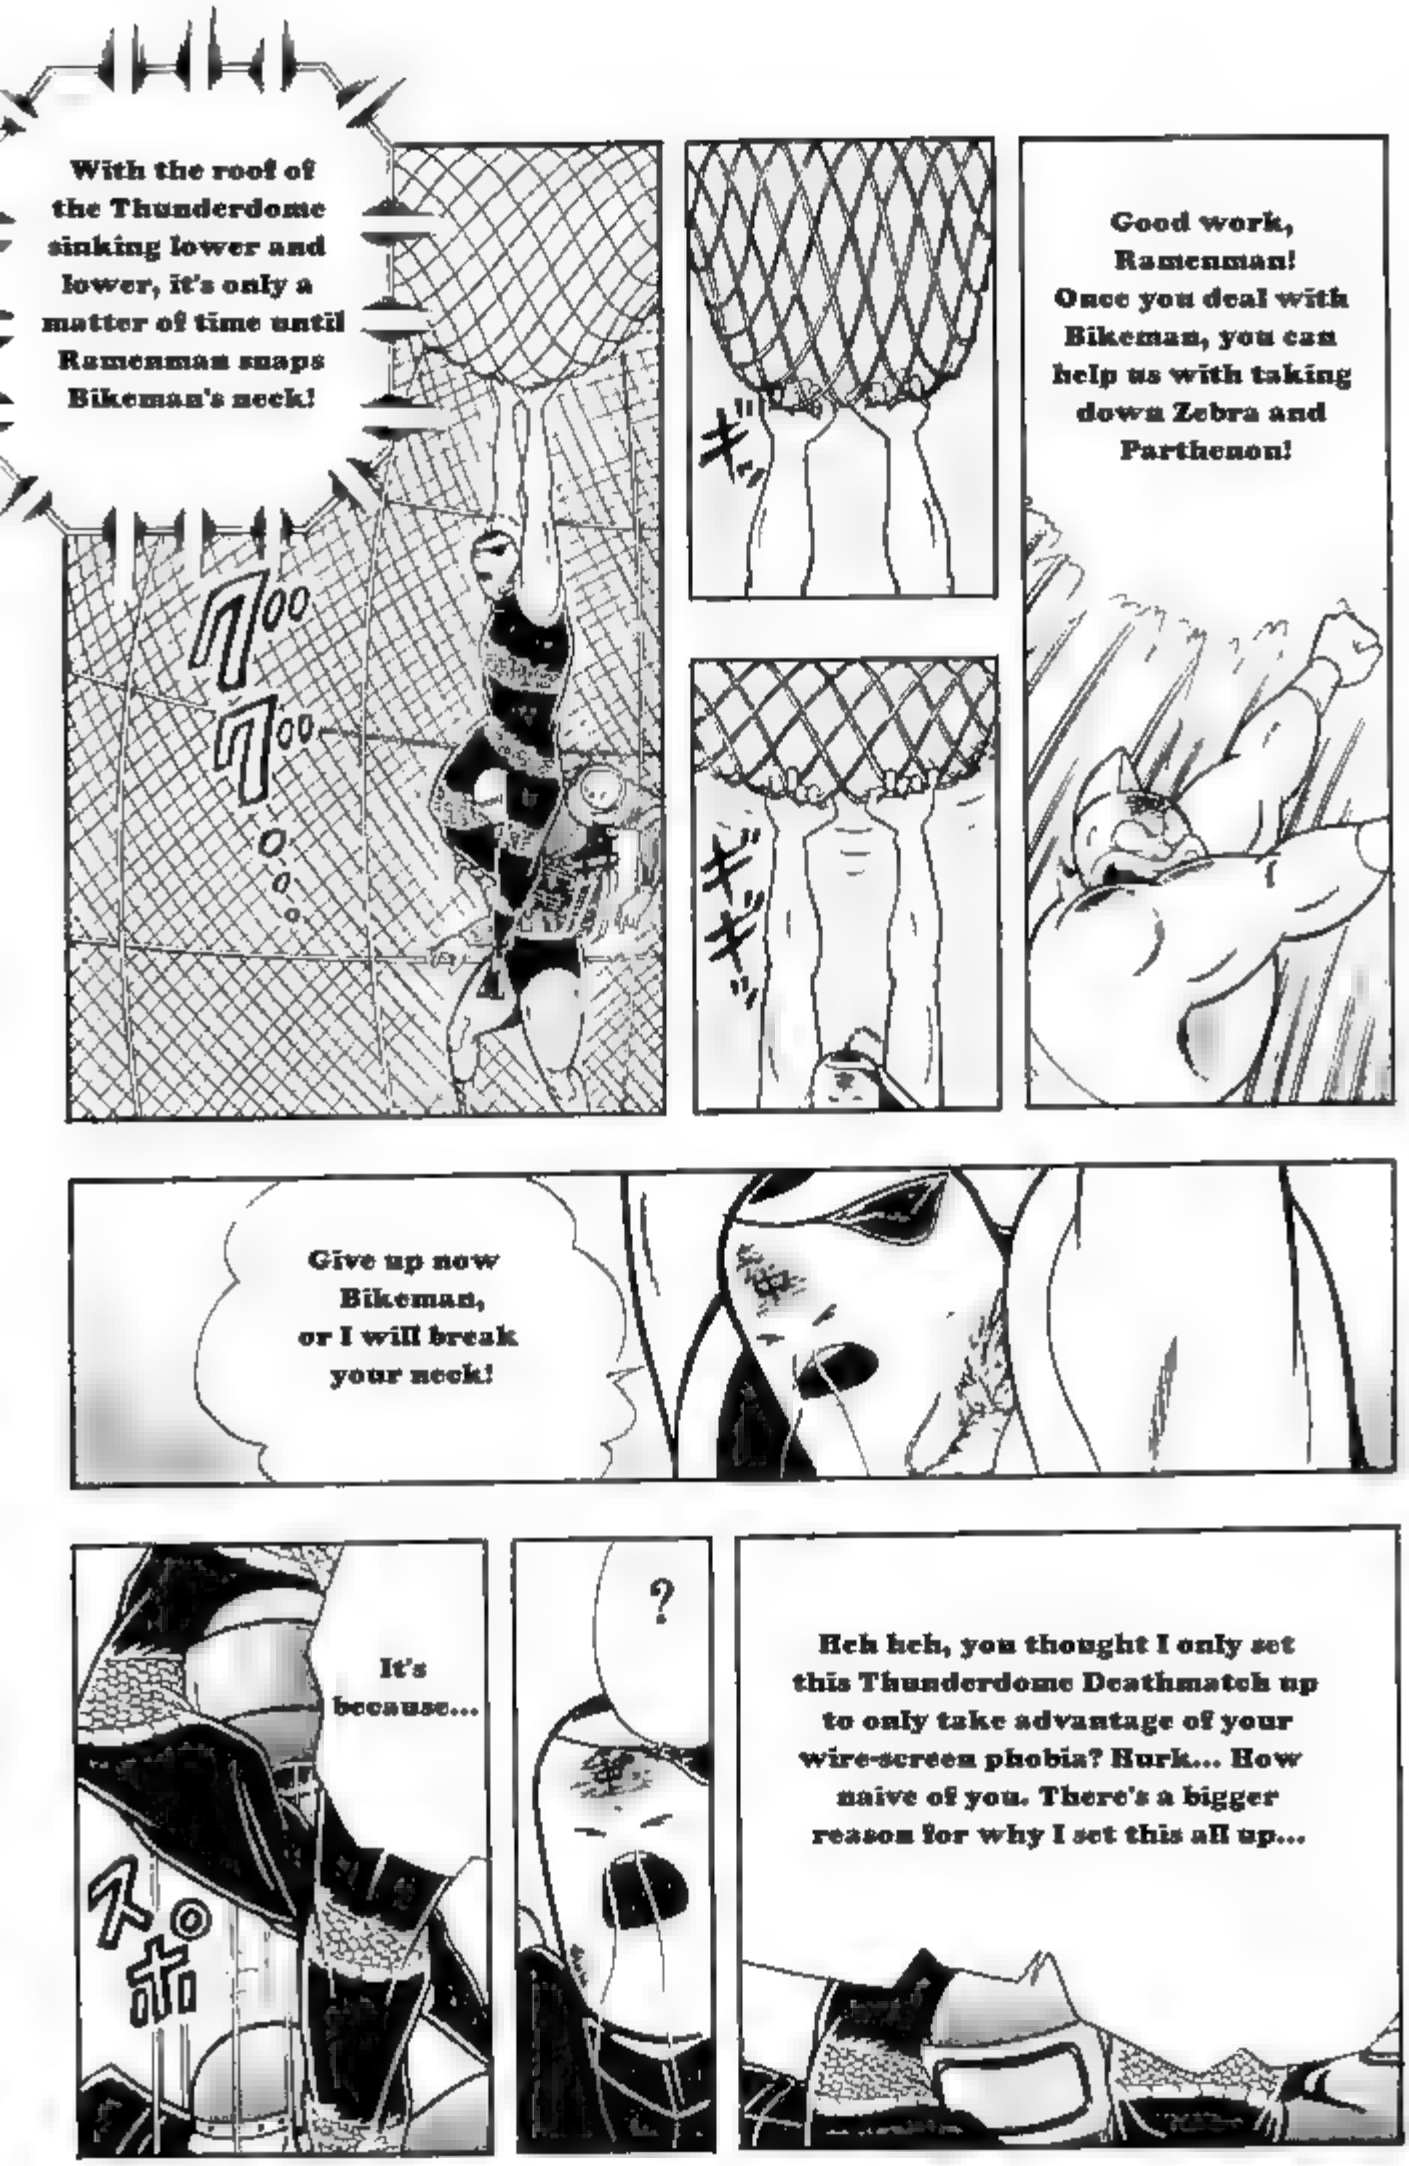
ガチ

Bikeman has now been flung high up into the air with an Airplane Spin!
And now it looks like Ramenman is trying to outrace Bikeman's ascent!

It looks like his once greatest fear is now another weapon for him to use. Nothing less was expected of your genius, Ramenman.



THUNDER DOME NECK TREE!
Ramenman is now hanging onto the top of the Thunderdome while choking Bikeman with his legs!



With the roof of the Thunderdome sinking lower and lower, it's only a matter of time until Ramenman snaps Bikeman's neck!
Good work, Ramenman! Once you deal with Bikeman, you can help us with taking down Zebra and Parthenon!
Give up now Bikeman, or I will break your neck!
It's because...
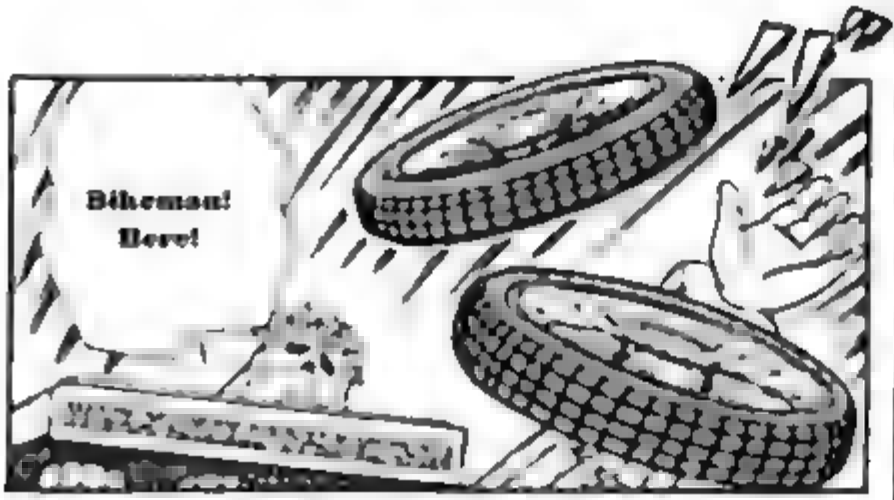
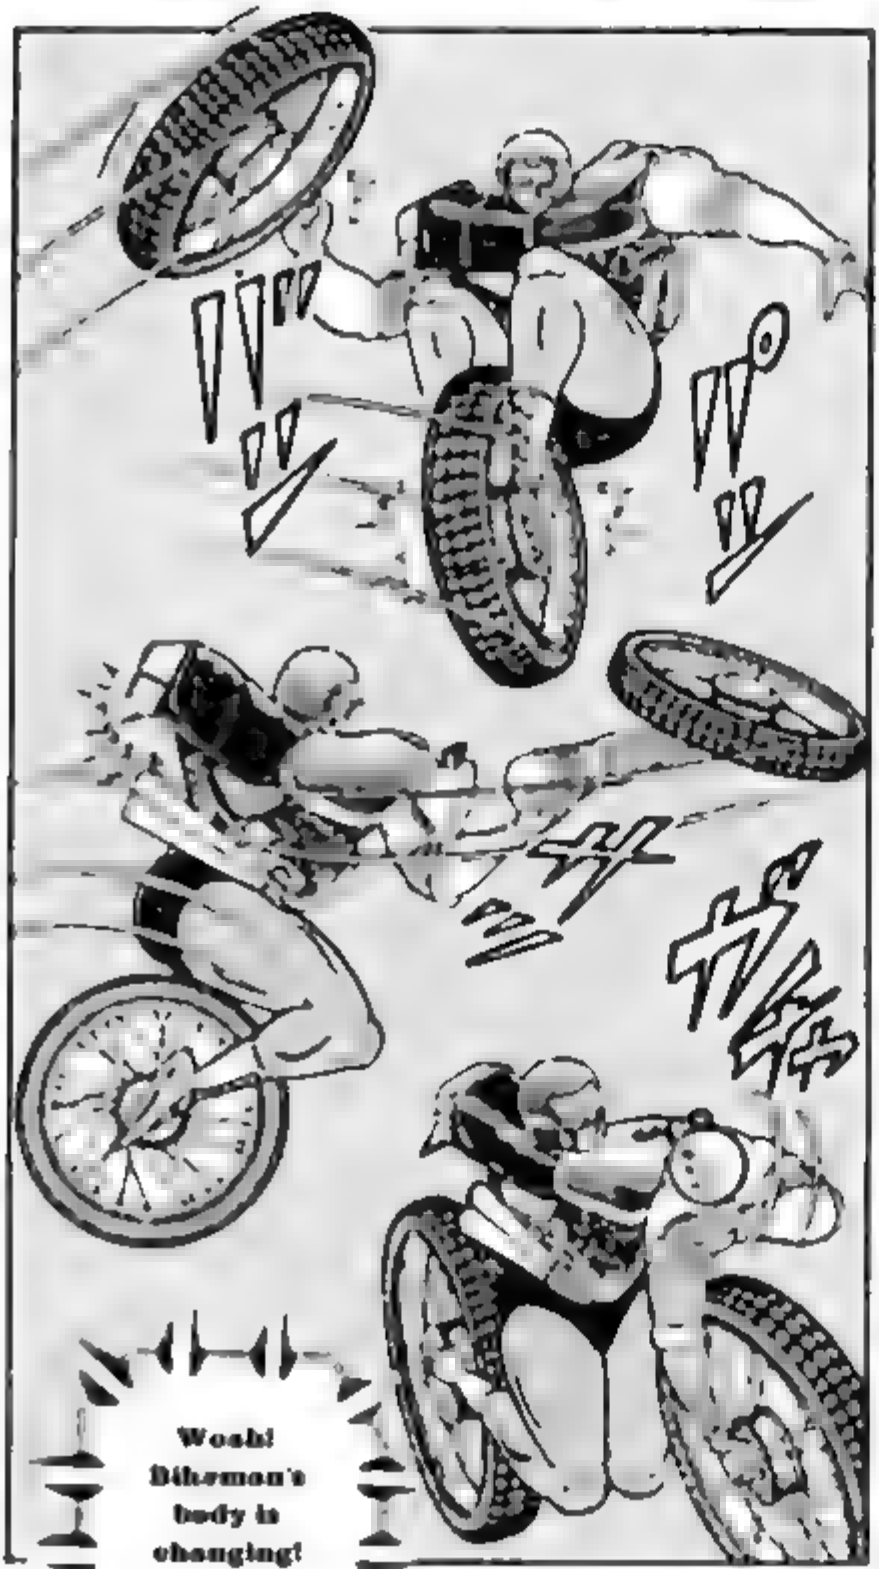
Heh heh, you thought I only set this Thunderdome Deathmatch up to only take advantage of your wire-screen phobia? Hurk... How naive of you. There's a bigger reason for why I set this all up...

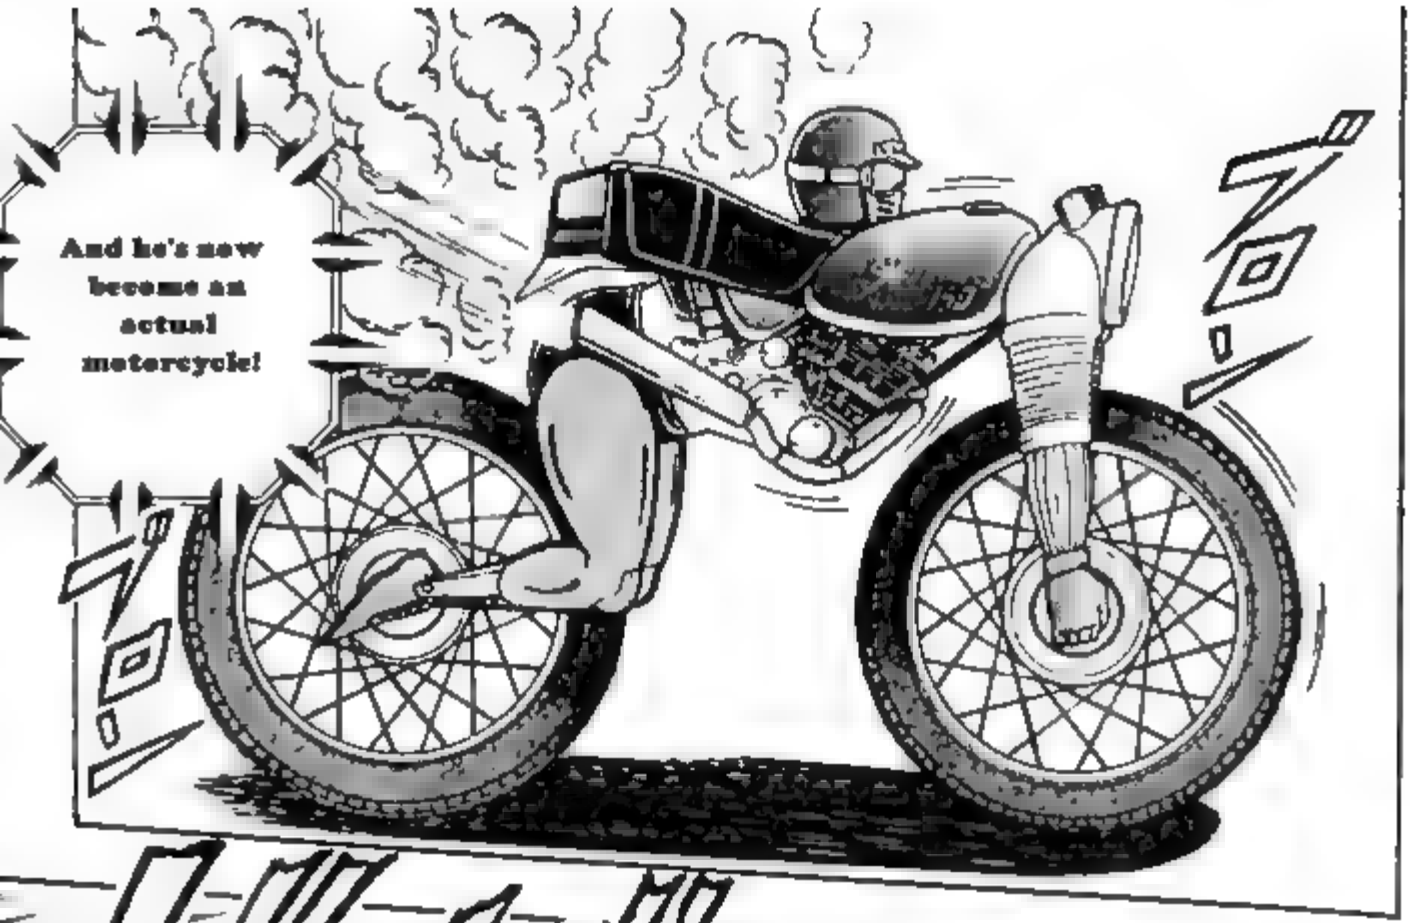


Bikeman! Here!

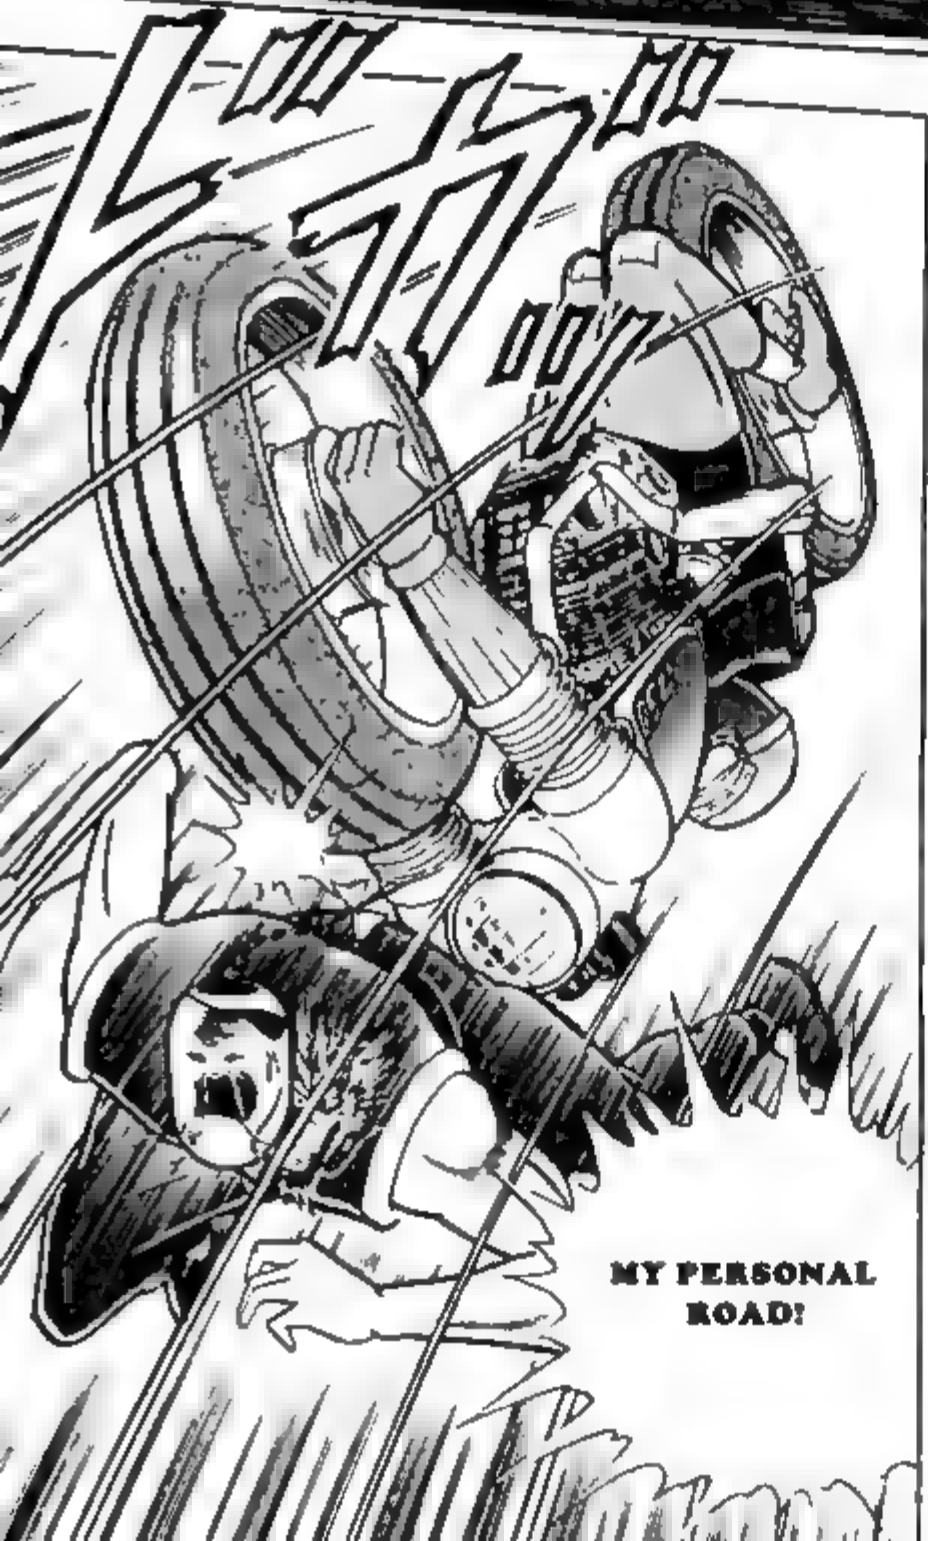


Woah! Bikeman's body is changing!

Bikeman has slipped out of Rameumon's hold by taking his helmet off! He's now falling to the ring!



And he's now become an actual motorcycle!



MY PERSONAL ROAD!

This Thunderdome is...

RAMENMAN VS. BIKEMAN

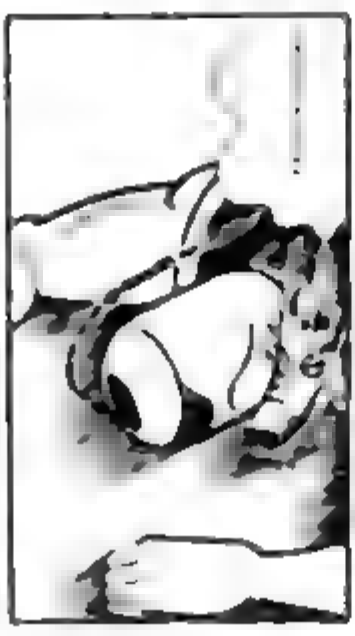
Scramble for the Kinniku Throne (38)

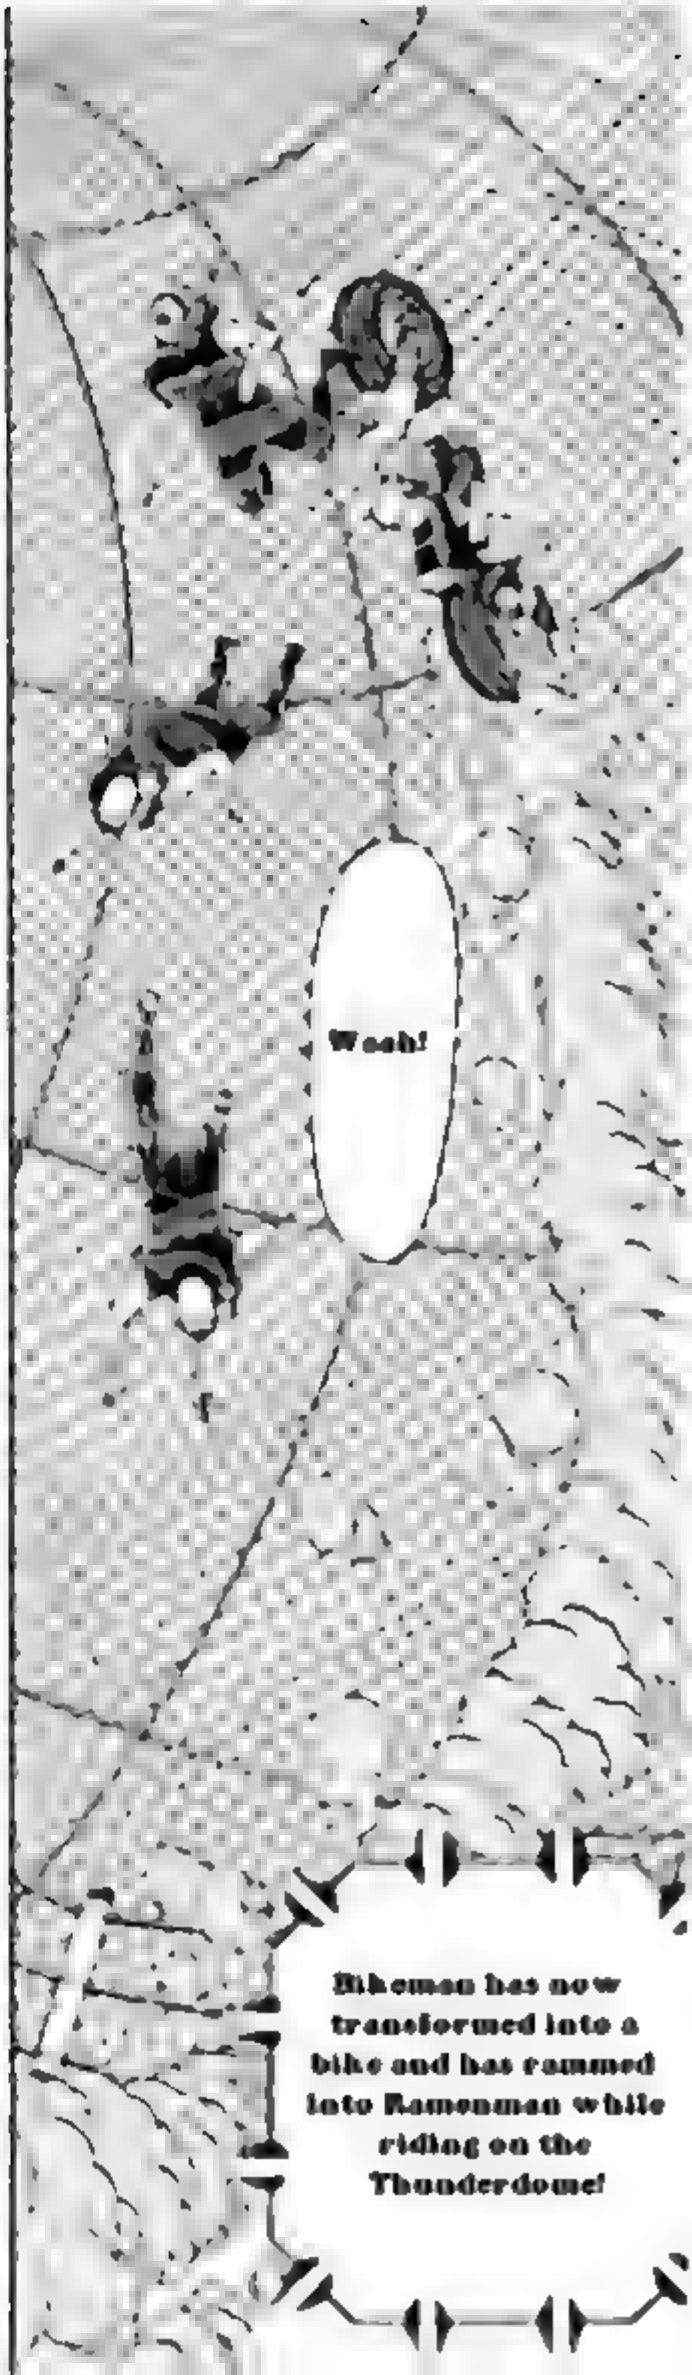
Running Amuck! Bikeman!!

A TEAM KINNIKU RELEASE

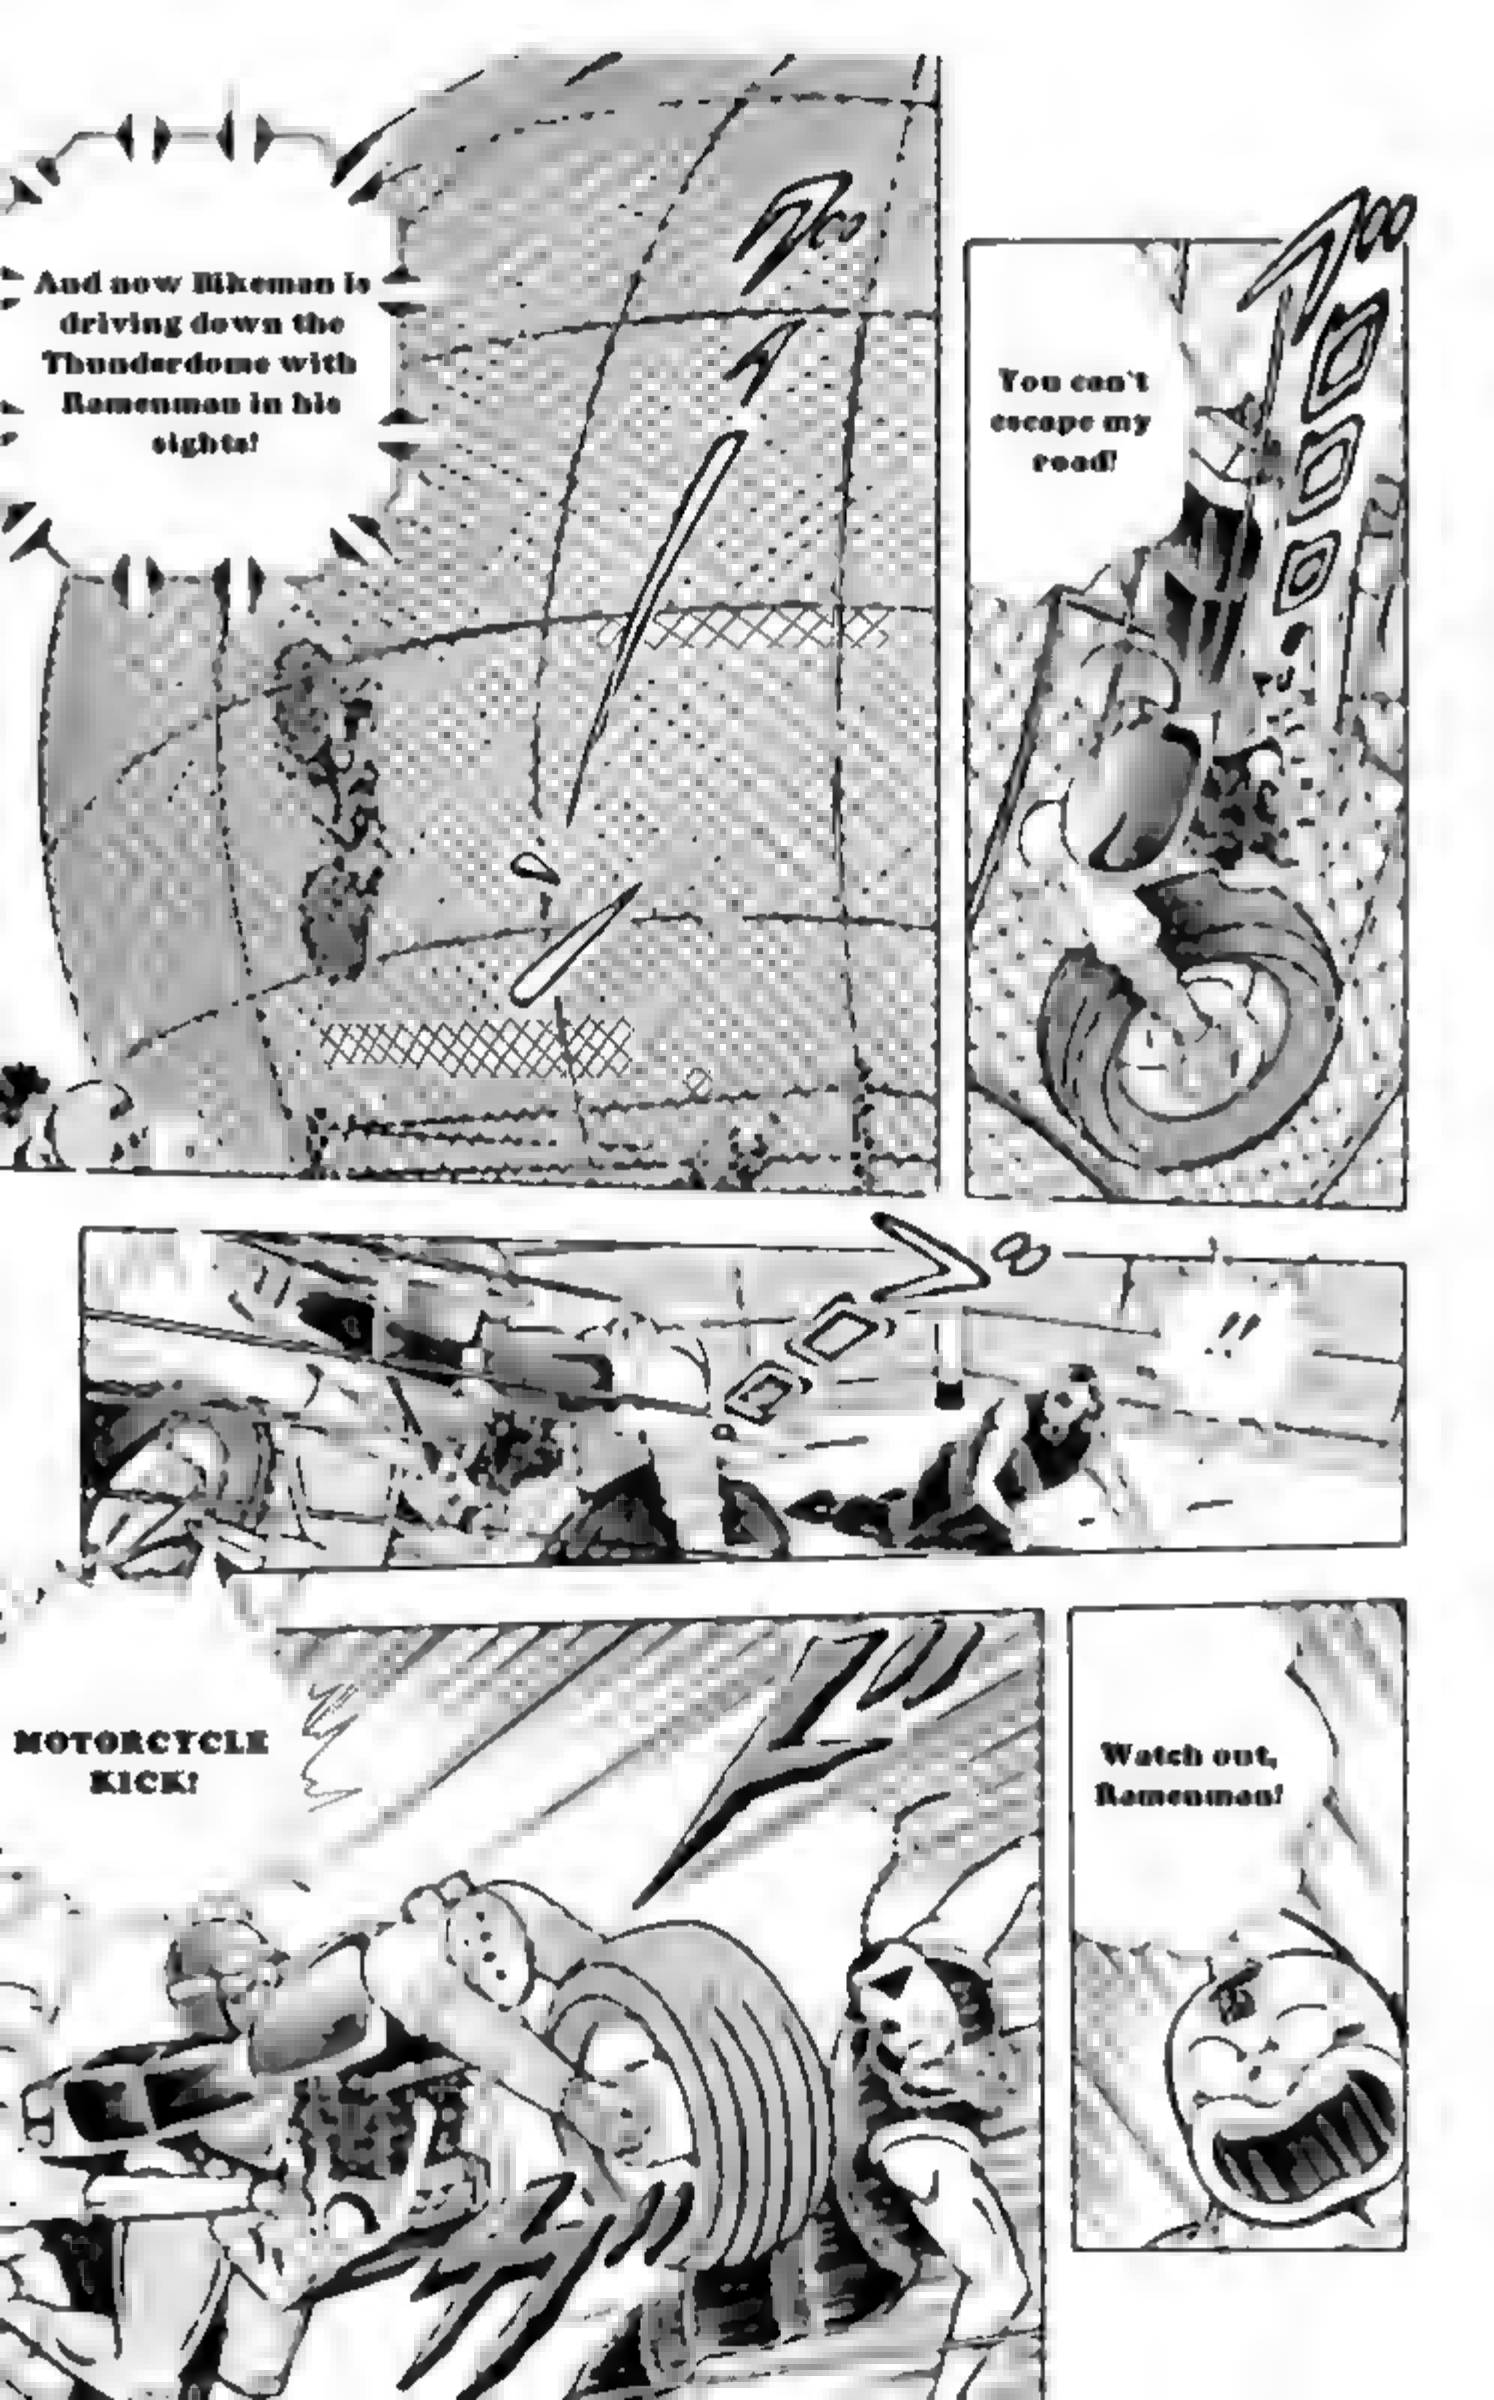
Ramenman!

Uh...

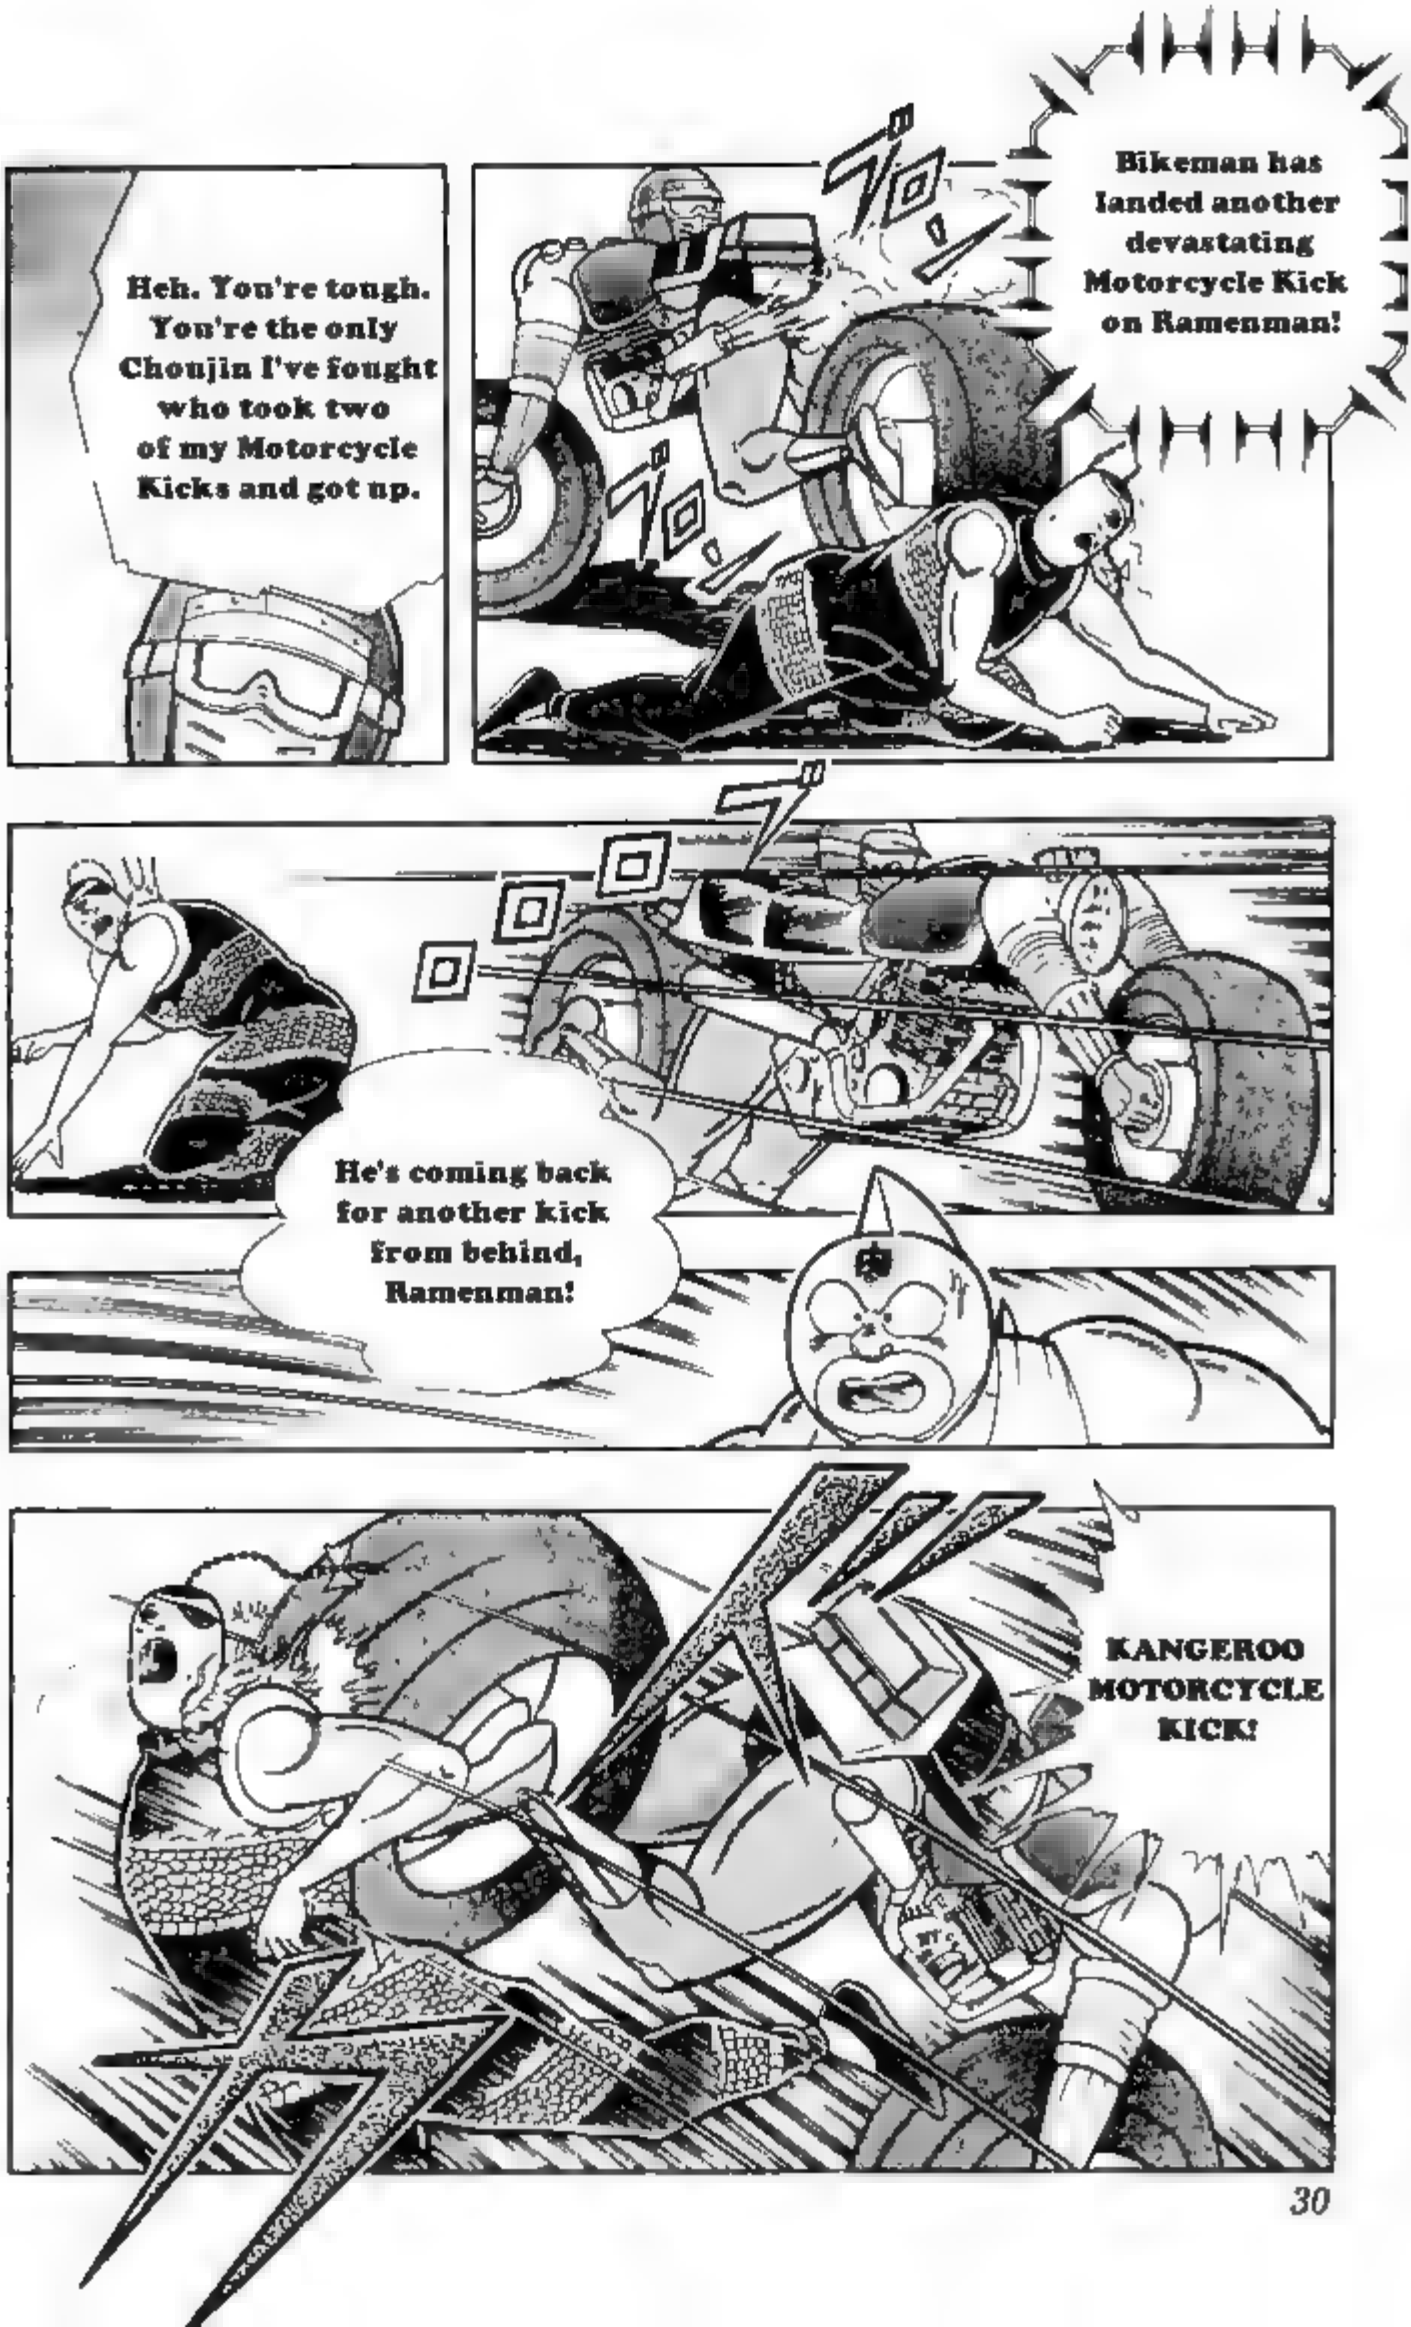




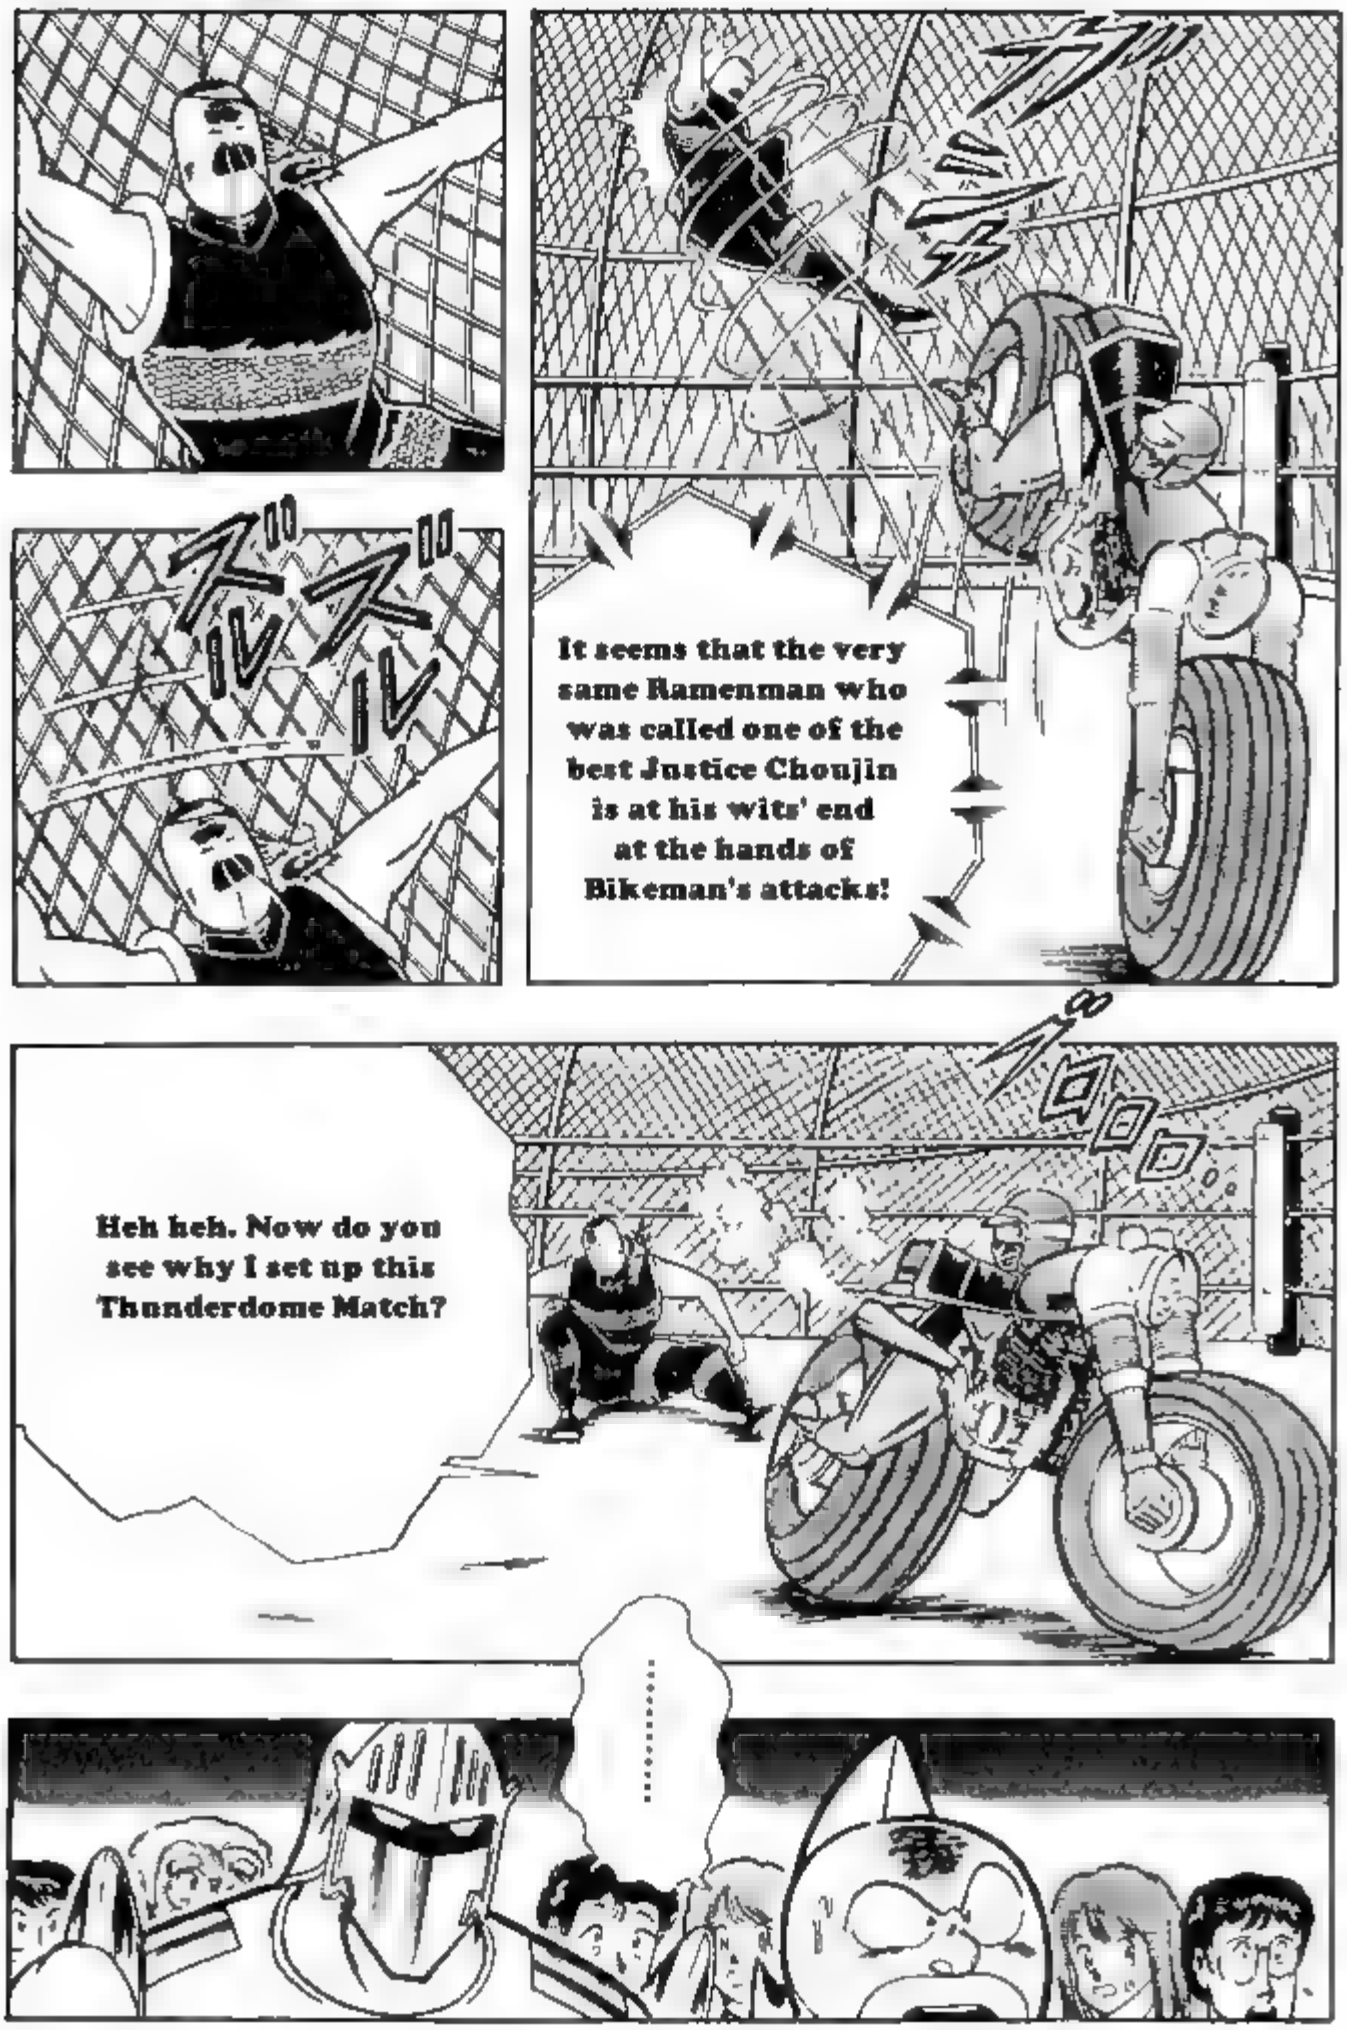
Woah!
Bikeman has now transformed into a bike and has rammed into Ramenman while riding on the Thunderdome!



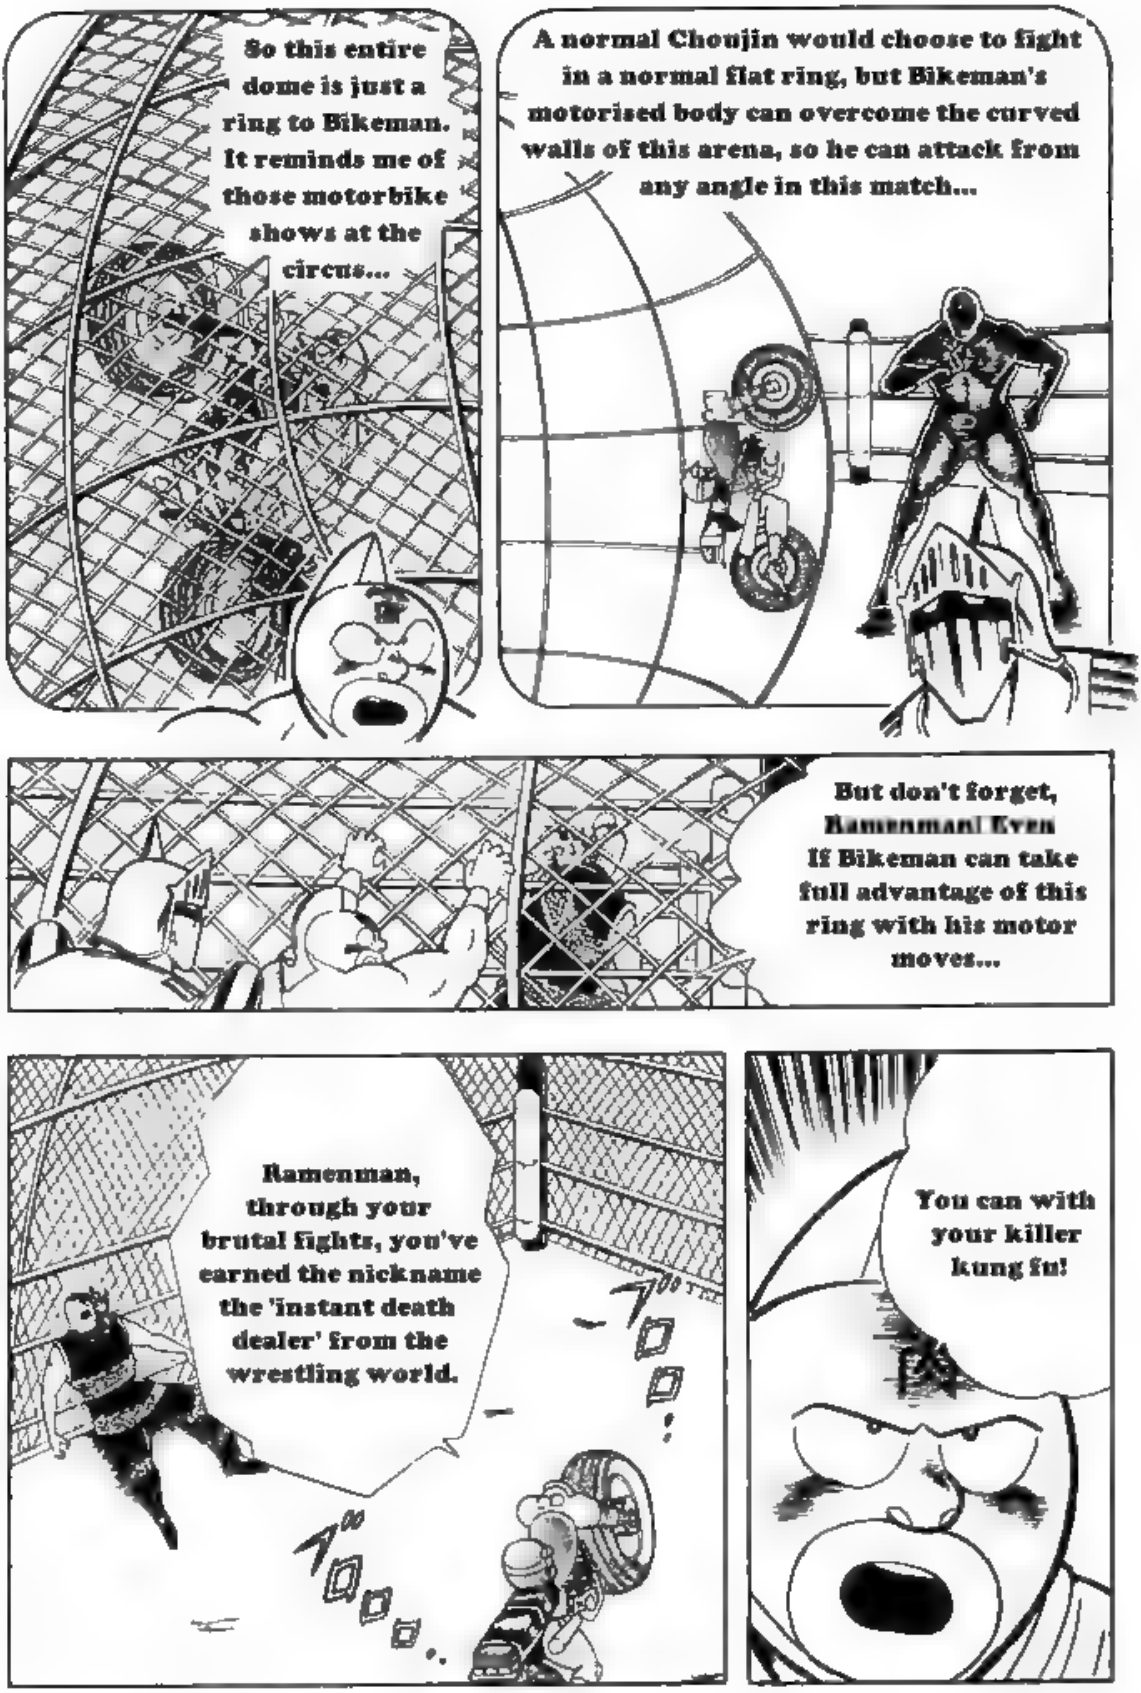
And now Bikeman is driving down the Thunderdome with Rememman in his sights!
You can't escape my road!
!!
MOTORCYCLE KICK!
Watch out, Rememman!



Heh. You're tough. You're the only Choujin I've fought who took two of my Motorcycle Kicks and got up.
Bikeman has landed another devastating Motorcycle Kick on Ramenman!
He's coming back for another kick from behind, Ramenman!
KANGEROO MOTORCYCLE KICK!



It seems that the very same Ramenman who was called one of the best Justice Choujin is at his wits' end at the hands of Bikeman's attacks!
Heh heh. Now do you see why I set up this Thunderdome Match?



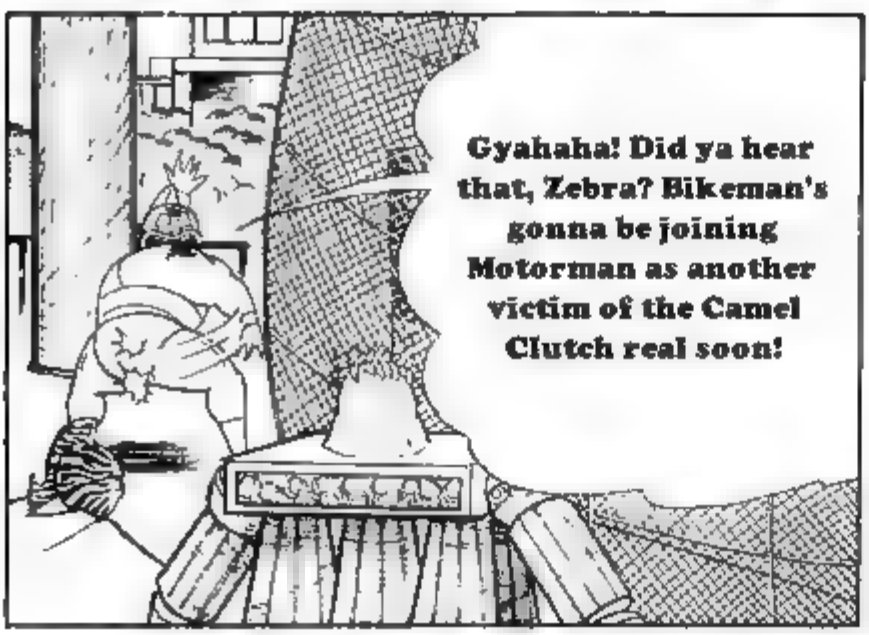
So this entire dome is just a ring to Bikeman. It reminds me of those motorbike shows at the circus...
A normal Choujin would choose to fight in a normal flat ring, but Bikeman's motorised body can overcome the curved walls of this arena, so he can attack from any angle in this match...
But don't forget, Ramenman! Even if Bikeman can take full advantage of this ring with his motor moves...
Ramenman, through your brutal fights, you've earned the nickname the 'instant death dealer' from the wrestling world.
You can with your killer kung fu!

Bikeman's already aiming to finish off Ramenman even before a single minute has passed!
But that changes today! I'll be taking that title from you after this match!
Get out of the way, Ramenman!
With that much speed, Ramenman's going to get run over!
Die!

Ramenman narrowly avoids being run over by jumping onto Bikeman's seat!
WILD HORSE SADDLE STEAL!
You can do it, Ramenman! Just hold Bikeman as he is and crash him into the Thunderdome!
Good job surprising him!
It looks like both Bikeman and Ramenman are going to both crash into the dome!
I was planning to do just that!

But only Bikeman was driven into the dome!
Urgh...
Wee-hee! Ramenman slammed Bikeman into the dome with a Bulldogging Headlock!

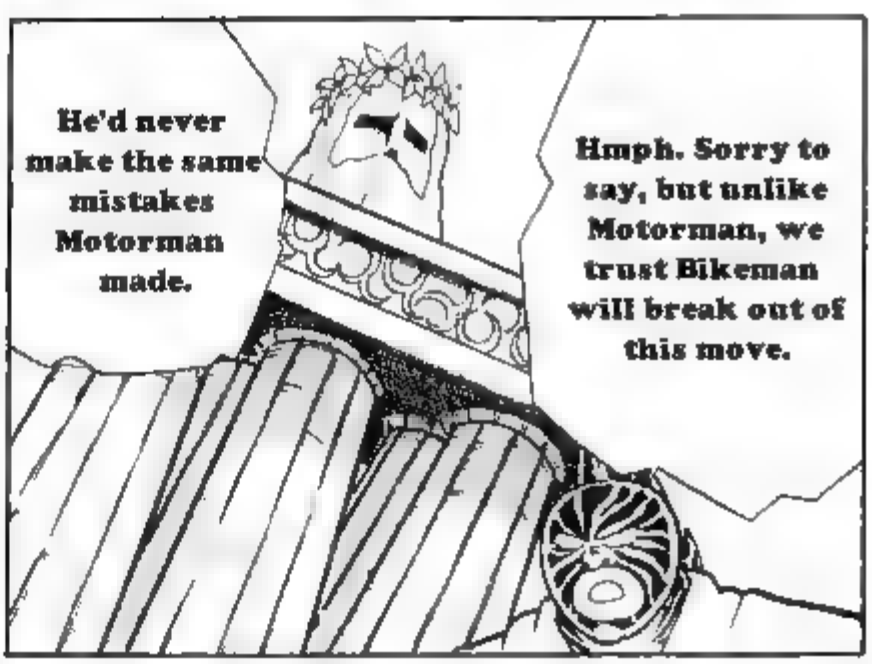
Oooh...
And instantly after Bikeman reverted to his human form, Ramenman's got him in his invincible Camel Clutch!!



Gyahaha! Did ya hear that, Zebra? Bikeman's gonna be joining Motorman as another victim of the Camel Clutch real soon!

Excellent. With that perfect execution and technique, Bikeman will either give up or share Motorman's fate.

What's wrong with them? Even when Bikeman's going to be torn in two, they're so calm about it...



He'd never make the same mistakes Motorman made.
Hmph. Sorry to say, but unlike Motorman, we trust Bikeman will break out of this move.

But now I'm Ramenman, The Brutal Fighter! I won't stop pulling until your body is torn apart!
If I was still Mongolman, I'd stop this clutch to preserve that identity...
グオオ

Heh heh, that's good. I was worried you'd let me go.

Since it wouldn't be as fun as countering it.
He's finally using the Control Tire...

Alright, Ramenman! This match is in the bag!
Aha!
Ramenman! Look behind you!
One of Bikeman's tires seems to be heading straight for Ramenman's back!
Ramenman, did you already forget that this 360-degree ring is my specialty?

O-oh no!

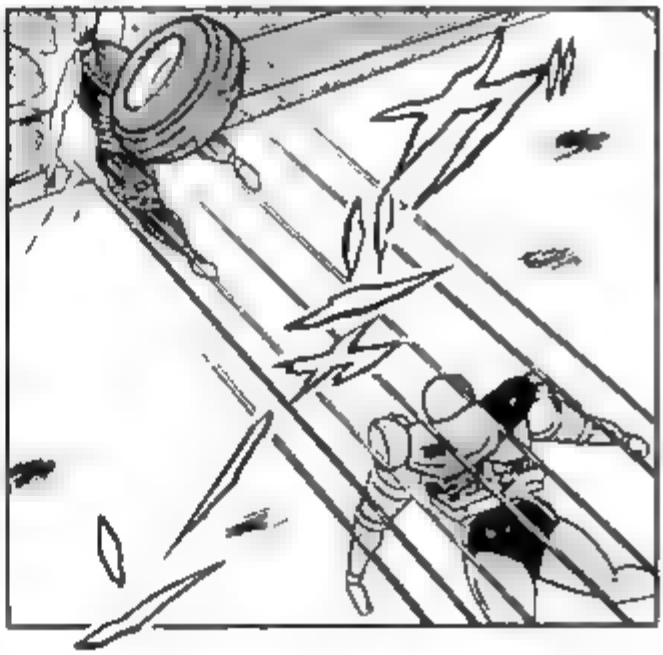
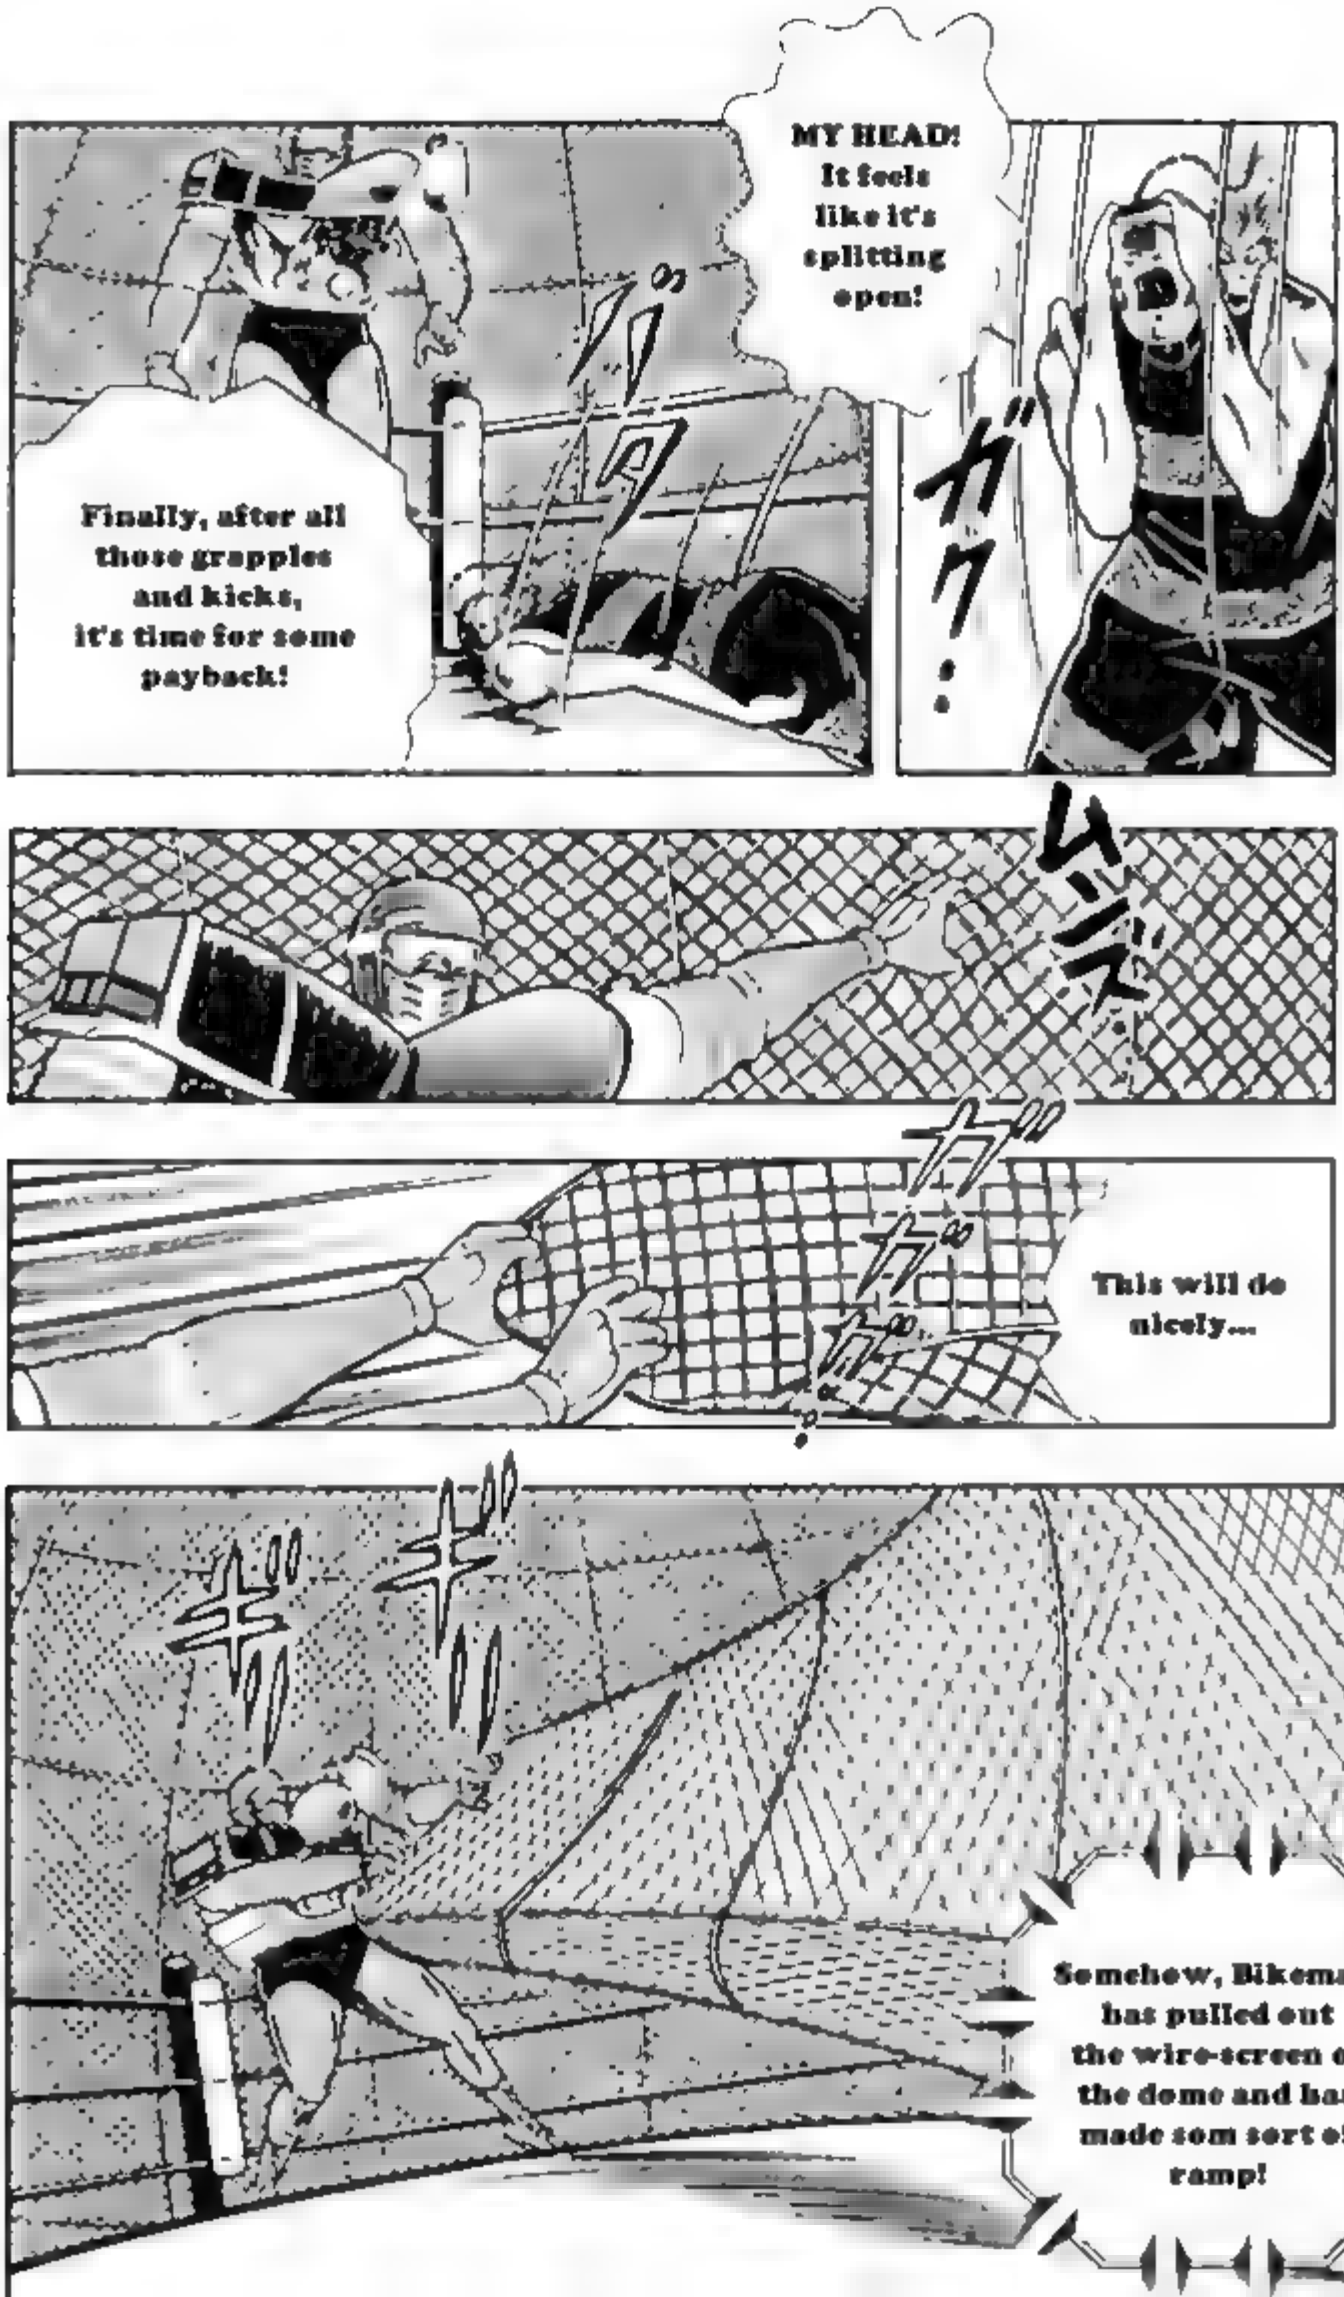
Ramenman isn't looking so hot after that collision!
Oooh...



The pain of such a wound opening up again must be unbearable for him.
It looks like that old wound from his match with Warsman has opened up again.
Ramenman!



MY HEAD! It feels like it's splitting open!
Finally, after all those grapples and kicks, it's time for some payback!
This will do nicely...
Somehow, Bikeman has pulled out the wire-screen of the dome and has made som sort of ramp!

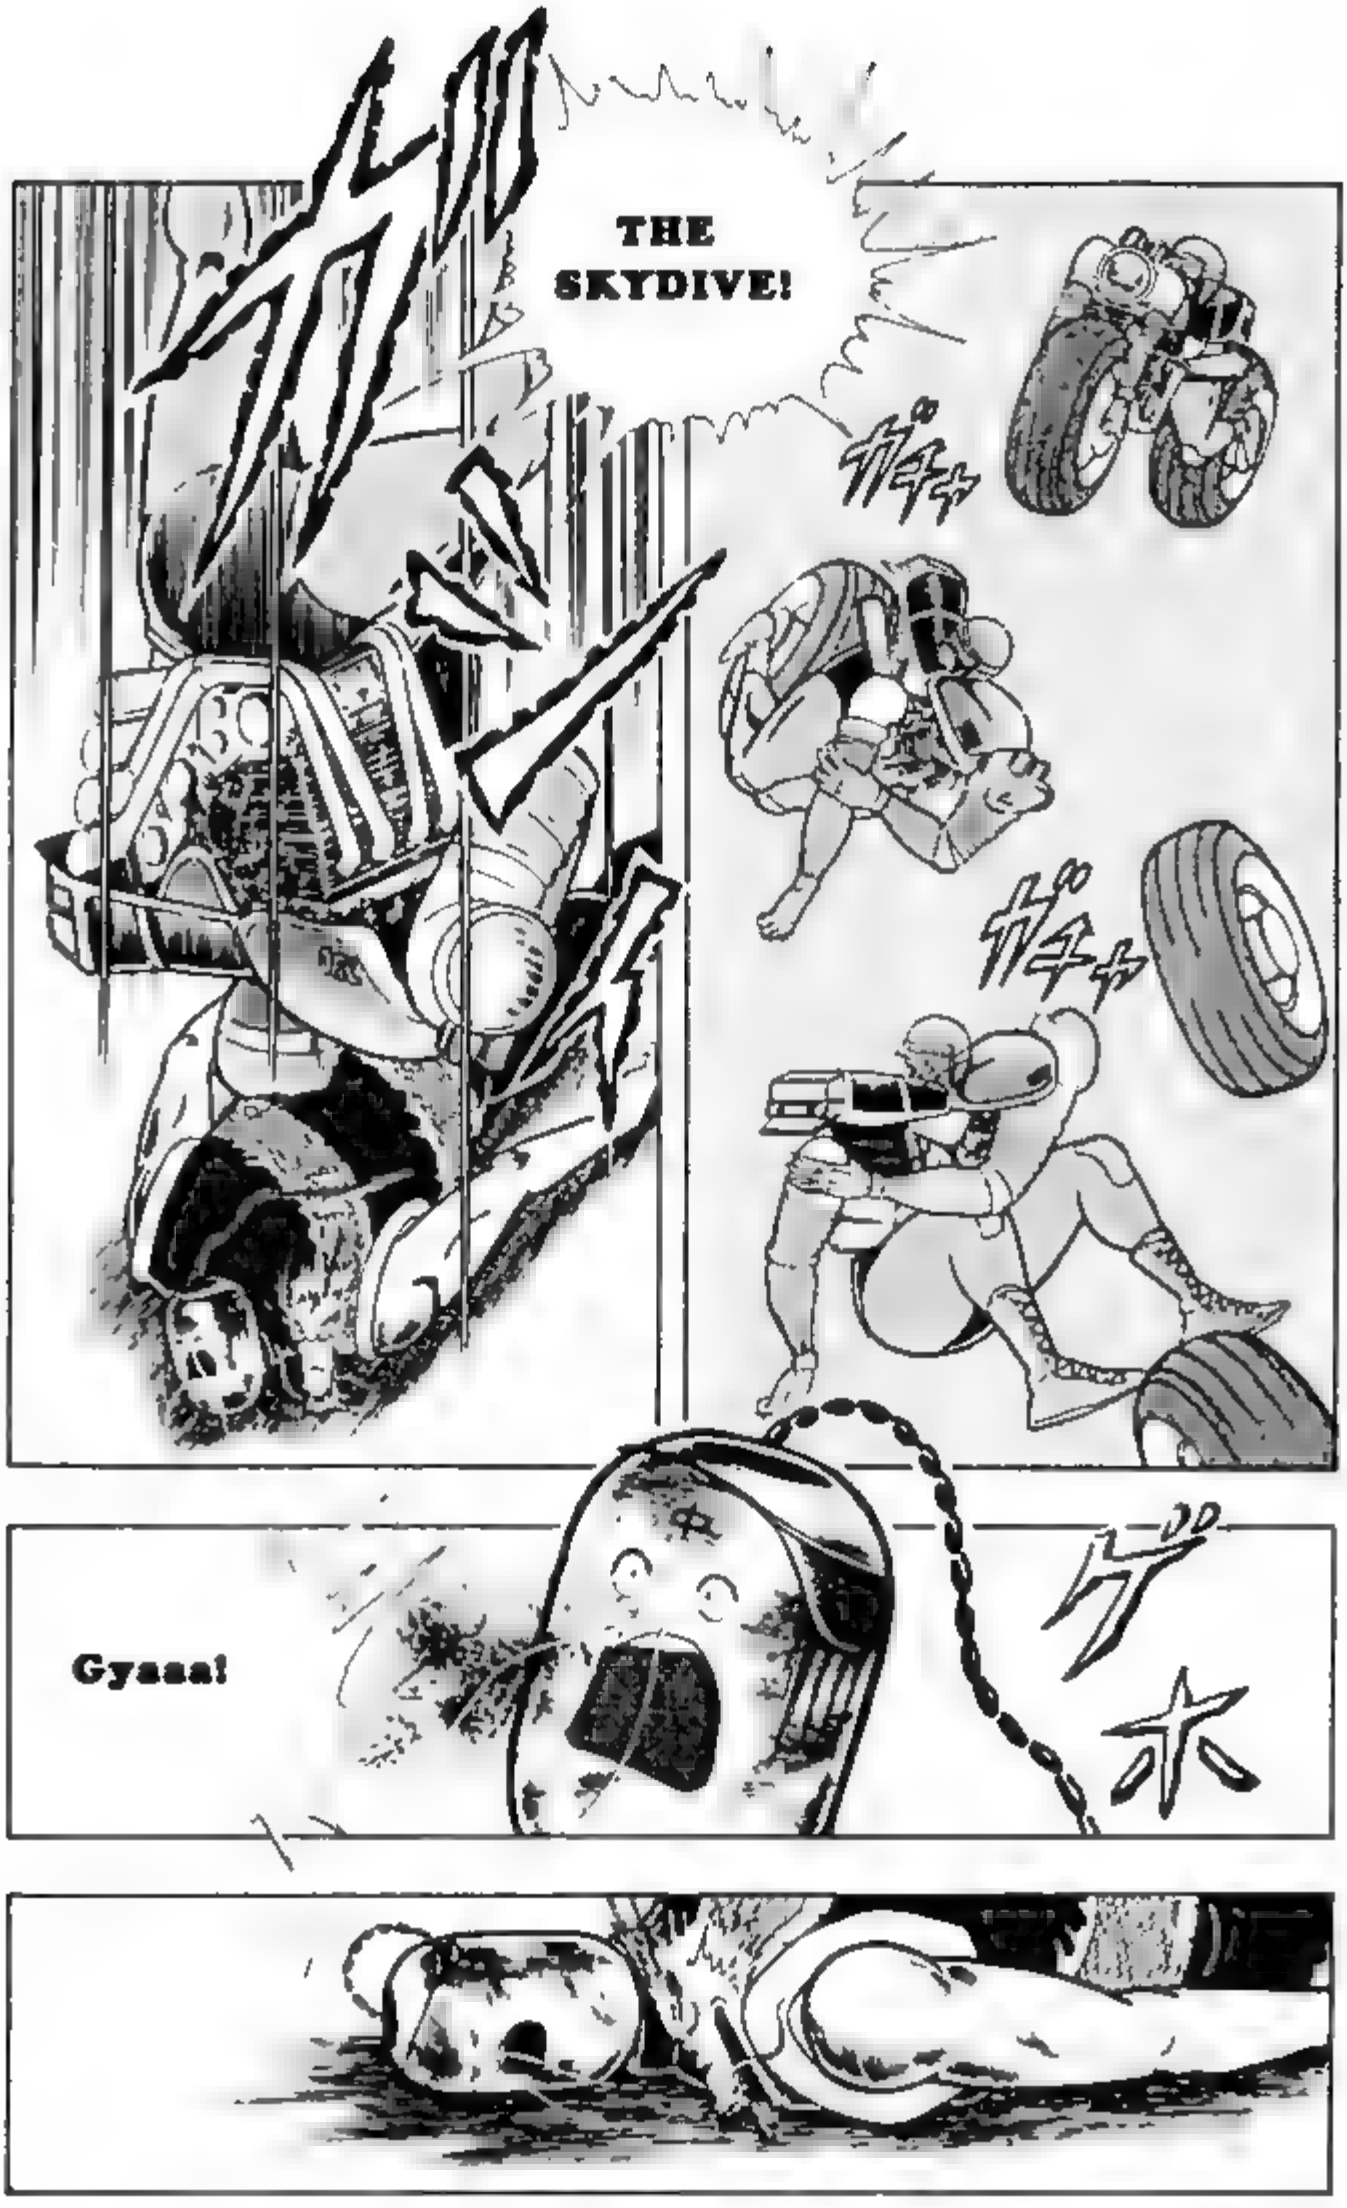
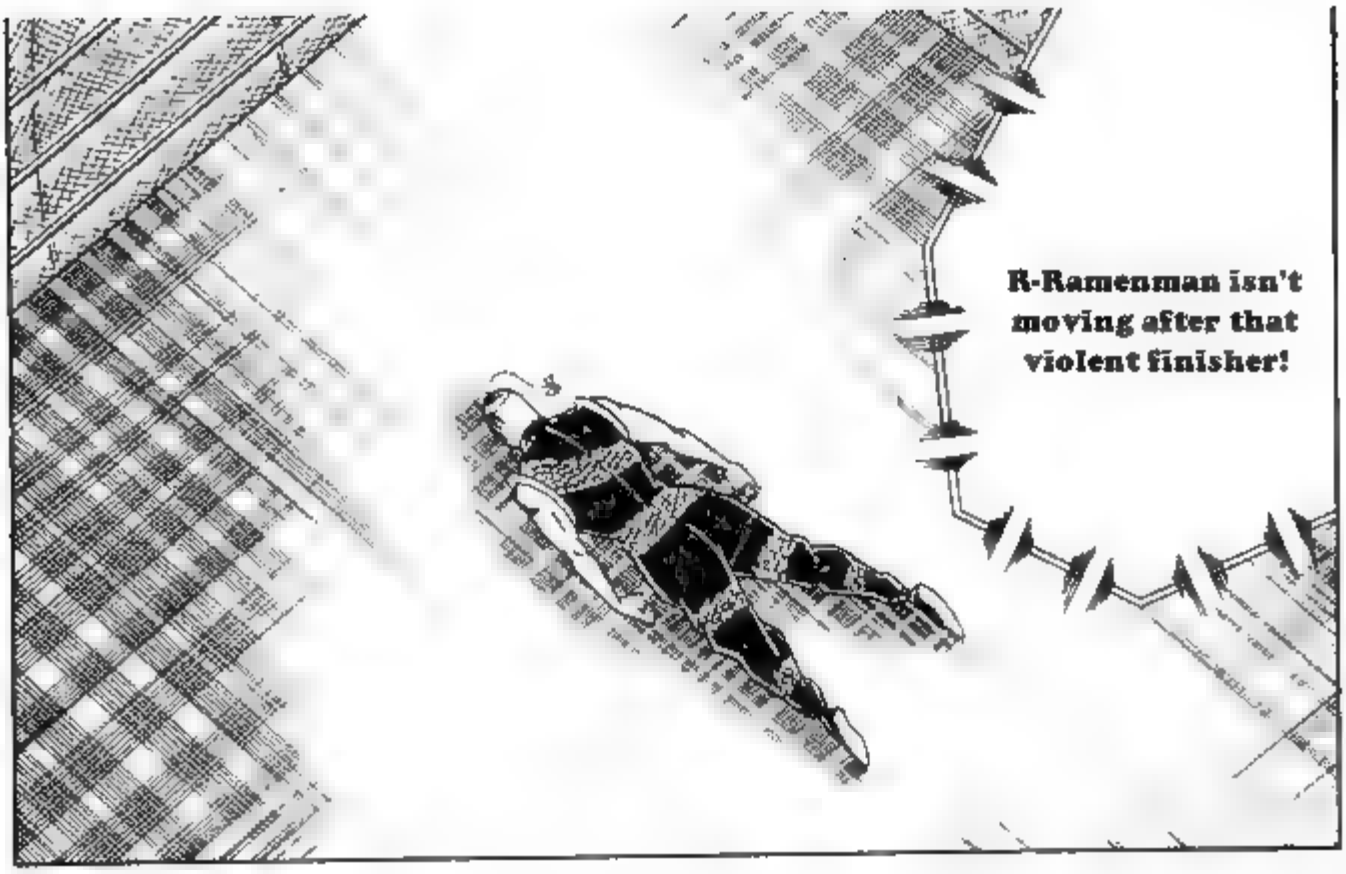
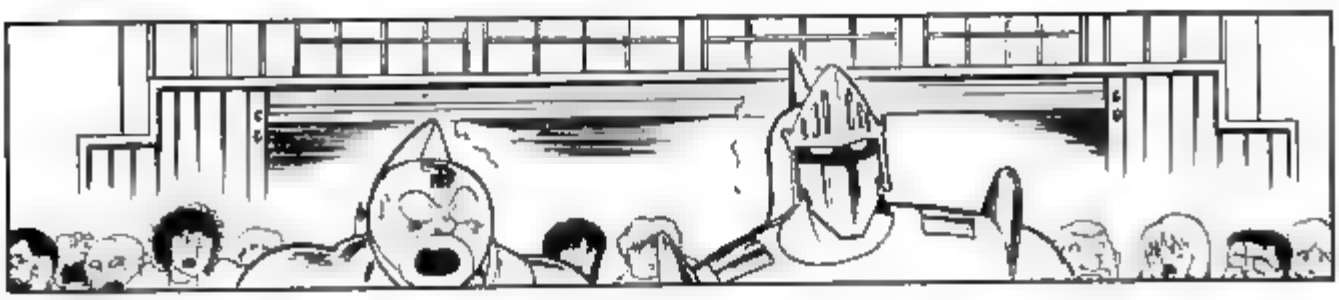
Bikeman's become a motorbike and is driving incredibly fast towards the ramp!

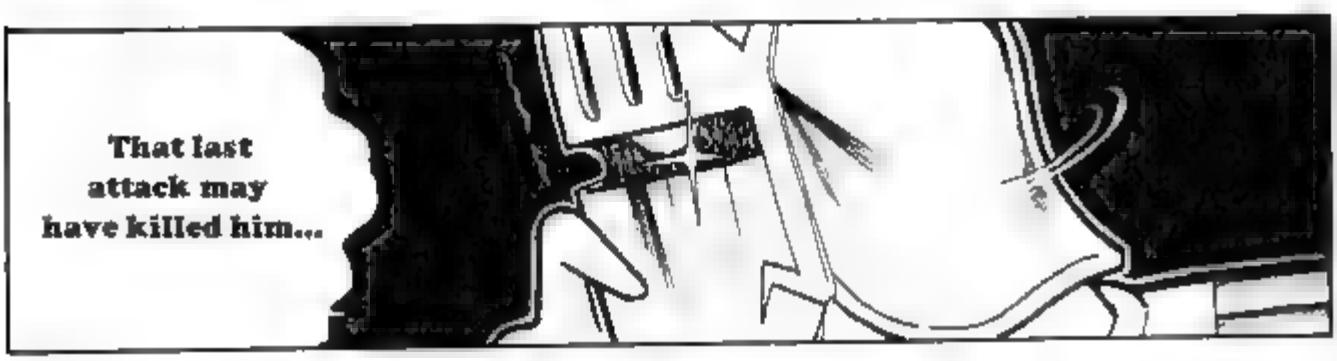


THE SKYDIVE!
Gyaaa!



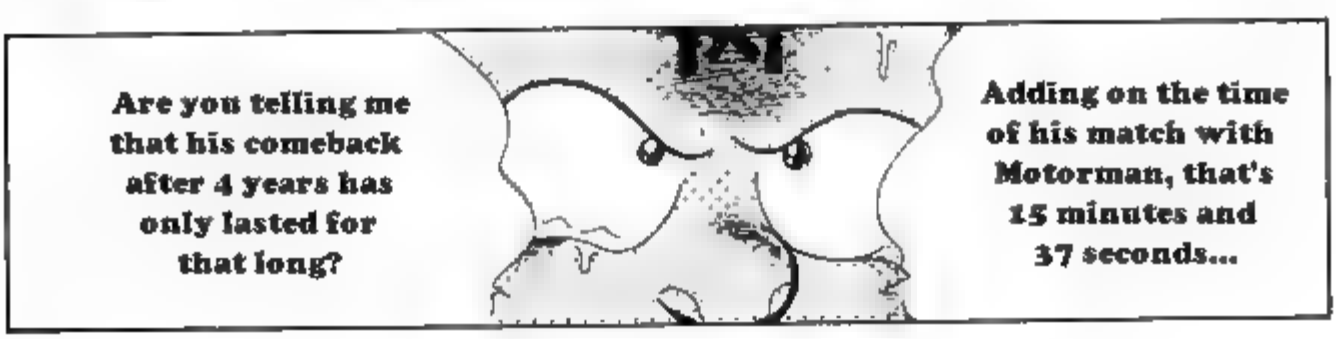
R-Ramenman isn't moving after that violent finisher!



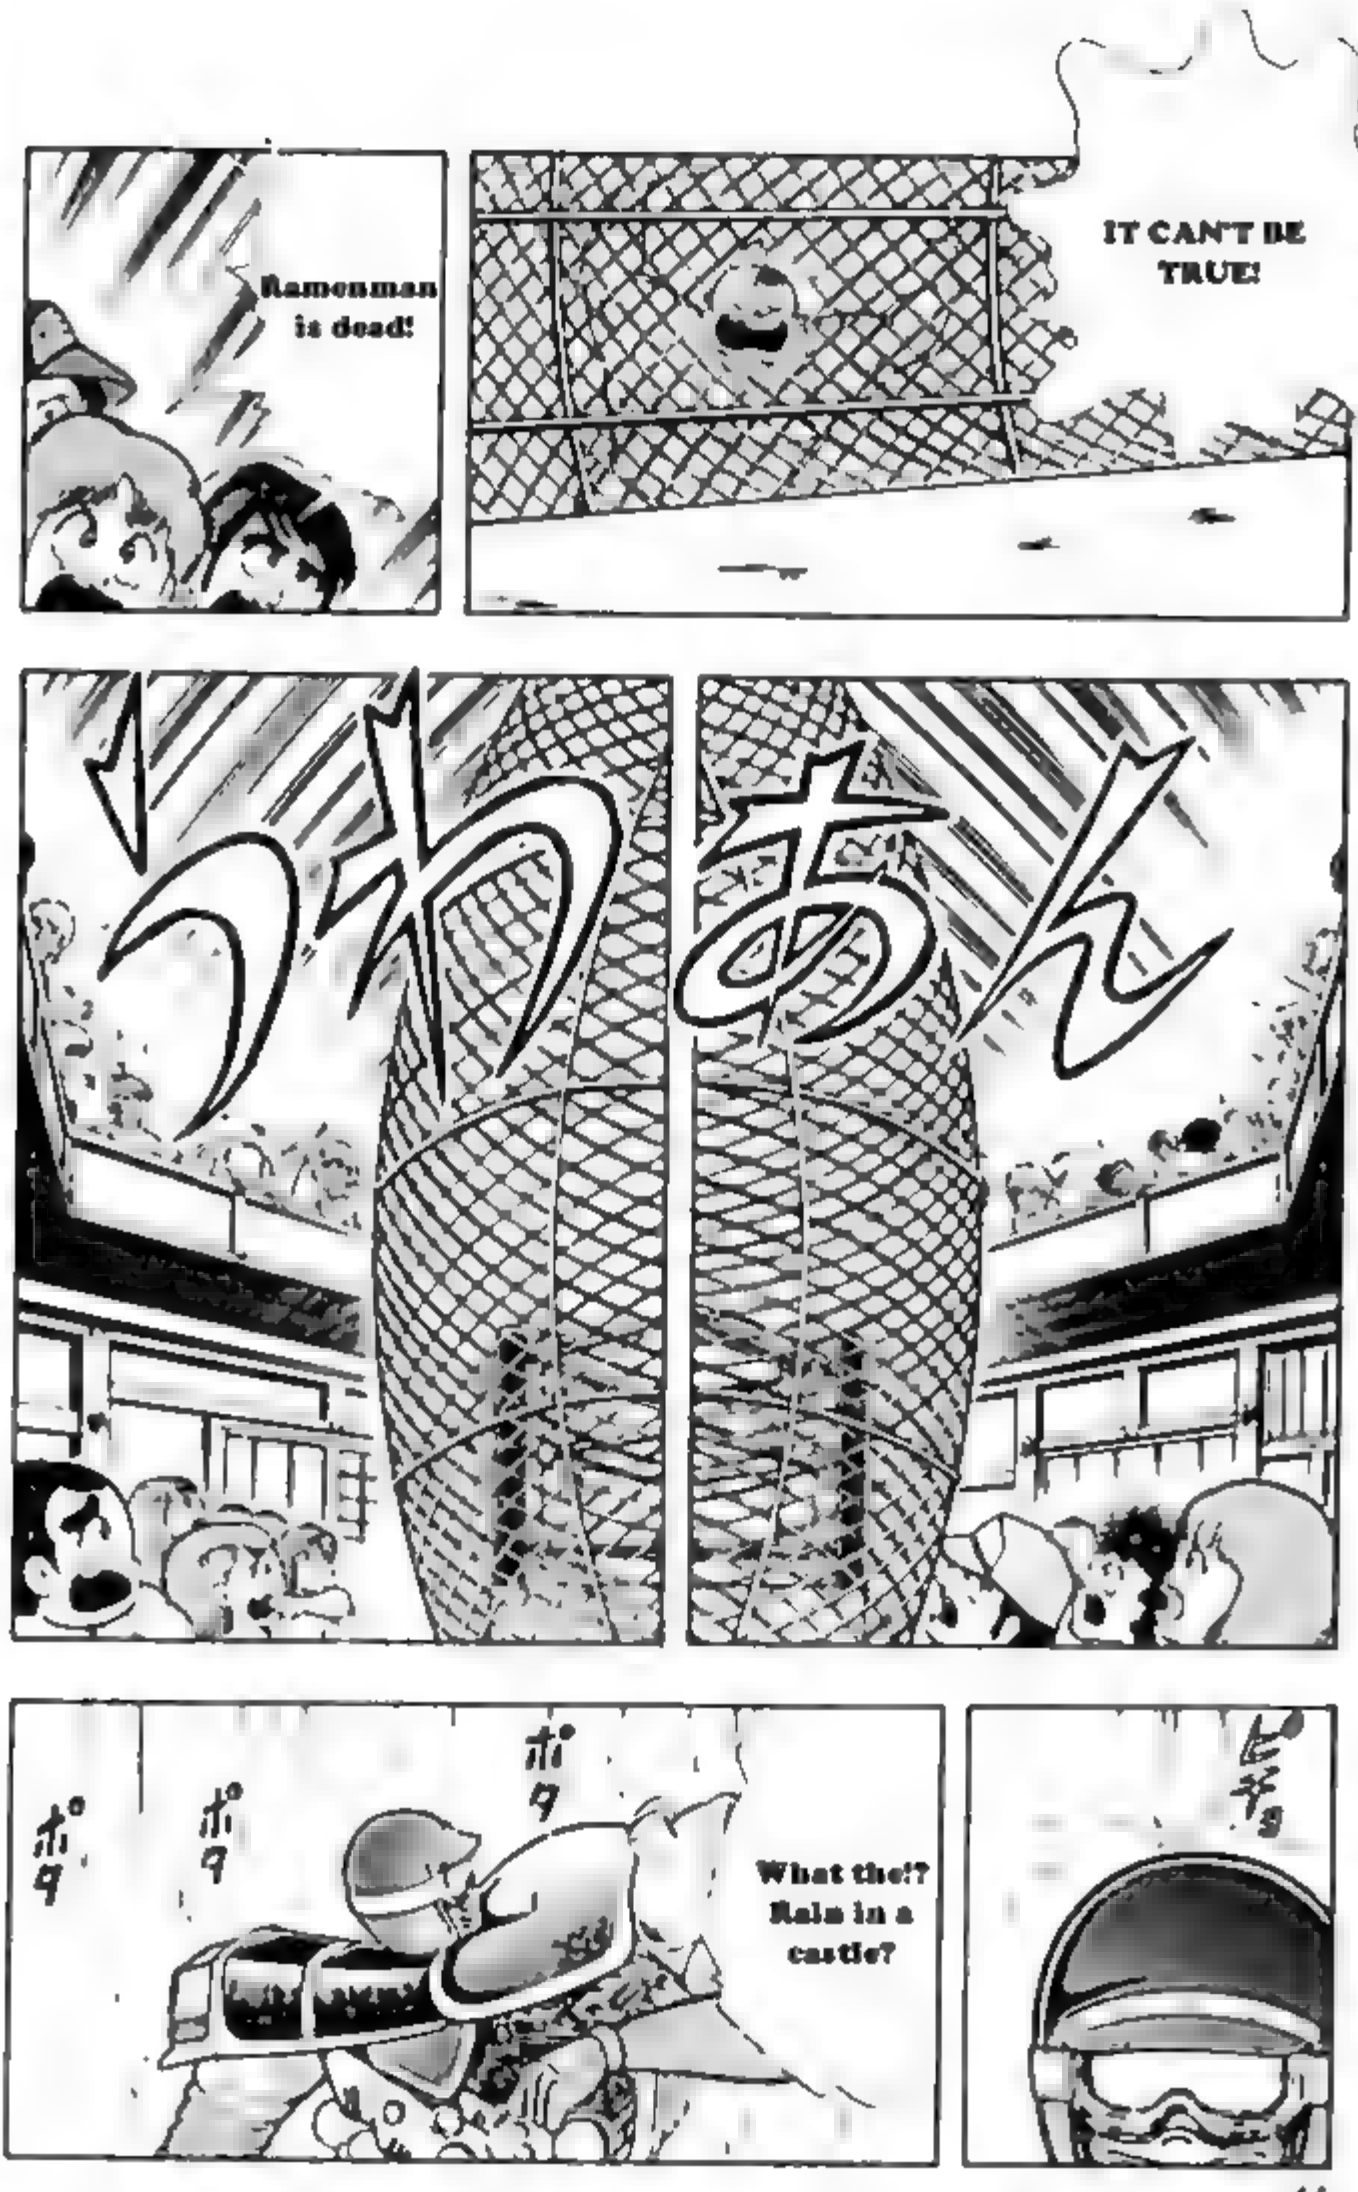


That last attack may have killed him...

N-no, it can't be true... This match only lasted 15 minutes...



Are you telling me that his comeback after 4 years has only lasted for that long?
Adding on the time of his match with Motorman, that's 15 minutes and 37 seconds...



Ramenman is dead!
IT CAN'T BE TRUE!

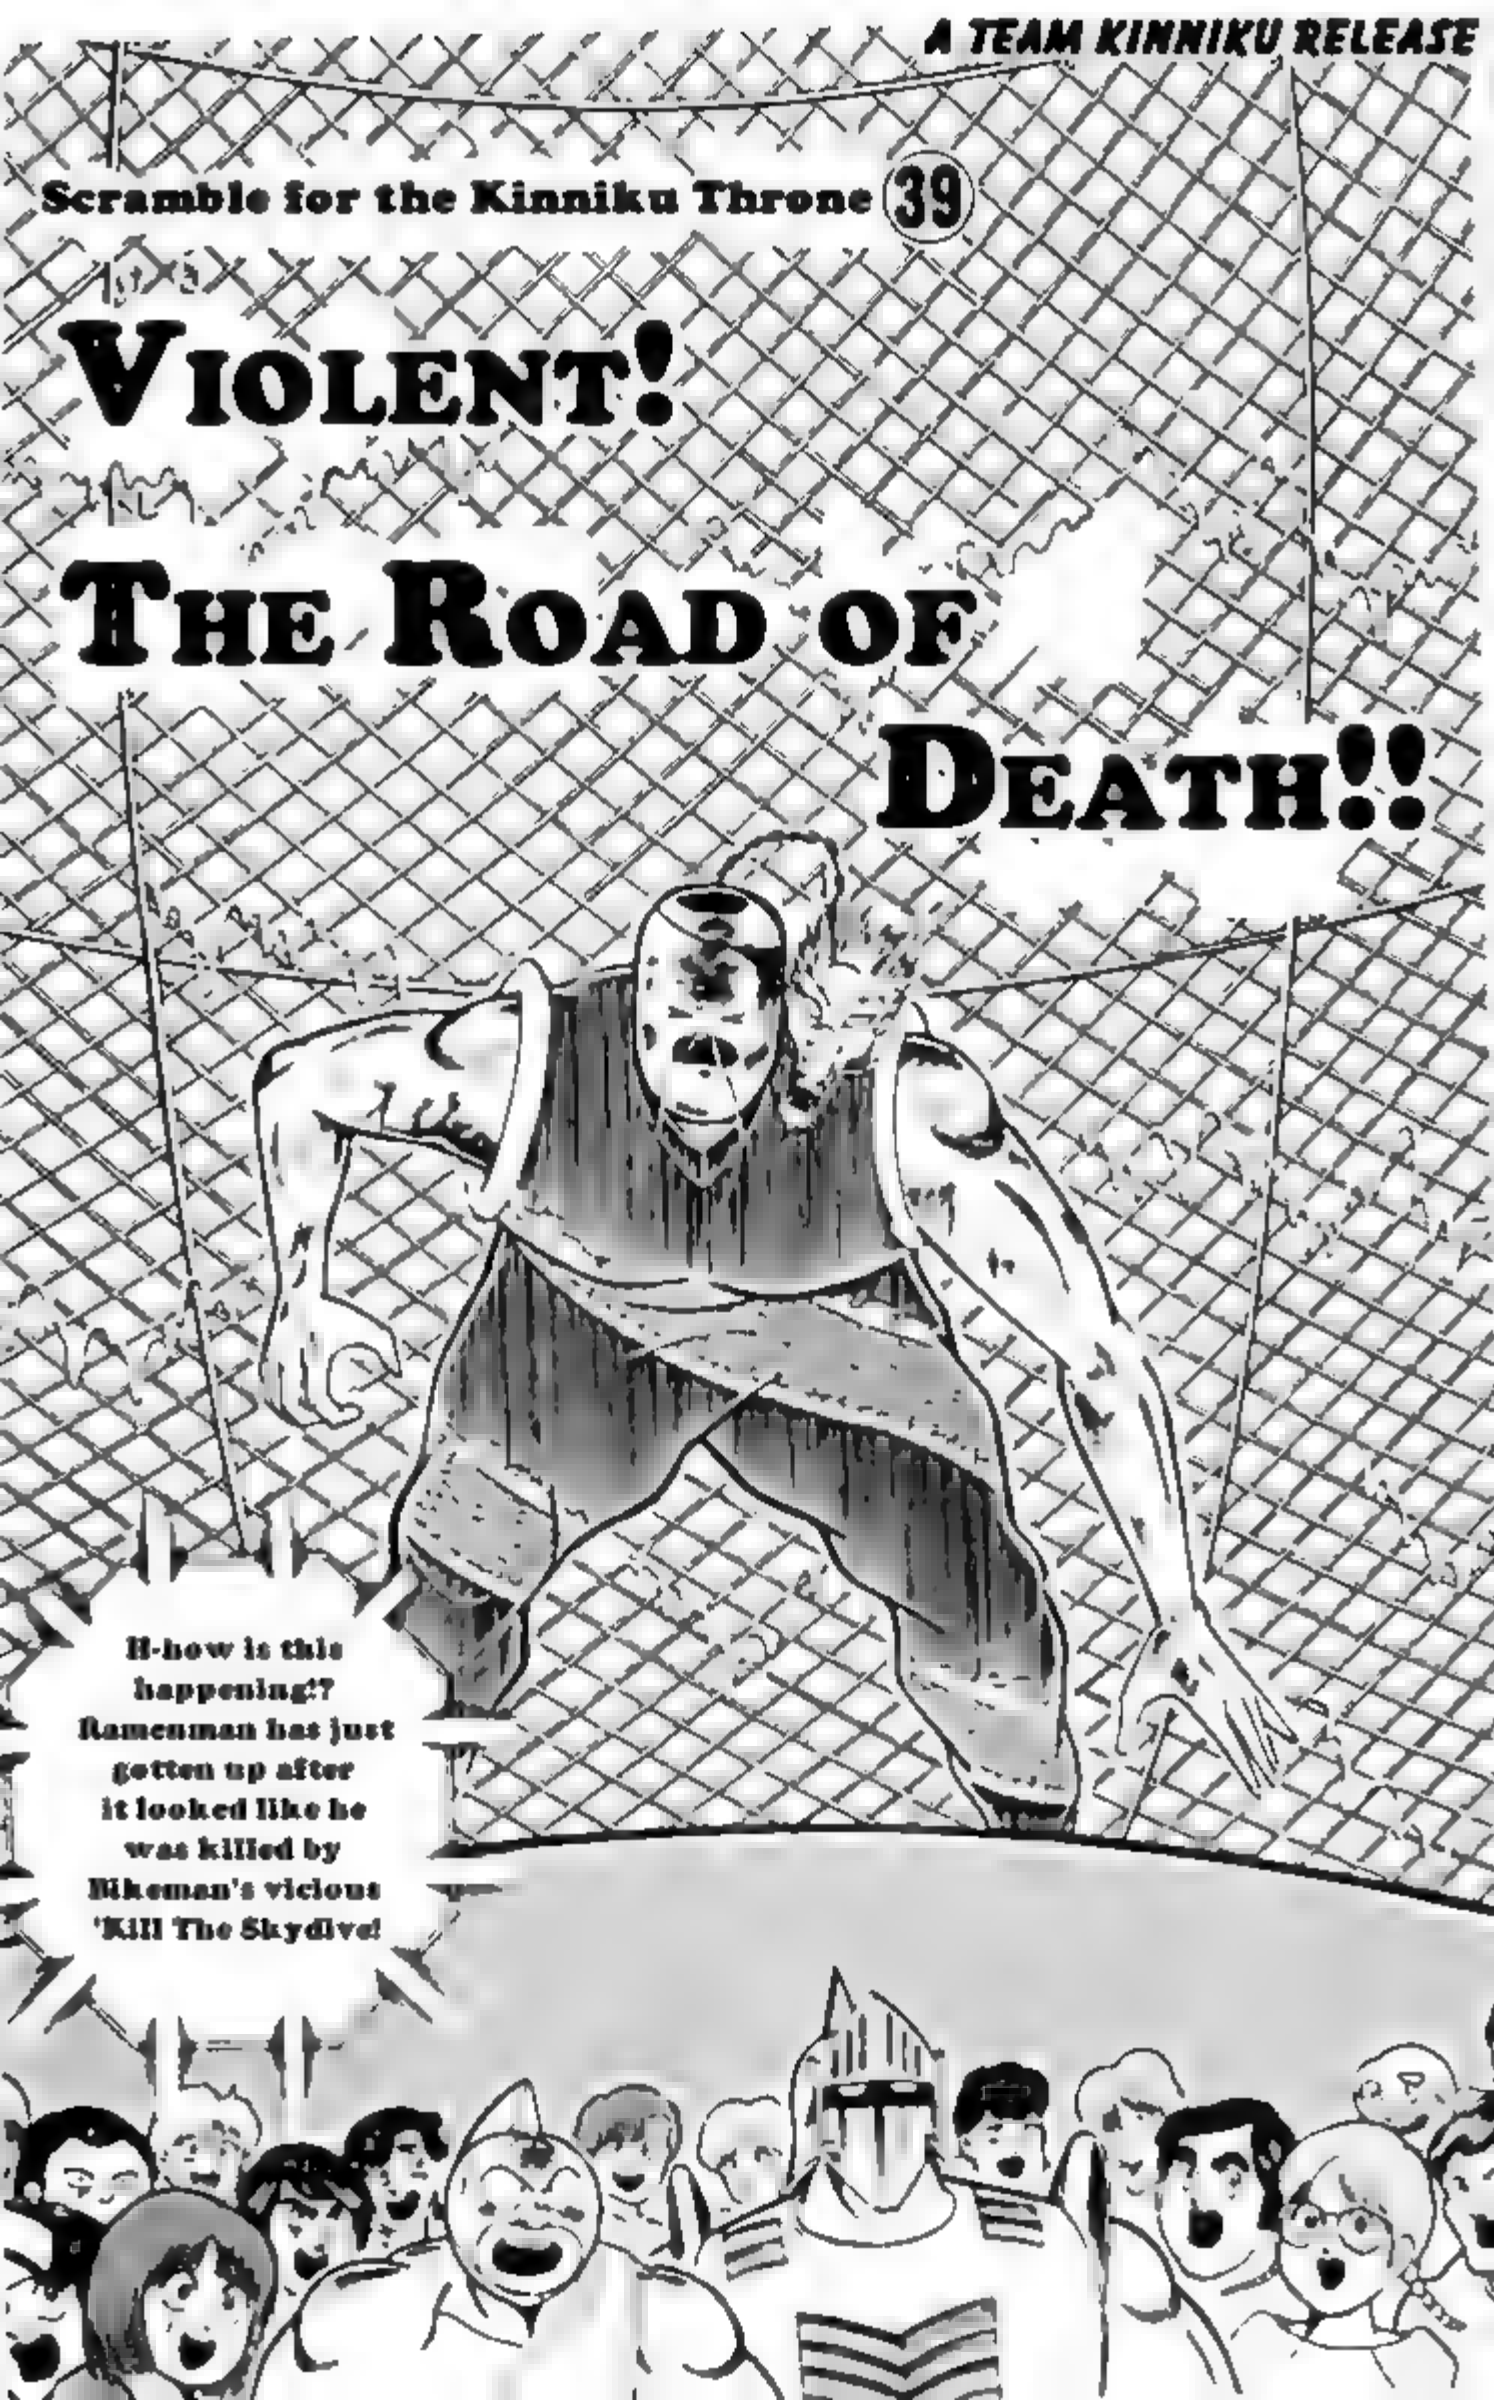
What the!? Rain in a castle?

R-Ramen-man!?
Urgh, heartless Choujin like you wouldn't know about the Rain of Tears...
Gurgh...
The Rain of Tears from Ramenman's fans and teammates have brought him back from the dead!

A TEAM KINNIKU RELEASE

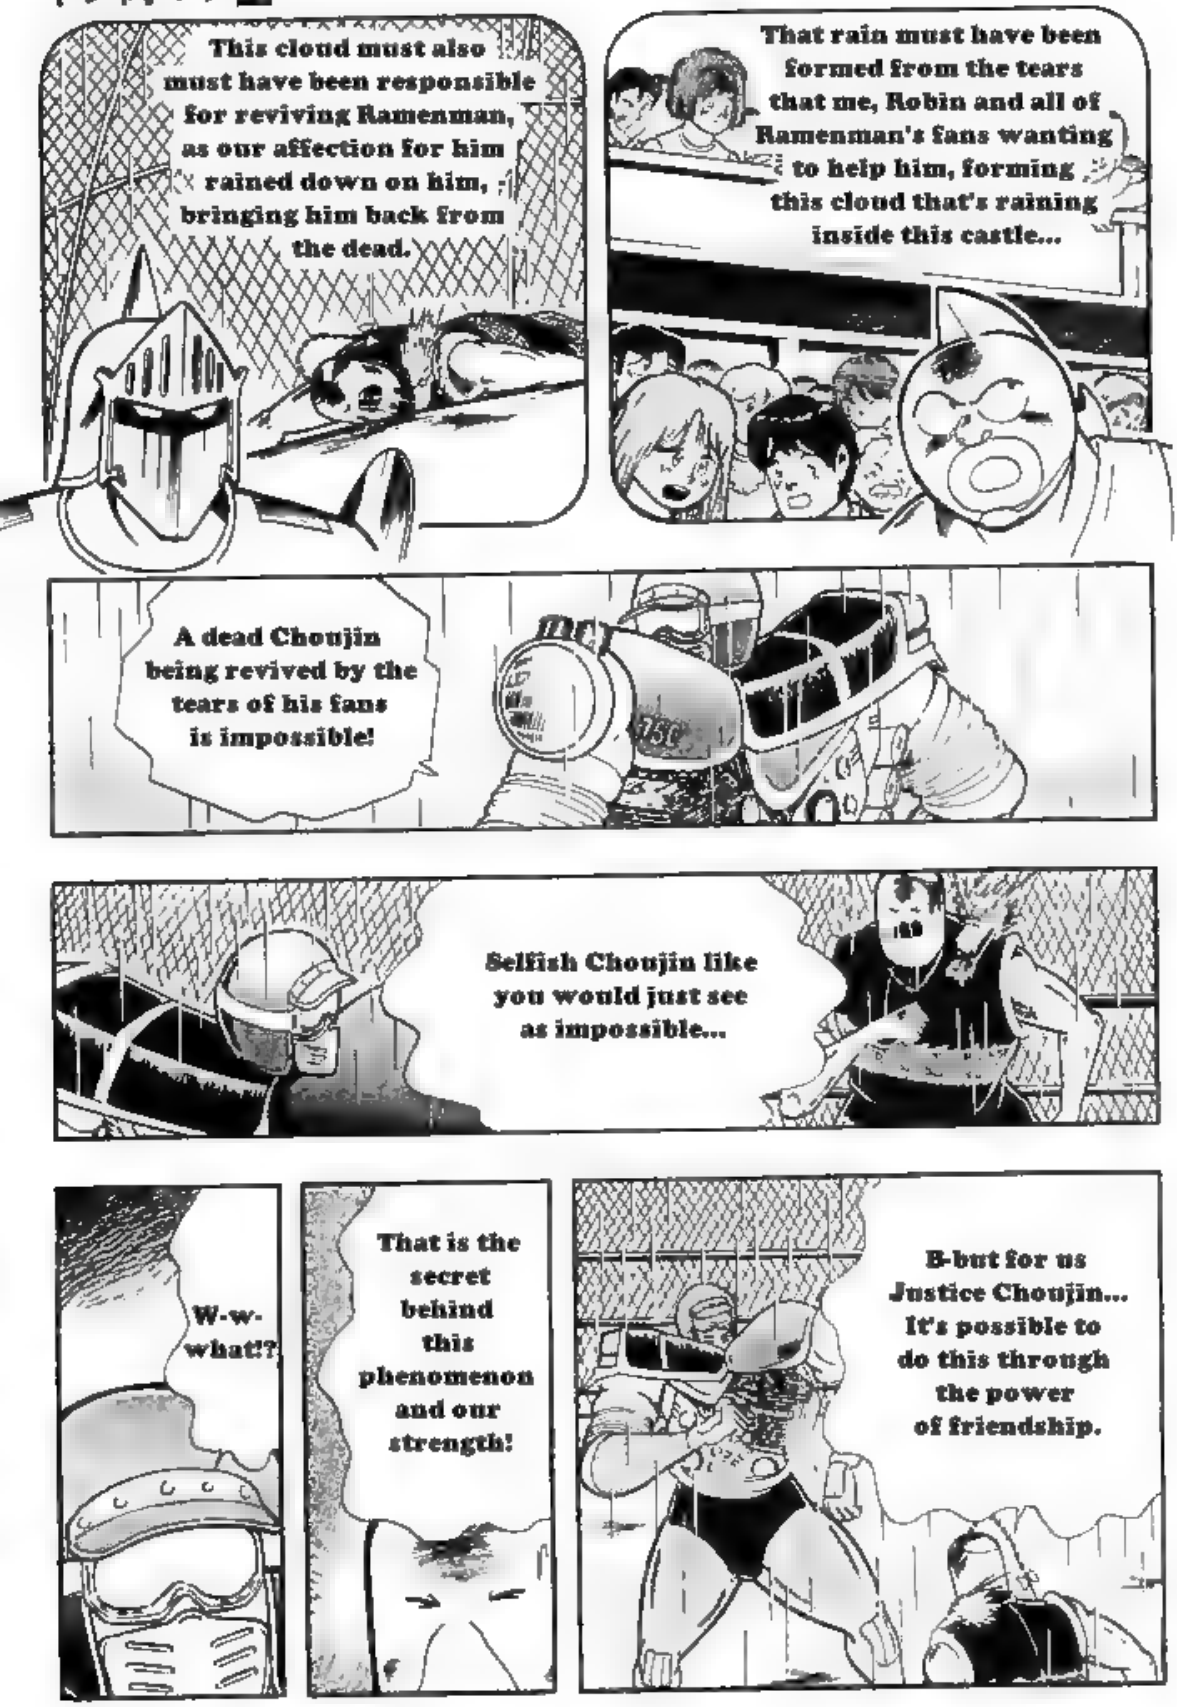
Scramble for the Kinniku Throne 39

VIOLENT! THE ROAD OF DEATH!!



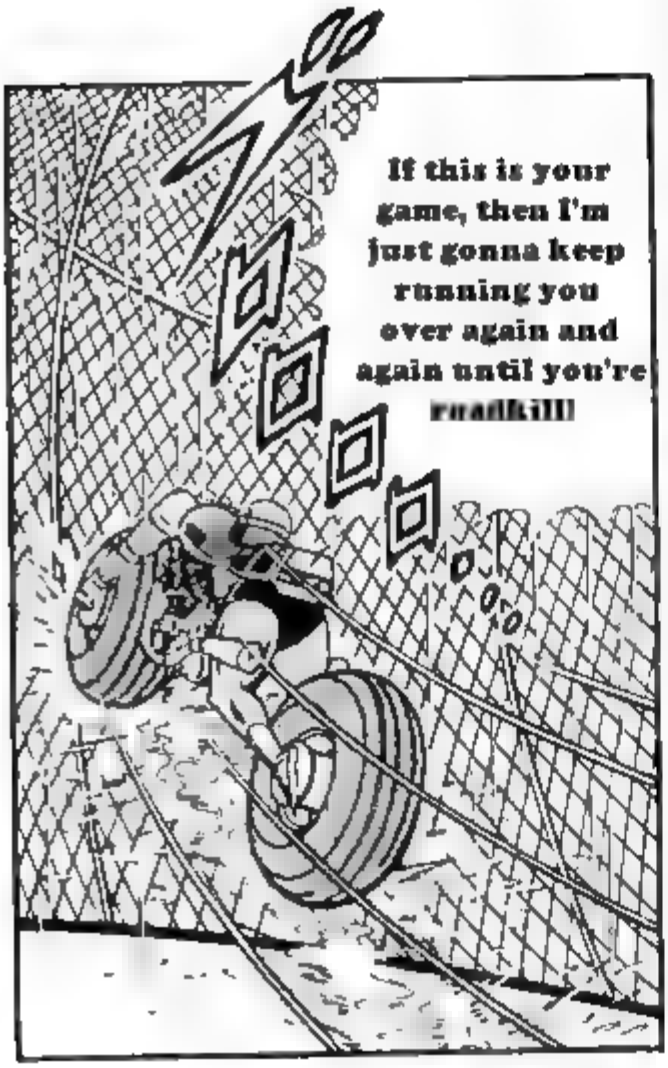
H-how is this happening!? Ramenman has just gotten up after it looked like he was killed by Bikeman's vicious 'Kill The Skydive!

The rain!
What's going on here!?
That dive should have ended him, but he got back up...
That's even stranger. How can there be rain in a castle?

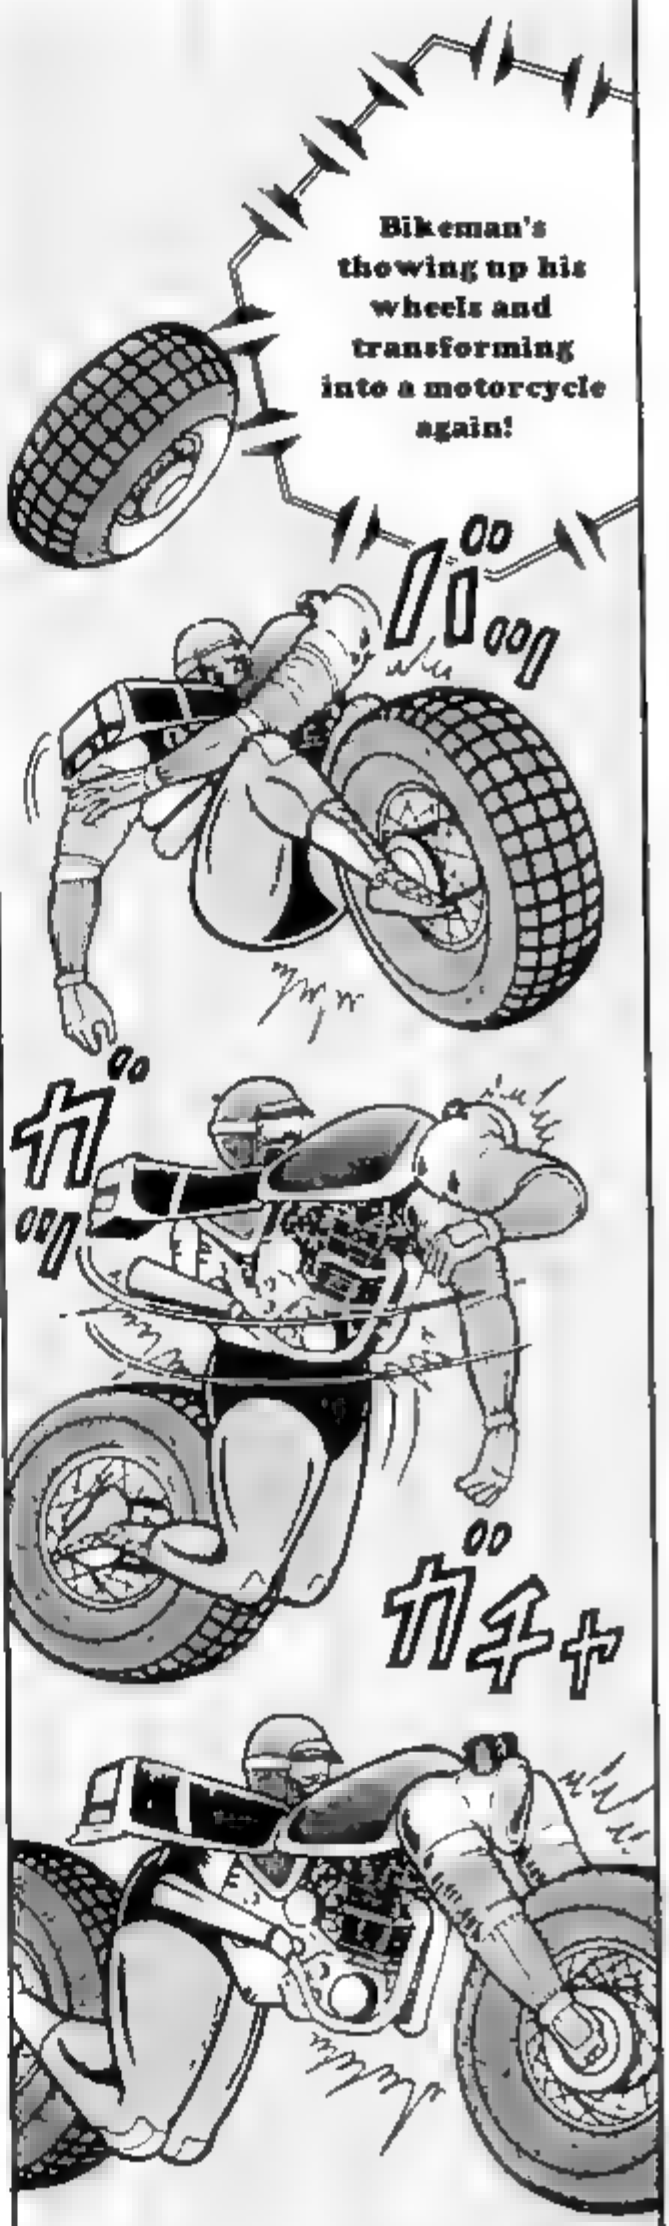


This cloud must also must have been responsible for reviving Ramenman, as our affection for him rained down on him, bringing him back from the dead.
That rain must have been formed from the tears that me, Robin and all of Ramenman's fans wanting to help him, forming this cloud that's raining inside this castle...
A dead Choujin being revived by the tears of his fans is impossible!
Selfish Choujin like you would just see as impossible...
W-w-what!?
That is the secret behind this phenomenon and our strength!
B-but for us Justice Choujin... It's possible to do this through the power of friendship.

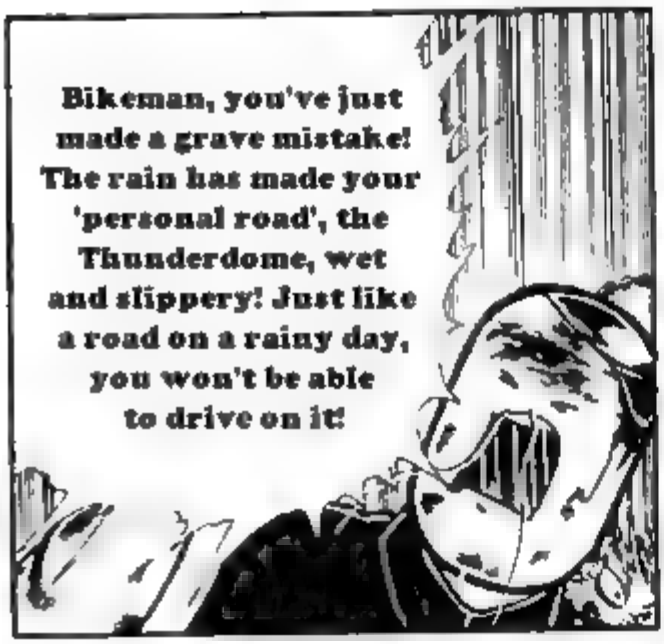
You can't do that! It's impossible!
It looks like the once cocky Bikeman has lost his cool and has headbutted Ramenman!
Hup!
Haa!



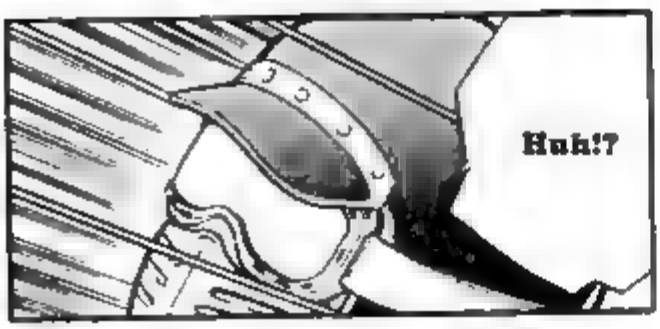
If this is your game, then I'm just gonna keep running you over again and again until you're roadkill!



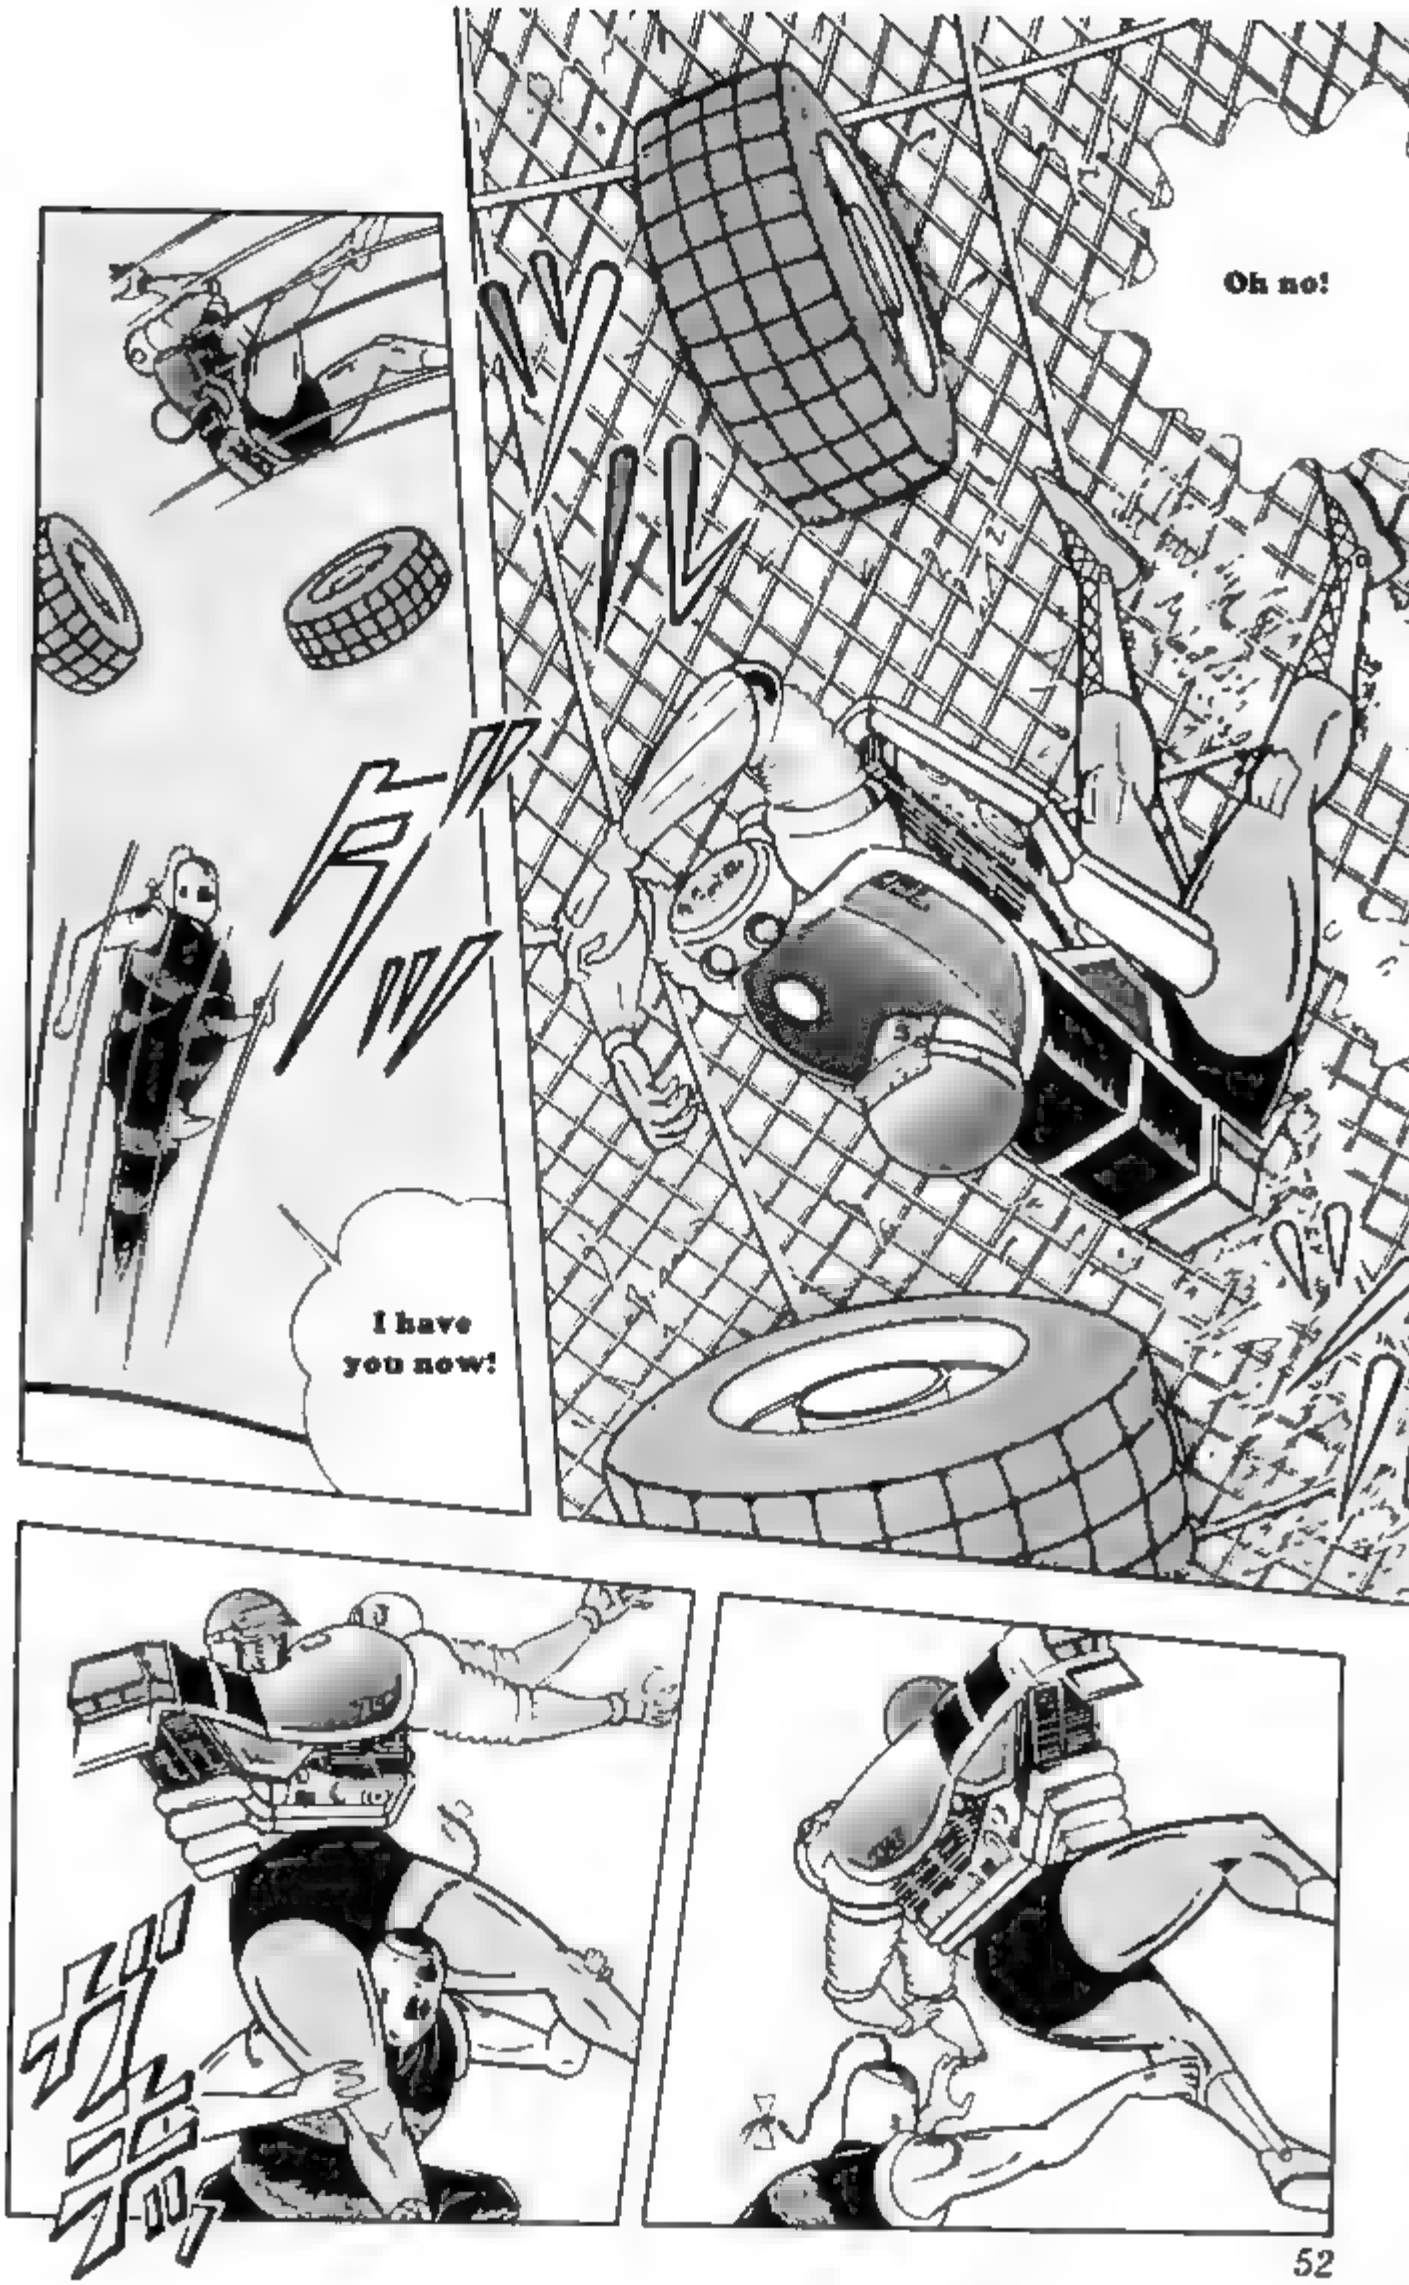
Bikeman's throwing up his wheels and transforming into a motorcycle again!



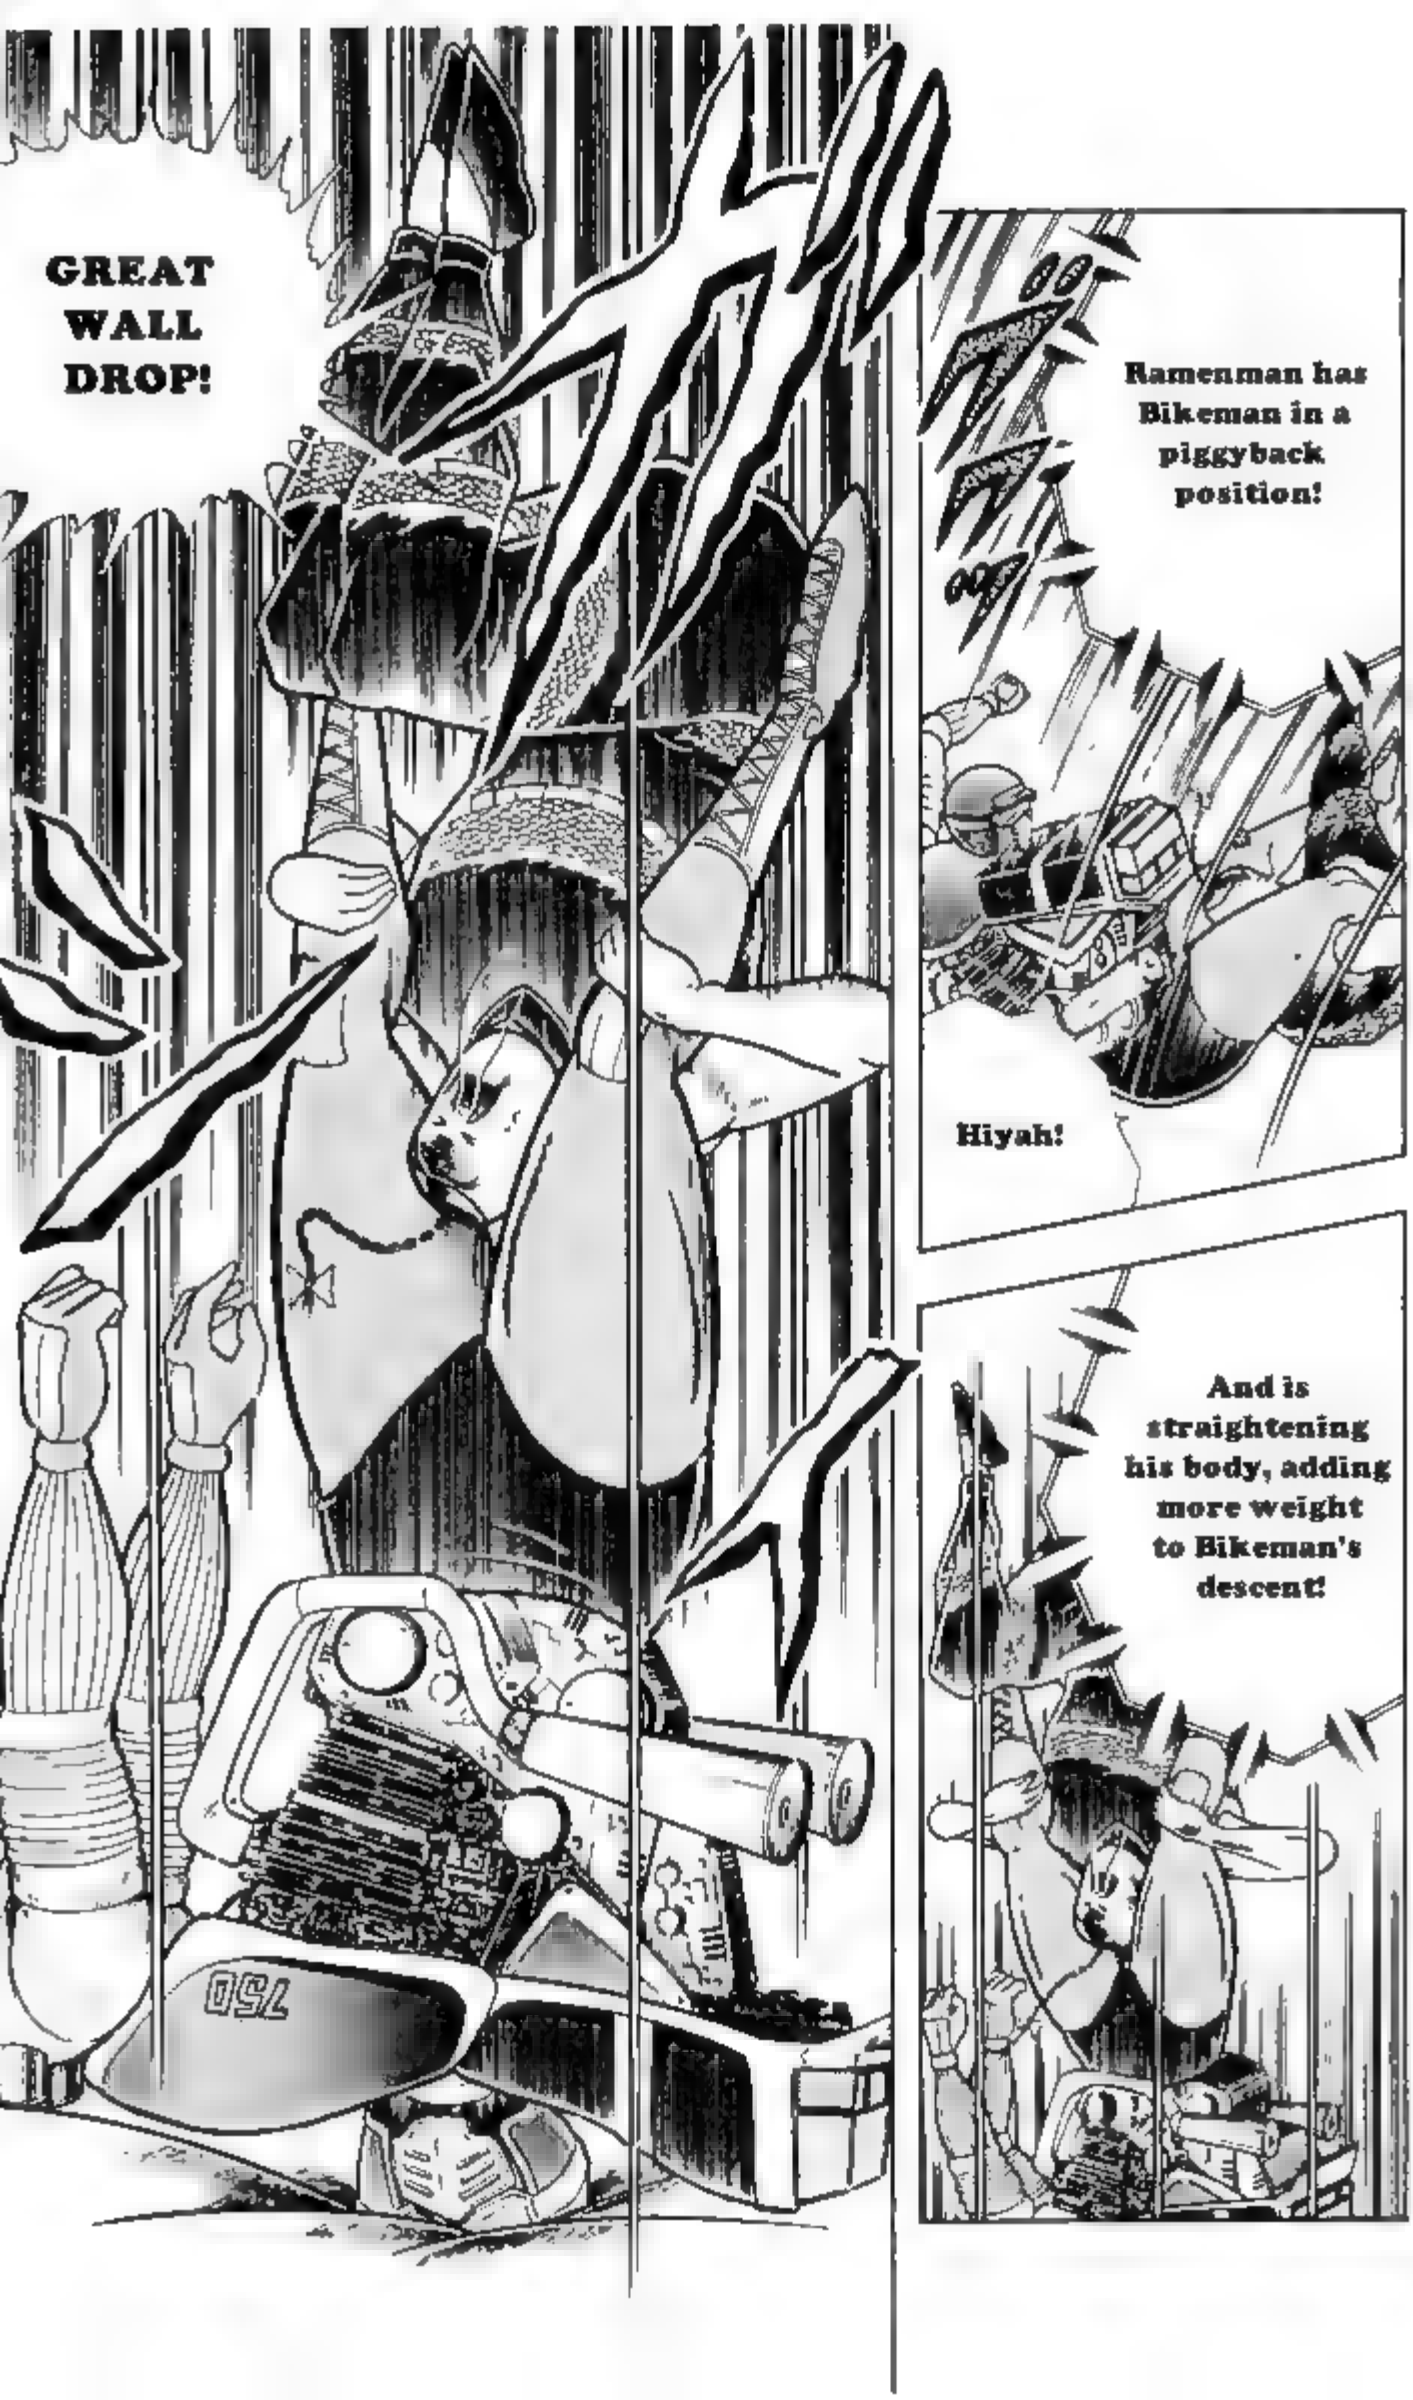
Bikeman, you've just made a grave mistake! The rain has made your 'personal road', the Thunderdome, wet and slippery! Just like a road on a rainy day, you won't be able to drive on it!



Huh!?

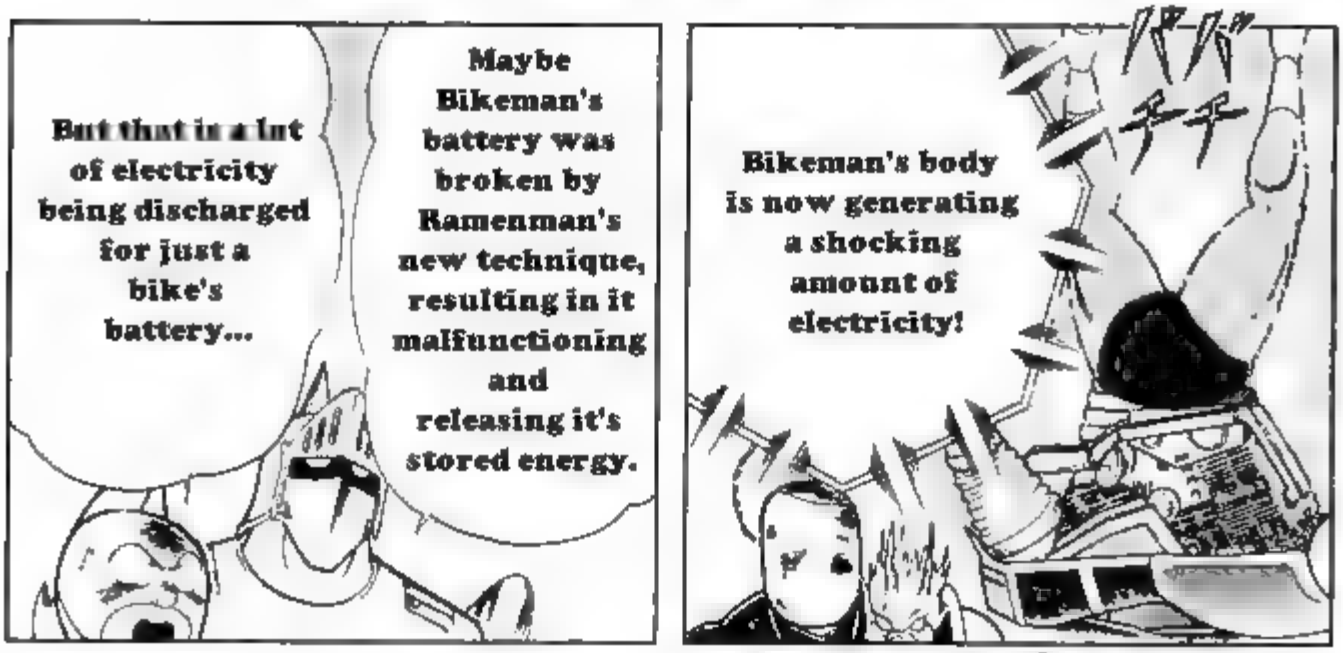


Oh no!
I have you now!



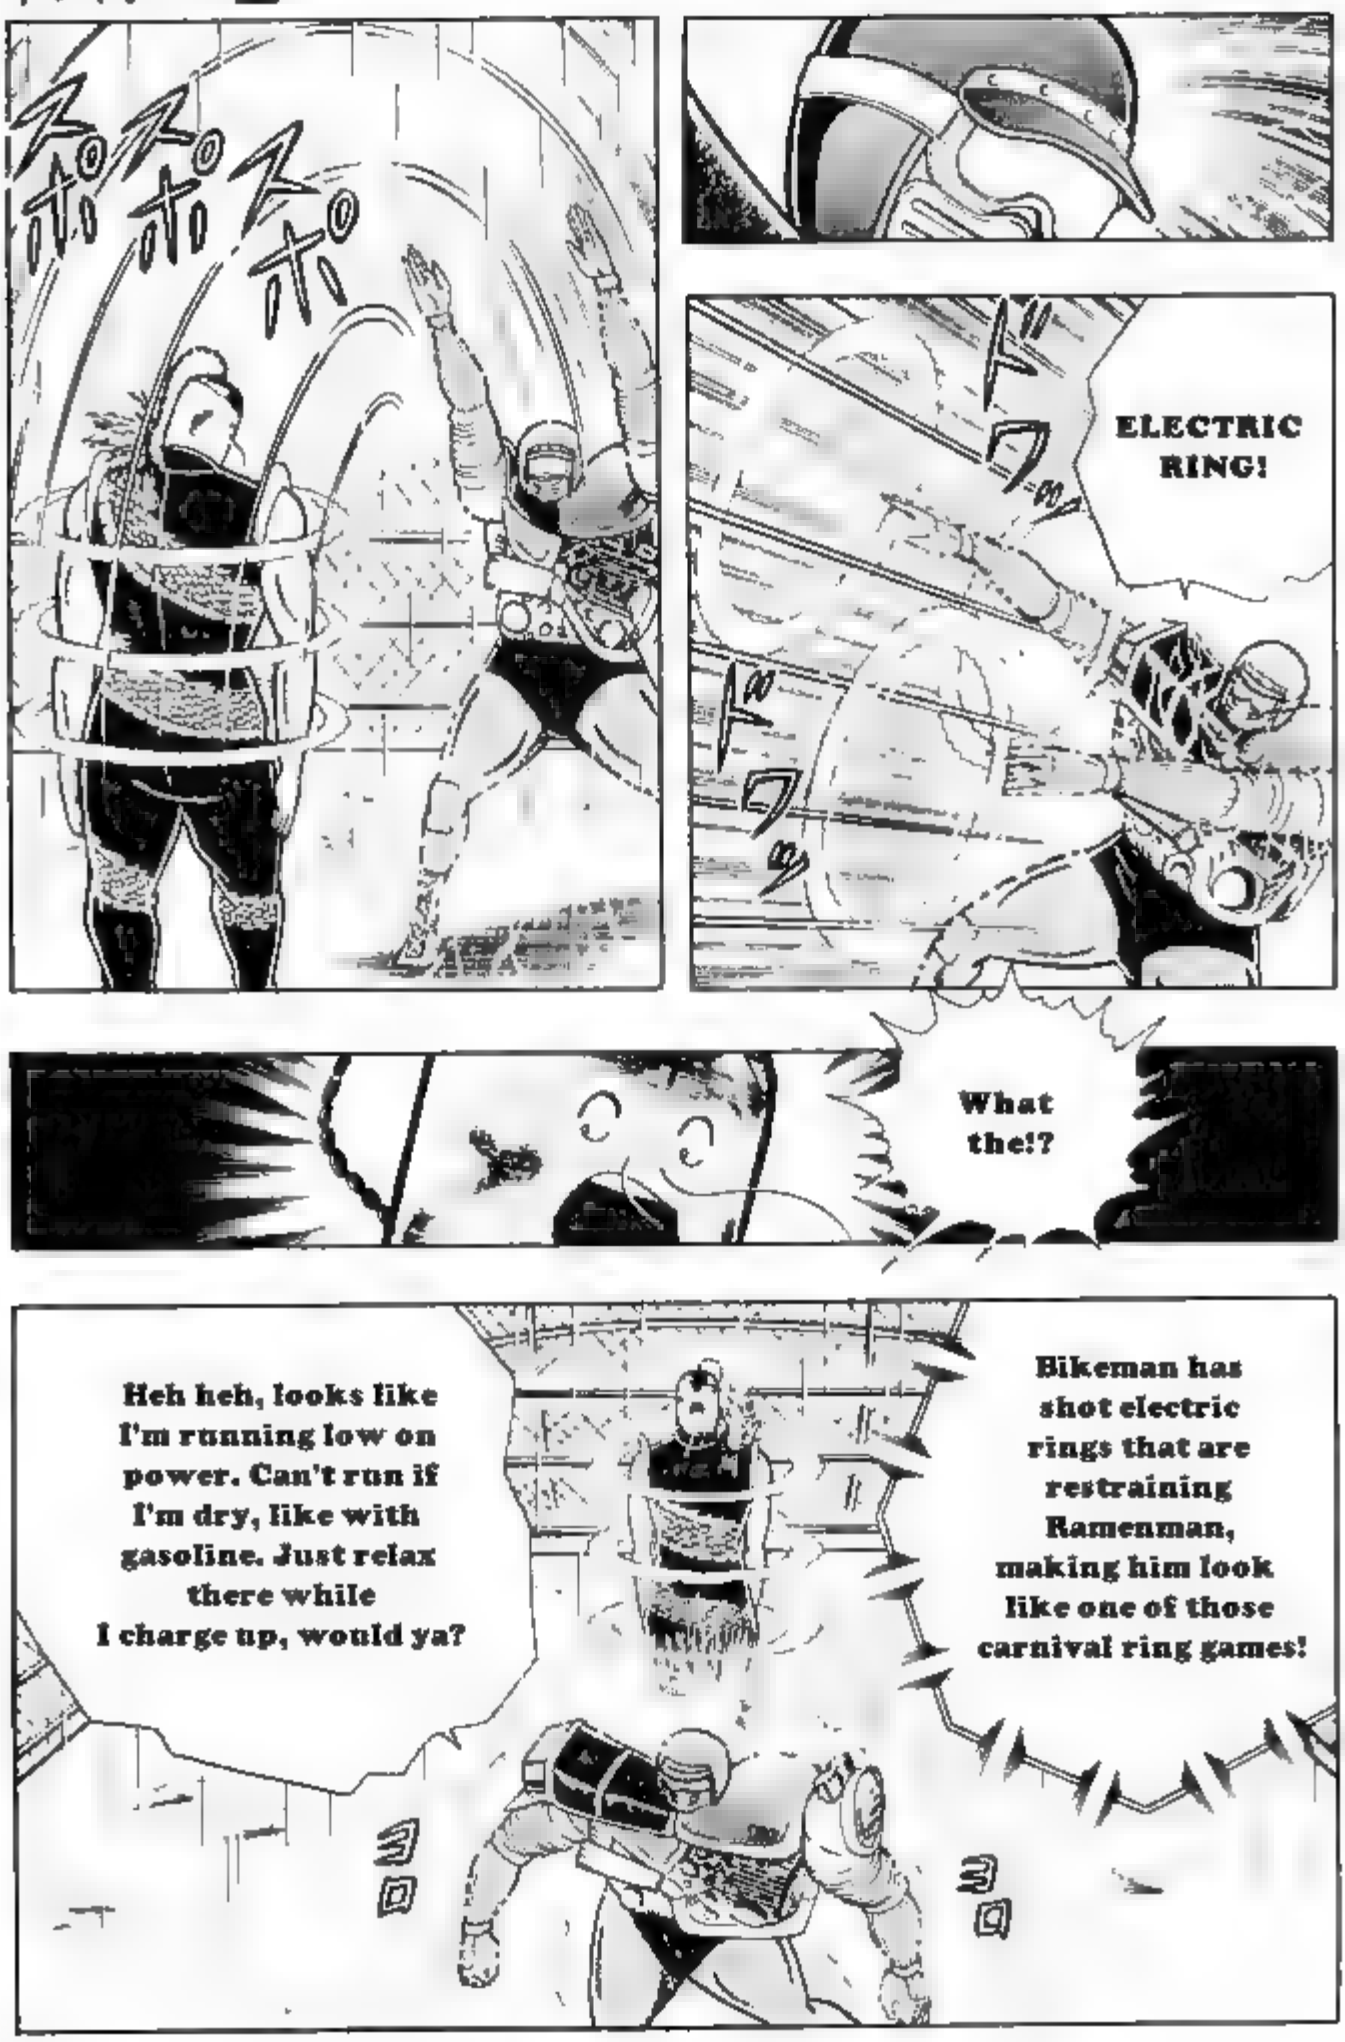
GREAT WALL DROP!
Ramenman has Bikeman in a piggyback position!
Hiyah!
And is straightening his body, adding more weight to Bikeman's descent!

Amazing, Ramenman! A new great technique for a new Ramenman!
Thank you. It seems that everyone's tears have saved me again...

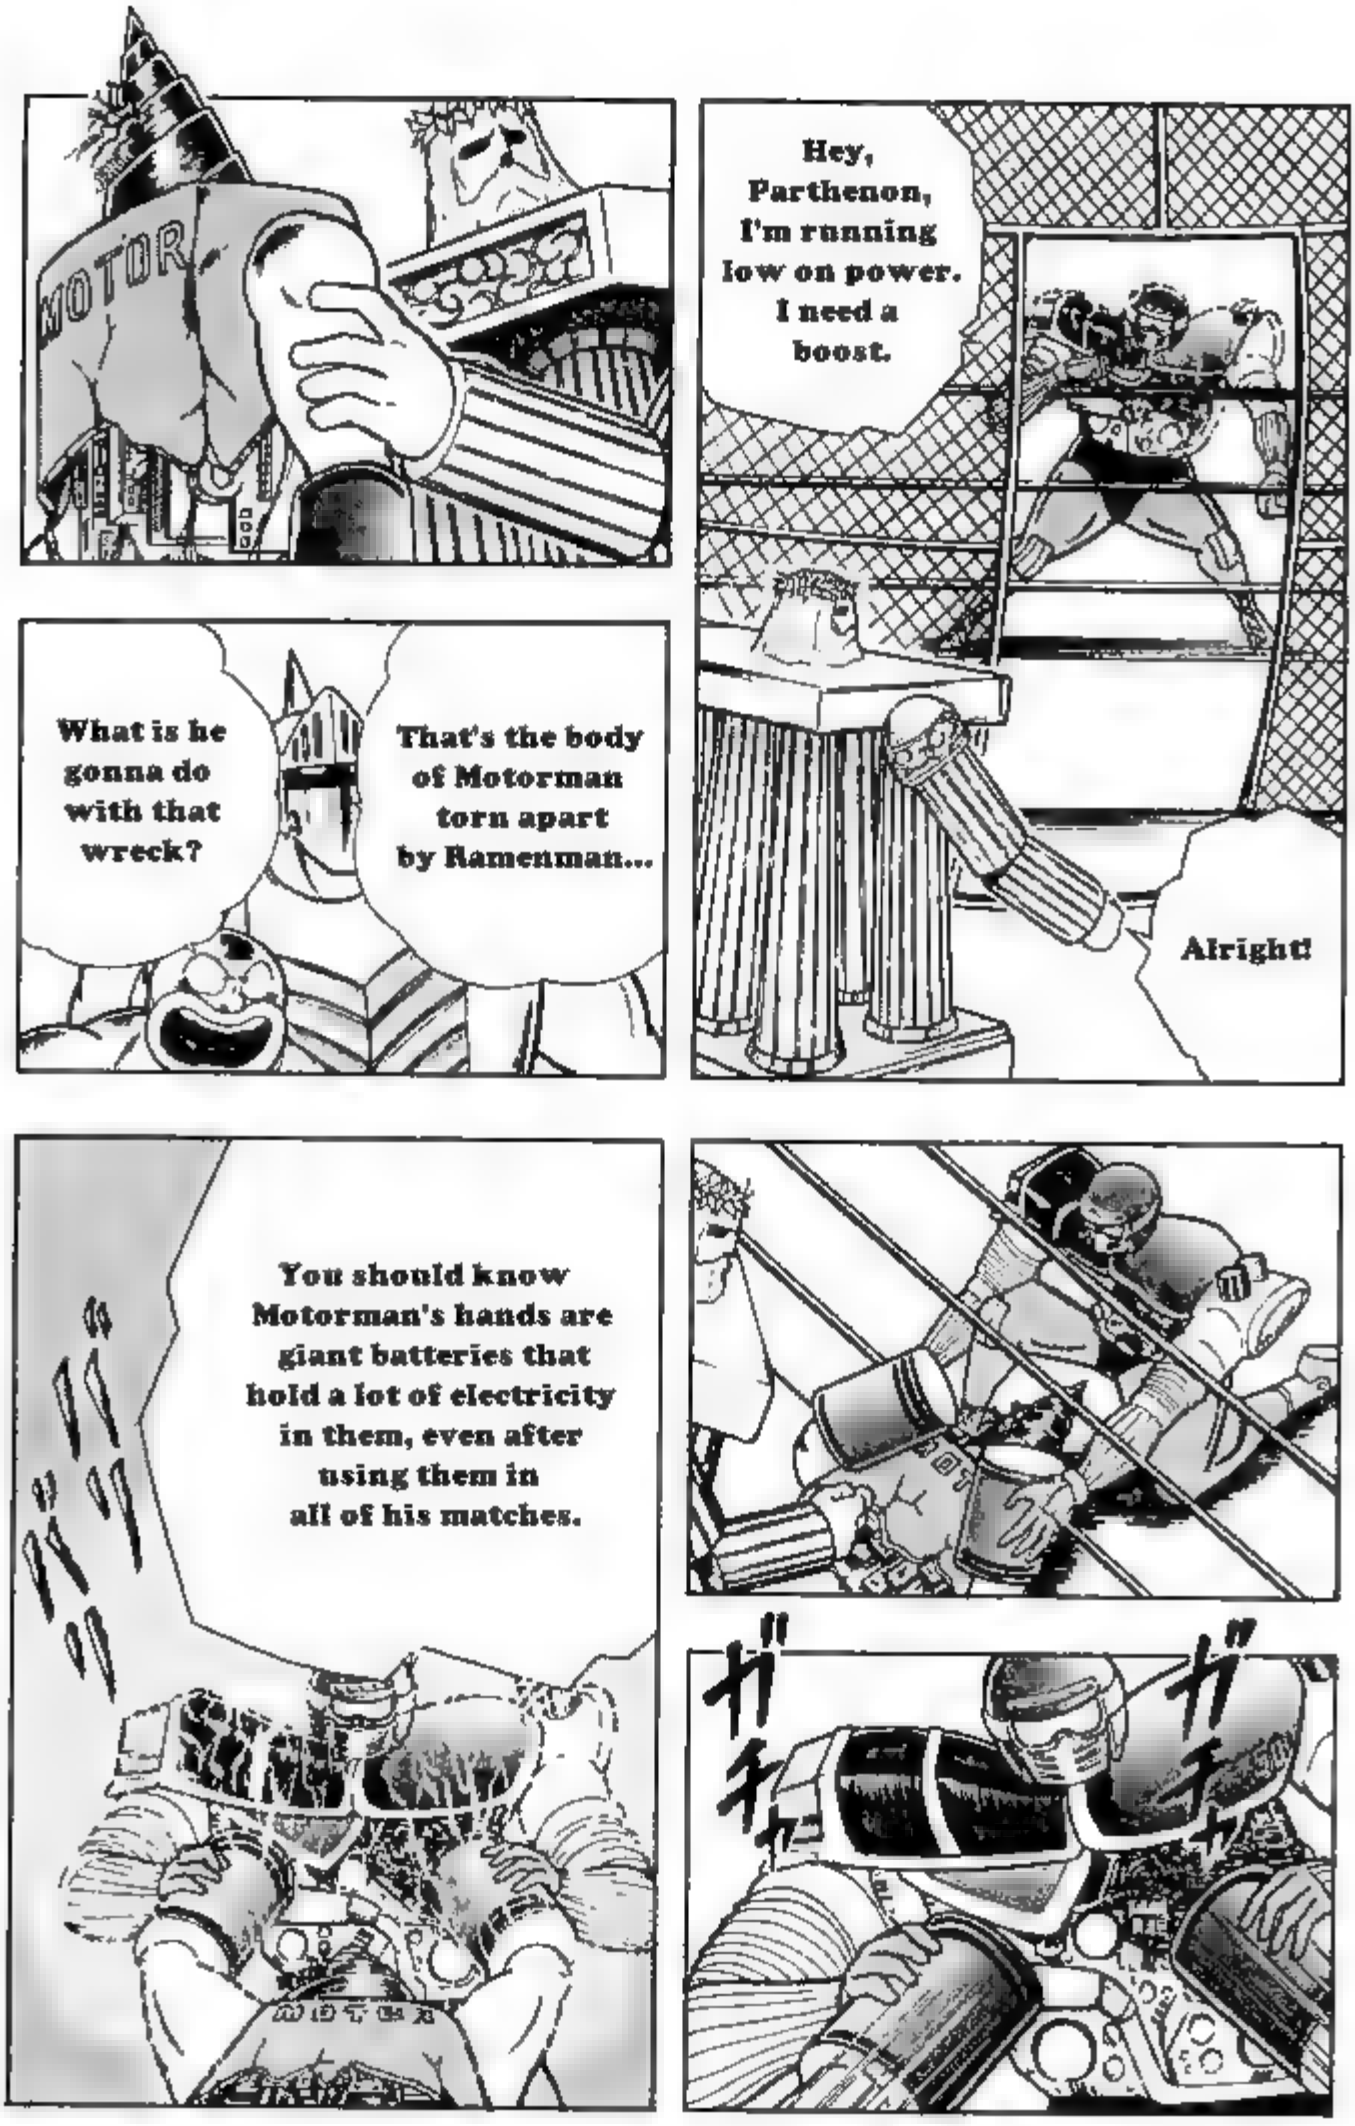


But that is a lot of electricity being discharged for just a bike's battery...
Maybe Bikeman's battery was broken by Ramenman's new technique, resulting in it malfunctioning and releasing it's stored energy.
Bikeman's body is now generating a shocking amount of electricity!

Now's my chance to finish off Bikeman!



ポポポポ
ELECTRIC RING!
What the!?
Heh heh, looks like I'm running low on power. Can't run if I'm dry, like with gasoline. Just relax there while I charge up, would ya?
Bikeman has shot electric rings that are restraining Ramenman, making him look like one of those carnival ring games!

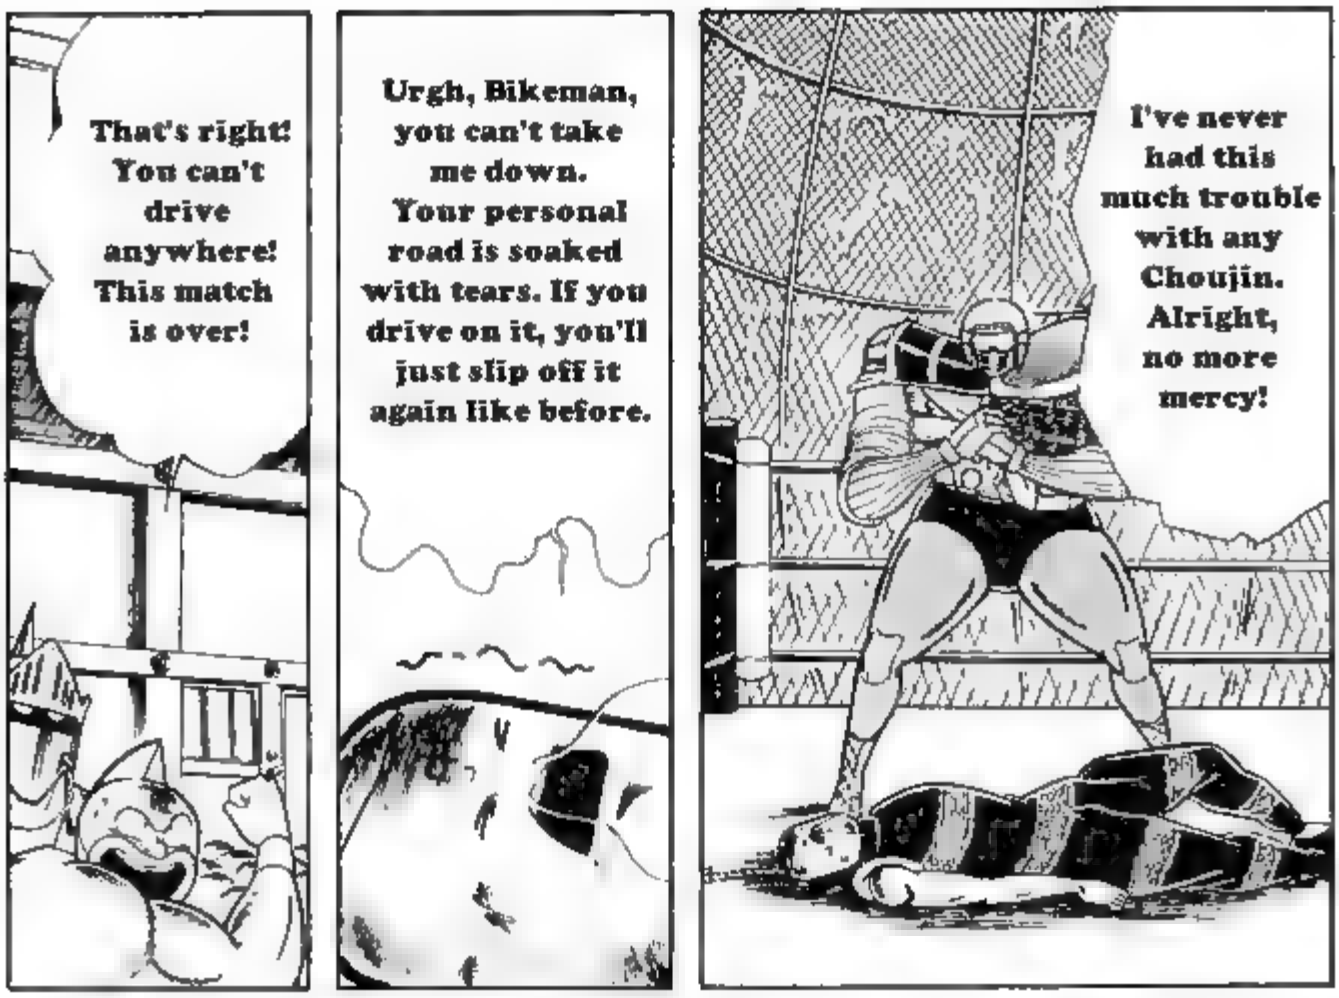


MOTOR
Hey, Parthenon, I'm running low on power. I need a boost.
Alright!
What is he gonna do with that wreck?
That's the body of Motorman torn apart by Ramenman...
You should know Motorman's hands are giant batteries that hold a lot of electricity in them, even after using them in all of his matches.
ガチャ
ガチャ

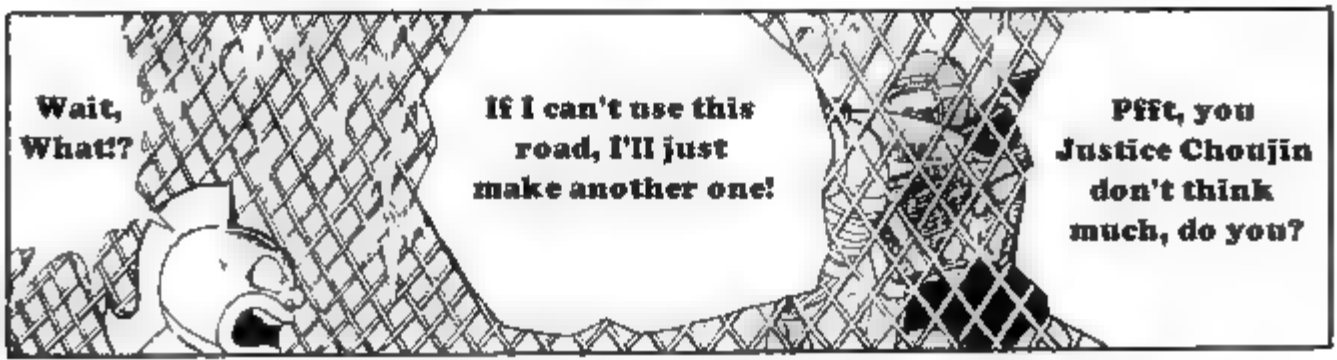
He was just tagging along to be a power source for me only!
You probably knew this, but we didn't let this weak Choujin into Team Zebra so he could fight...
So Team Zebra planned to fight only as a team of 4 without any help from Motorman right at the start!
What!?
Bikeman's sucking out the energy from Motorman's batteries and is restoring his own power!
Aah, I'm charging up nicely.
Zebra must have a lot of confidence, trusting Bikeman to fill in for 2 Choujins.

They're off!
Hung...
Prepare yourself, Bikeman!
Ramenman has broken off his Electric Rings and is rushing at the still charging Bikeman!
Huh!?
Sorry, Ramenman! I just finished charging!
Aah!

KILL THE SKYDIVE!
But Bikeman got out of Ramenman's way by jumping above him!
Gurgh!
Good work, Bikeman. If you keep surprising him like that, not even Ramenman will be able to stand up to you. Keep it up.



That's right! You can't drive anywhere! This match is over!
Urgh, Bikeman, you can't take me down. Your personal road is soaked with tears. If you drive on it, you'll just slip off it again like before.
I've never had this much trouble with any Choujin. Alright, no more mercy!



Wait, What!?
If I can't use this road, I'll just make another one!
Pfft, you Justice Choujin don't think much, do you?

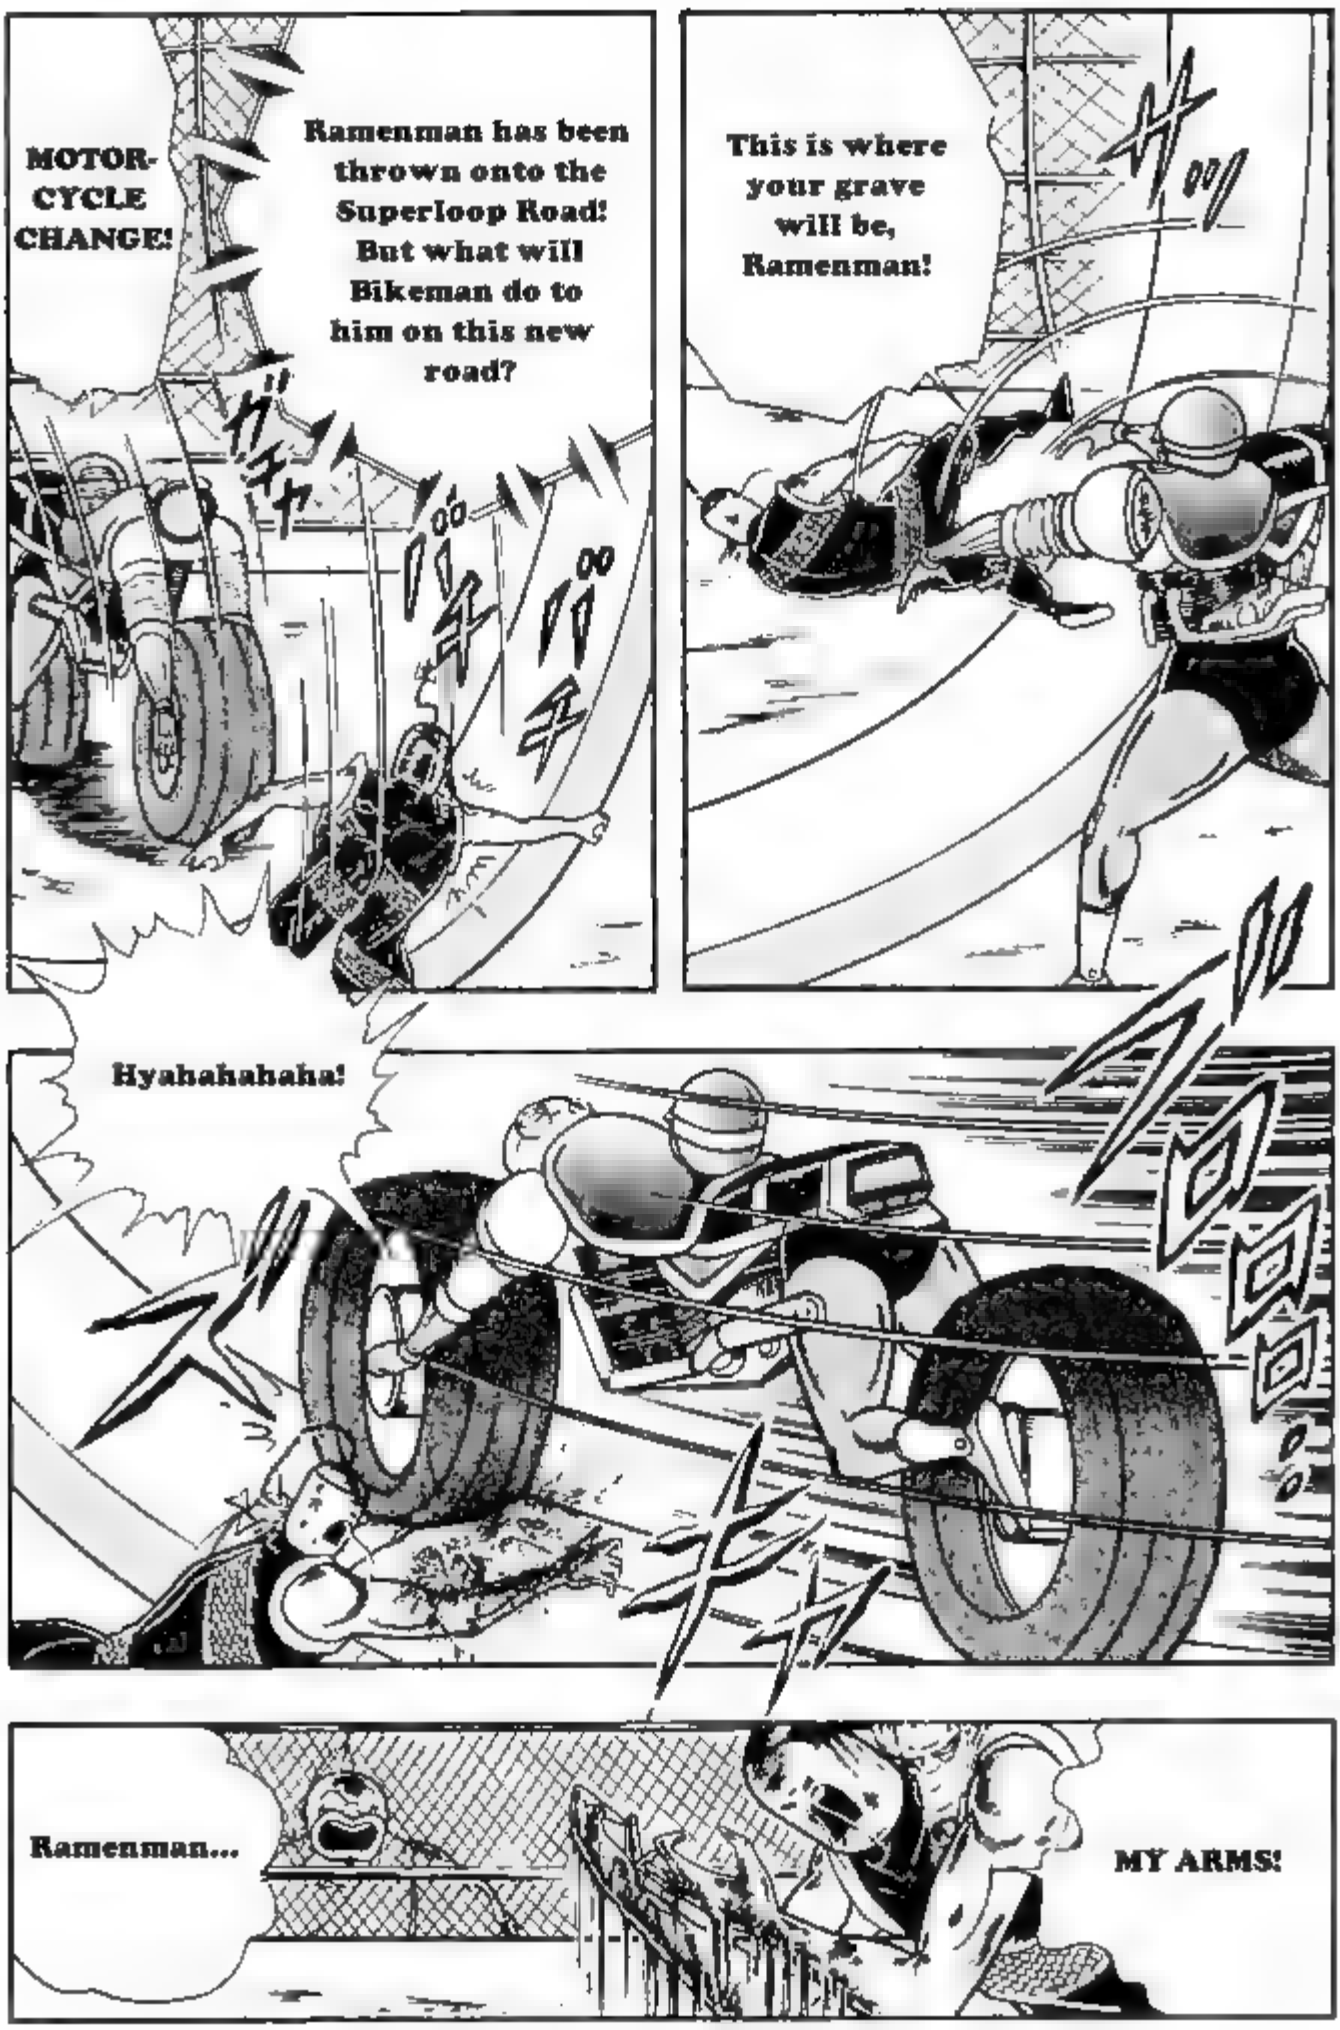
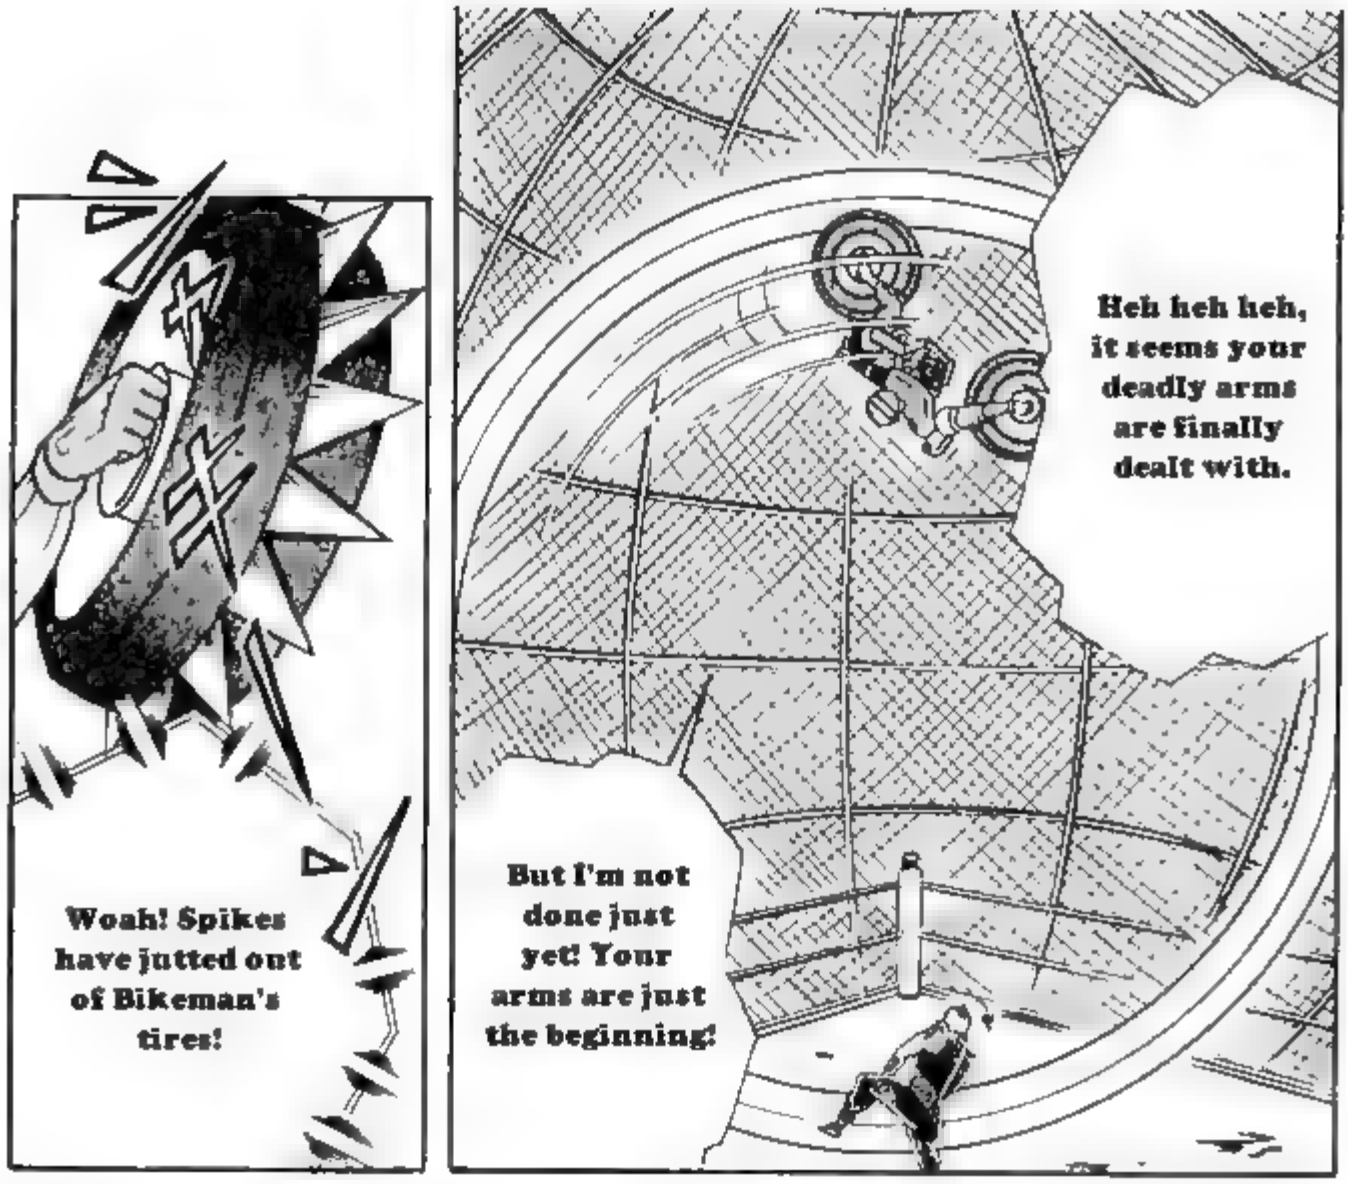
Bikeman's hands are releasing a large number of electrically generated fragments that are making up some sort of looping road!

How do you like it? Here's another personal road of mine! I call it the Superloop Road!

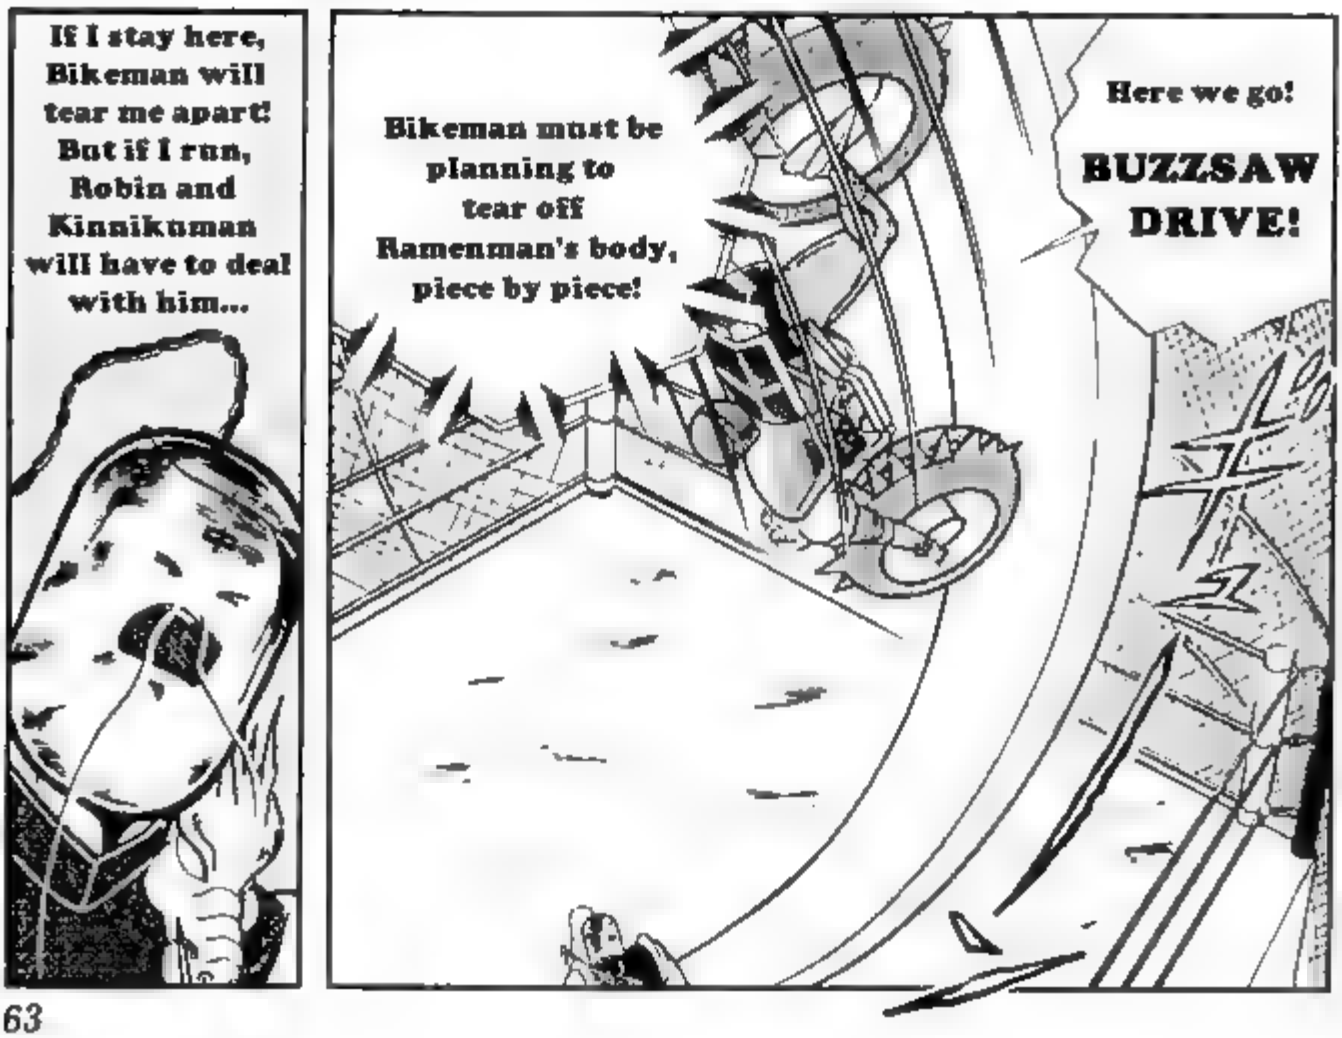
Wh-what!? You can't create a road out of electricity!



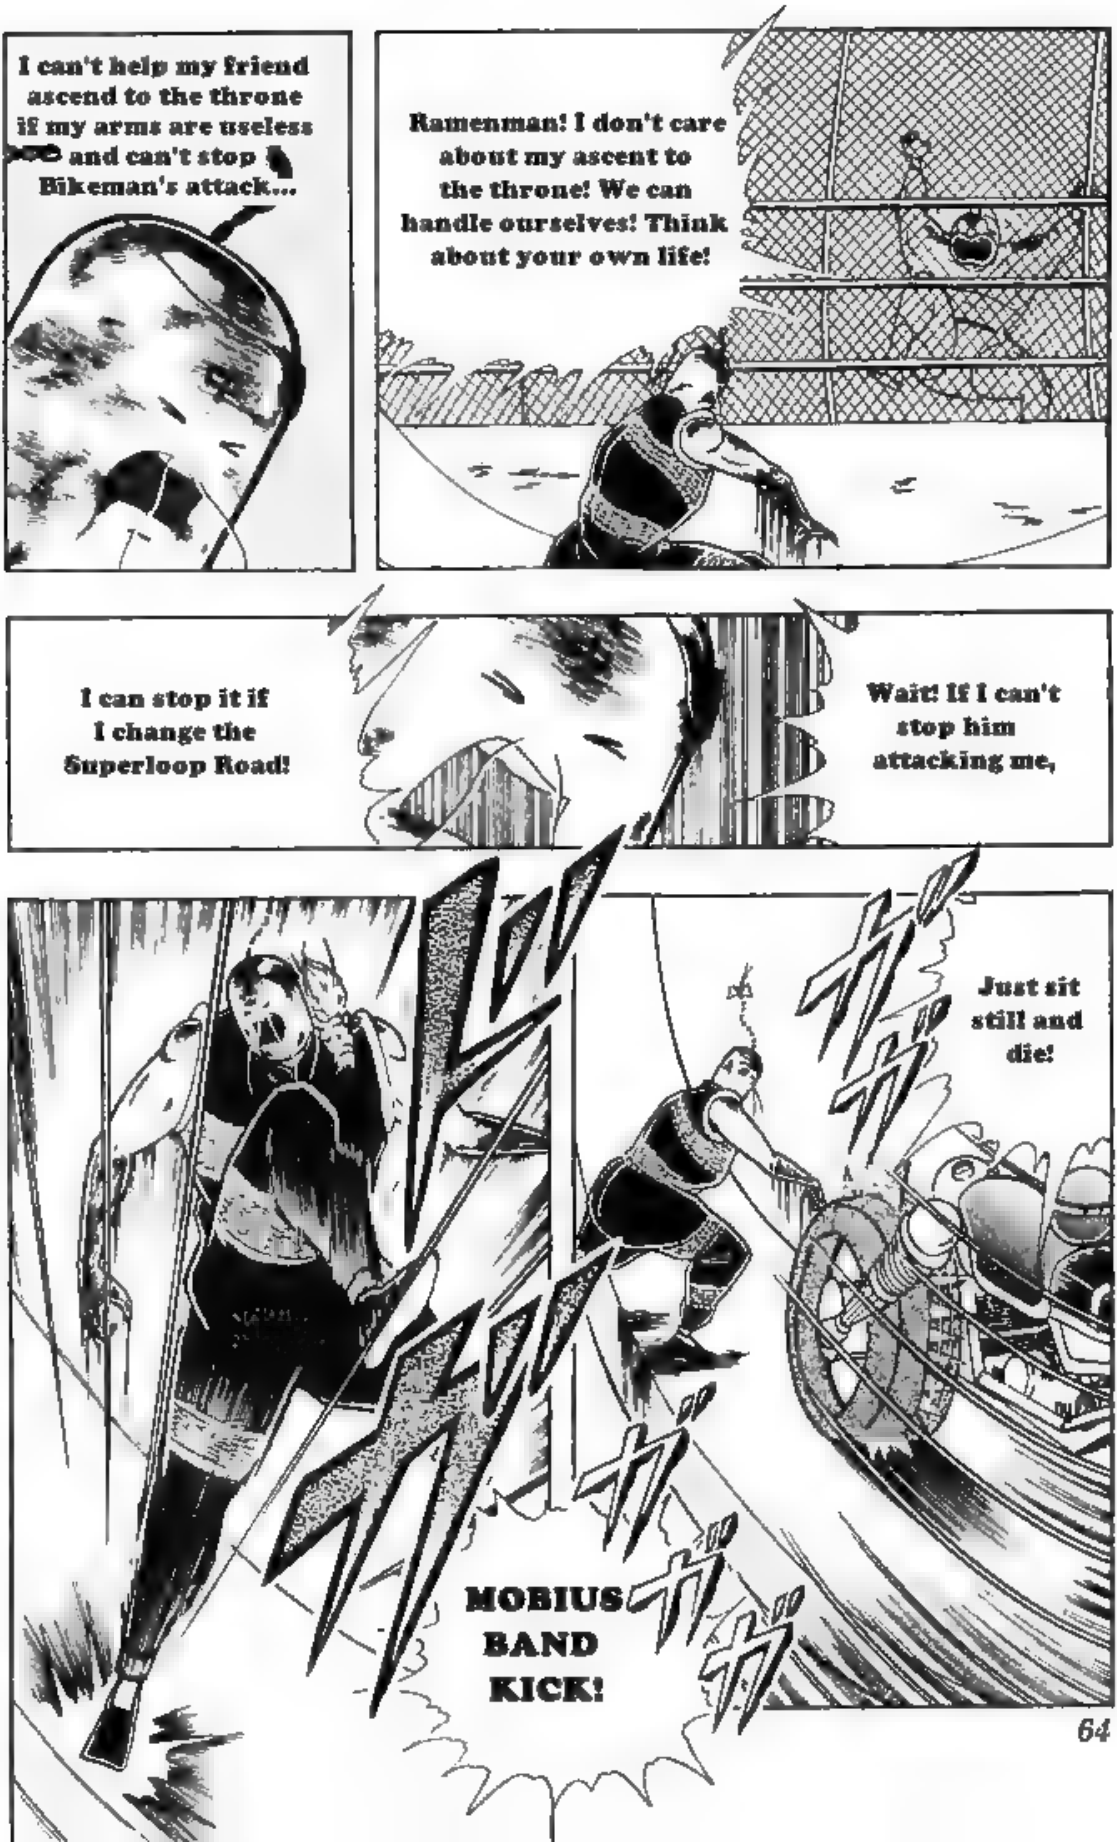
MOTOR-CYCLE CHANGE!
Ramenman has been thrown onto the Superloop Road! But what will Bikeman do to him on this new road?
This is where your grave will be, Ramenman!
Hyahahahaha!
Ramenman...
MY ARMS!



Woah! Spikes have jutted out of Bikeman's tires!
But I'm not done just yet! Your arms are just the beginning!
Heh heh heh, it seems your deadly arms are finally dealt with.



If I stay here, Bikeman will tear me apart! But if I run, Robin and Kinnikuman will have to deal with him...
Bikeman must be planning to tear off Ramenman's body, piece by piece!
Here we go!
BUZZSAW DRIVE!



I can't help my friend ascend to the throne if my arms are useless and can't stop Bikeman's attack...
Ramenman! I don't care about my ascent to the throne! We can handle ourselves! Think about your own life!
I can stop it if I change the Superloop Road!
Wait! If I can't stop him attacking me,
Just sit still and die!
MOBIUS BAND KICK!

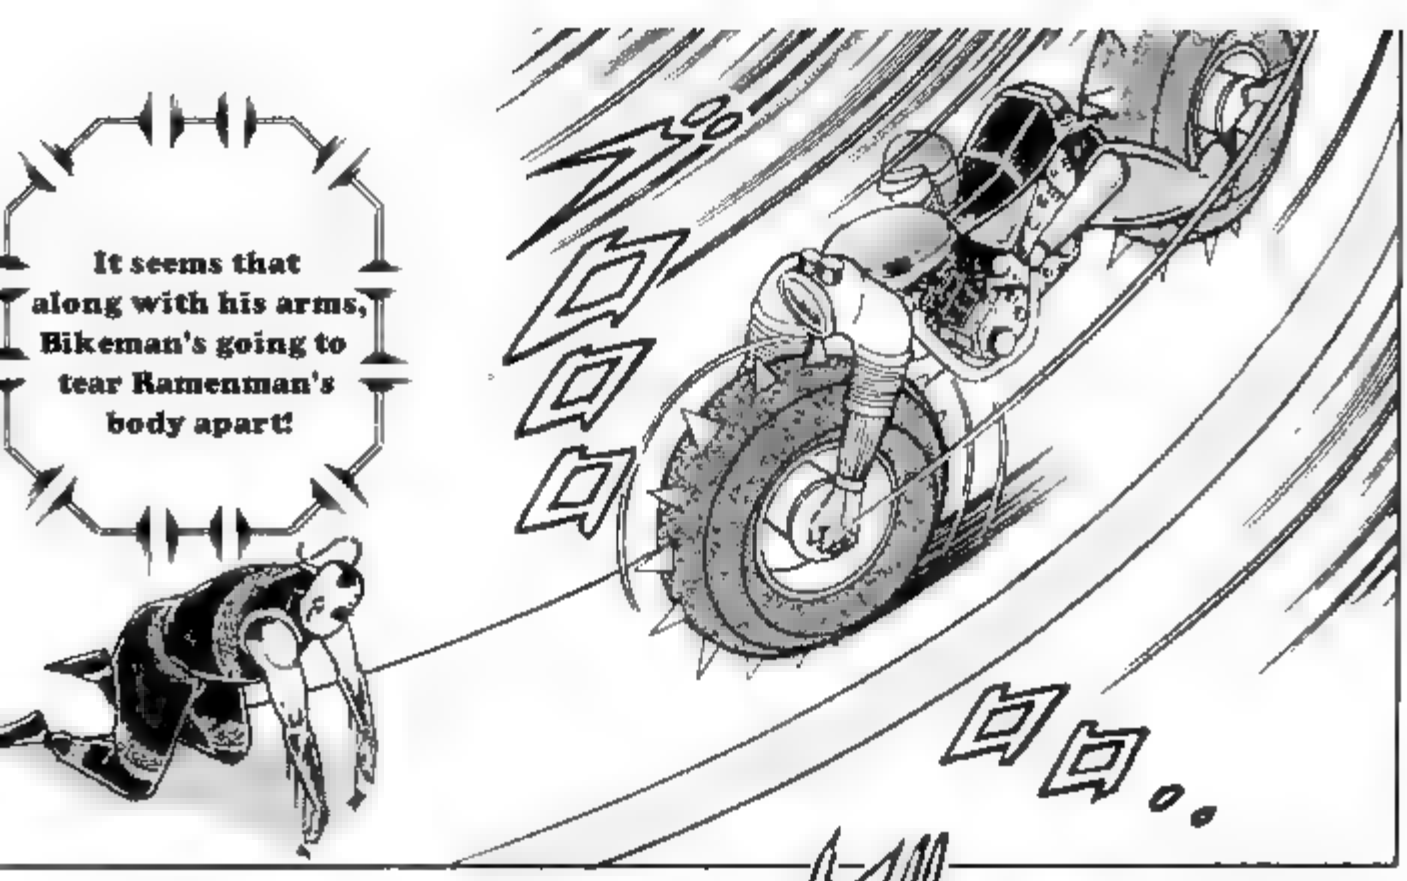
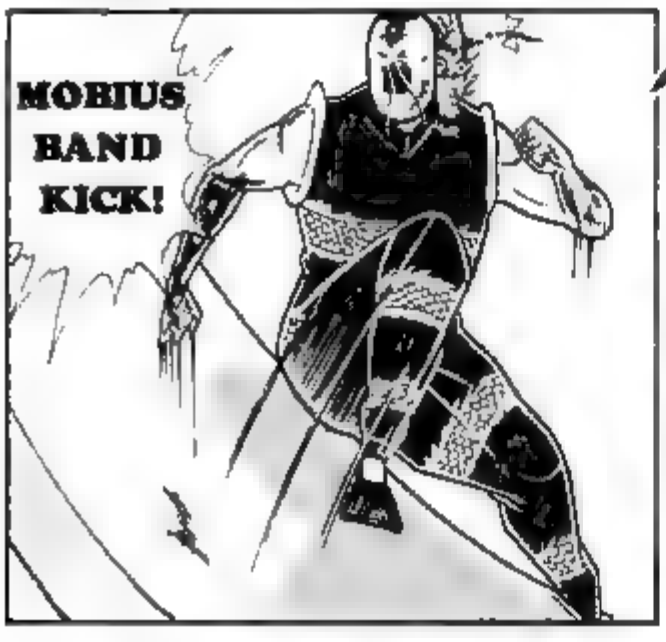
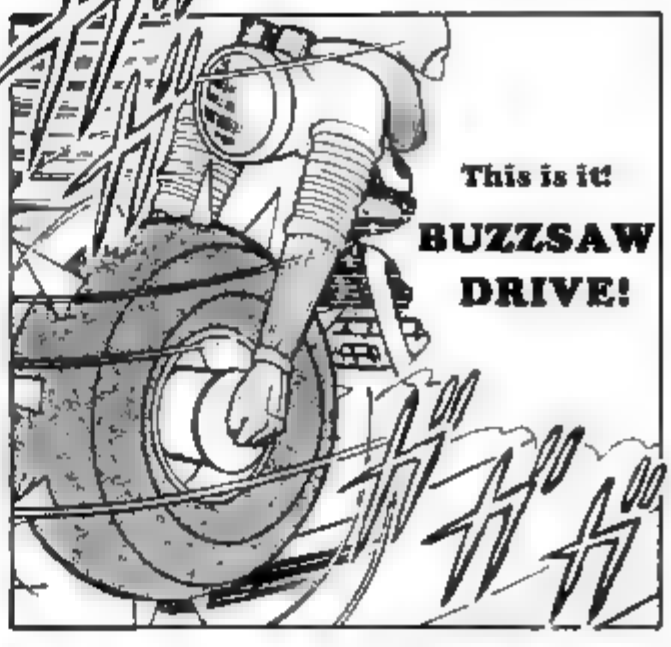
RAMENMAN VS. BIKEMAN



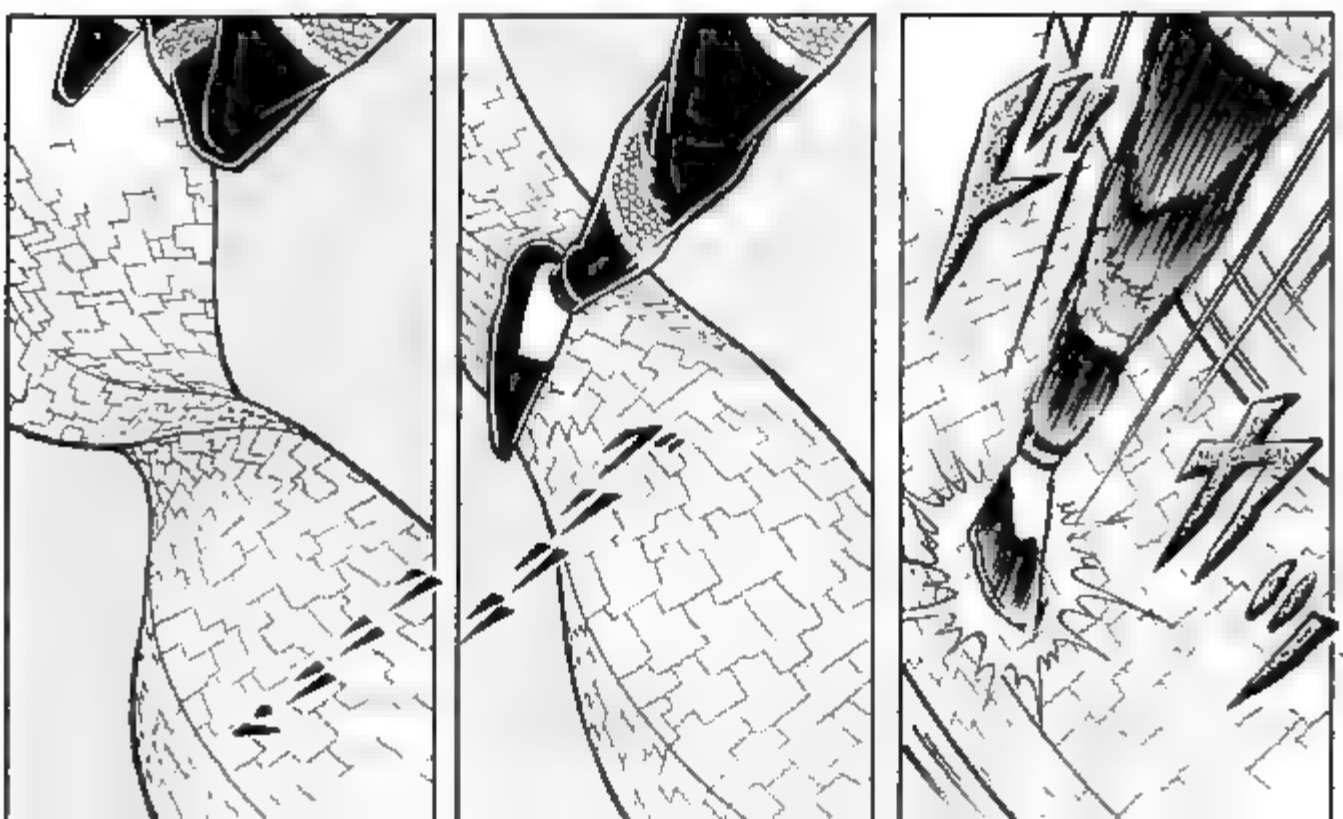
It seems that along with his arms, Bikeman's going to tear Ramenman's body apart!

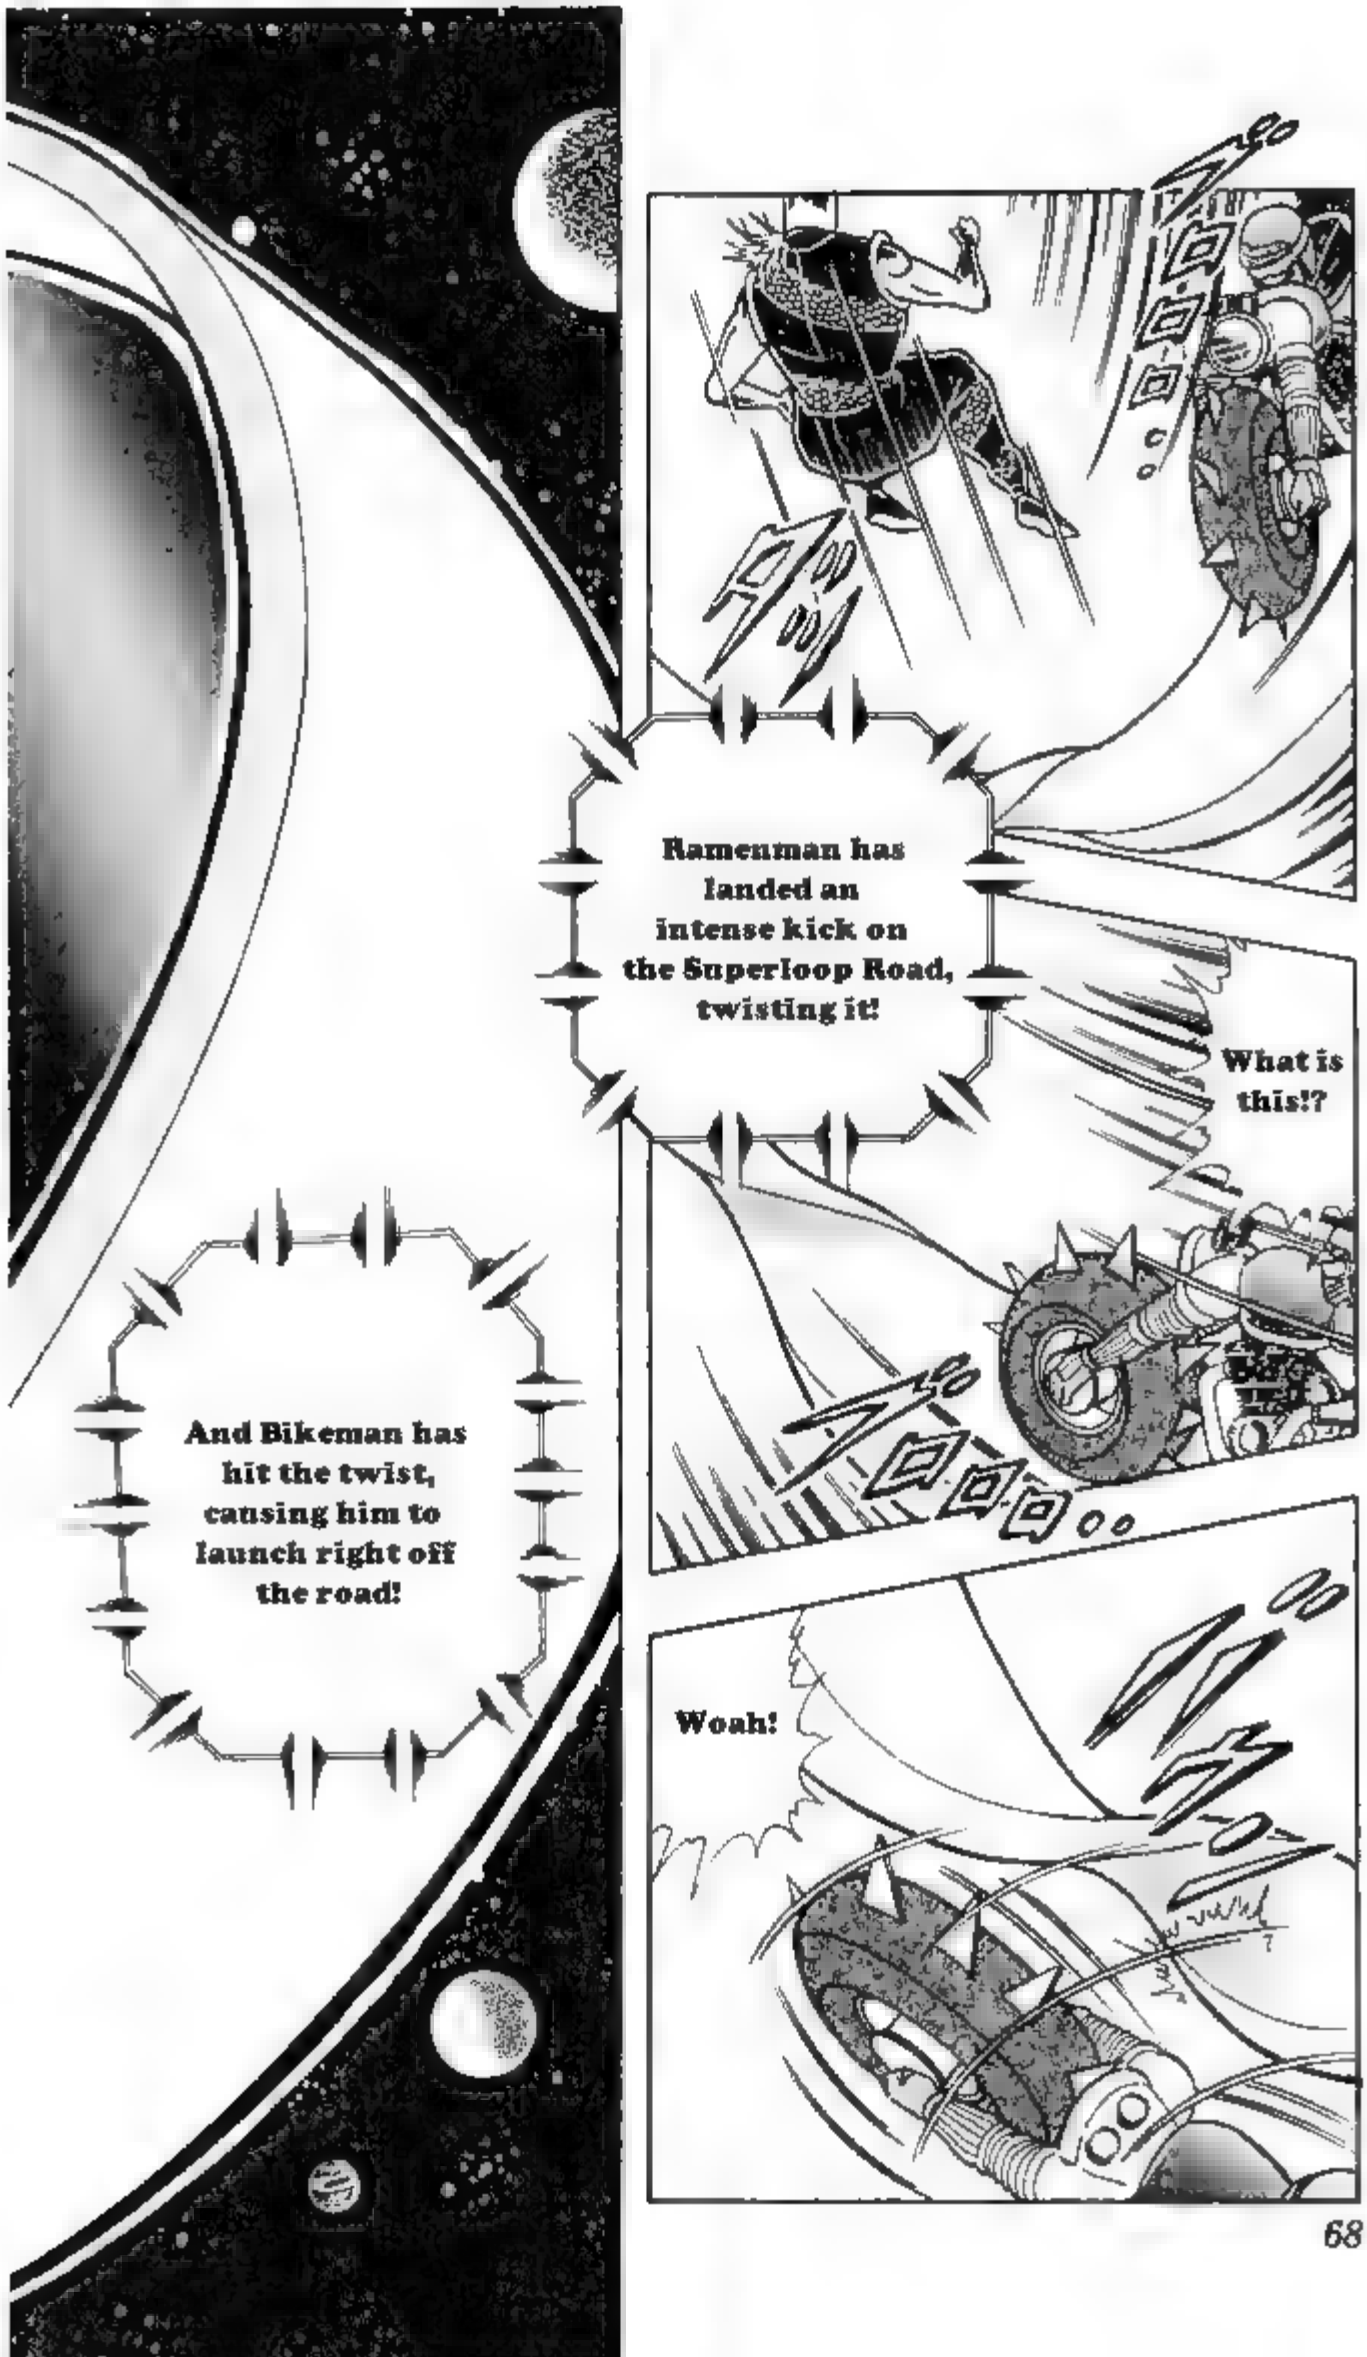


MOBIUS BAND KICK!



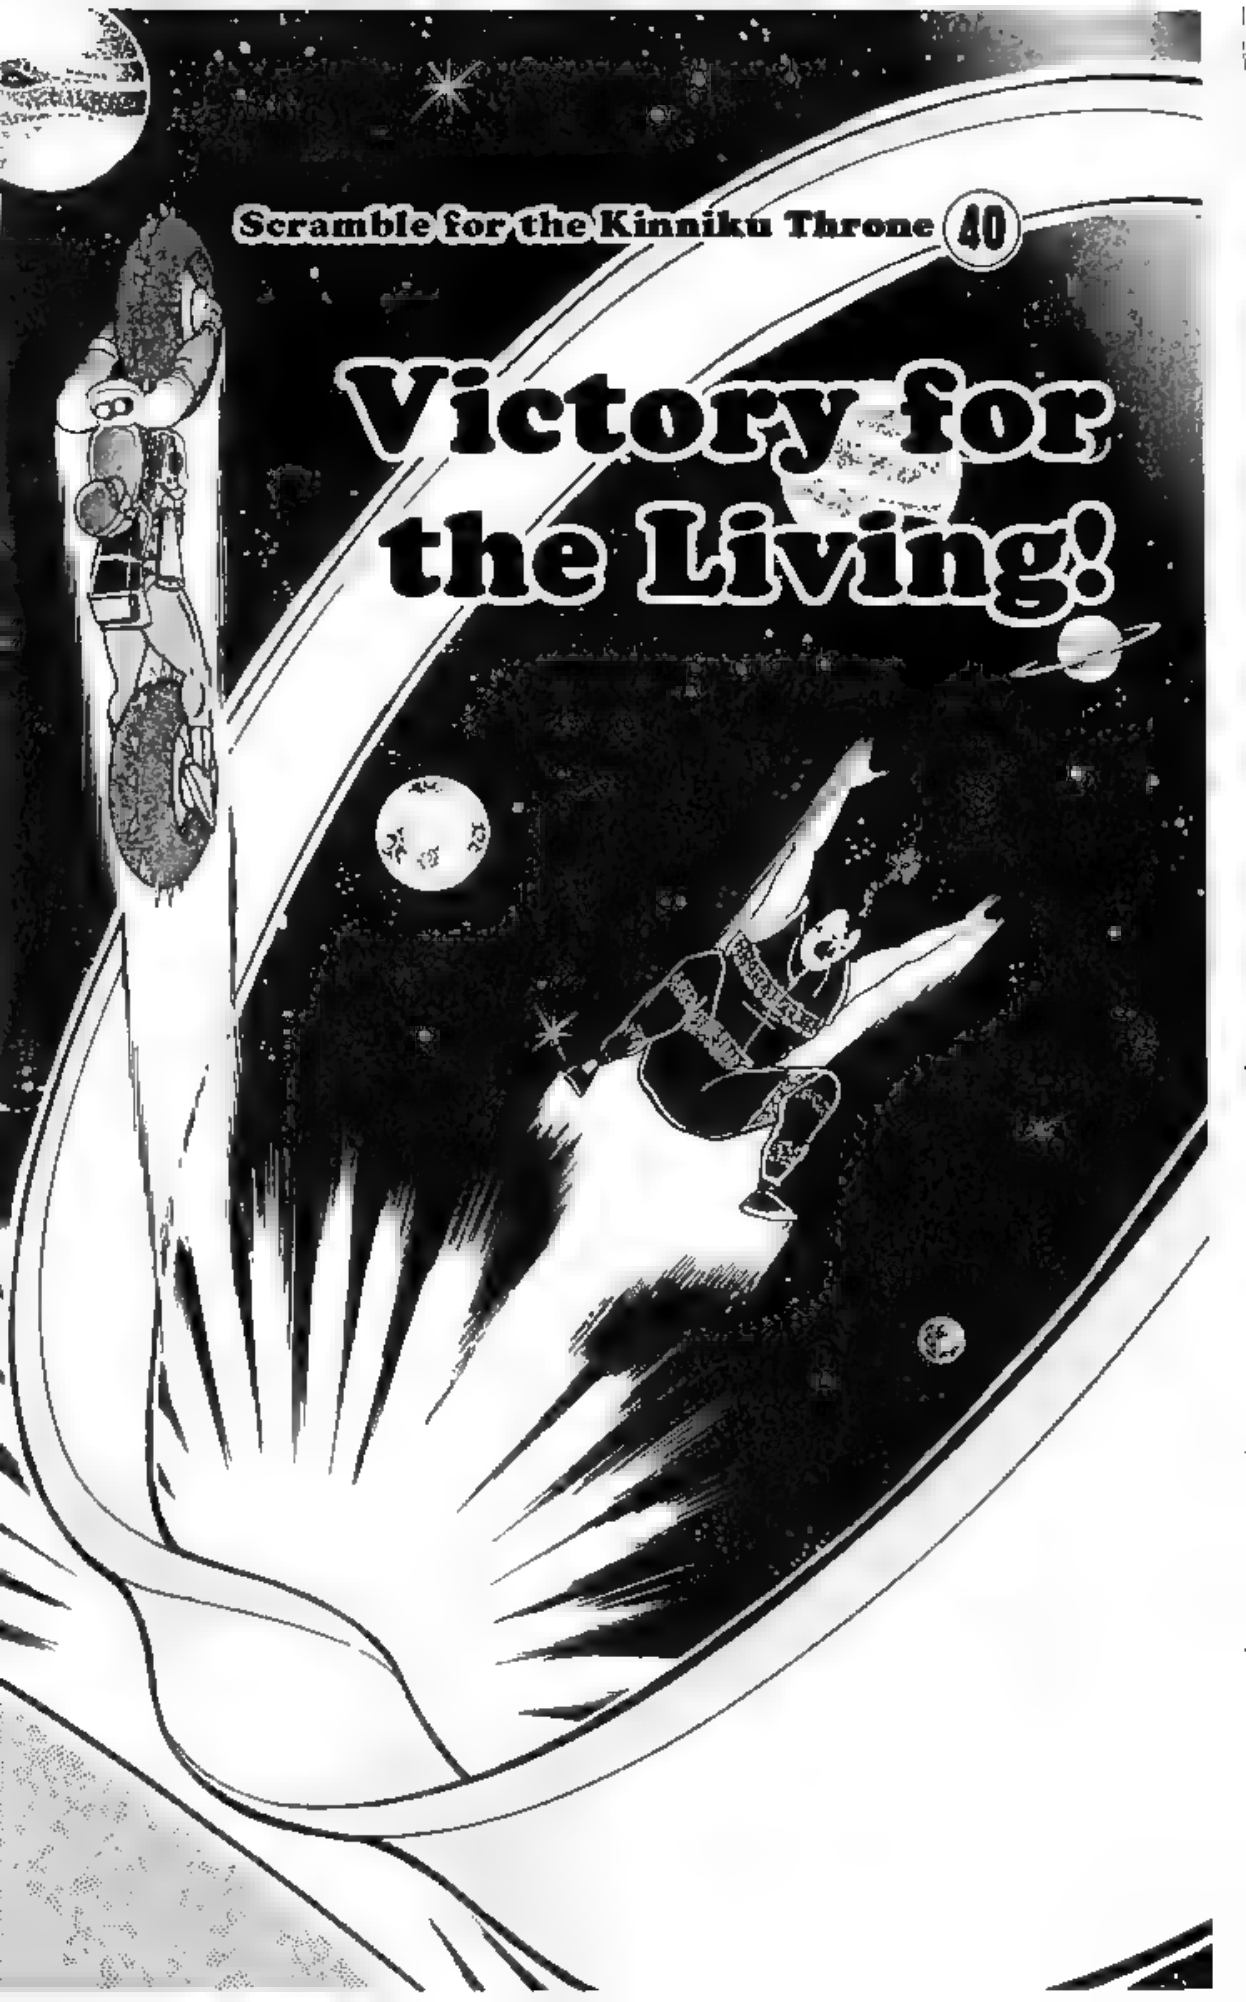
This is it!
BUZZSAW DRIVE!

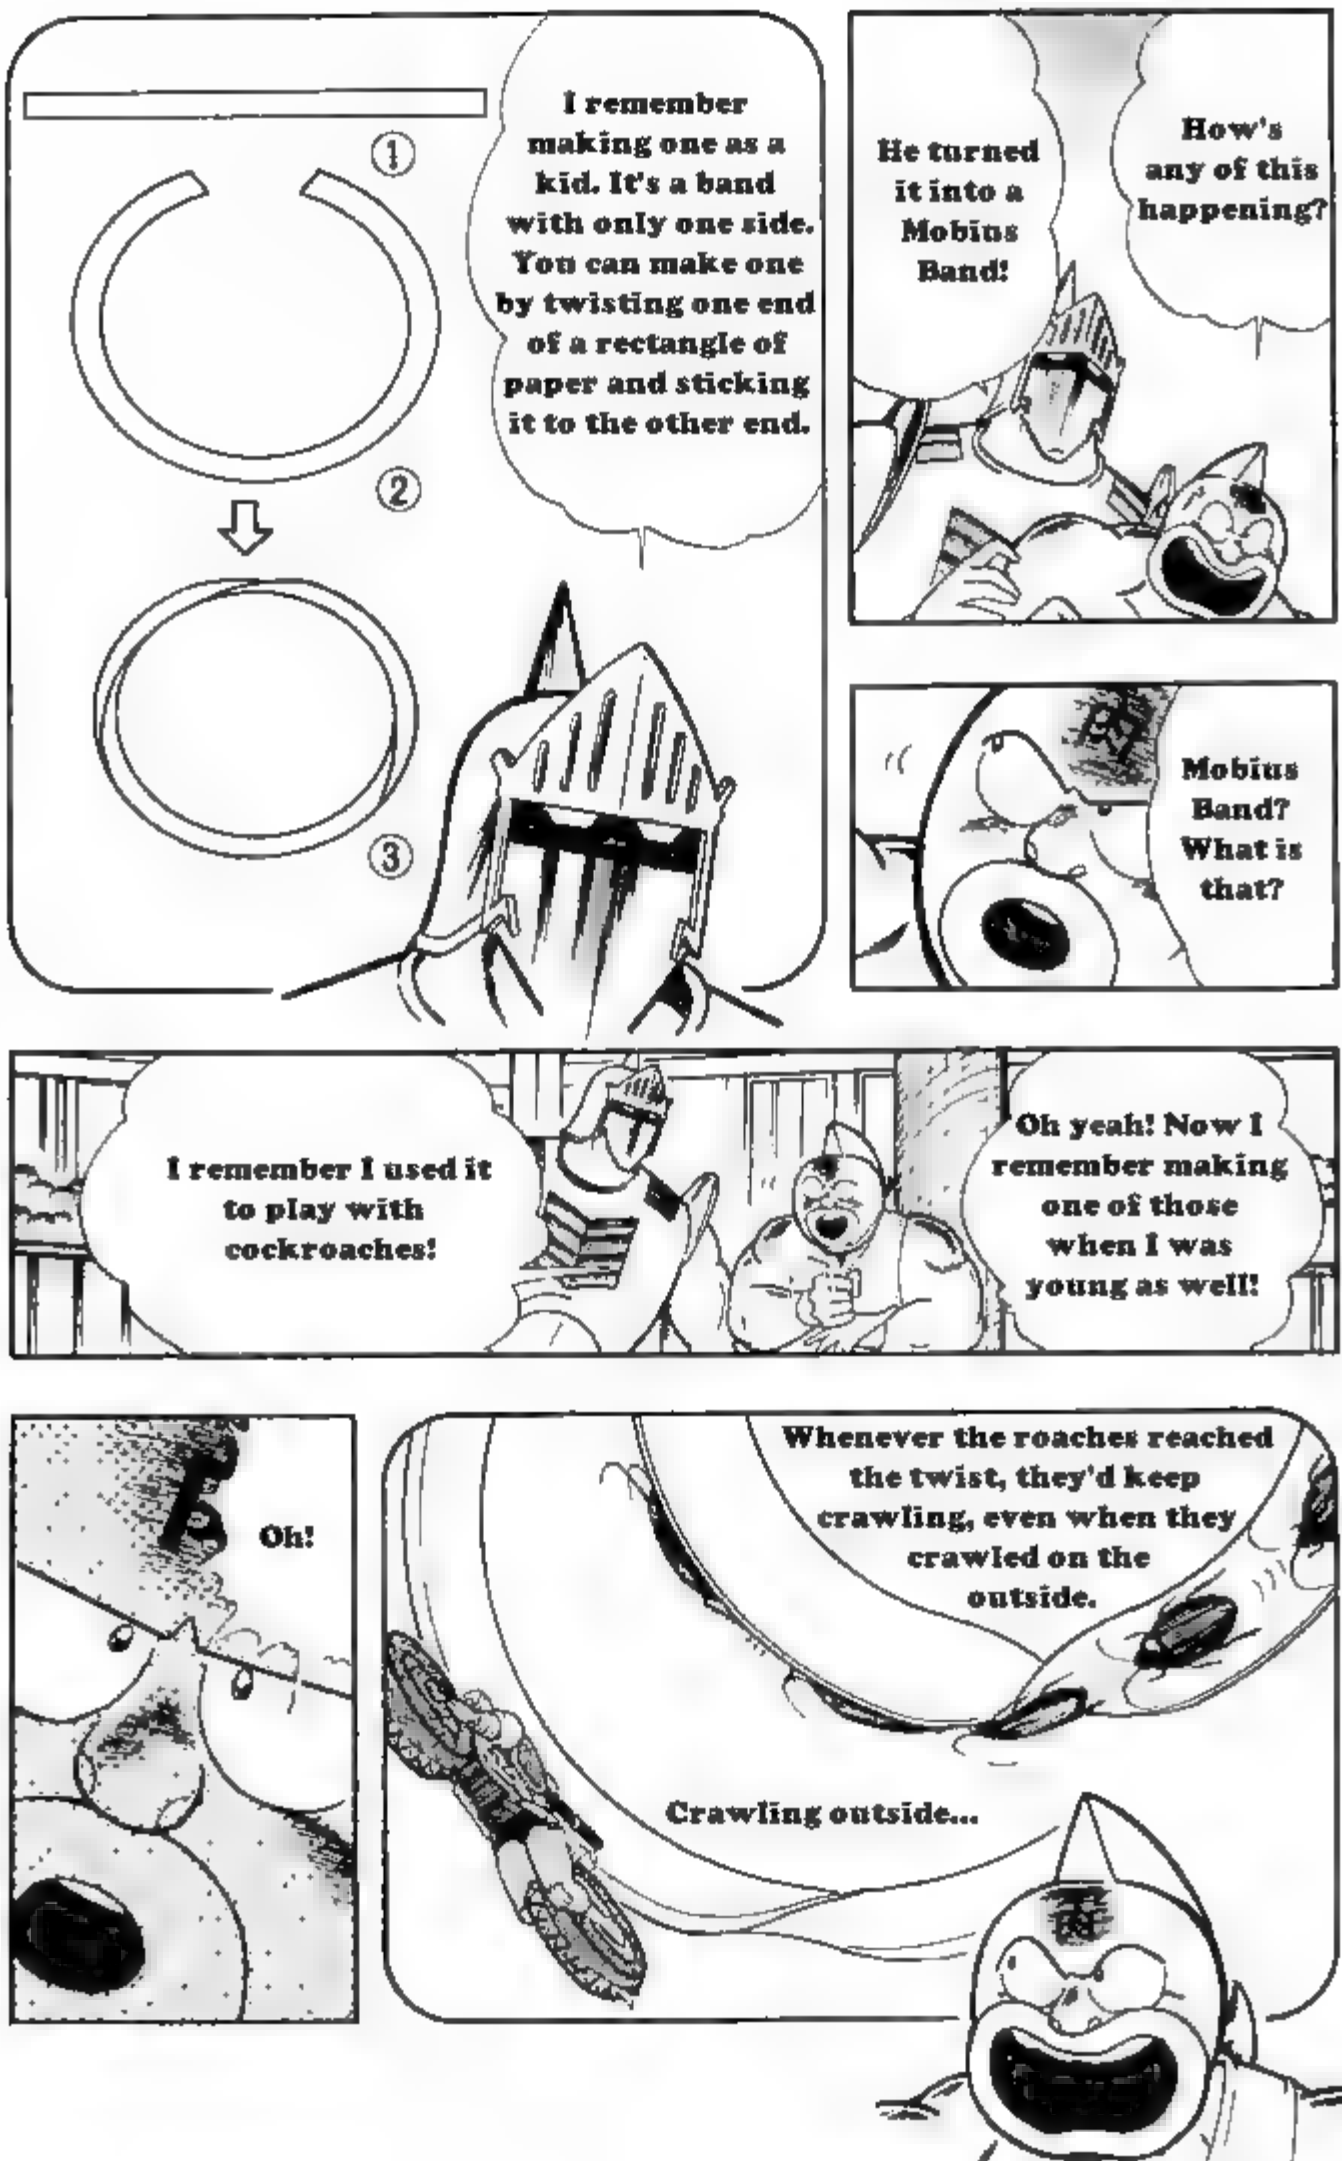




Ramenman has landed an intense kick on the Superloop Road, twisting it!
What is this!?
And Bikeman has hit the twist, causing him to launch right off the road!
Woah!

Victory for the Living!





I remember making one as a kid. It's a band with only one side. You can make one by twisting one end of a rectangle of paper and sticking it to the other end.

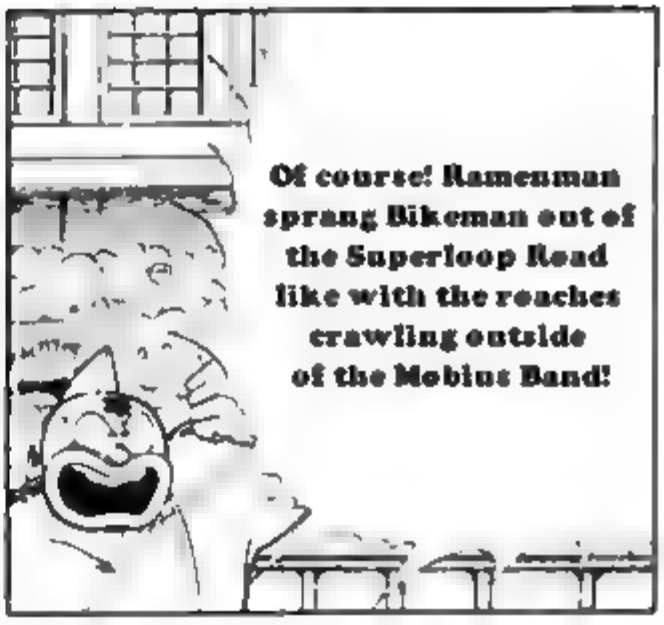
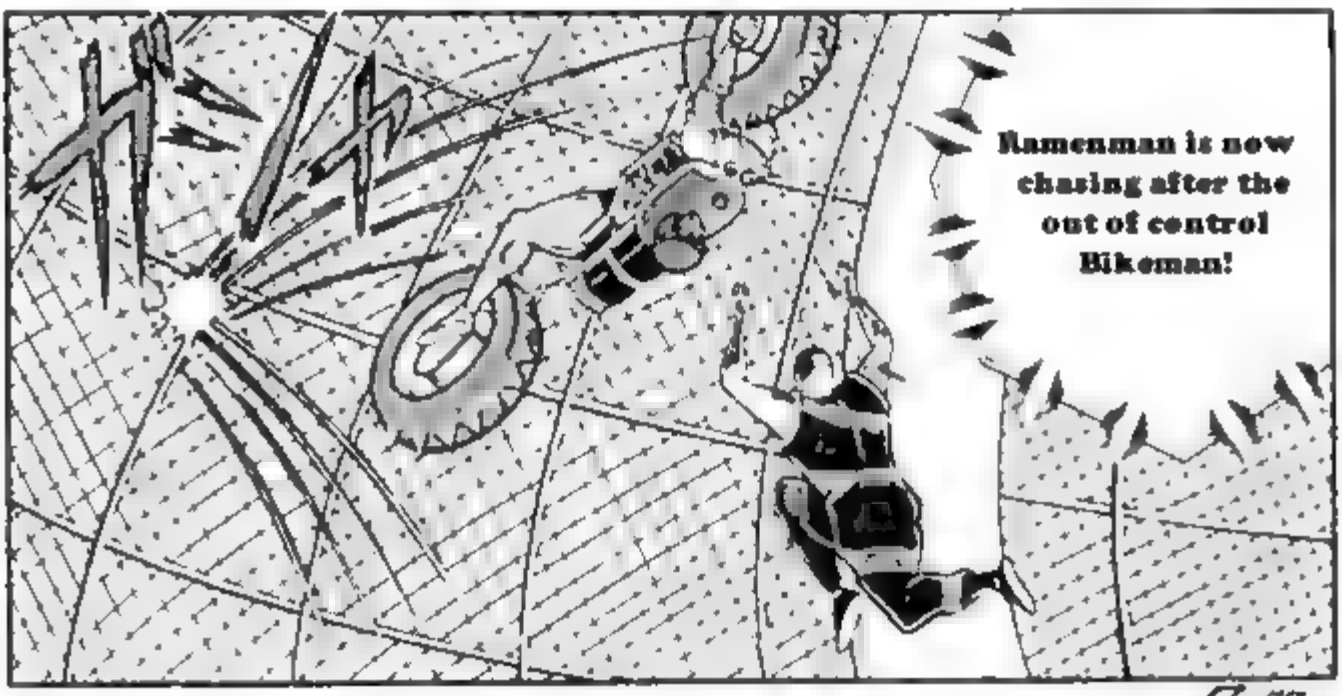
He turned it into a Mobius Band!
How's any of this happening?
Mobius Band? What is that?
I remember I used it to play with cockroaches!
Oh yeah! Now I remember making one of those when I was young as well!
Oh!
Whenever the roaches reached the twist, they'd keep crawling, even when they crawled on the outside.
Crawling outside...

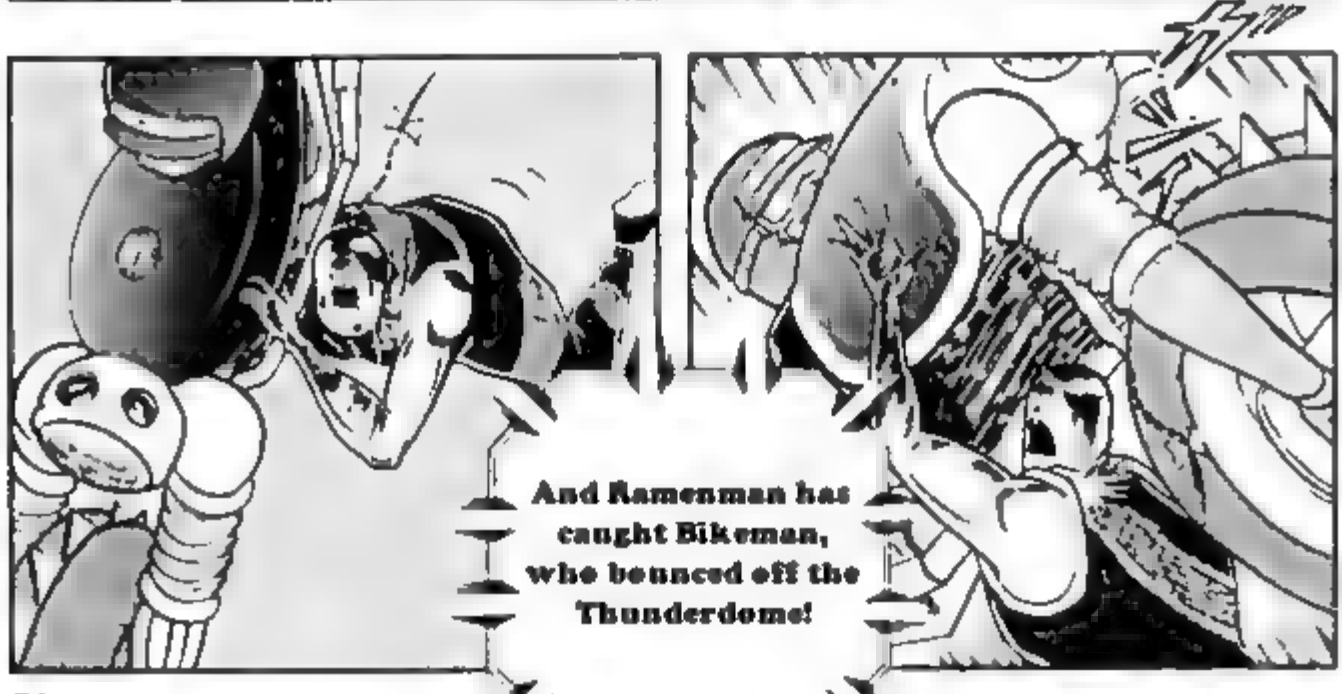
You're the best, Ramenman!
Nothing less was expected of your genius, Ramen-man!



Of course! Ramenman sprang Bikeman out of the Superloop Road like with the reaches crawling outside of the Mobius Band!

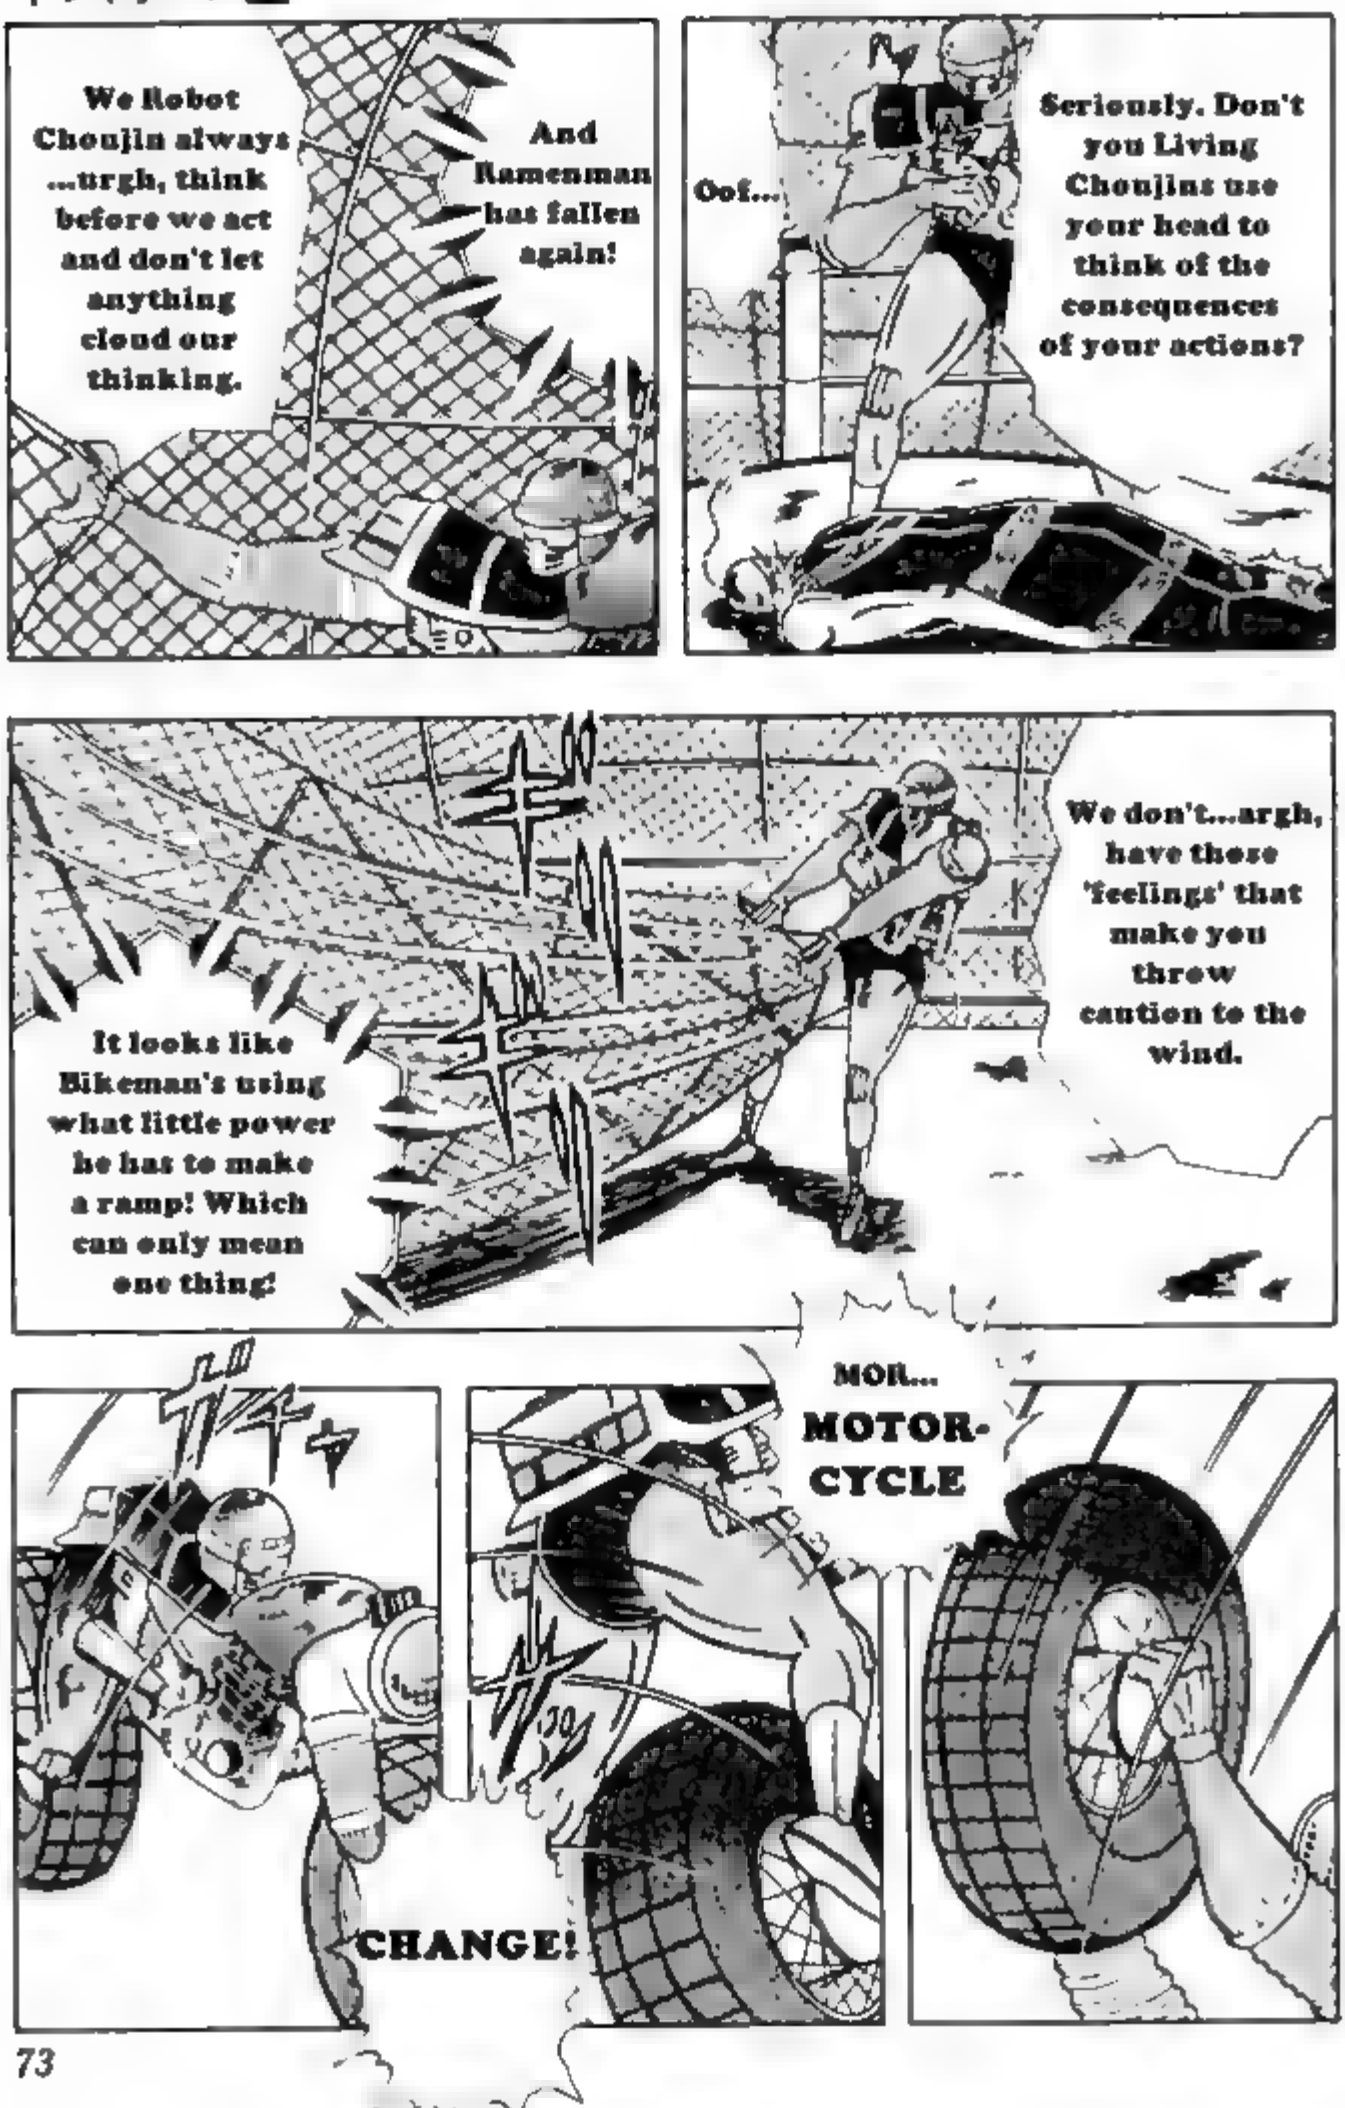


Ramenman is now chasing after the out of control Bikeman!



And Ramenman has caught Bikeman, who bounced off the Thunderdome!

It seems that Oklahoma Stampede slammed Bikeman back into his human form!
OKLAHOMA STAMPEDE!
Here's your chance to finish him, Ramenman!
Uh oh! It seems Ramenman injured his leg when he landed that powerful kick on the Superloop Road to turn it into a Mobius Band!
Urgh, my leg...
Heh heh, it looks like your counterattack did more damage to you than it did to me...



We Robot Choujin always ...urgh, think before we act and don't let anything cloud our thinking.
And Ramenman has fallen again!
Oof...
Seriously. Don't you Living Choujins use your head to think of the consequences of your actions?
It looks like Bikeman's using what little power he has to make a ramp! Which can only mean one thing!
We don't...argh, have these 'feelings' that make you throw caution to the wind.

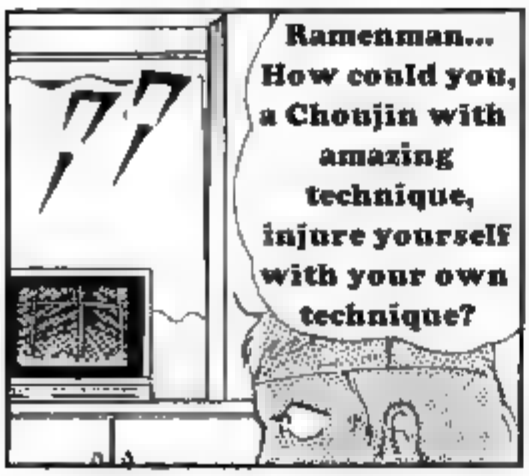
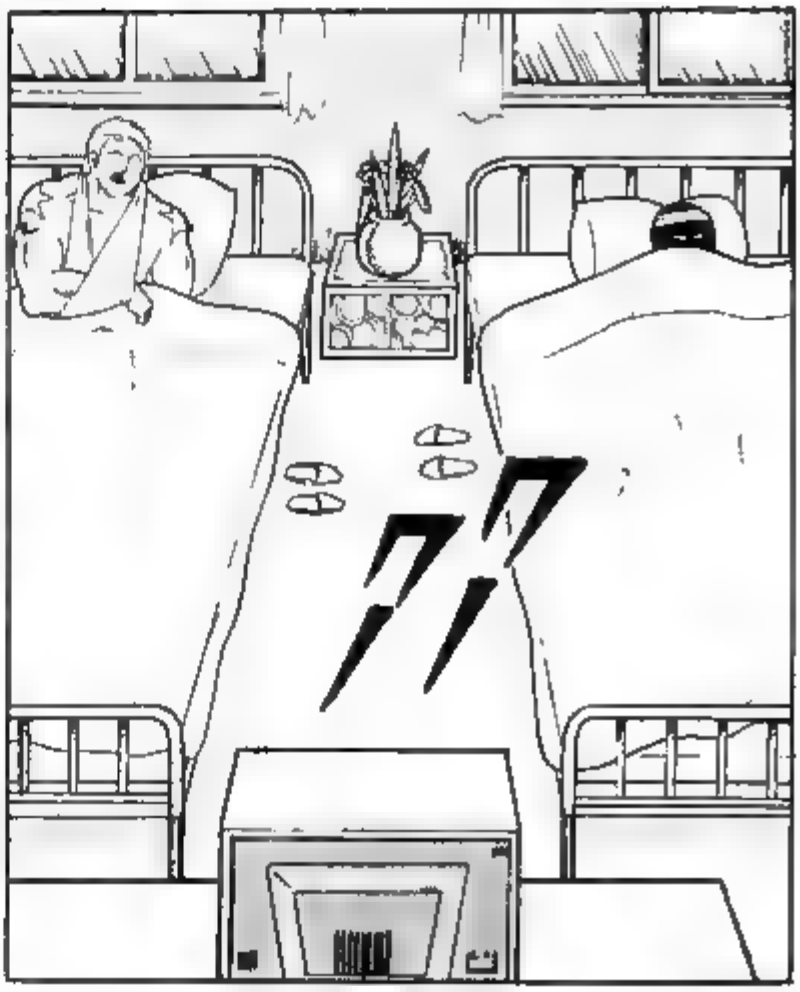
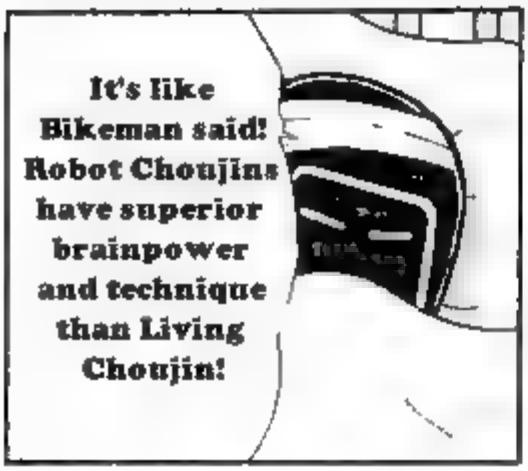
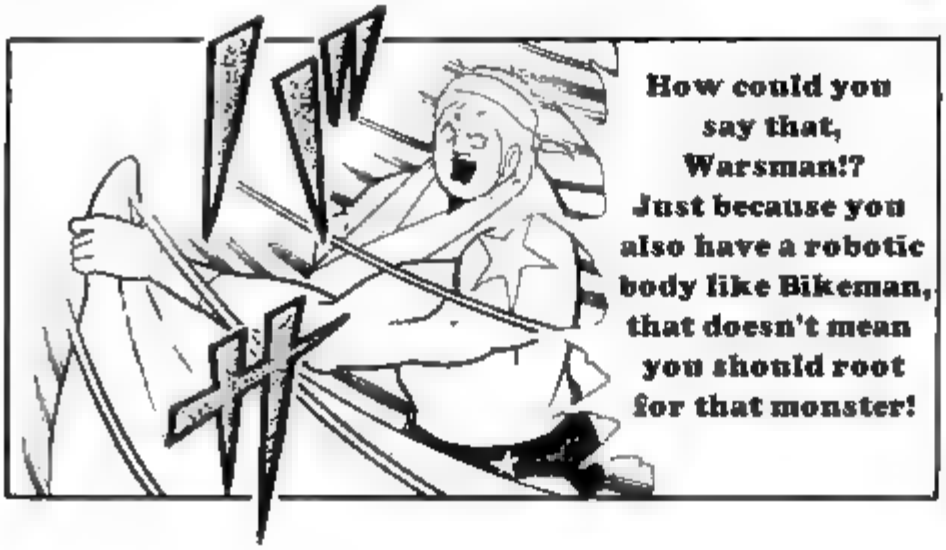
Signs - Warsman / Terryman

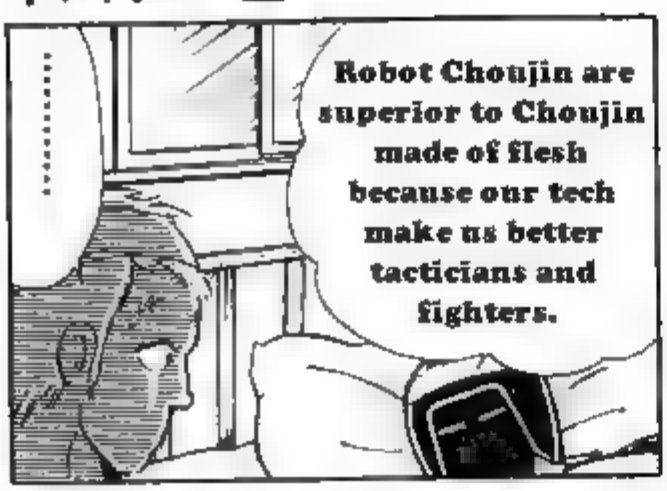




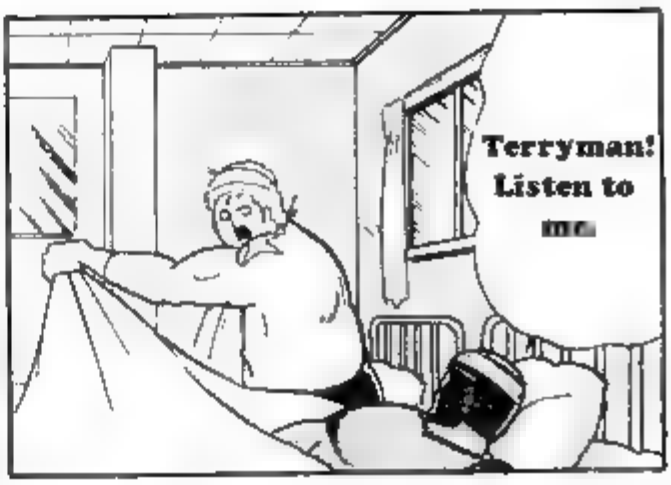




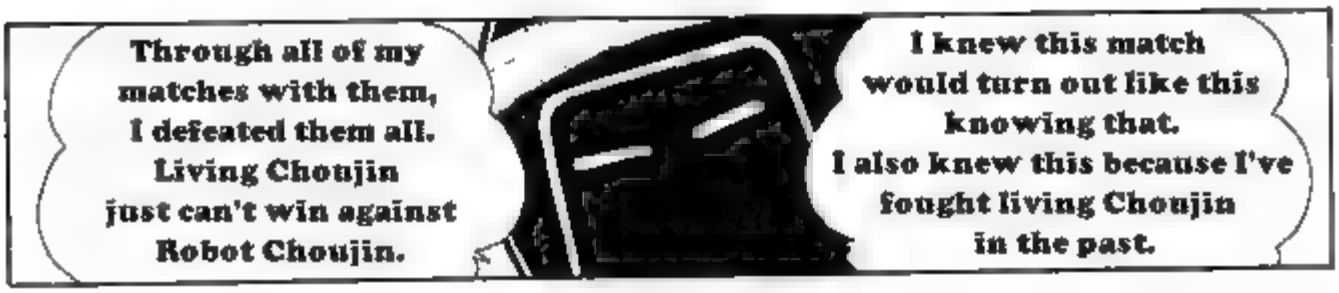
How could you say that, Warsman!? Just because you also have a robotic body like Bikeman, that doesn't mean you should root for that monster!



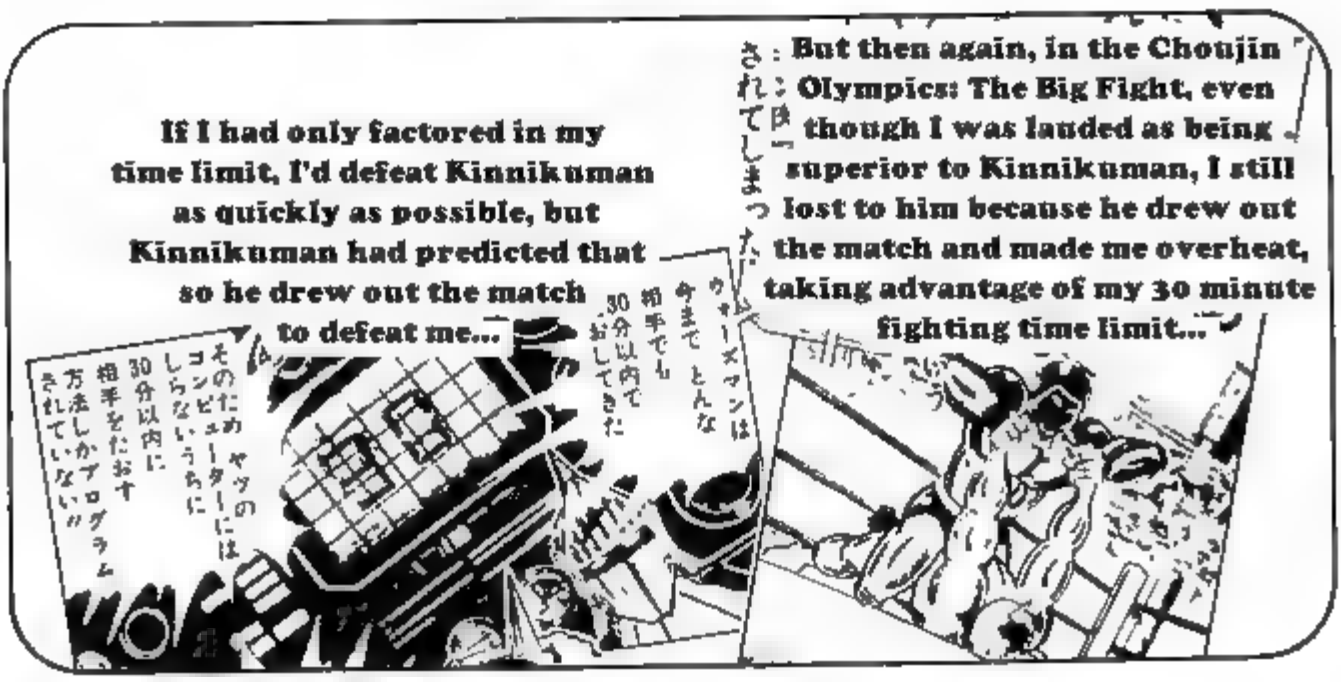
Robot Choujin are superior to Choujin made of flesh because our tech make us better tacticians and fighters.



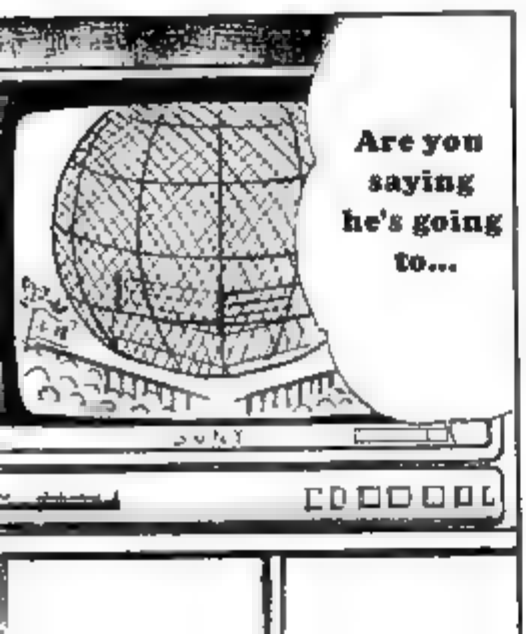
Terryman! Listen to me.



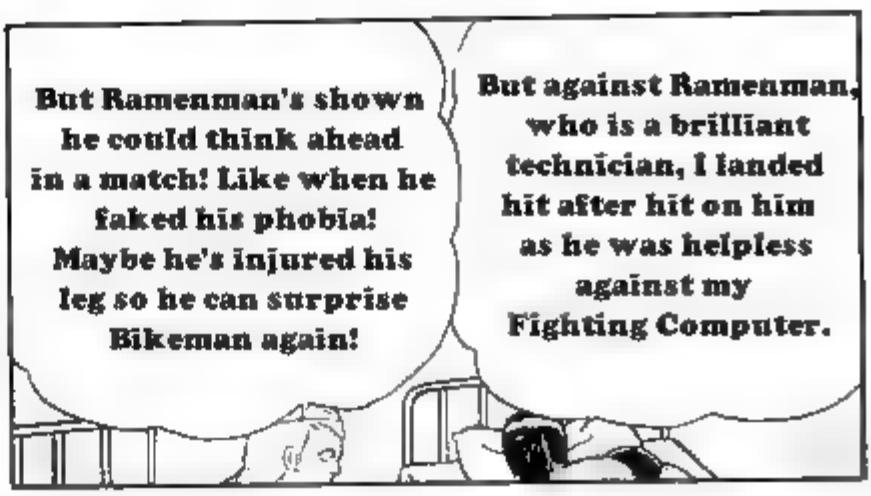
Through all of my matches with them, I defeated them all. Living Choujin just can't win against Robot Choujin.
I knew this match would turn out like this knowing that. I also knew this because I've fought living Choujin in the past.



If I had only factored in my time limit, I'd defeat Kinnikuman as quickly as possible, but Kinnikuman had predicted that so he drew out the match to defeat me...
But then again, in the Choujin Olympics: The Big Fight, even though I was lauded as being superior to Kinnikuman, I still lost to him because he drew out the match and made me overheat, taking advantage of my 30 minute fighting time limit...



Are you saying he's going to...



But Ramenman's shown he could think ahead in a match! Like when he faked his phobia! Maybe he's injured his leg so he can surprise Bikeman again!
But against Ramenman, who is a brilliant technician, I landed hit after hit on him as he was helpless against my Fighting Computer.

Himeji Castle

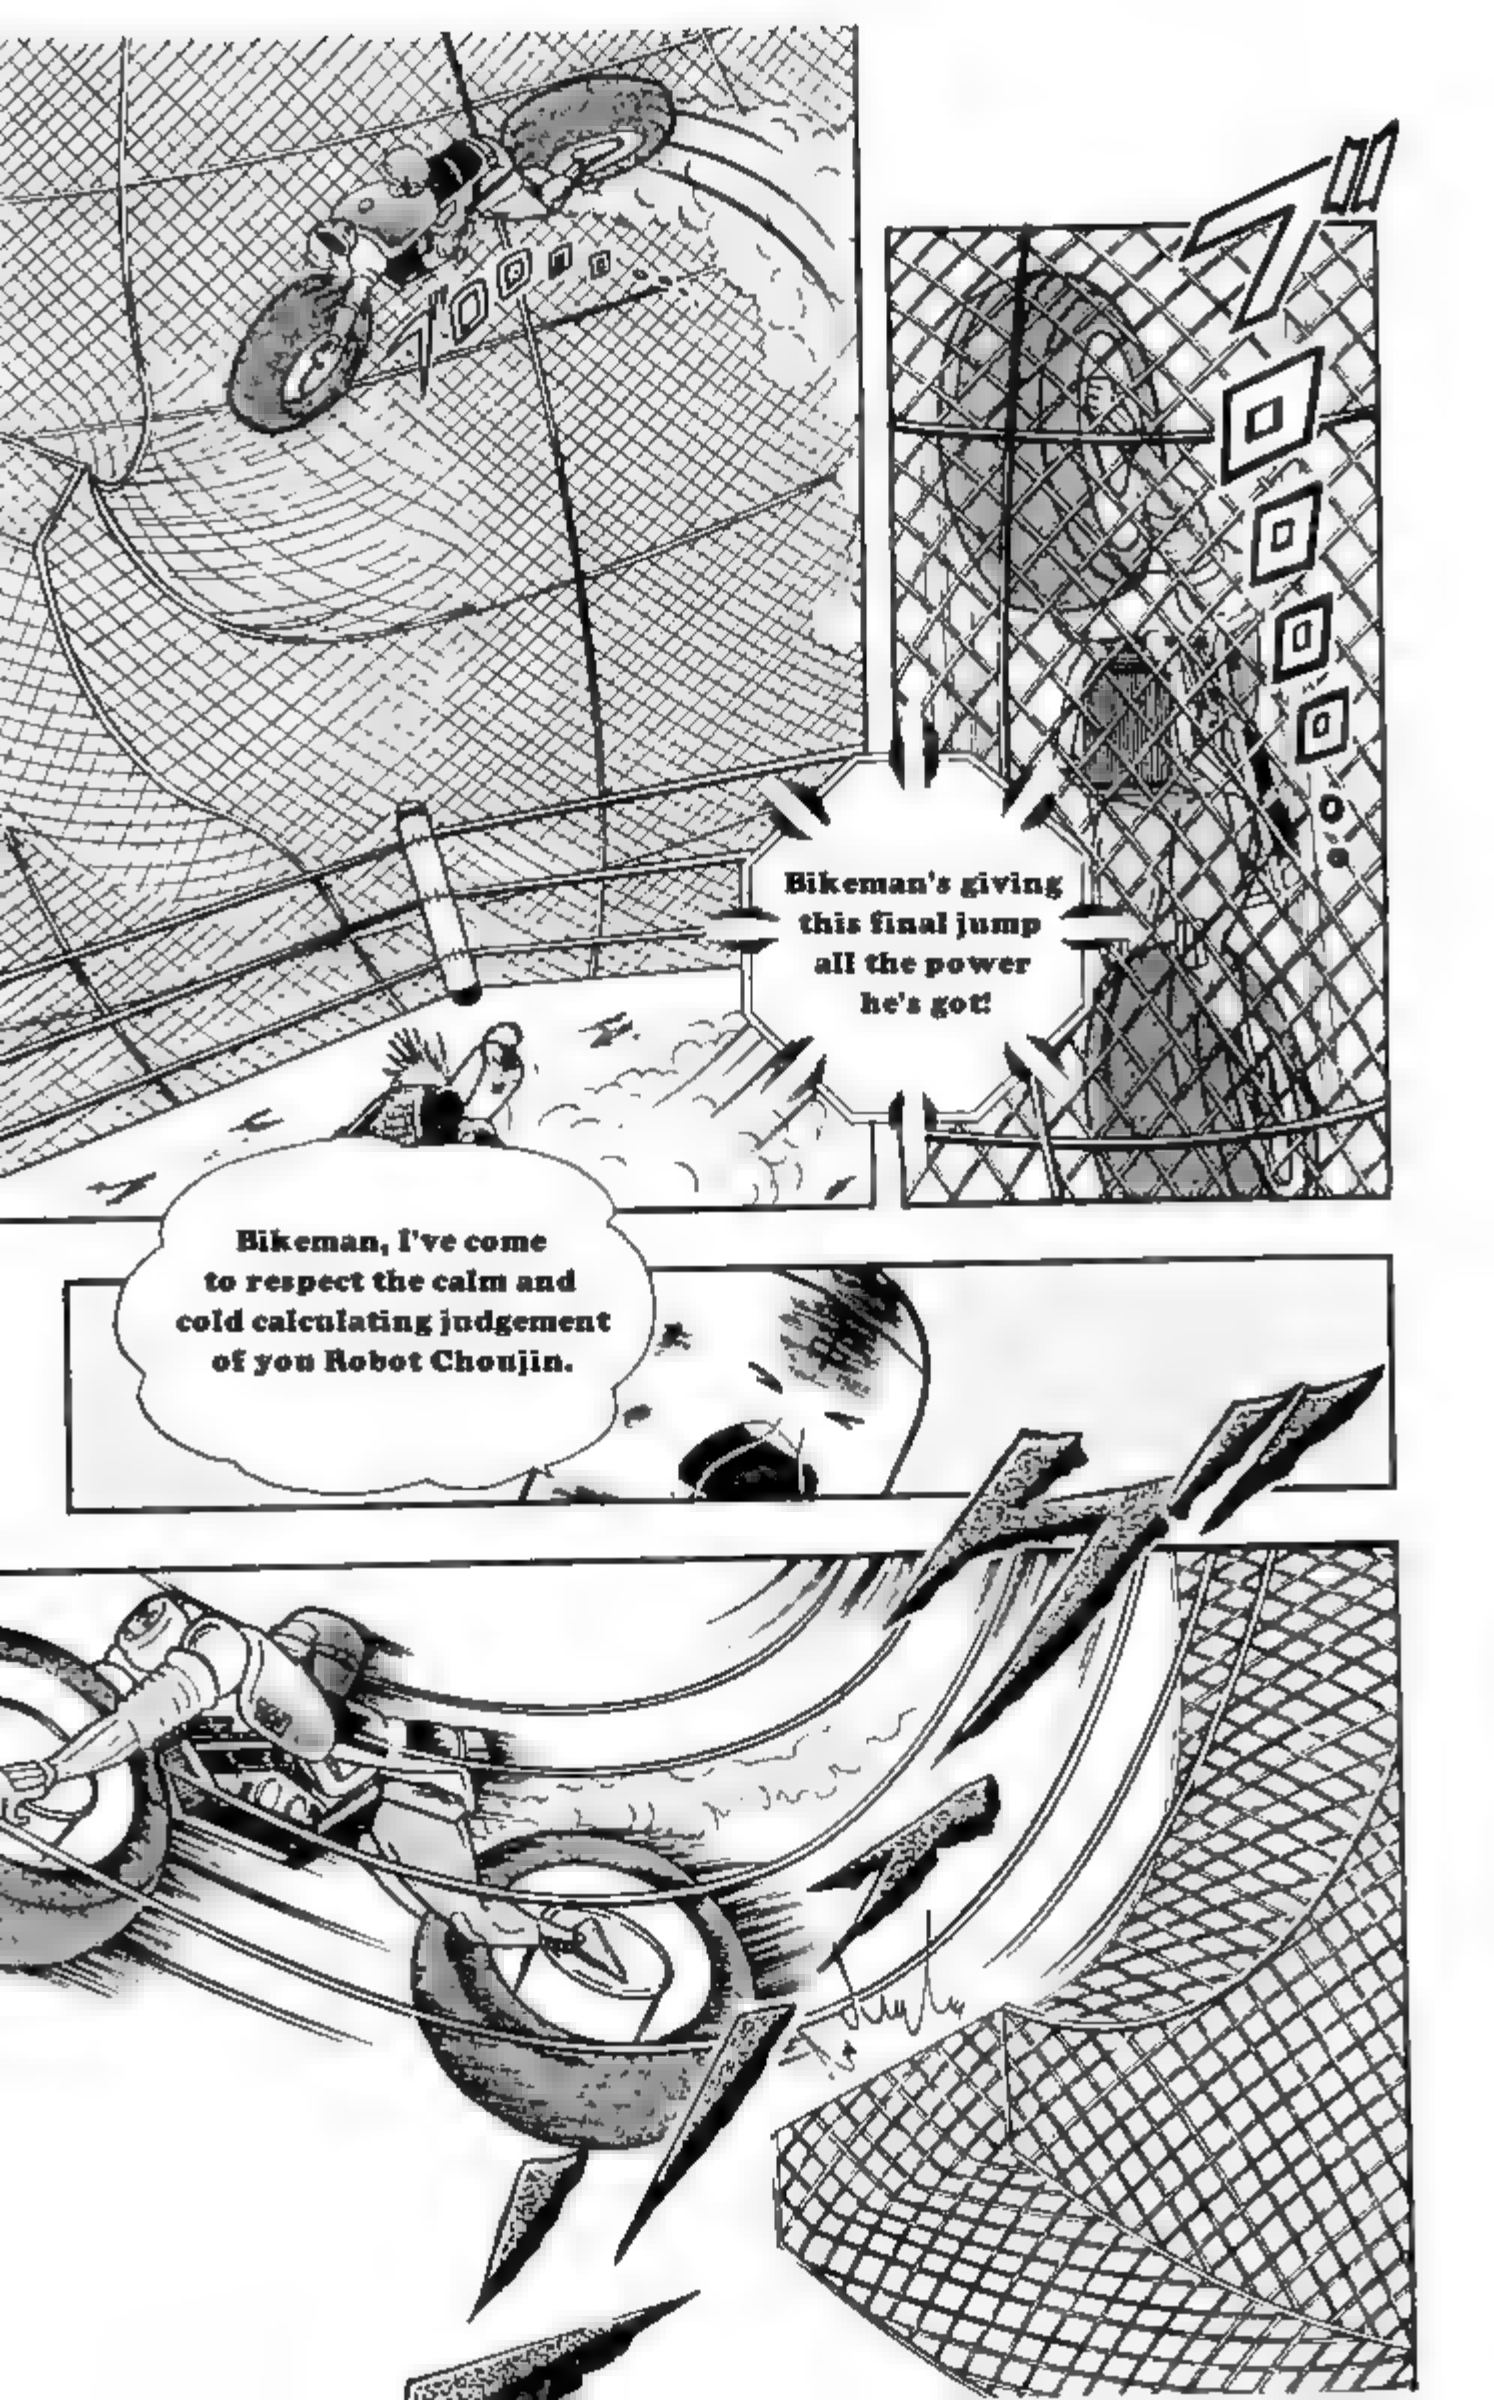
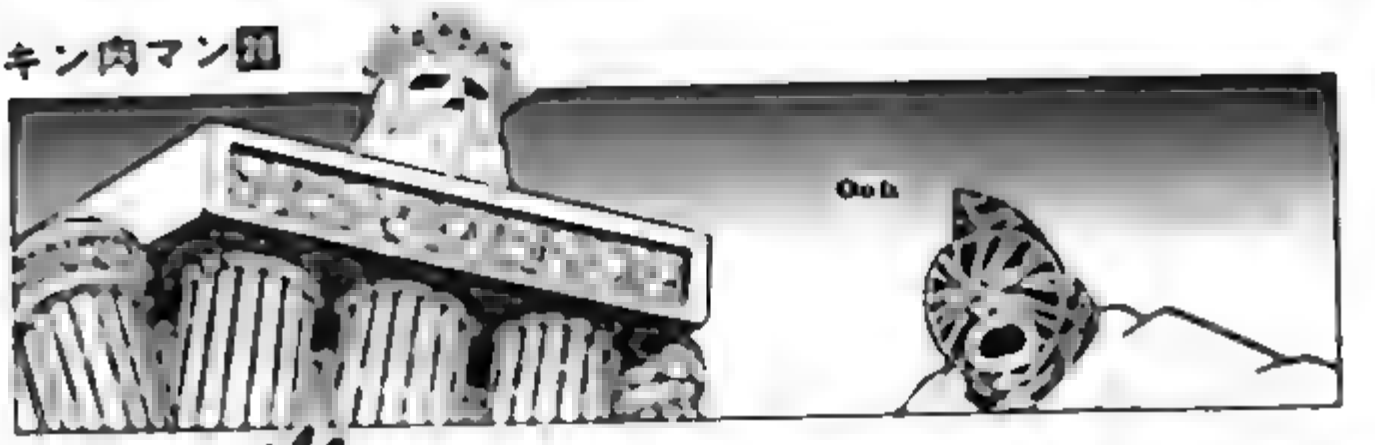
Woah! Those chains holding up the Thunderdome look shaky!
Come on! Get up, Ramenman!
Wh...Why, How are you still getting up? Both your arms and your right leg are smashed up...
Urgh...

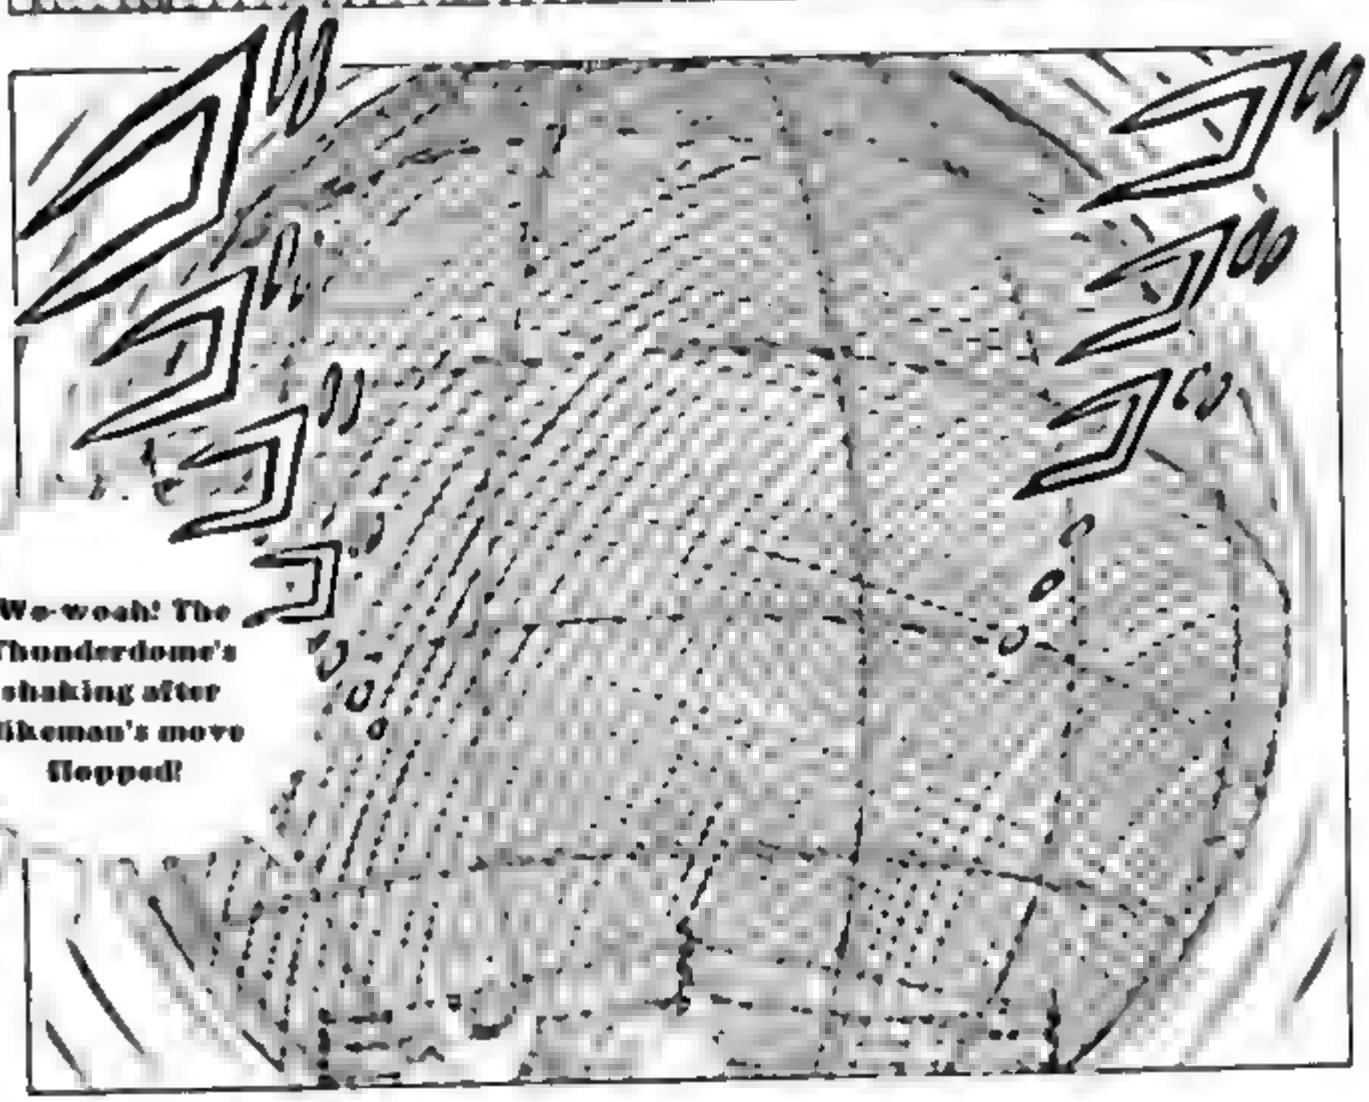


Bikeman's giving this final jump all the power he's got!
Bikeman, I've come to respect the calm and cold calculating judgement of you Robot Choujin.

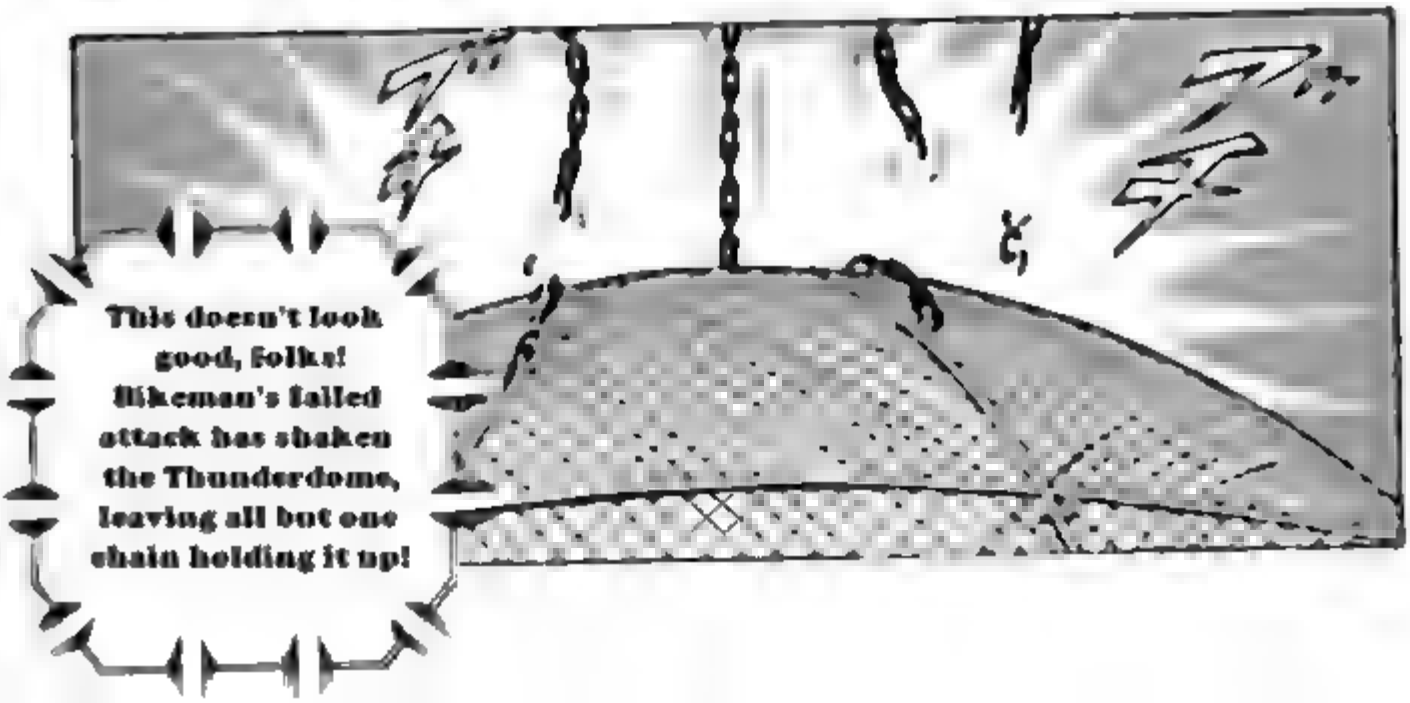
But just thinking ahead a step or two in a match is child's play!
KILL THE SKYDIVE!
What!?
I don't believe it! Ramenman still had enough energy to avoid Bikeman's finisher!



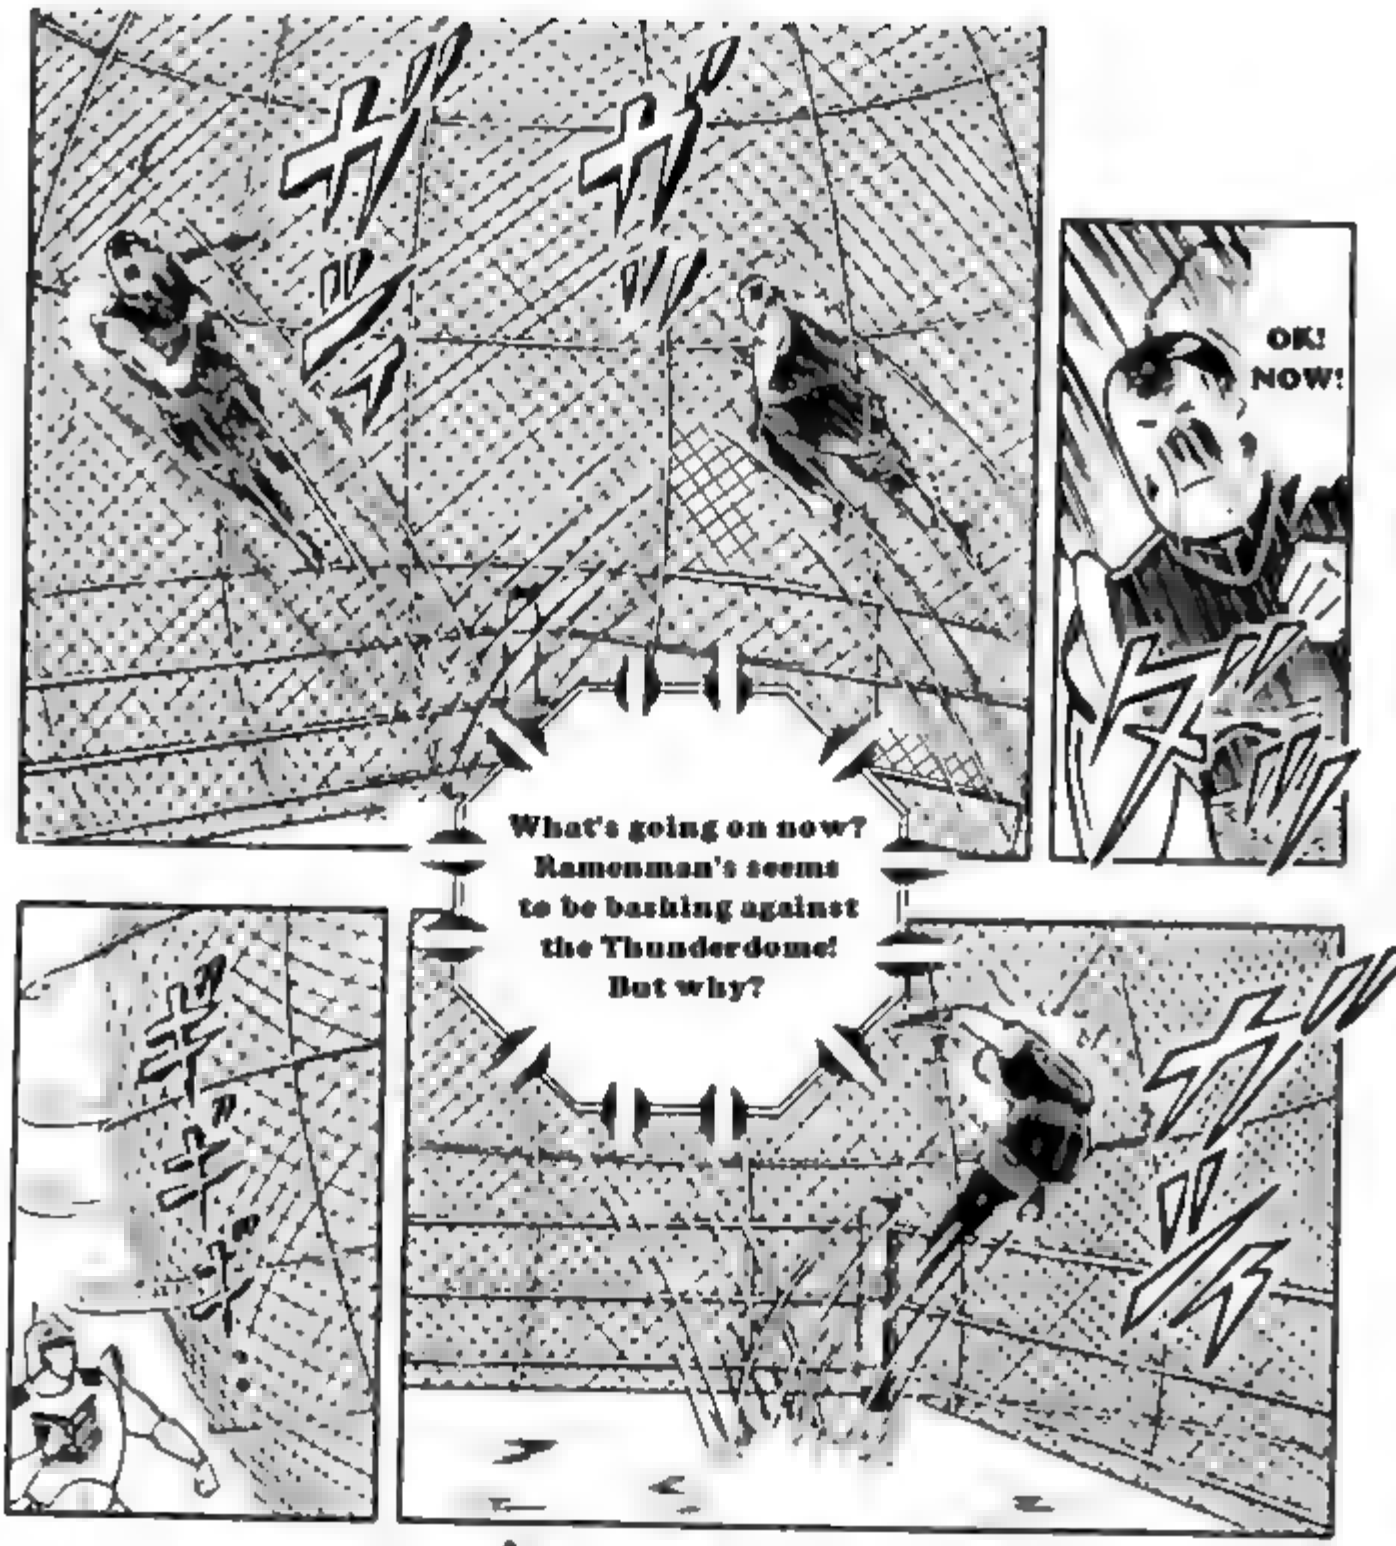
Oo h



We-woah! The Thunderdome's shaking after Bikeman's move flopped!

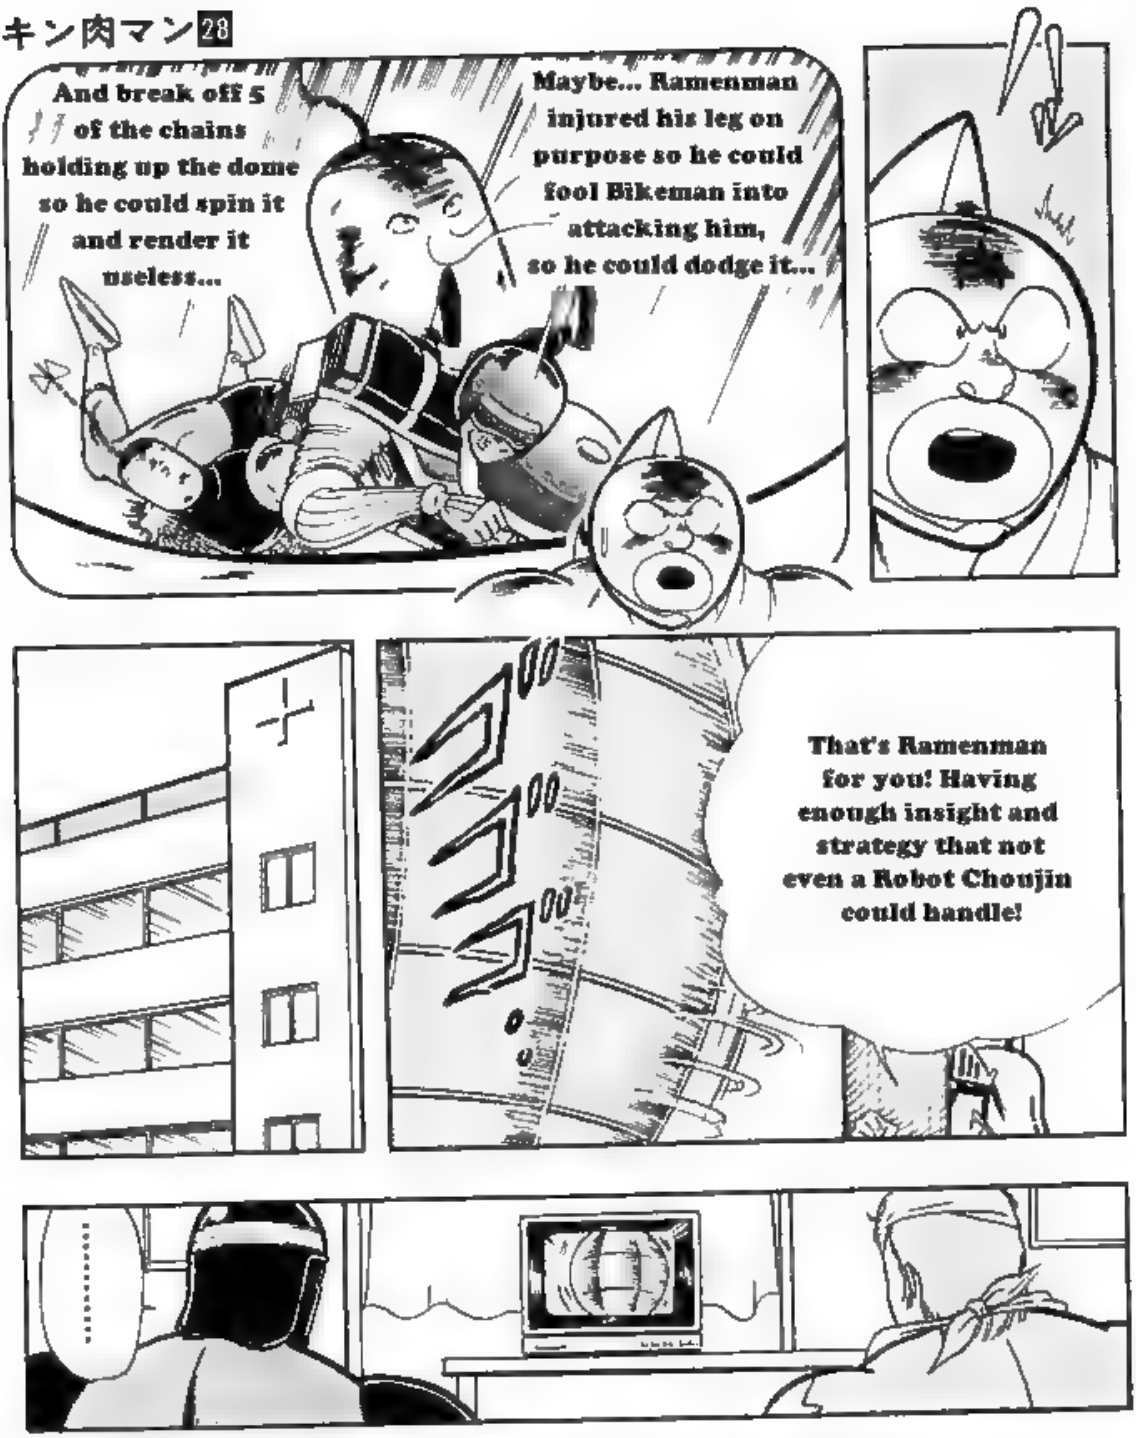


This doesn't look good, folks! Bikeman's failed attack has shaken the Thunderdome, leaving all but one chain holding it up!

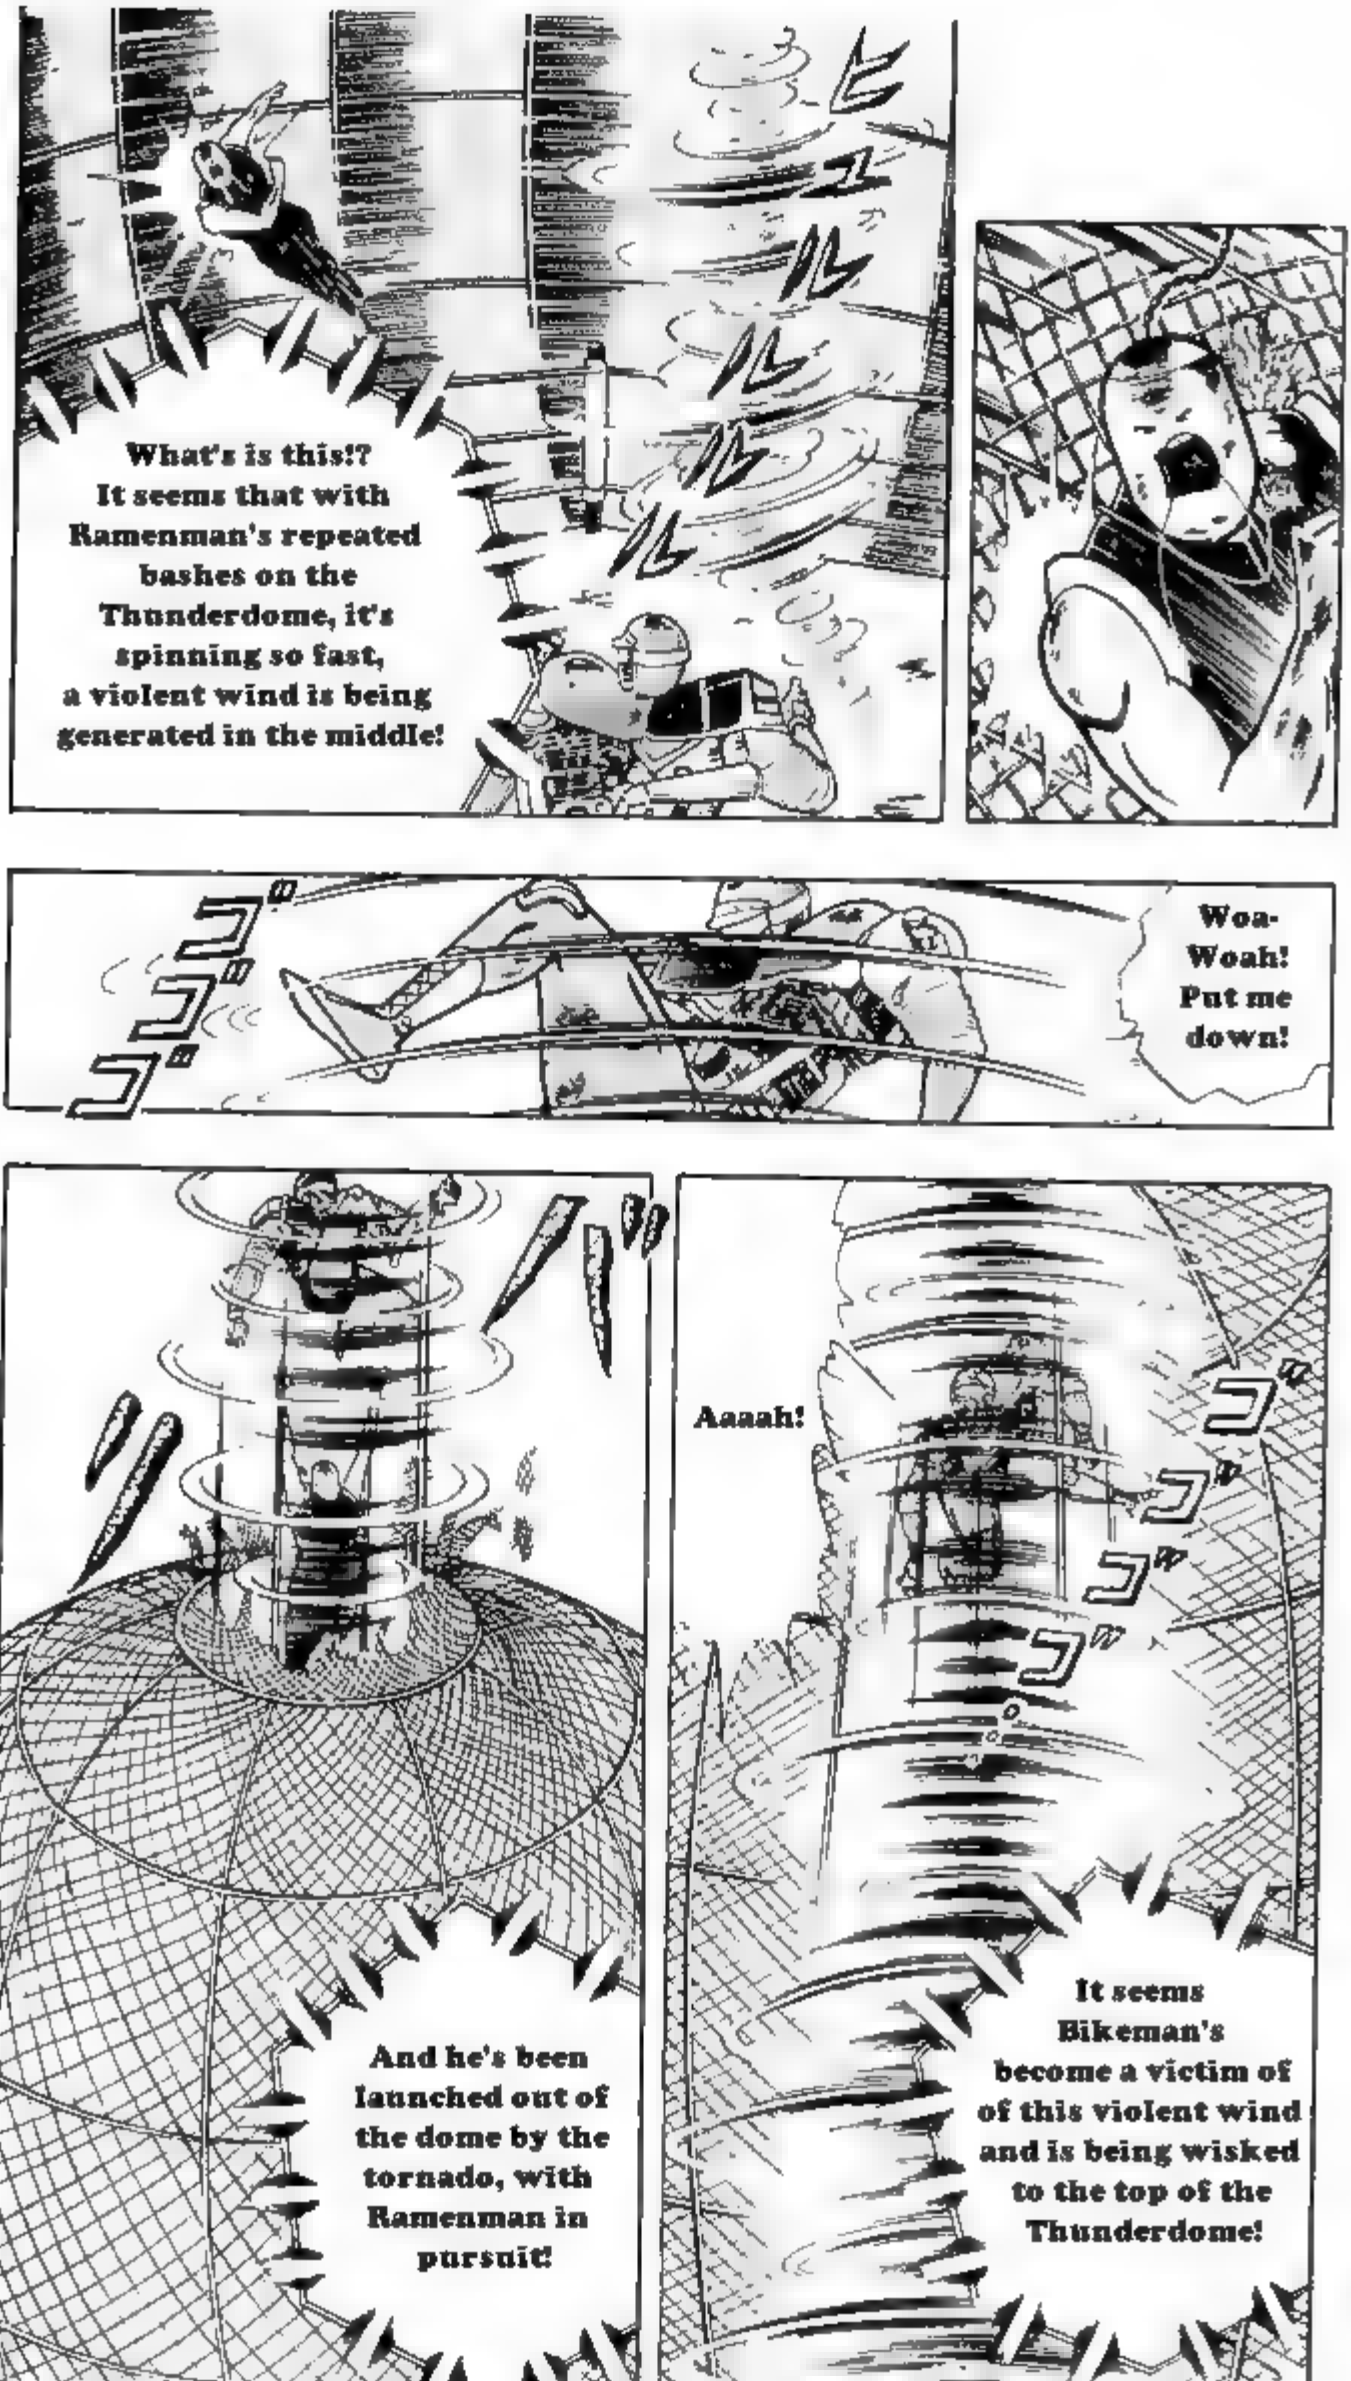


OK! NOW!
What's going on now? Ramenman's seems to be bashing against the Thunderdome! But why?

With the Thunderdome spinning this much, I'd like to see how Bikeman's gonna ride on it without falling off!
This is why! With the Thunderdome being held up by only one chain now, Ramenman could spin it around by bashing against the walls of it!



And break off 5 of the chains holding up the dome so he could spin it and render it useless...
Maybe... Ramenman injured his leg on purpose so he could fool Bikeman into attacking him, so he could dodge it...
That's Ramenman for you! Having enough insight and strategy that not even a Robot Choujin could handle!
.....
No one else would know so well that a fight is much more than just cool moves and being strong...
You've done it again, Ramen-man... You're sublime...



What's is this!? It seems that with Ramenman's repeated bashes on the Thunderdome, it's spinning so fast, a violent wind is being generated in the middle!
Woa- Woah! Put me down!
Aaaah!
It seems Bikeman's become a victim of of this violent wind and is being wisked to the top of the Thunderdome!
And he's been launched out of the dome by the tornado, with Ramenman in pursuit!

And with that, after enduring and waiting for the perfect chances to attack, Ramenman has earned his second win!

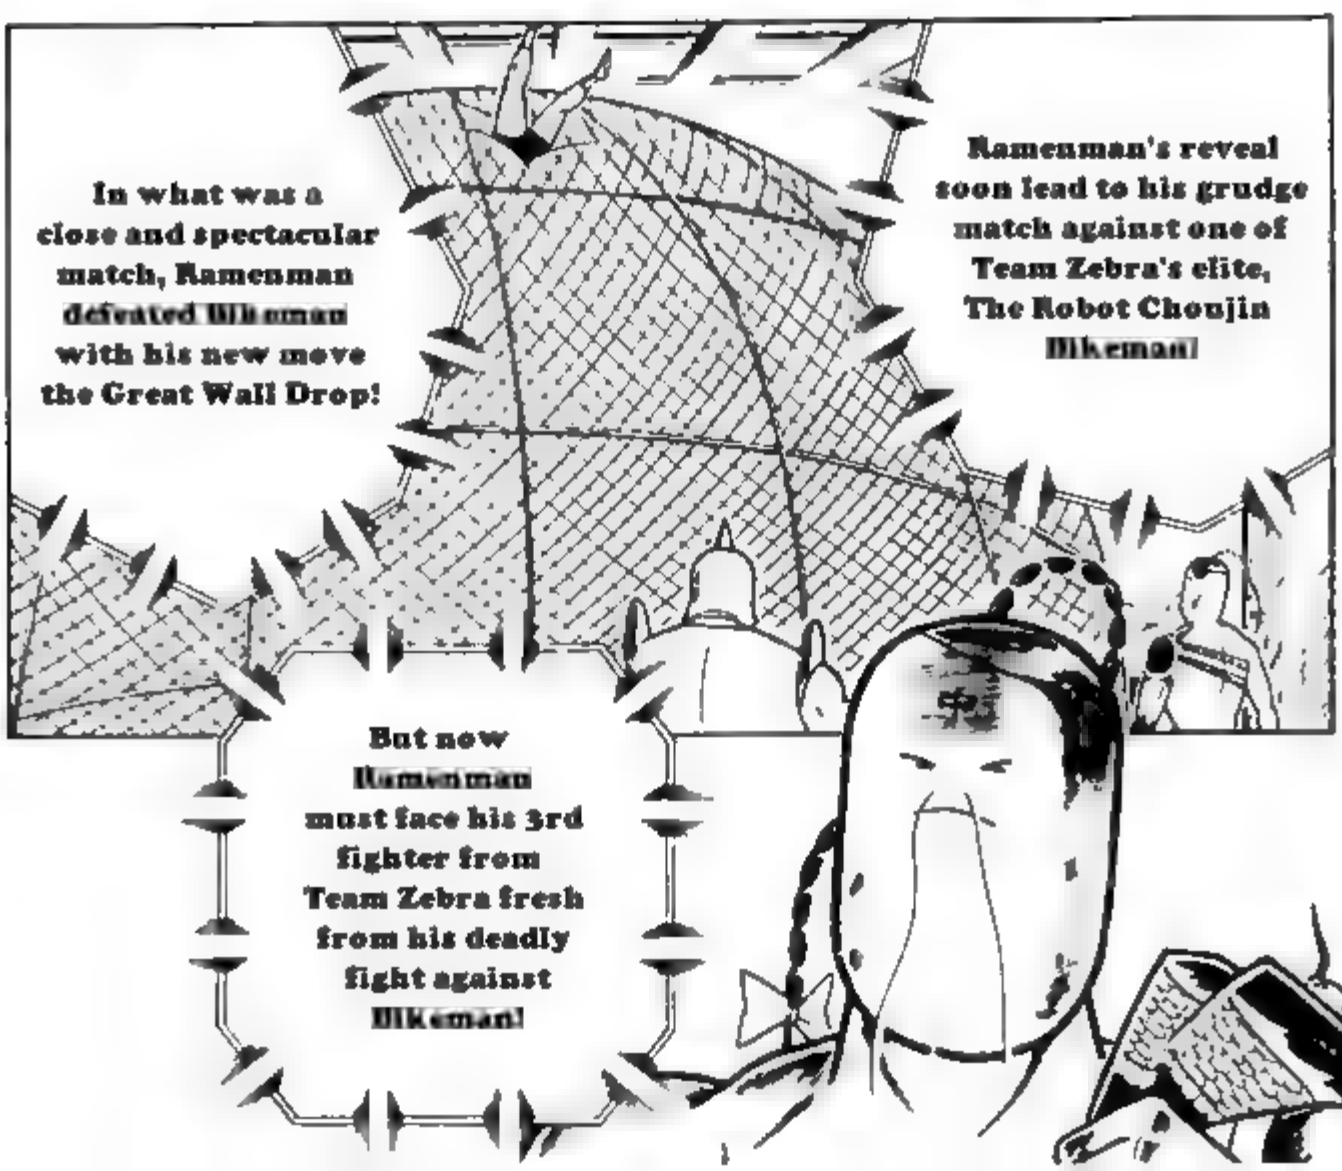
But Warsman had sustained too many injuries and couldn't fight Motorman. Motorman also defeated Terryman, earning Team Zebra 2 victories...



In what was a close and spectacular match, Ramenman defeated Bikeman with his new move the Great Wall Drop!
Ramenman's reveal soon lead to his grudge match against one of Team Zebra's elite, The Robot Choujin Bikeman!

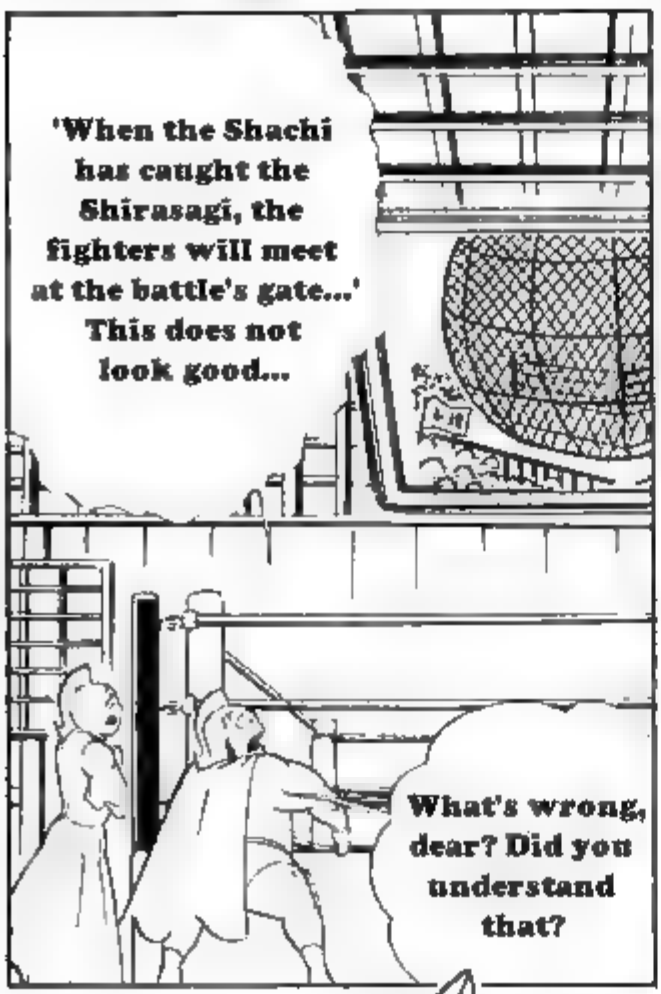
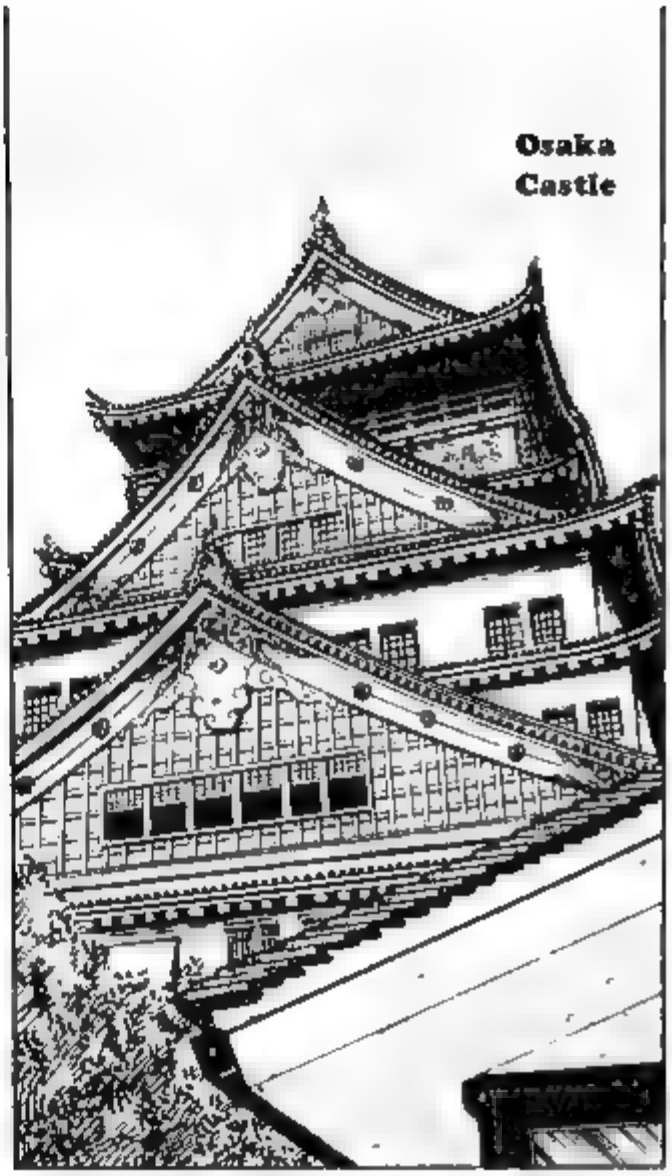
Tell us more about this road of fierce fighting!
Bikeman!
In August, 1985... When the Shachi has caught the Shirasagi... The fighters will meet at the battle's gate...
From the Muscle Prophecy of the Kinniku Clan...
Shachi usually means killer whale and Shiragashi means heron in Japanese... But what does this all mean?
Shachi? Shirasagi!? What do they mean!?
.....
No point shouting at him. He's already dead.

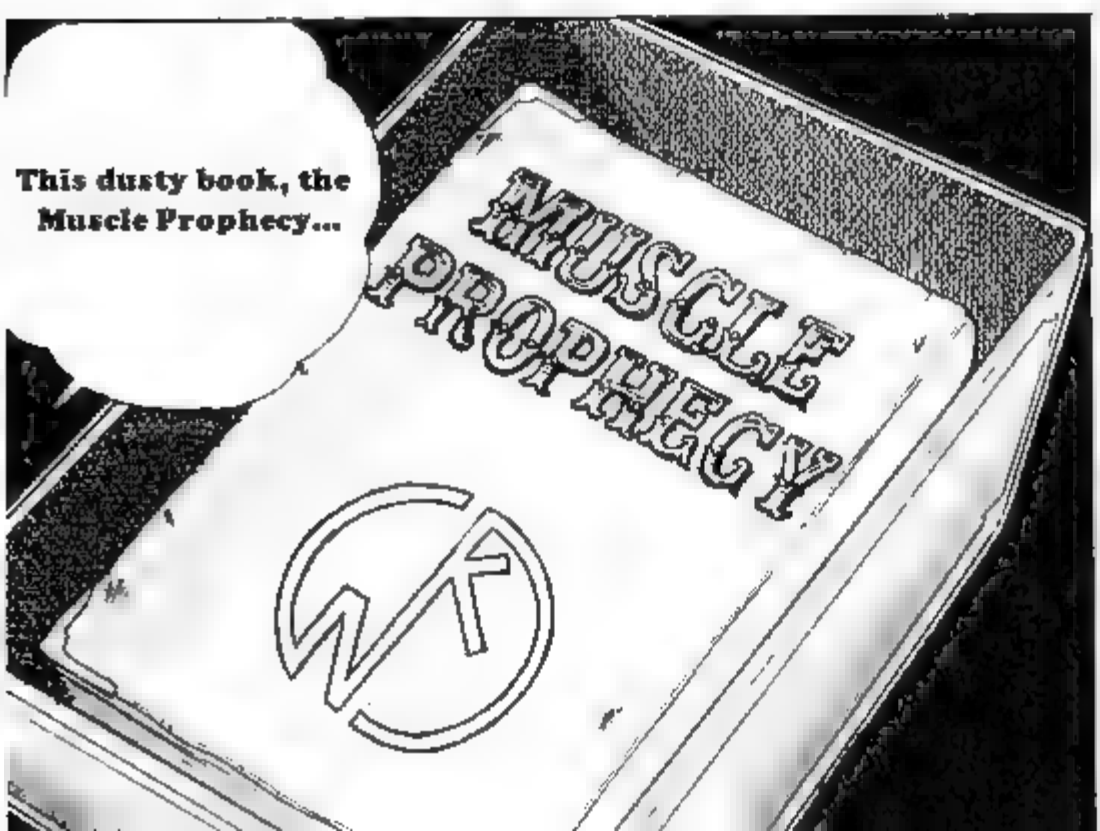


'When the Shachi has caught the Shirasagi, the fighters will meet at the battle's gate...' This does not look good...
What's wrong, dear? Did you understand that?



Osaka Castle

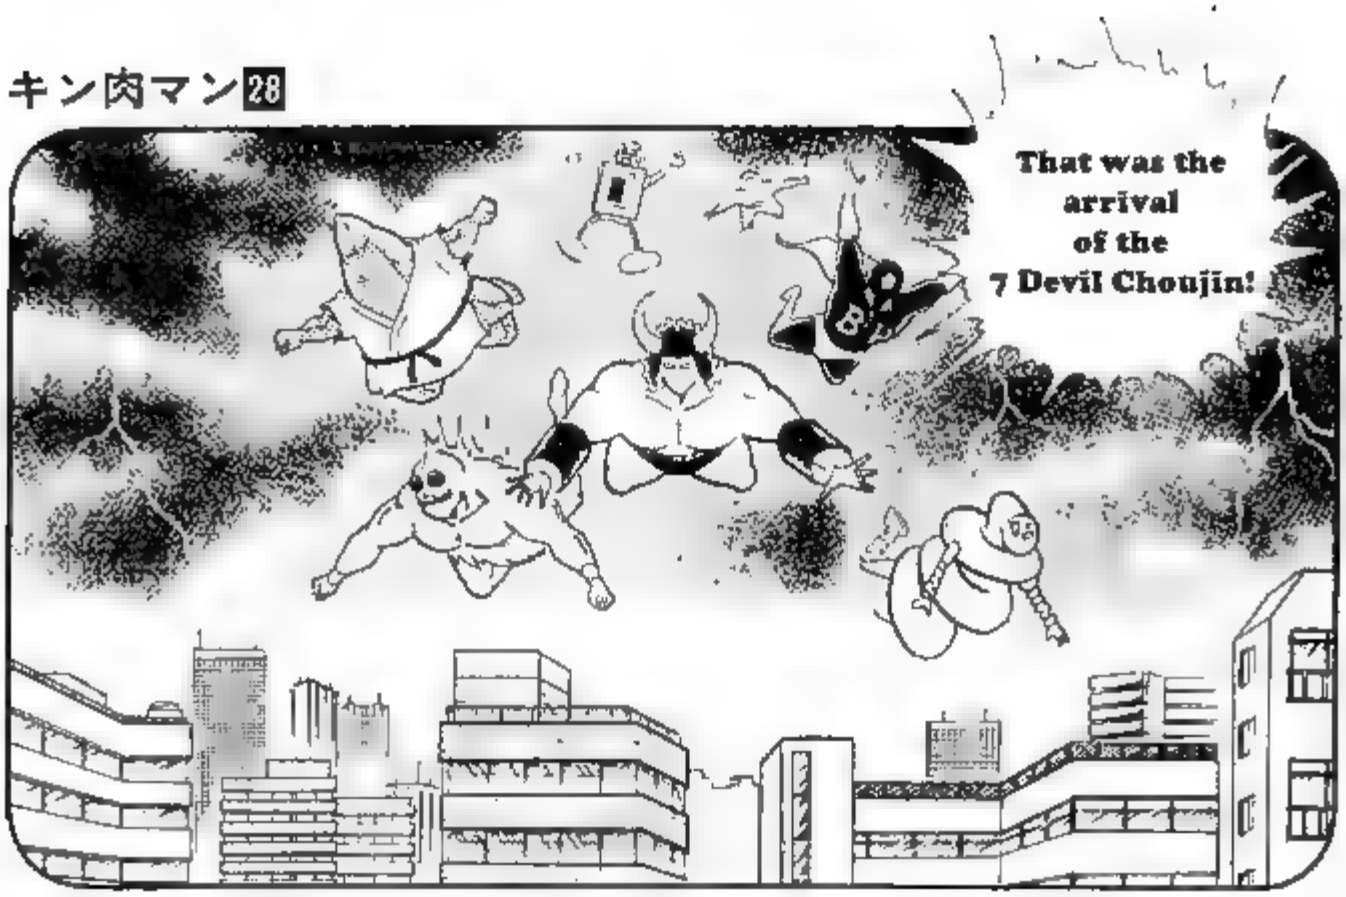
Yes, and that it's from an old secret that I wished I could have kept hidden for longer...



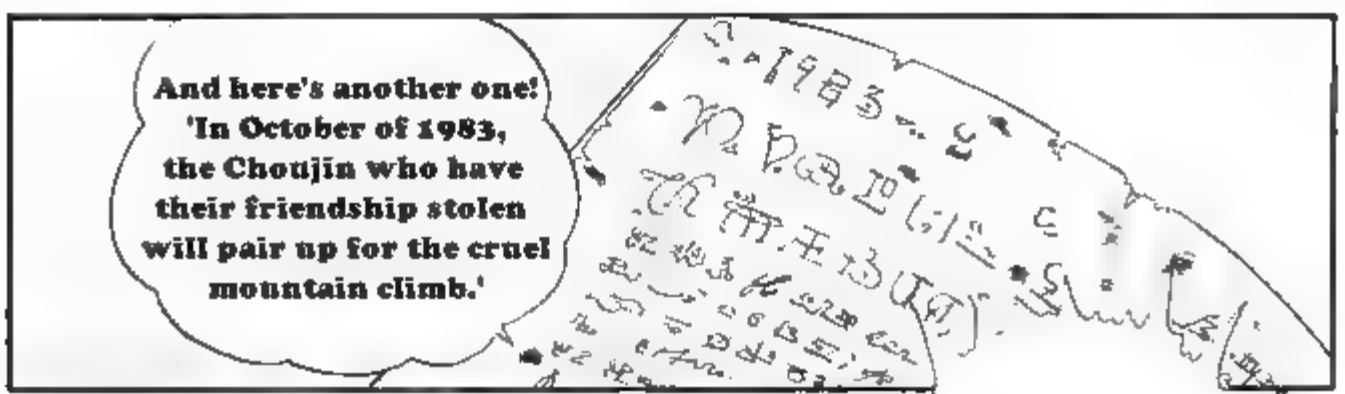
This dusty book, the Muscle Prophecy...
MUSCLE PROPHECY

カパ

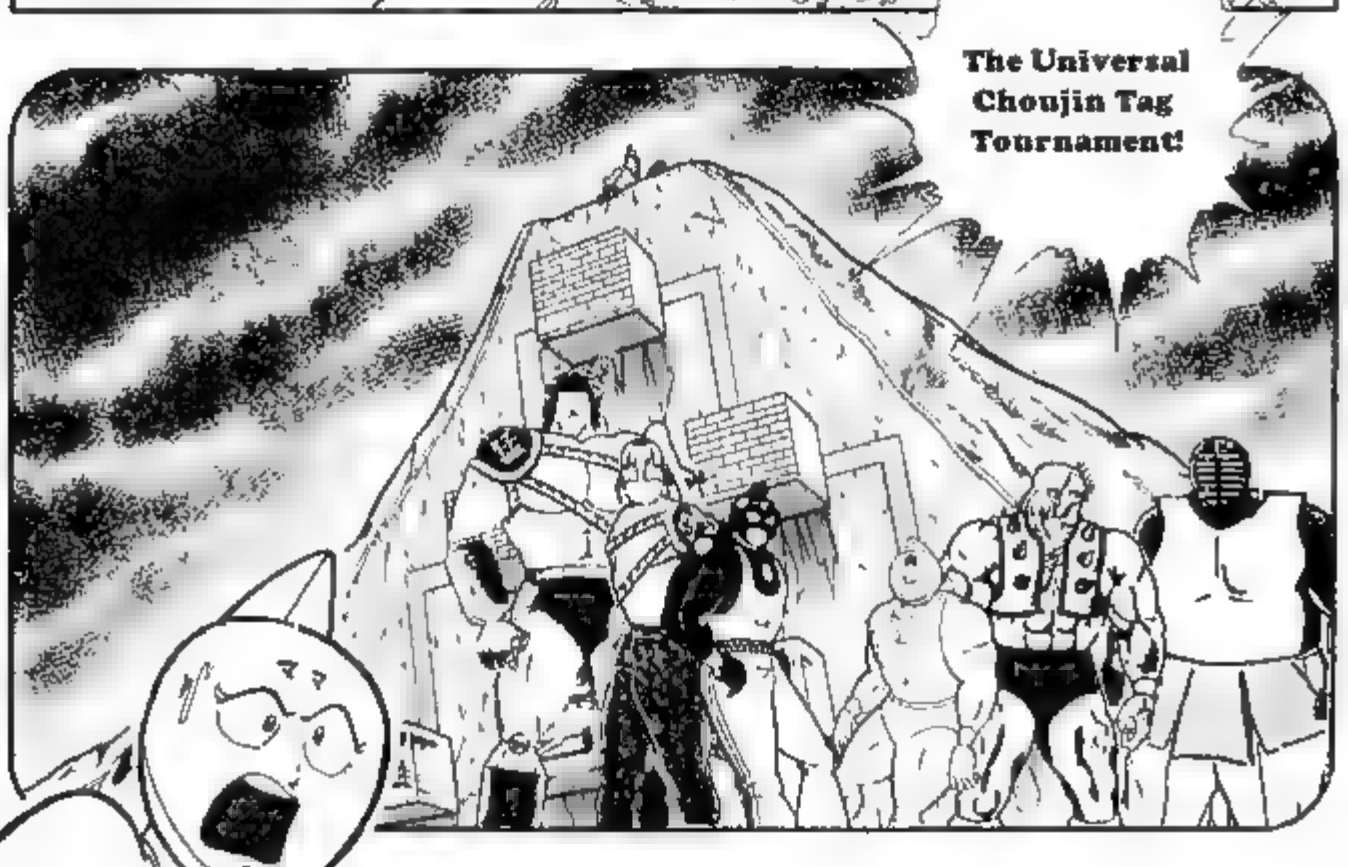
All of the disasters, wars and fights of the Kinniku Clan and in the Choujin World that occured after this book was written millions of years ago were already predicted by this book...
In the past, this book was written by our Kinniku Clan ancestors. They predicted future events and wrote them all down.
MUSCLE PROPHECY
Yes! Let me show you...
Really?
I was skeptical of it myself, but when I started reading it, I found that it had predicted all the events that Suguru was involved in...
.....!!
Here's one for 1981! 'In November of 1981, the skies will become dark, lightning will fall and seven devils shall rain from the clouds.'



That was the arrival of the 7 Devil Choujin!



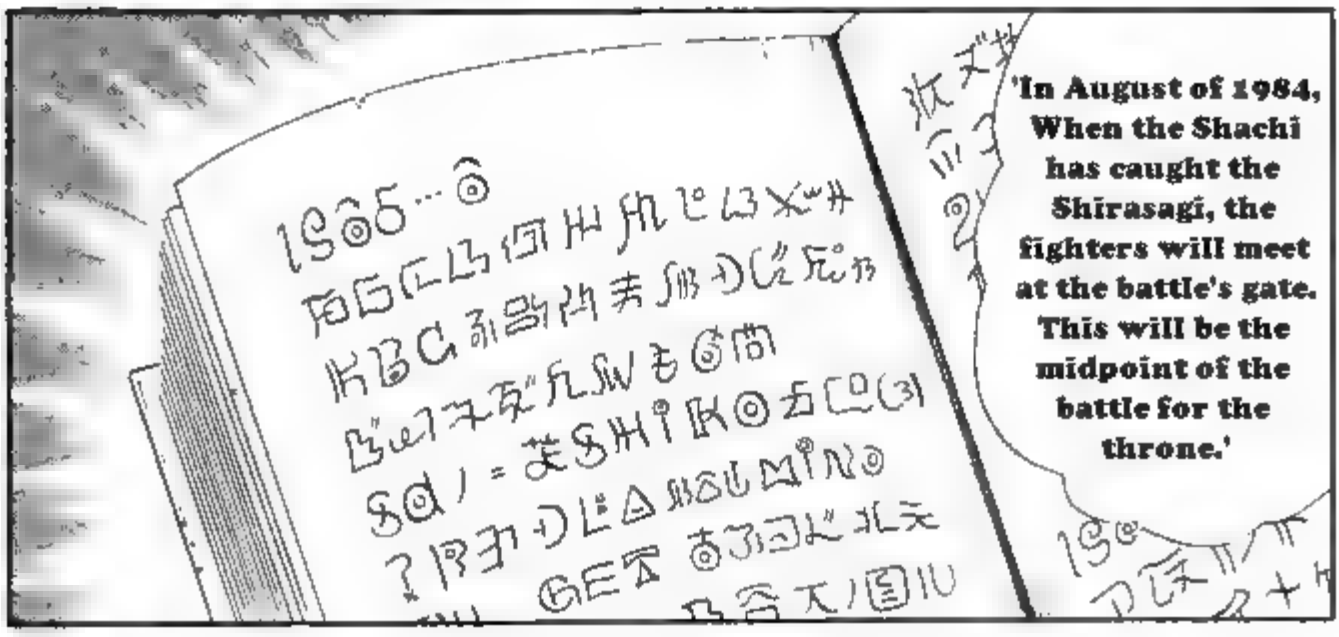
And here's another one! 'In October of 1983, the Choujin who have their friendship stolen will pair up for the cruel mountain climb.'



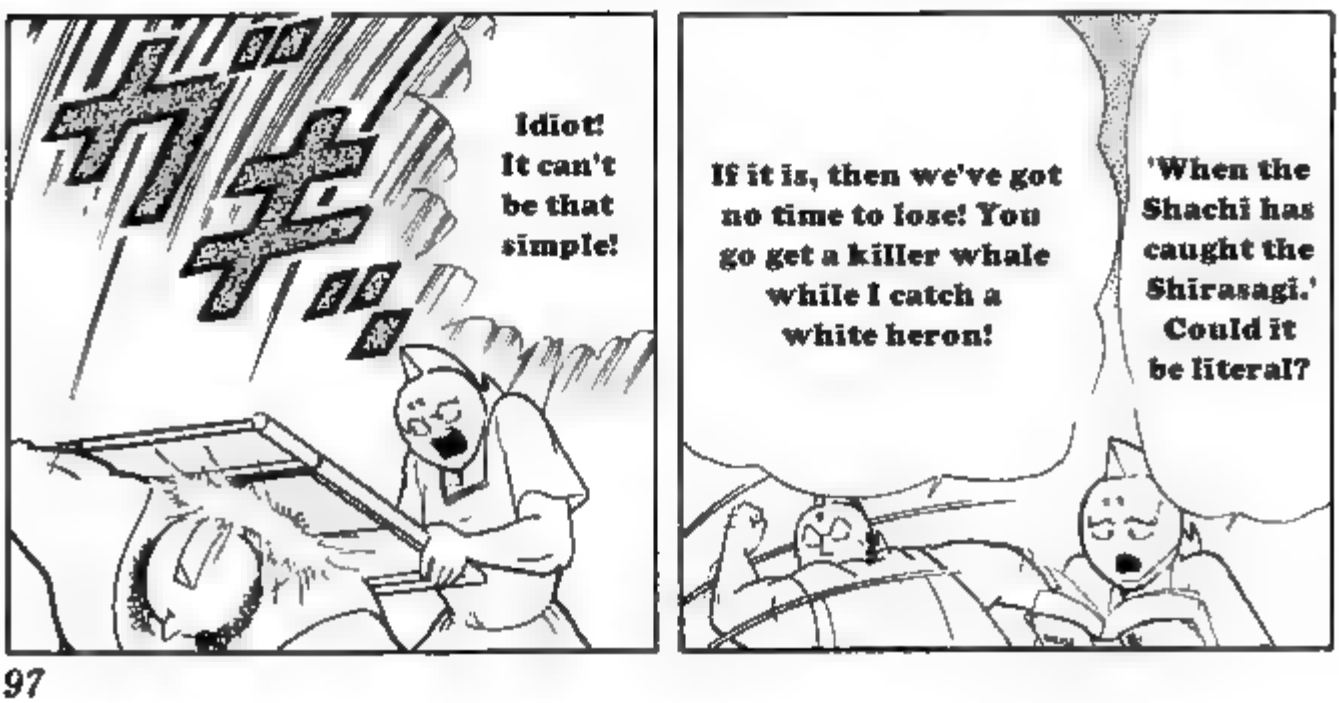
The Universal Choujin Tag Tournament!

Th-that's the Survival Match for the Kinniku Throne that's going on right now!
And the prediction for this calamity. 'In October of 1985, when the prince of Kinniku Planet is chosen to be king, five candidates will challenge him for the right to rule, leading to the most horrible battle in the history of Chouijn.
was all predicted by this book. It really can predict the future...
I-I can't believe this... Everything that happened to our Suguru so far
This was a warning! We should have tried to prevent this calamity that's happening right now before it could have occured! But I ignored this prediction by our ancestors...
I thought that these predictions always surrounding Suguru were flukes, but I was wrong...

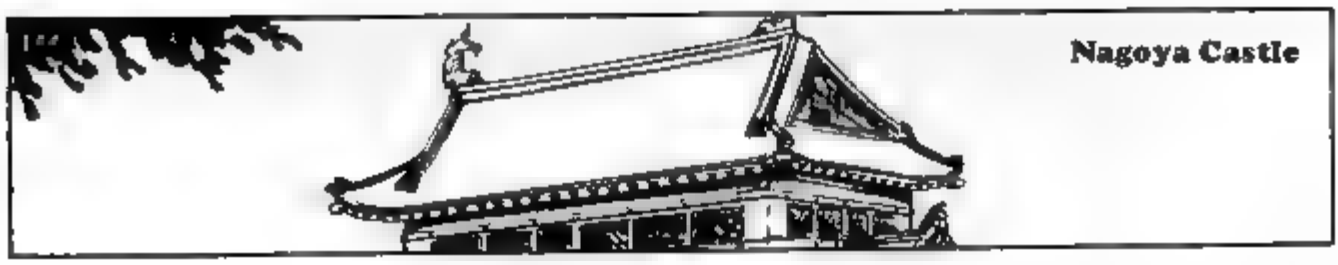
H-Here it is!
パラ
パラ
So then, dear, the omen that Bikeman left us before he died is in there as well?
Oh right! Now's not the time for regretting my decisions! Let me check.



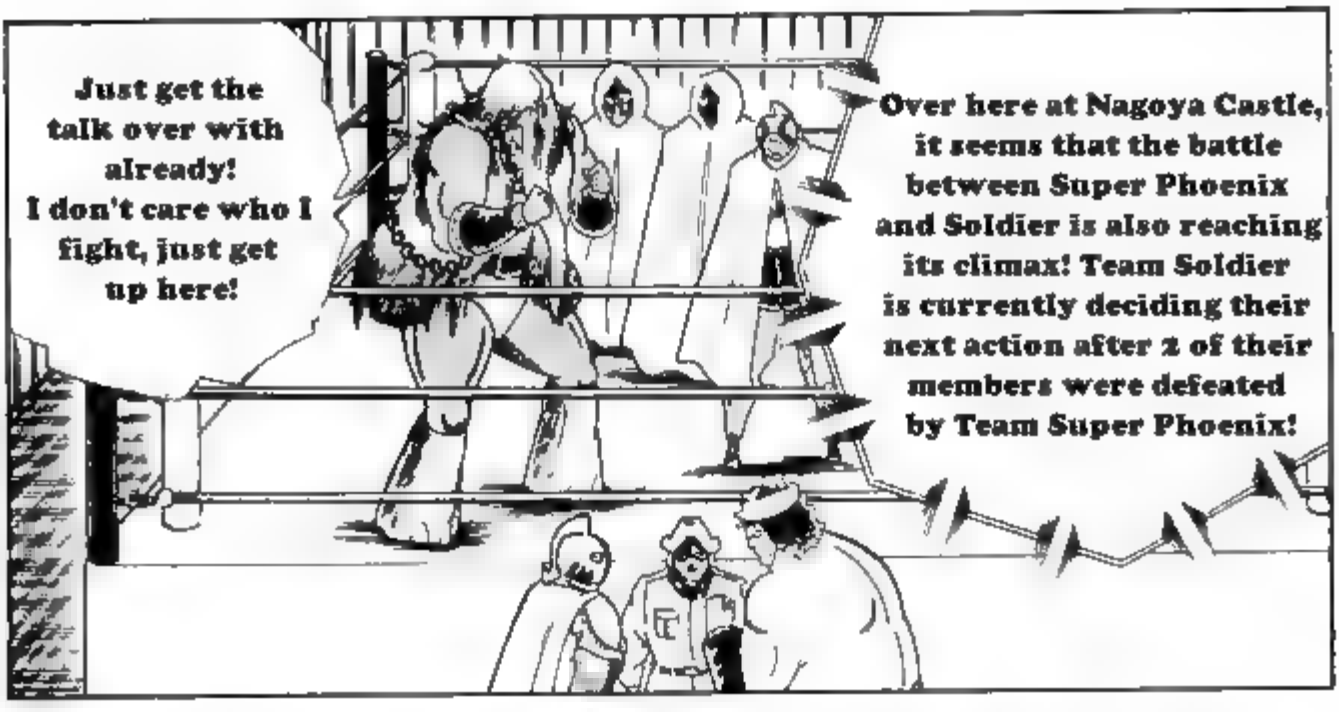
'In August of 1984, When the Shachi has caught the Shirasagi, the fighters will meet at the battle's gate. This will be the midpoint of the battle for the throne.'



ガビーン!!
Idiot! It can't be that simple!
If it is, then we've got no time to lose! You go get a killer whale while I catch a white heron!
'When the Shachi has caught the Shirasagi.' Could it be literal?



Nagoya Castle



Just get the talk over with already! I don't care who I fight, just get up here!
Over here at Nagoya Castle, it seems that the battle between Super Phoenix and Soldier is also reaching its climax! Team Soldier is currently deciding their next action after 2 of their members were defeated by Team Super Phoenix!

Hahahahaha! Don't worry, it's just fate setting a grander stage!

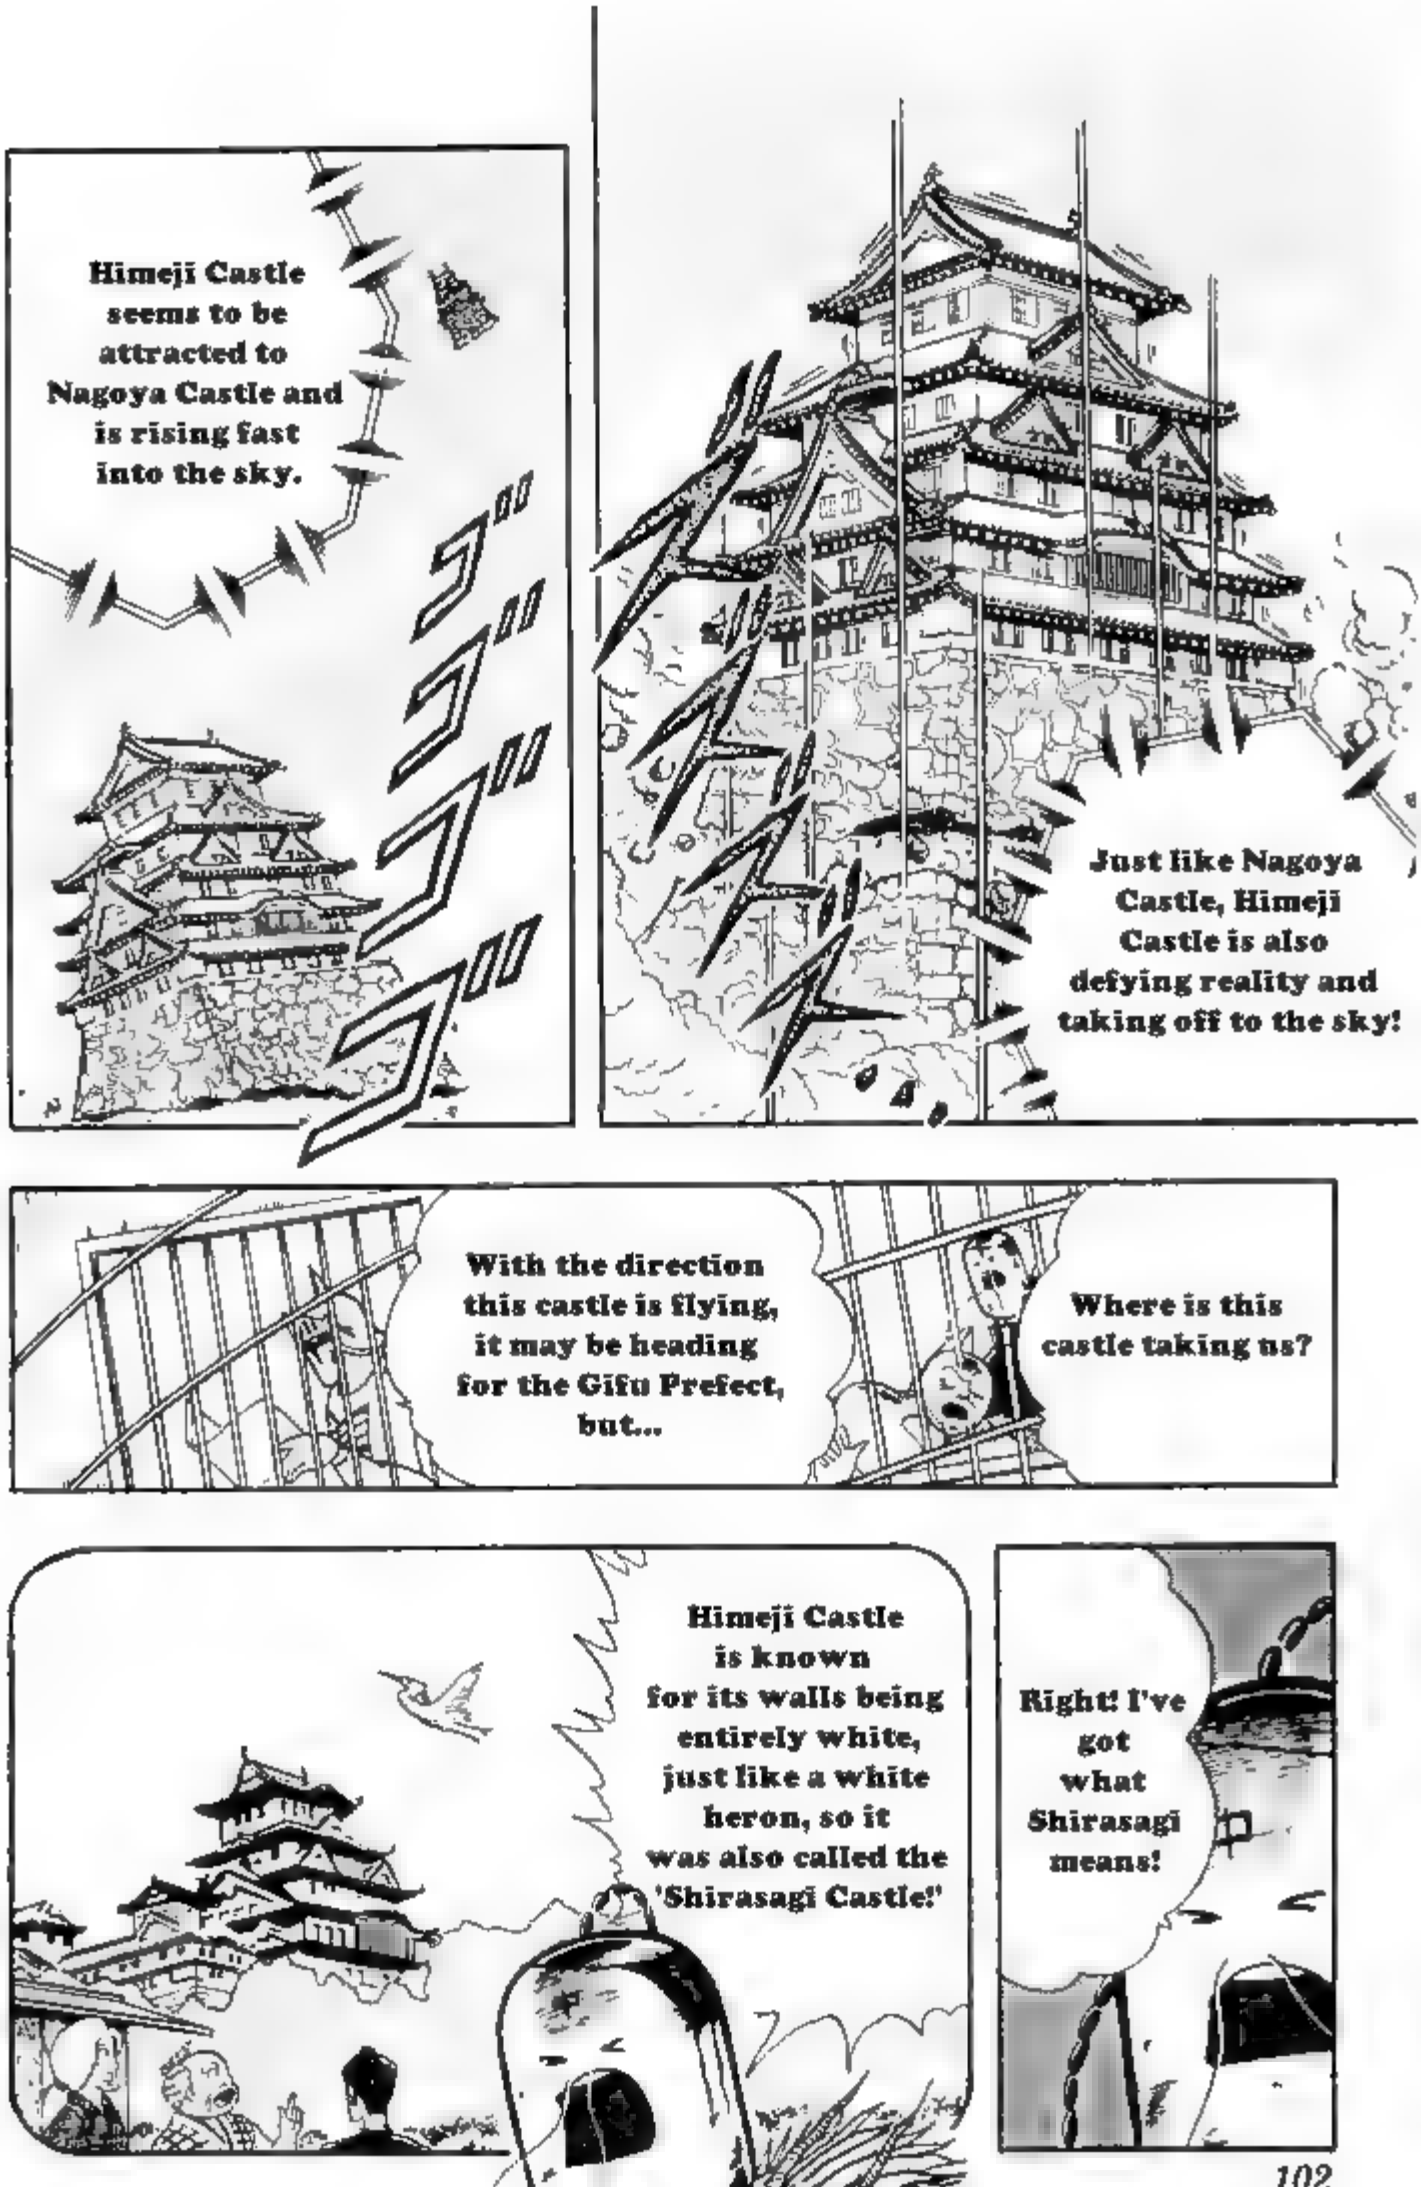
Huh!?

Has an earthquake struck Nagoya Castle!?
W-why's this castle shaking so much!?

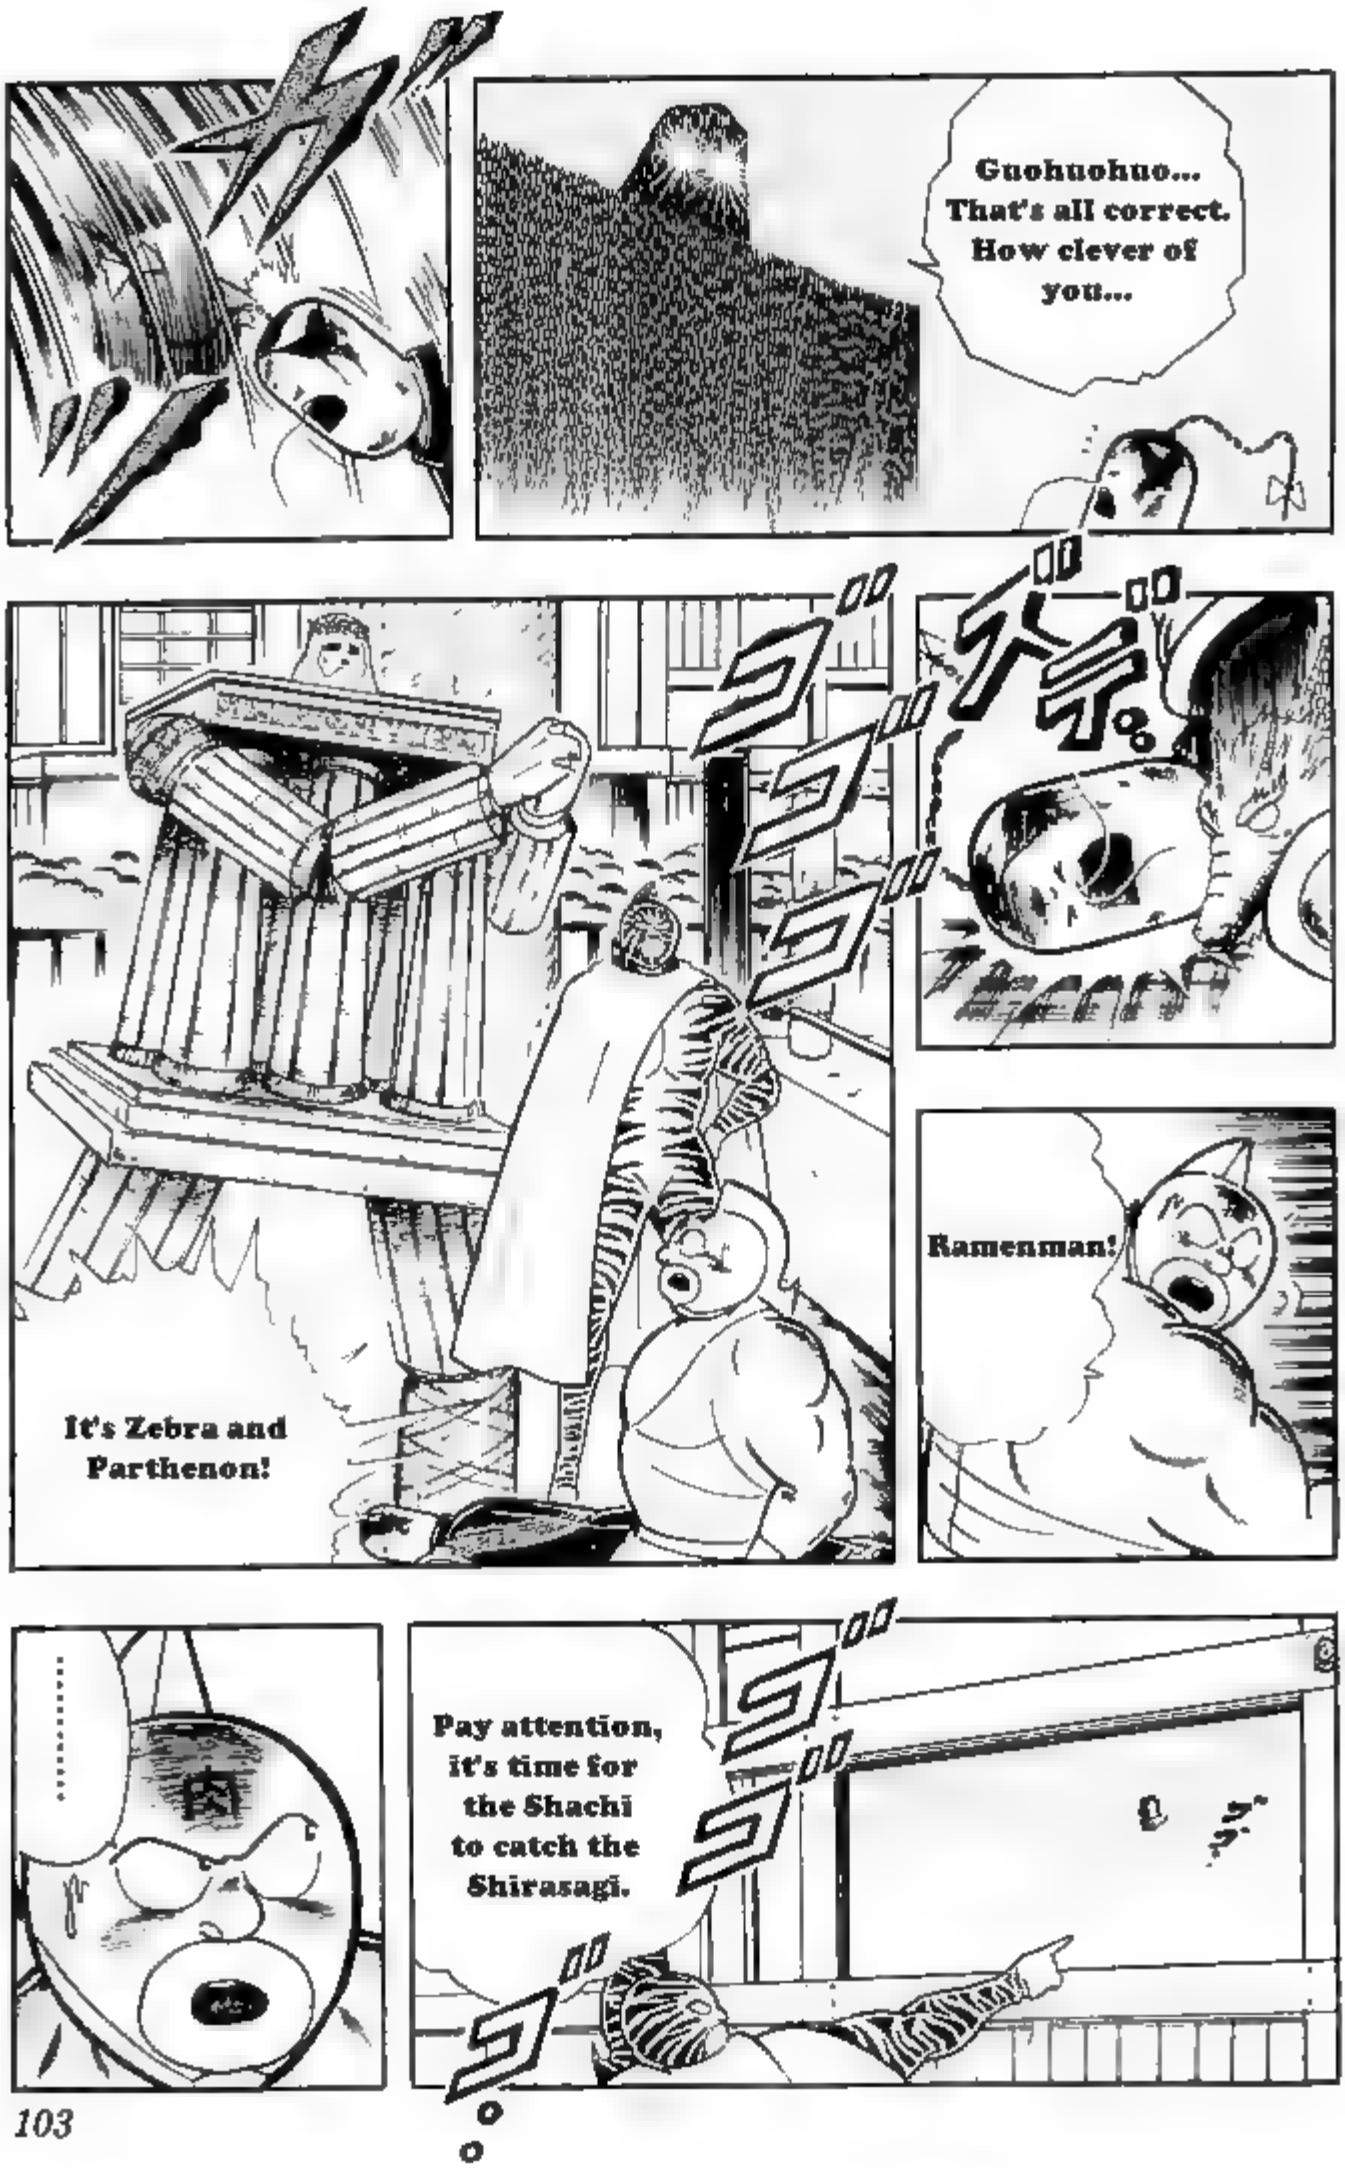
姫路城
ゴゴゴゴ
What's that sound?
Here at Himeji Castle, Team Kinnikuman is also taking a break from fighting and are trying to figure out Bikeman's cryptic message!
ゴゴゴ…
Check it out! Nagoya Castle is flying!
Wait, what!?

What!? Why's Nagoya Castle flying? How's that even possible!?
Just what is going here!? Not only is Himeji making booming sounds, but Nagoya Castle, where Team Super Phoenix and Soldier are fighting, is flying in a north-west direction!
Perhaps this is connected to Bikeman's message...
Of course! 'Shachi' is referring to the Shachihoko statues on top of Nagoya Castle!
Wait... Shachi can also refer to Shachihoko...

But we still can't find out what Shiragashi is based on.
Oh! Then that must mean that 'Shachi' was referring to Nagoya Castle!
Oh no! The earth's shaking!
ゴゴゴゴゴゴ
Huh...
ゴゴゴゴゴゴ



Himeji Castle seems to be attracted to Nagoya Castle and is rising fast into the sky.
ゴゴゴゴゴゴ
Just like Nagoya Castle, Himeji Castle is also defying reality and taking off to the sky!
With the direction this castle is flying, it may be heading for the Gifu Prefect, but...
Where is this castle taking us?
Himeji Castle is known for its walls being entirely white, just like a white heron, so it was also called the 'Shirasagi Castle!'
Right! I've got what Shirasagi means!



Guohuohuo... That's all correct. How clever of you...
It's Zebra and Parthenon!
Ramenman!

Pay attention, it's time for the Shachi to catch the Shirasagi.

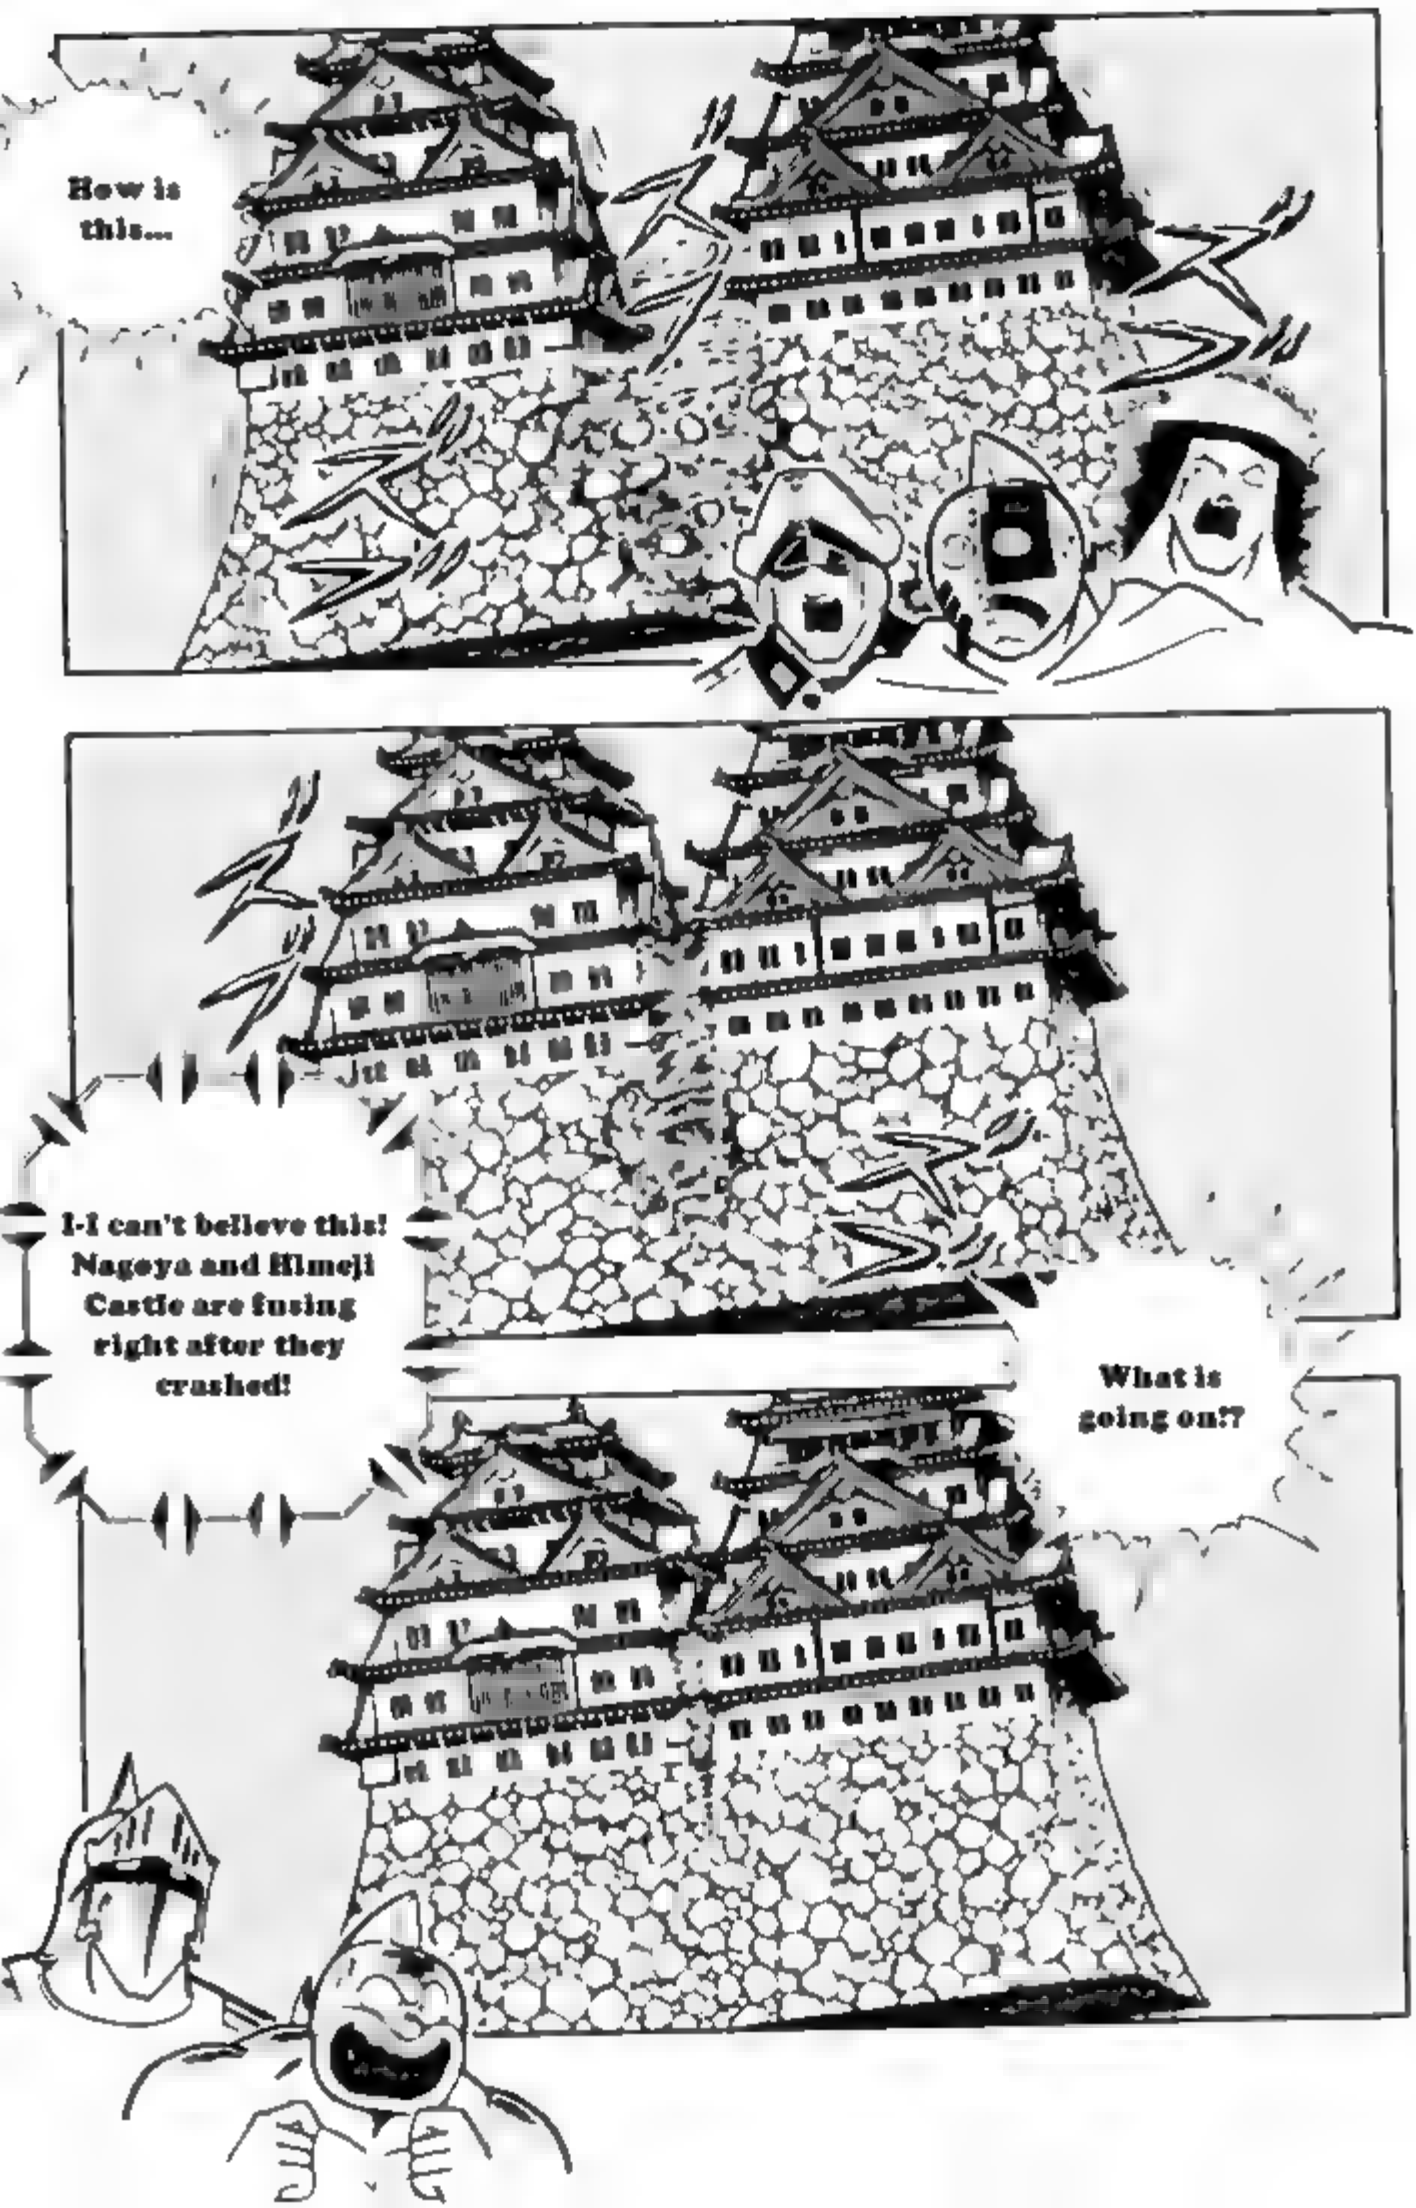
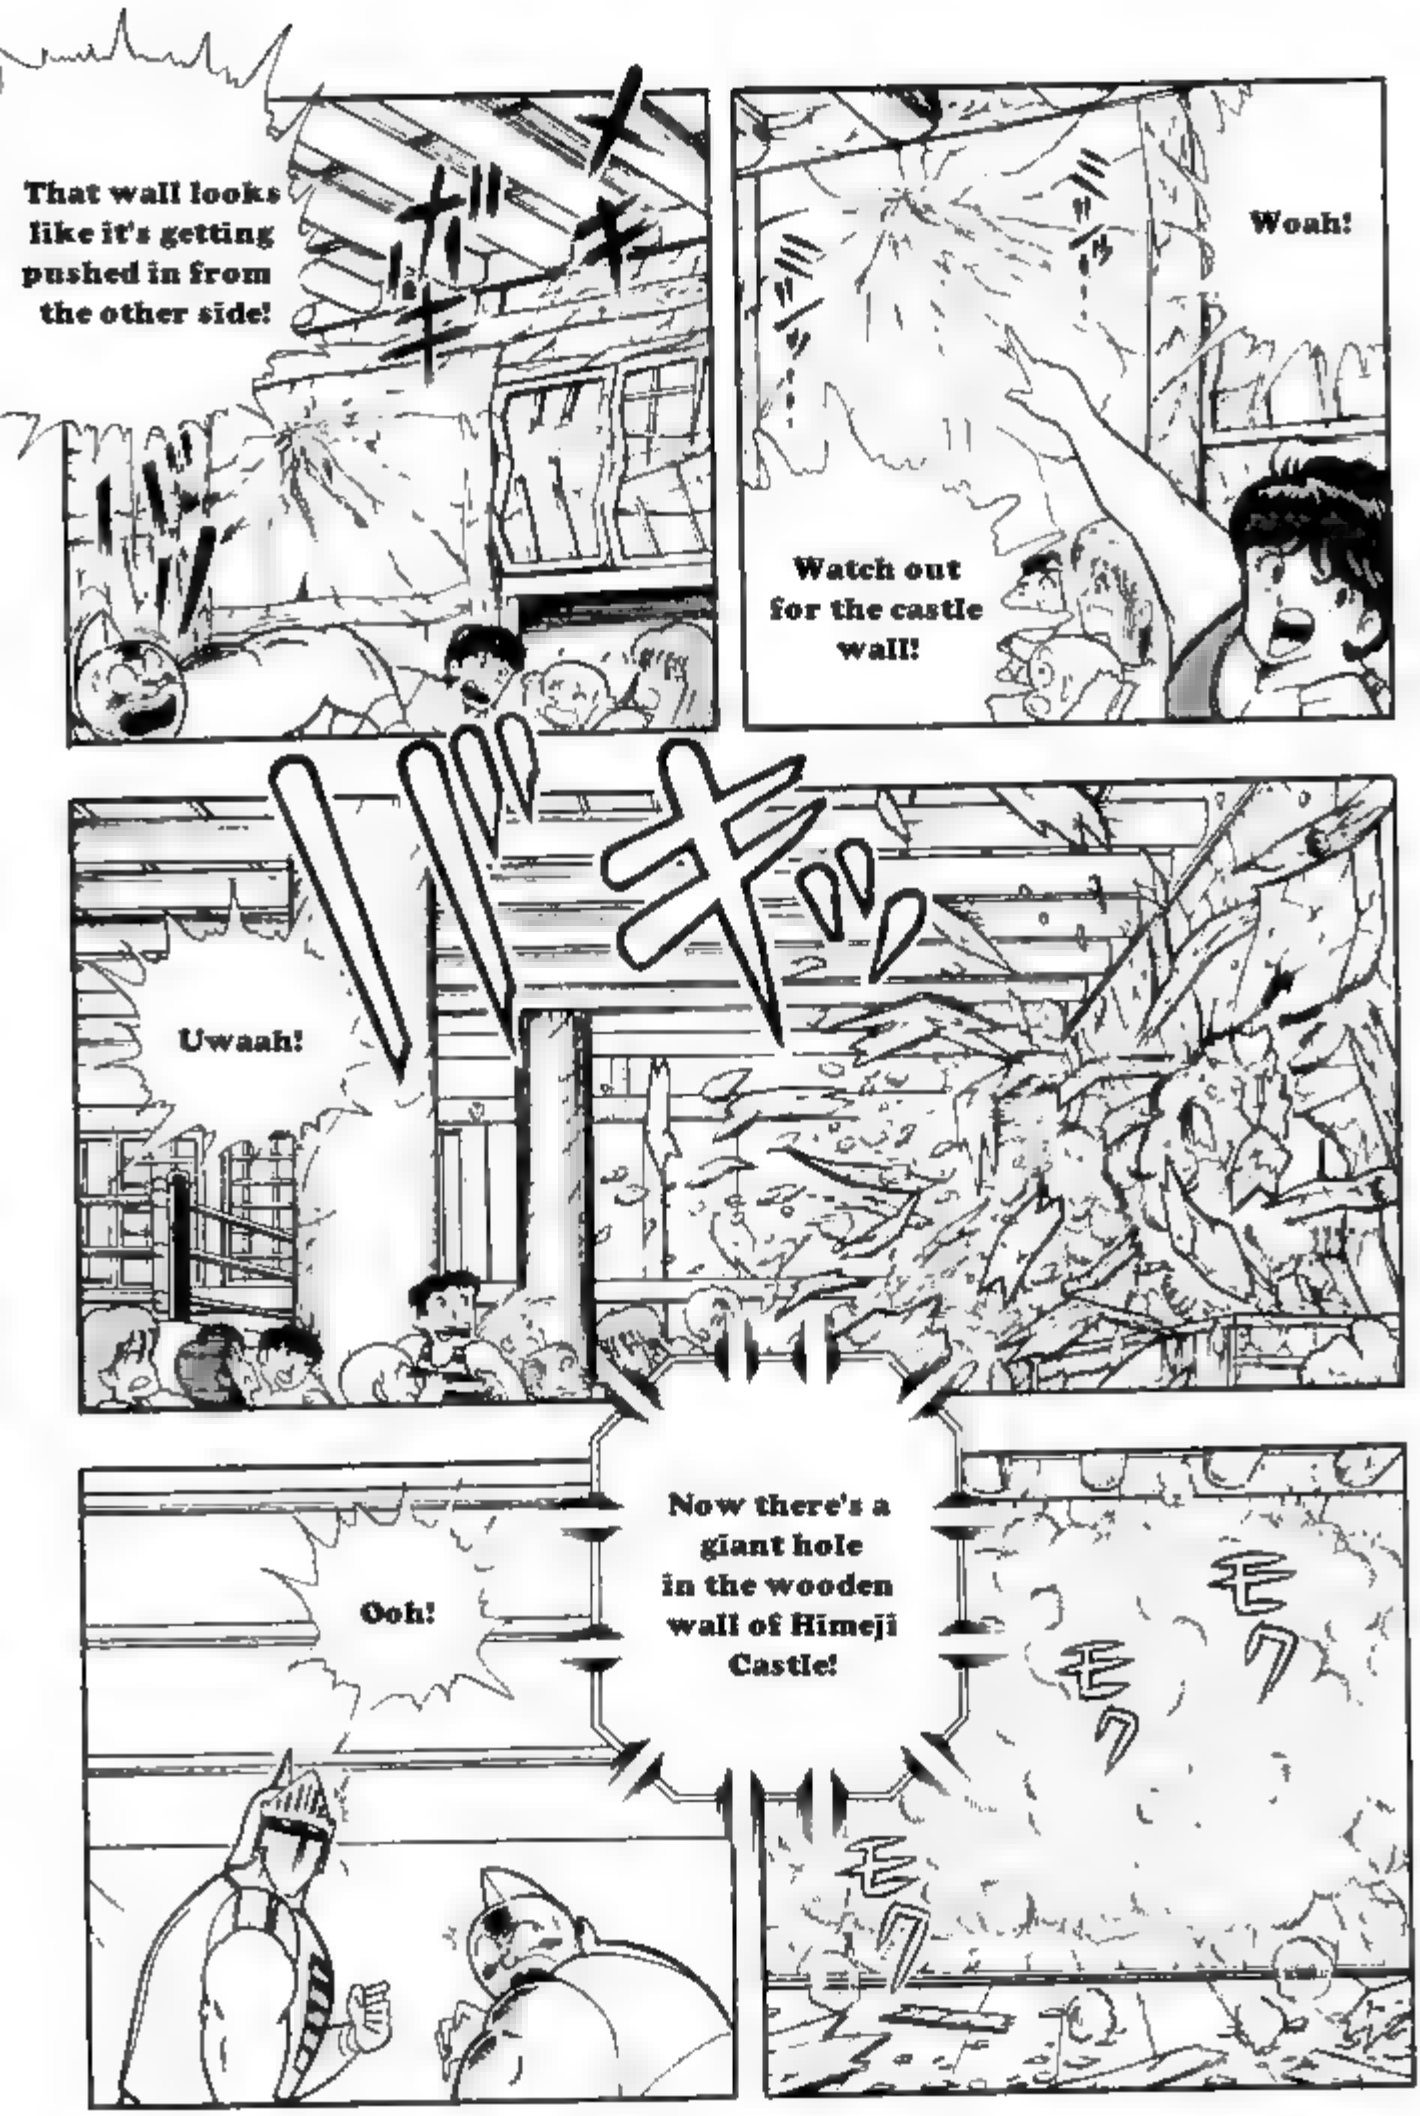
RAMENMAN VS. BIKEMAN

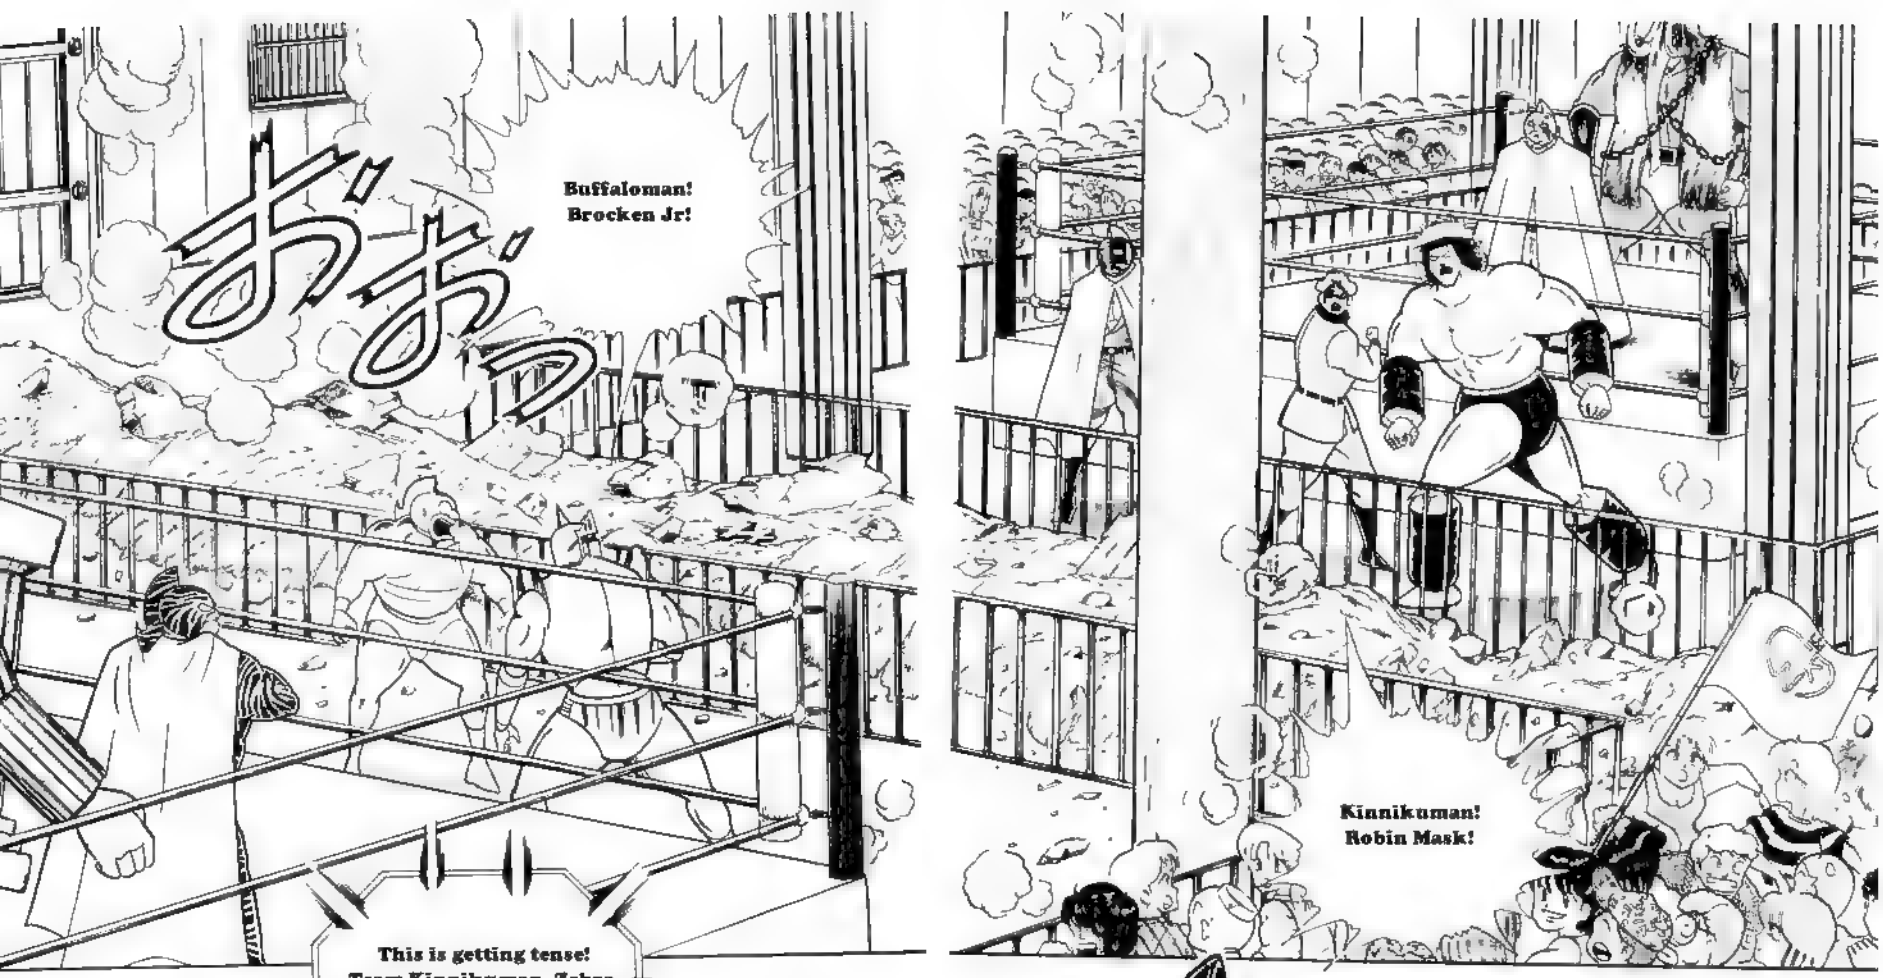


How is this...
I-I can't believe this! Nagoya and Himeji Castle are fusing right after they crashed!
What is going on!?

Burn, Fighting Castle!



That wall looks like it's getting pushed in from the other side!
Woah!
Watch out for the castle wall!
Uwaah!
Ooh!
Now there's a giant hole in the wooden wall of Himeji Castle!

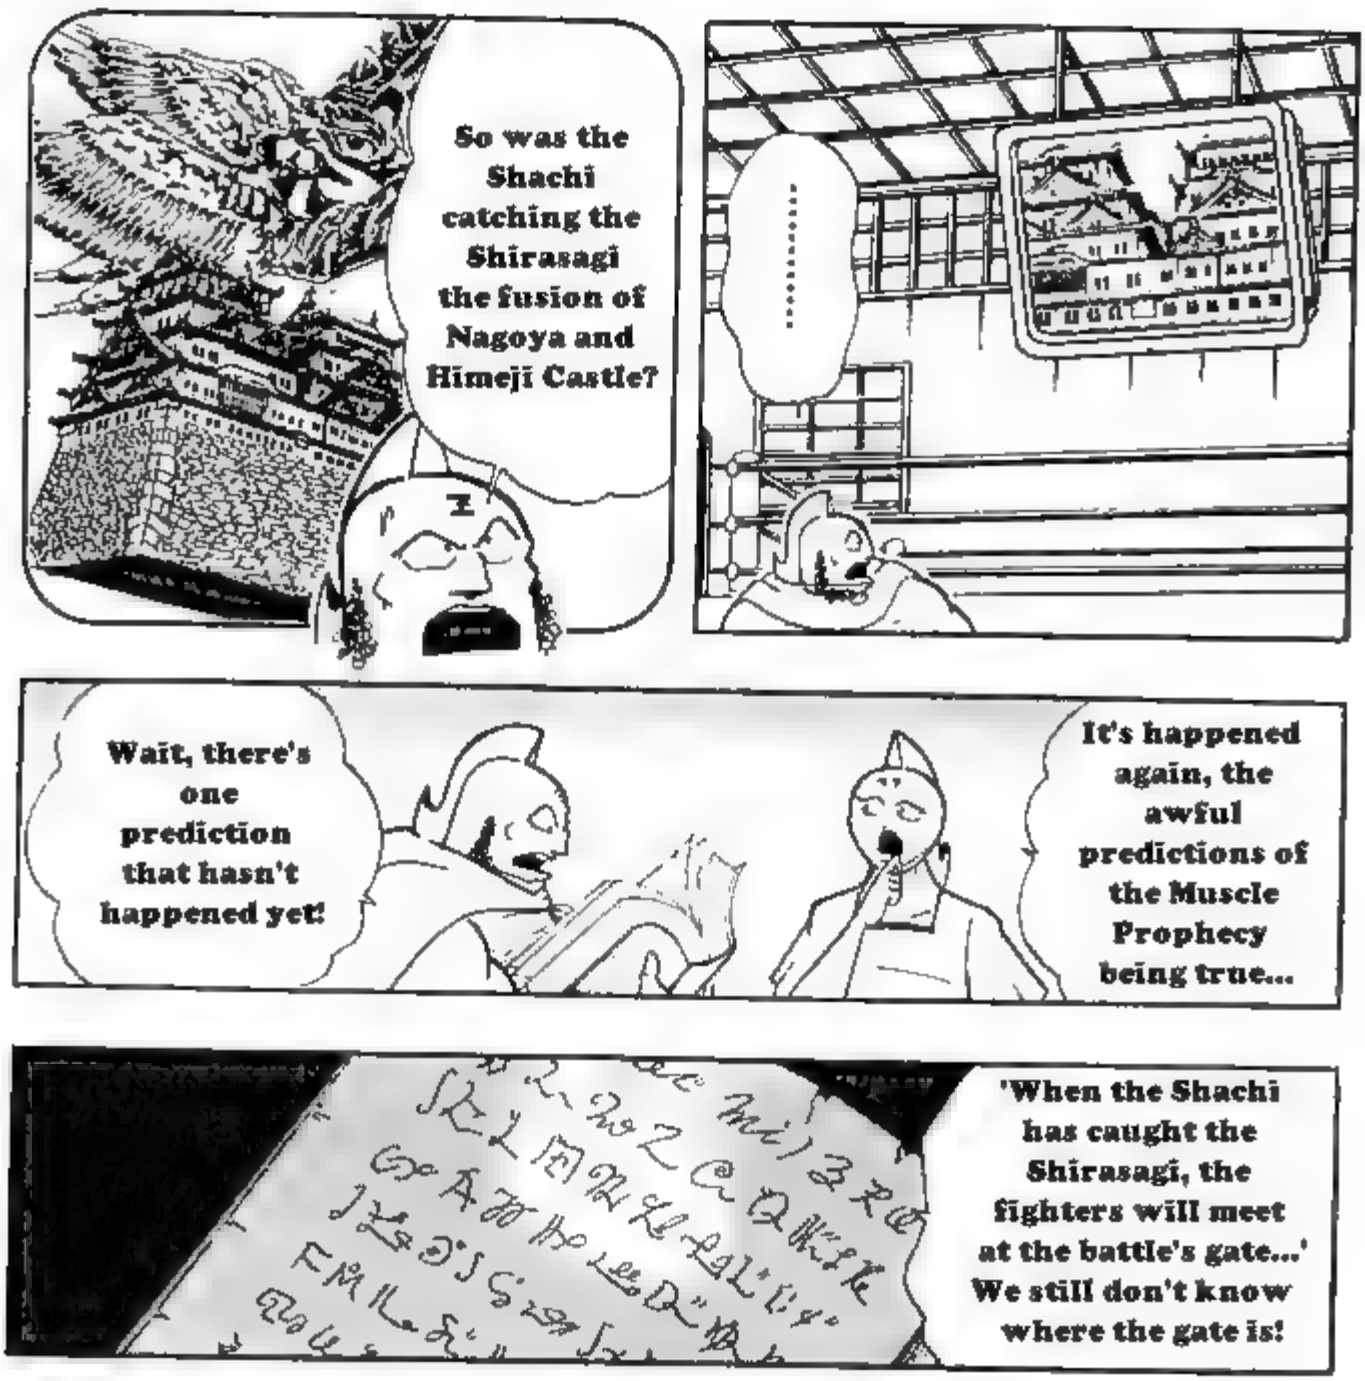


Ah, Teams Soldier and Super Phoenix as expected. Both look pretty strong.

Zebra, your team's not looking too bad either.

This is getting tense! Team Kinnikuman, Zebra Soldier and Super Phoenix have now been united in this new fighting castle! They all look ready to take each other down!

肉

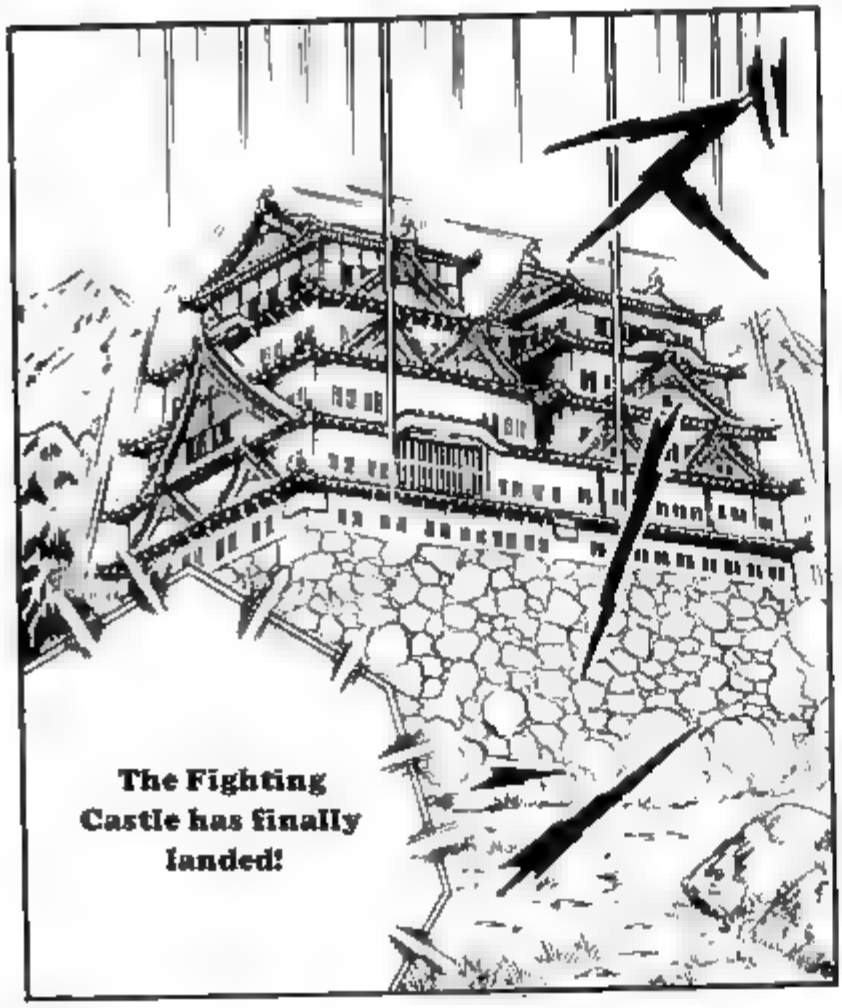


So was the Shachi catching the Shirasagi the fusion of Nagoya and Himeji Castle?
.....
Wait, there's one prediction that hasn't happened yet!
It's happened again, the awful predictions of the Muscle Prophecy being true...
'When the Shachi has caught the Shirasagi, the fighters will meet at the battle's gate...' We still don't know where the gate is!
The new castle has stopped in mid-air!
From what we can tell, the castle has stopped over the south-western area of the Gifu Prefect!

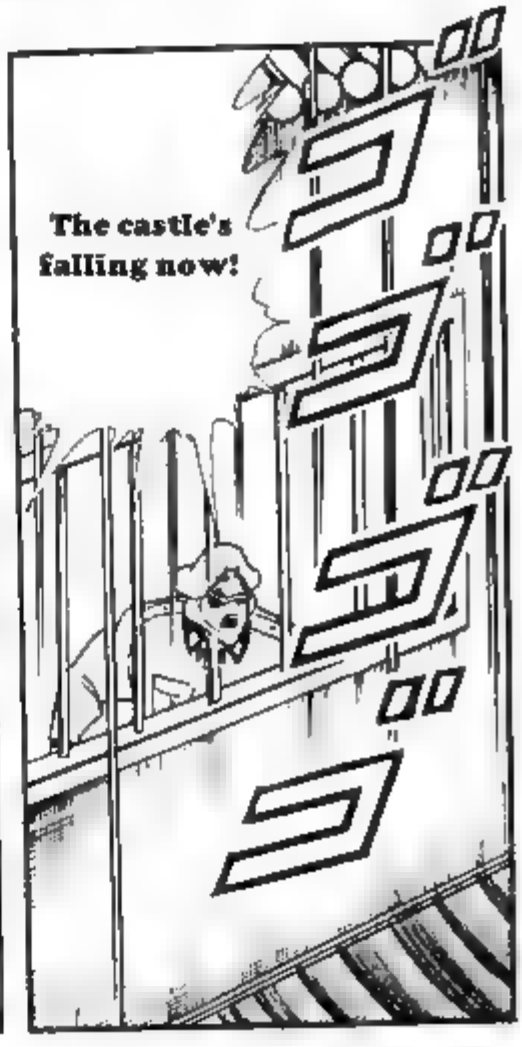
Uh oh! The castle's moving again!

Wow! We've flown from Himeji to Gifu? That's pretty far!

The south-west area of the Gifu prefect... So I was right!

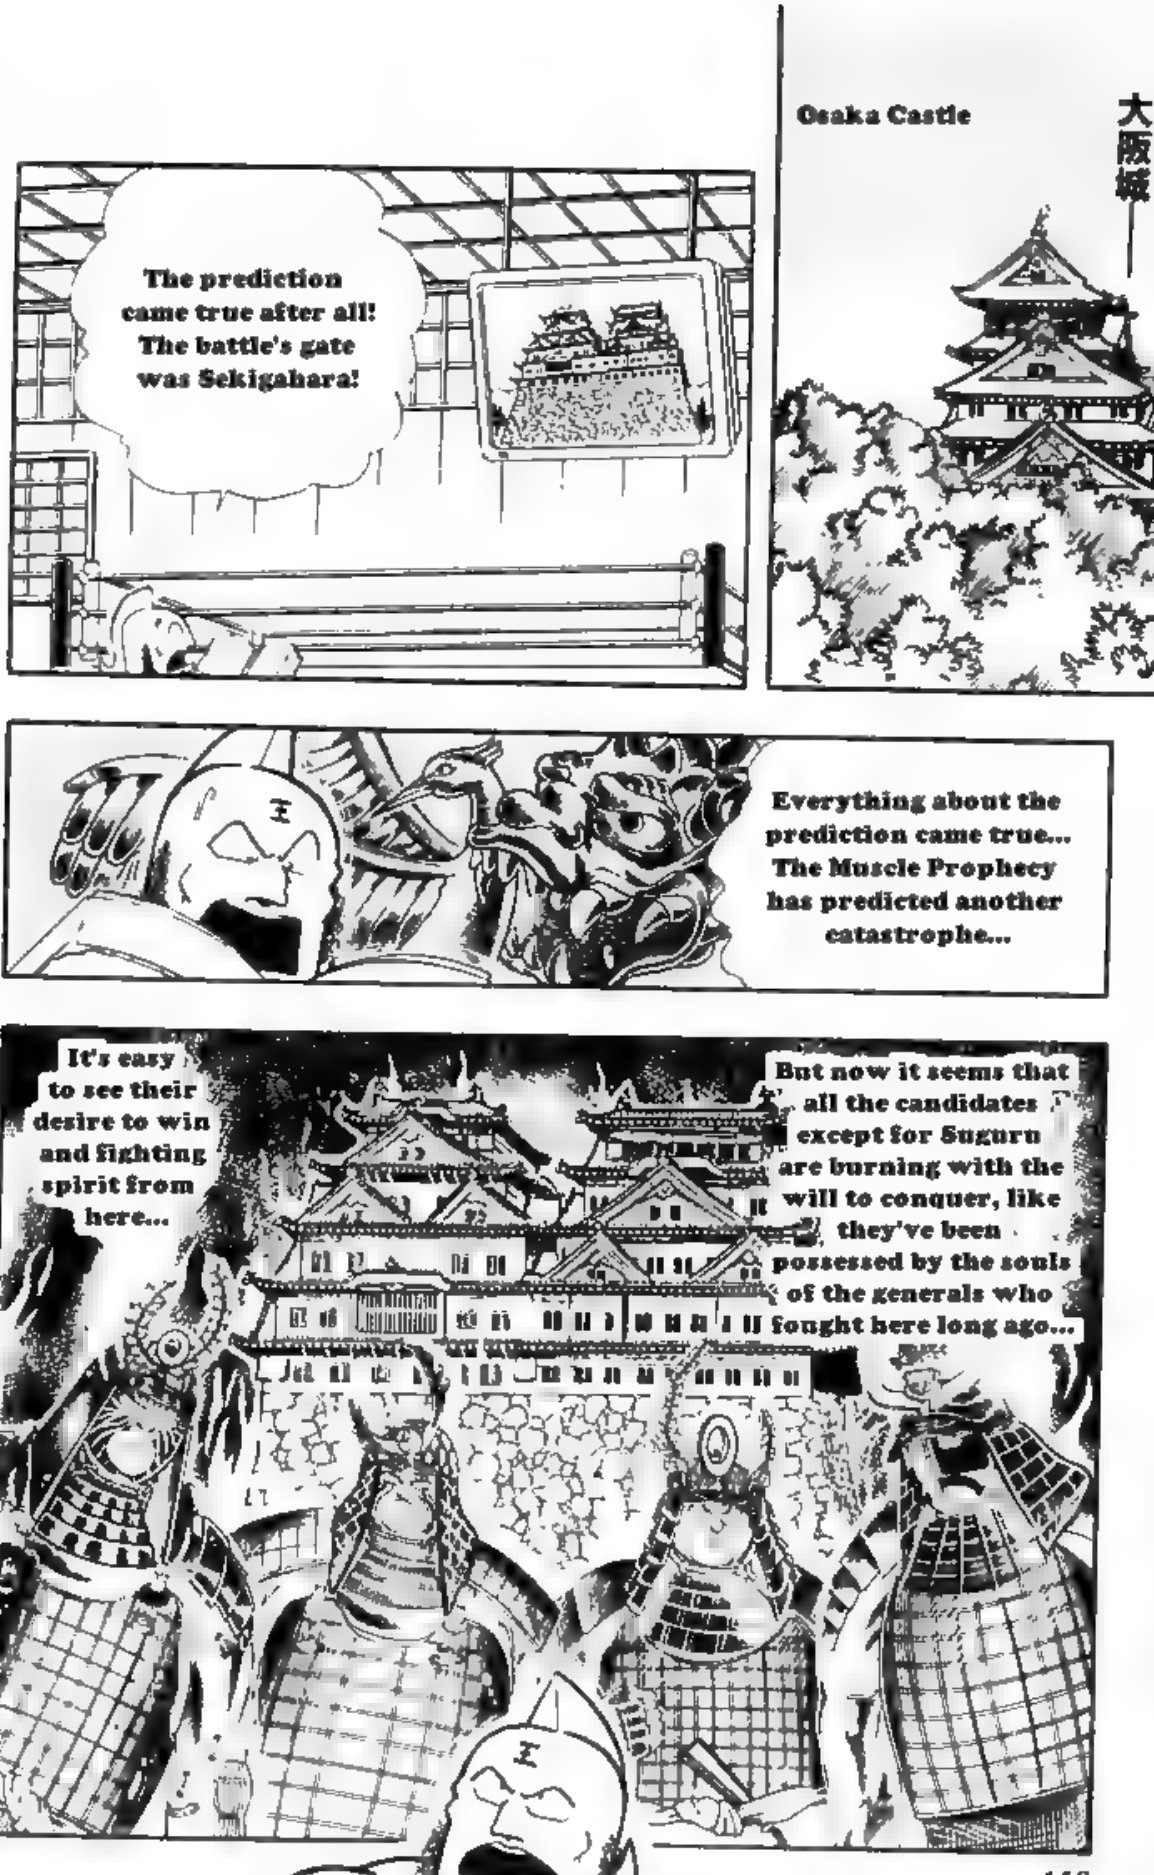


The Fighting Castle has finally landed!

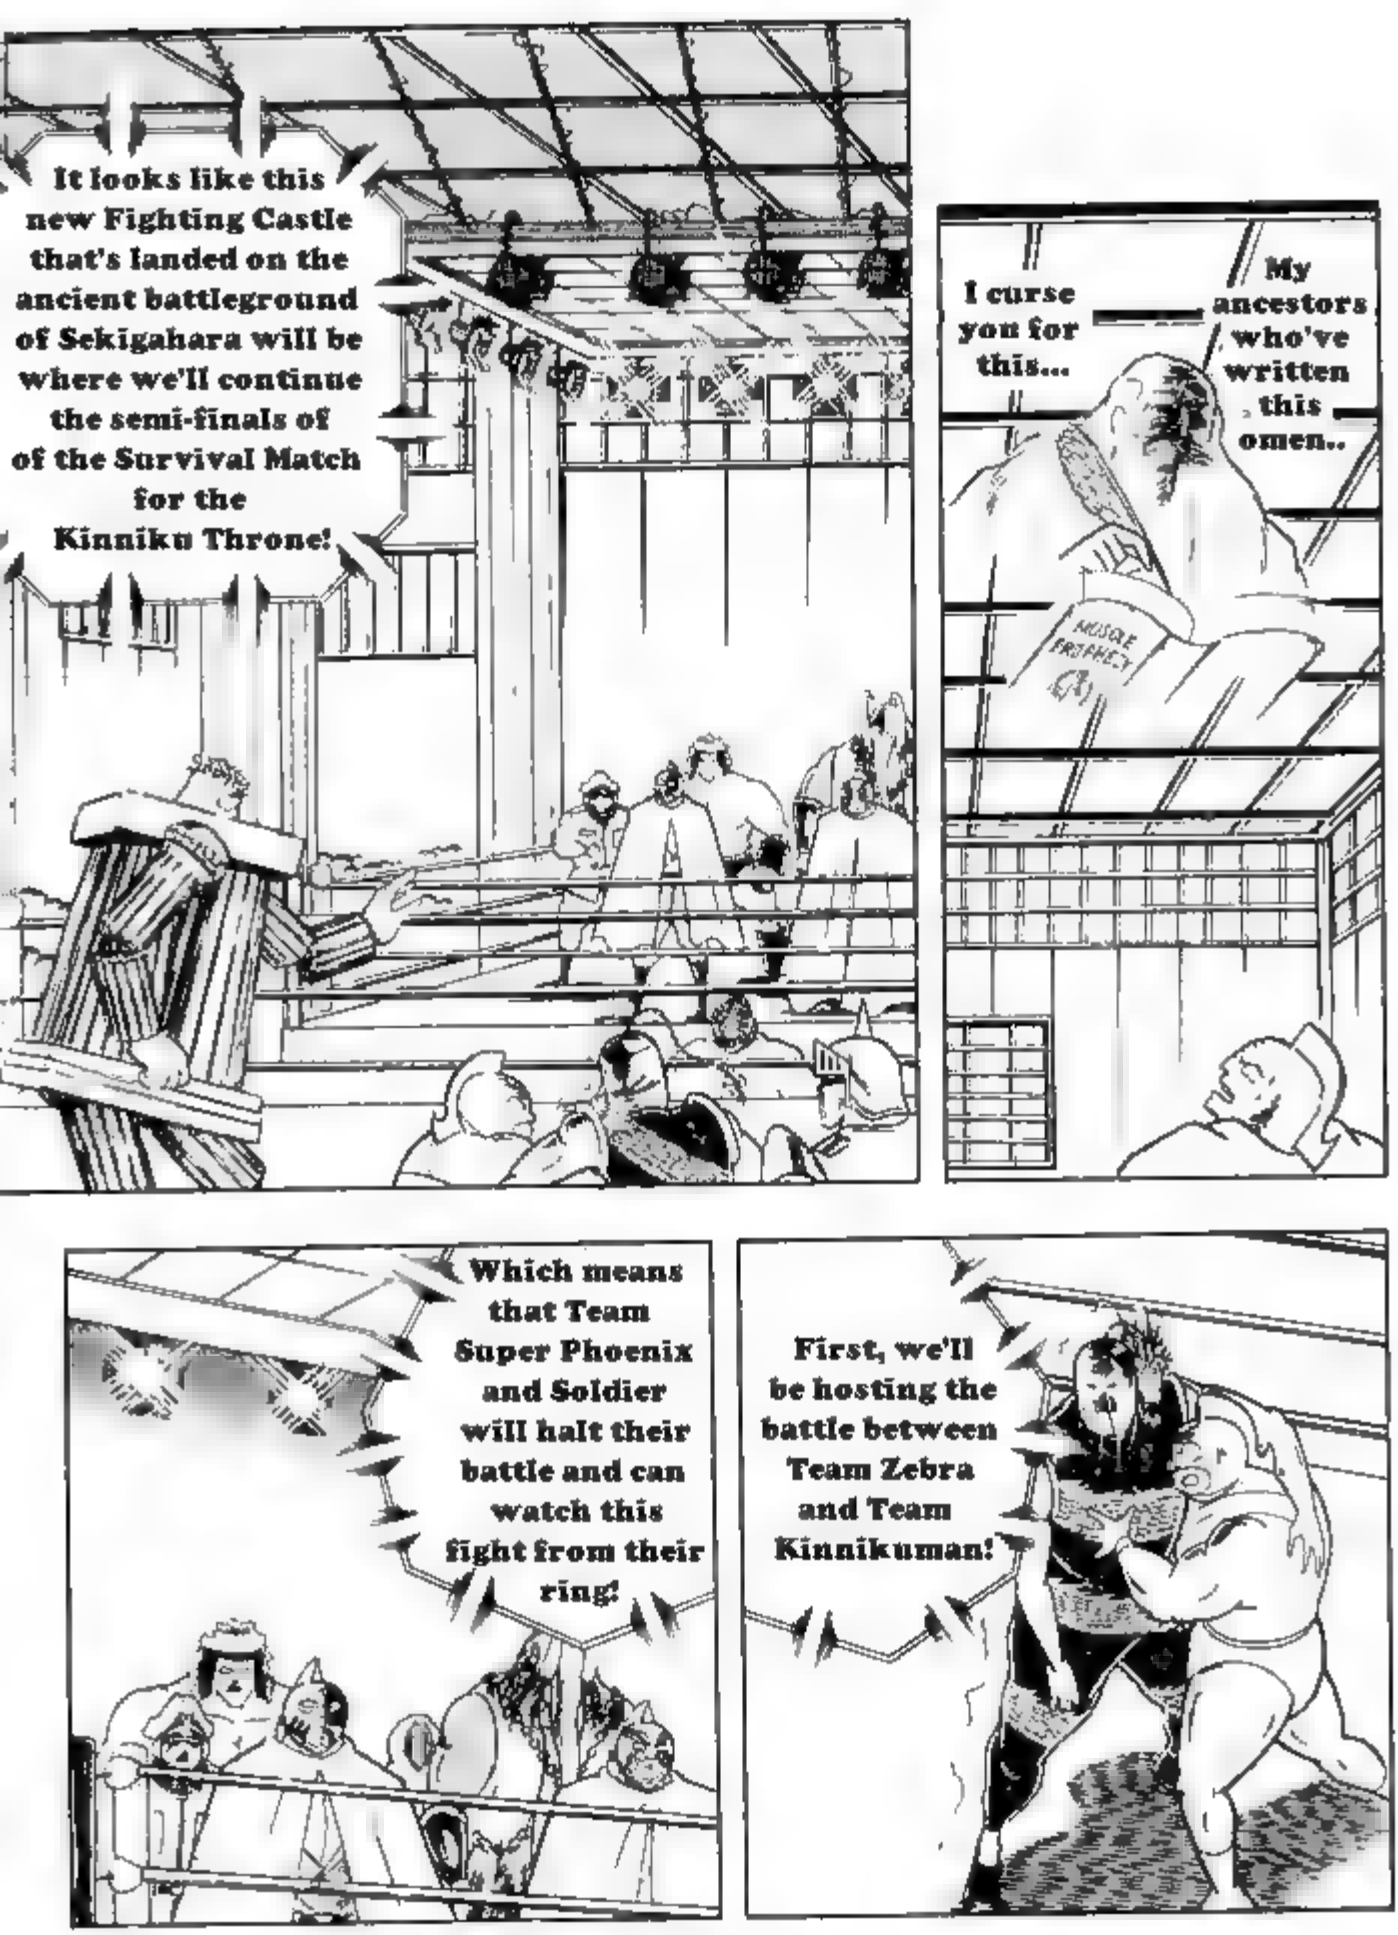


The castle's falling now!

There's nothing but mountains around here!
Just where are we?
Ieyashu had won the battle of Sekigahara and thus became ruler of Japan.
How fitting that this bloody battle for reign over the Kinniku royalty and the planet will be held at the site of such an important battle in the history of Japan.
Indeed.
So that's why this field is called Sekigahara!
I think I know where we are, if I know my Japanese history right.
The Great Divide!
This place was where the battle of Sekigahara took place in October of 1600, where Eastern Army leader Tokugawa Ieyasu fought Western Army leader Ishida Mitsunari for control of the shogunate!
And the feuds are starting again...
No, the throne belongs to Team Soldier.
Just like him, Team Zebra shall seize the Kinniku throne by winning this war!

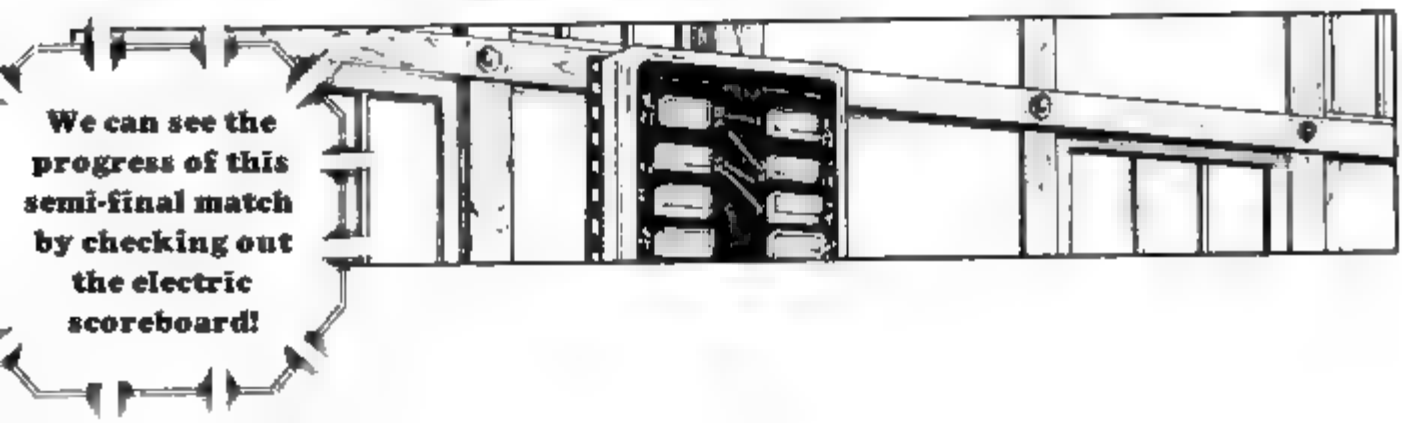


Osaka Castle
大阪城
The prediction came true after all! The battle's gate was Sekigahara!
Everything about the prediction came true... The Muscle Prophecy has predicted another catastrophe...
It's easy to see their desire to win and fighting spirit from here...
But now it seems that all the candidates except for Suguru are burning with the will to conquer, like they've been possessed by the souls of the generals who fought here long ago...

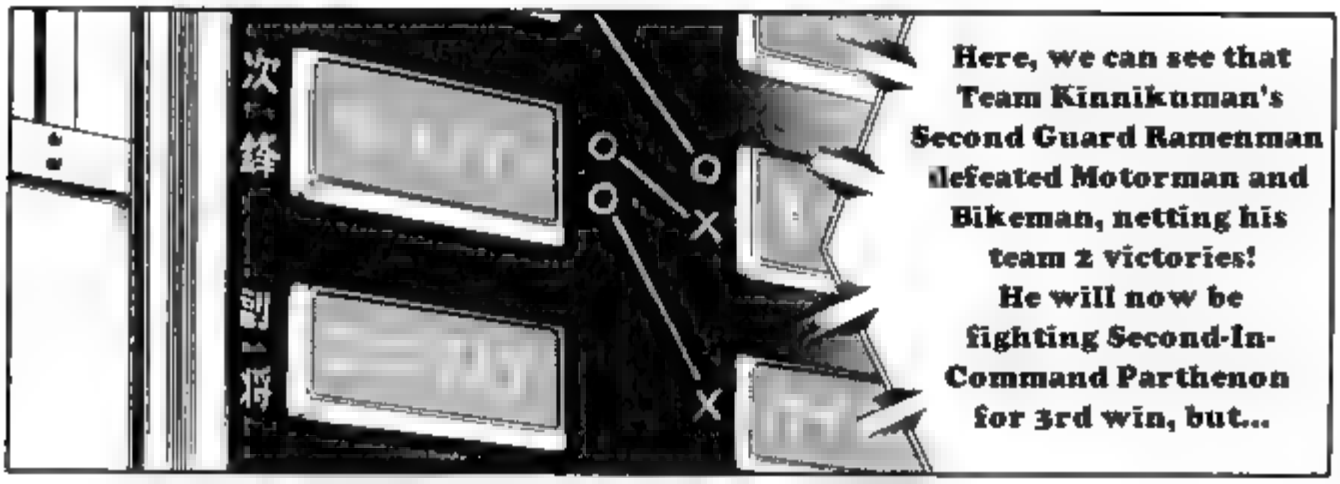


It looks like this new Fighting Castle that's landed on the ancient battleground of Sekigahara will be where we'll continue the semi-finals of of the Survival Match for the Kinniku Throne!
I curse you for this...
My ancestors who've written this omen..
MUSCLE PROPHECY

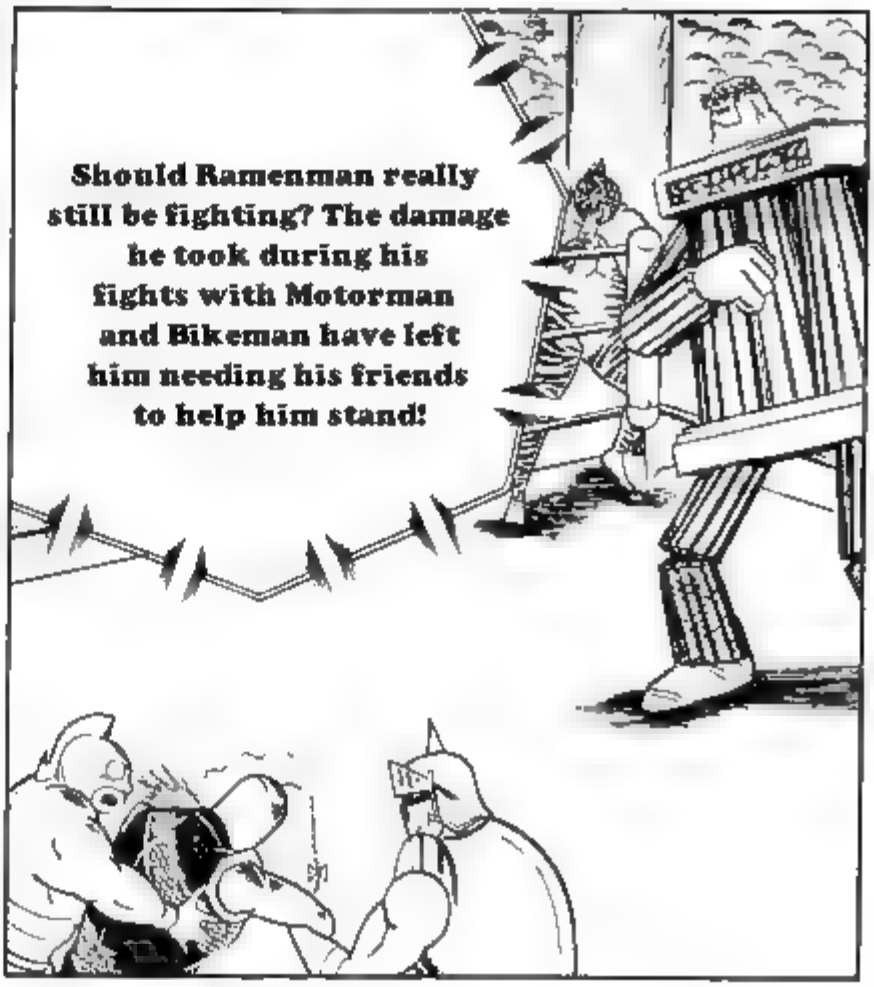
Which means that Team Super Phoenix and Soldier will halt their battle and can watch this fight from their ring!
First, we'll be hosting the battle between Team Zebra and Team Kinnikuman!



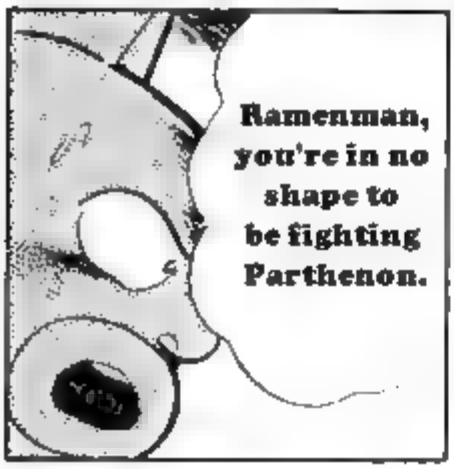
We can see the progress of this semi-final match by checking out the electric scoreboard!



次鋒 副1将
Here, we can see that Team Kinnikuman's Second Guard Ramenman defeated Motorman and Bikeman, netting his team 2 victories! He will now be fighting Second-In-Command Parthenon for 3rd win, but...

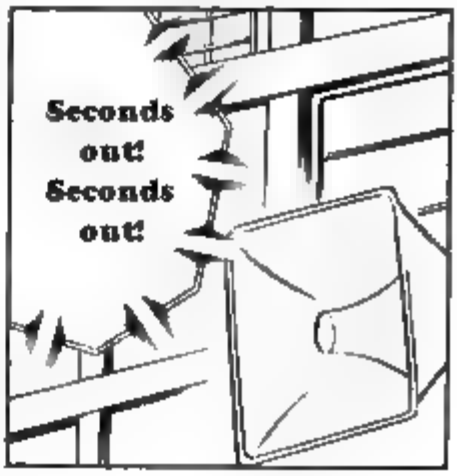


Should Ramenman really still be fighting? The damage he took during his fights with Motorman and Bikeman have left him needing his friends to help him stand!

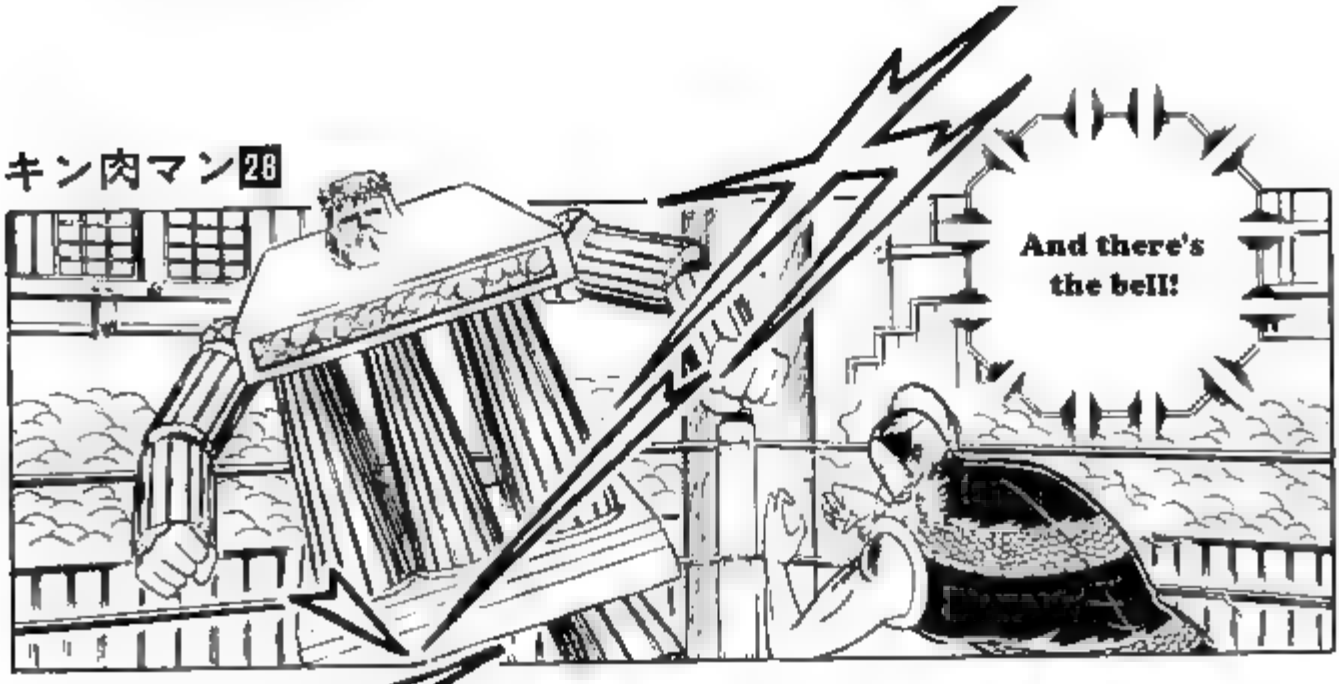


Ramenman, you're in no shape to be fighting Parthenon.

Seconds... Need to get out...



Seconds out! Seconds out!



And there's the bell!

And Parthenon wastes no time in taking advantage of this opening by getting ready to land a Guillotine Drop on Ramenman's neck!

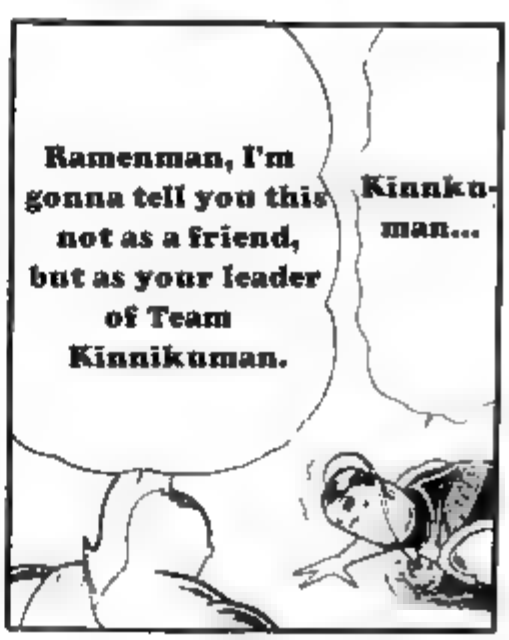
Gyaah!

Just as we feared! Ramenman's collasped right after the match begins!

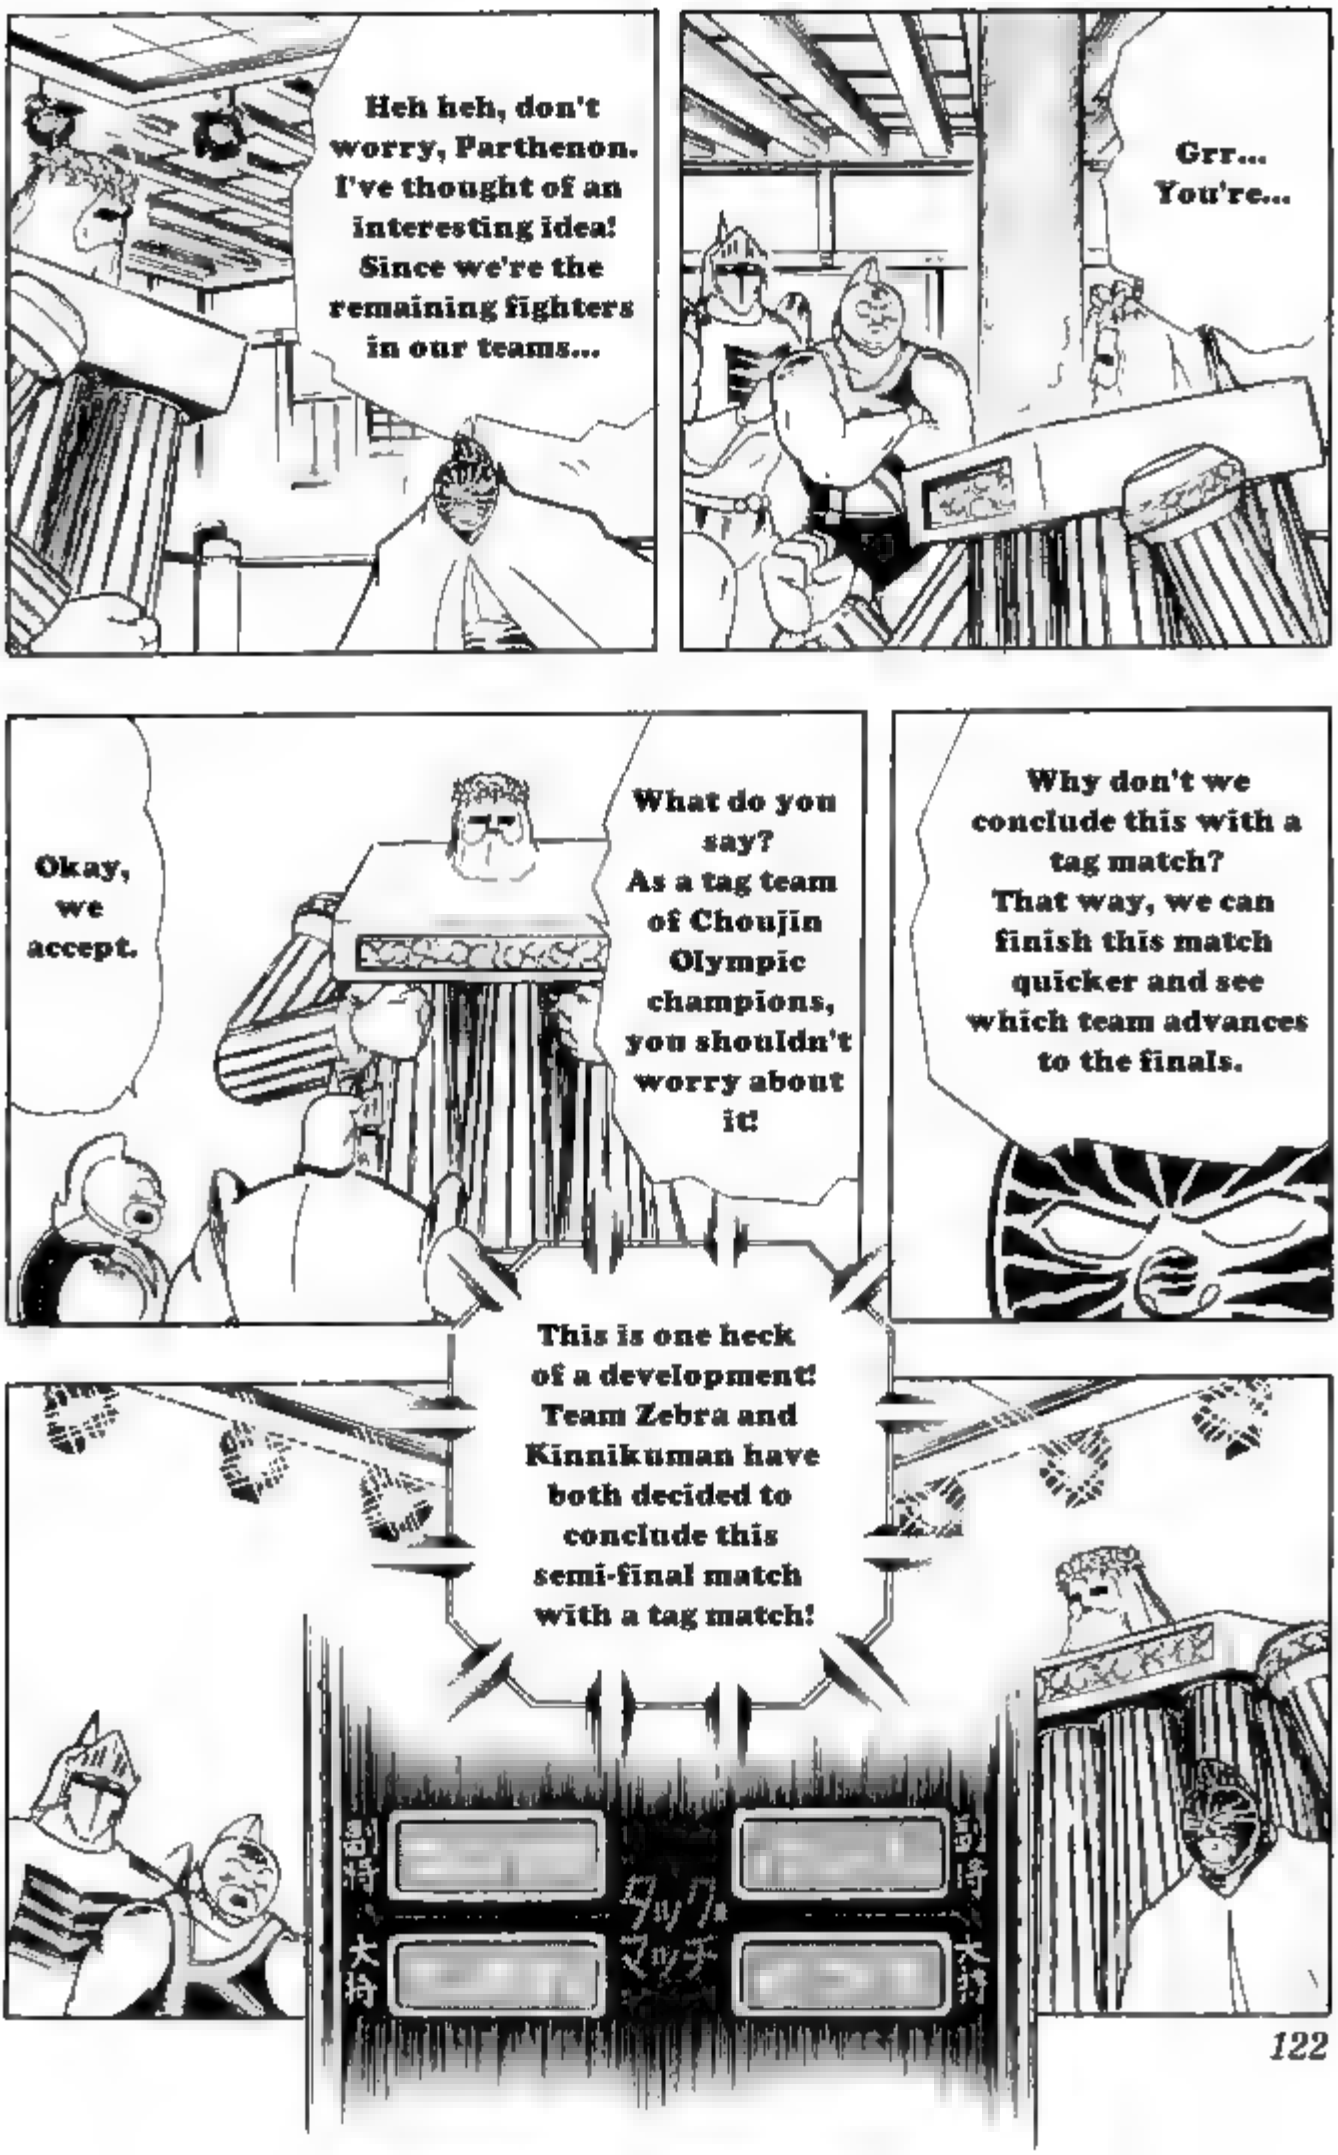
……!!

Watch out!

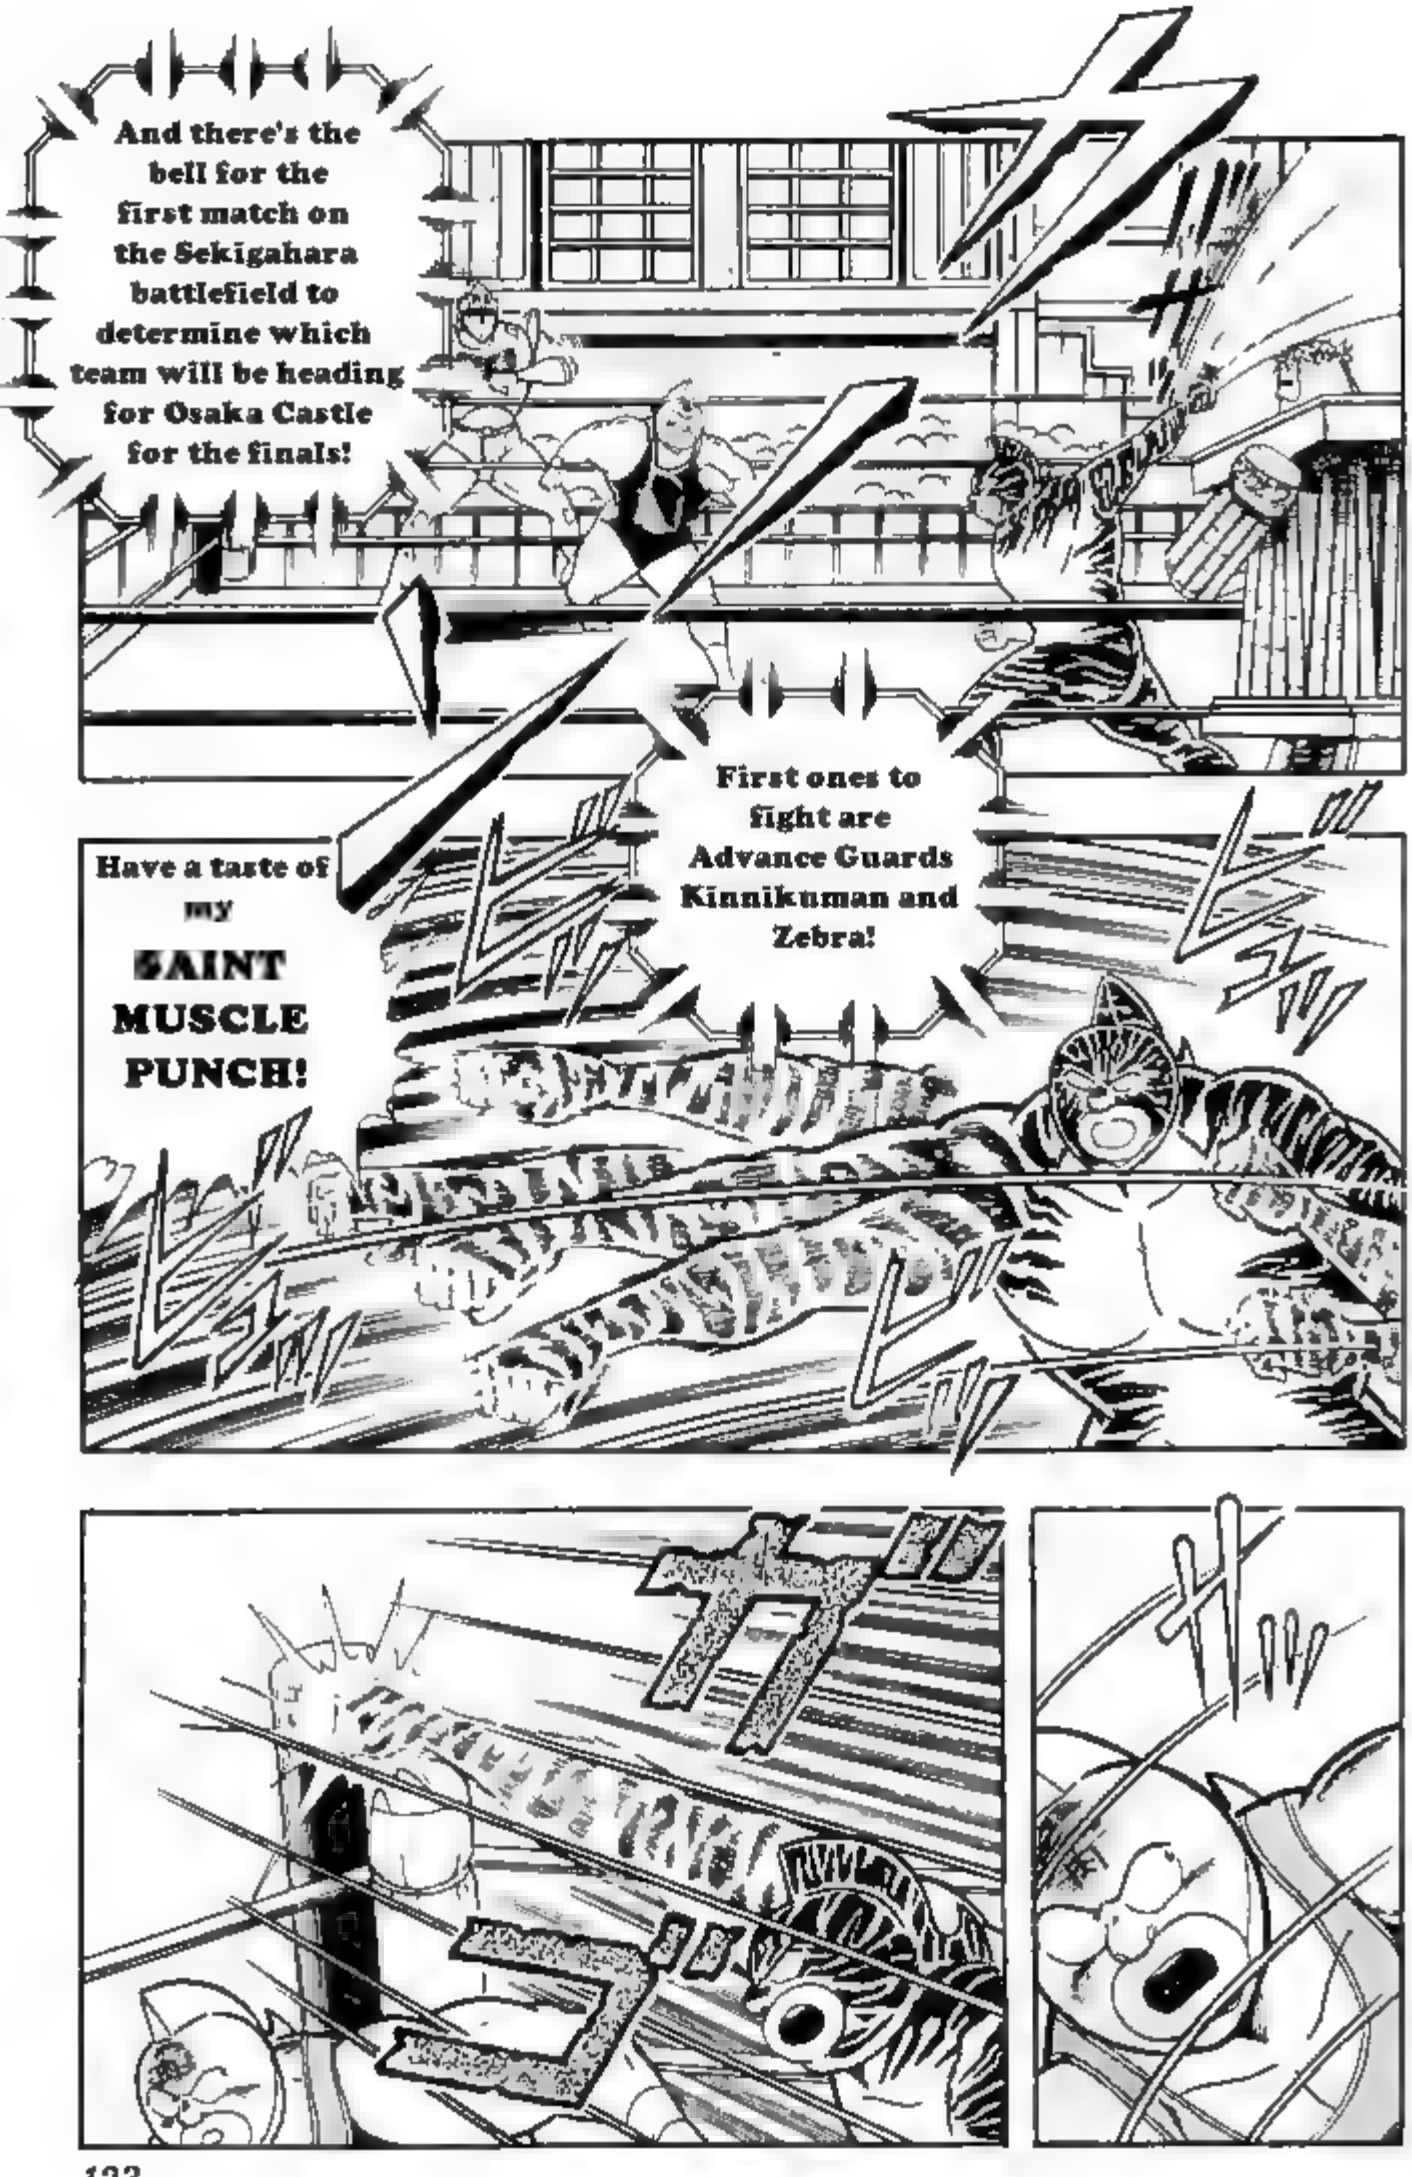
Kinnikuman has come to Ramenman's rescue by landing a Drop Kick on Parthenon, even though this is a singles match!



Yeah, yeah, I know. In a team match like this, the guy who interrupts the match gets his teammate disqualified, so Ramenman's out of this fight.
Kinnikuman, do you realize what happens when someone interrupts a match like that?
I'm sorry, Kinnikuman... I'll go rest now.
But of course!
But Team Kinnikuman can do without Ramenman's help! There's still me and Robin Mask left to fight, which is more than enough to take you on!
Robin, you ready?
And Kinnikuman tears off his bandages to reveal a new costume!



Heh heh, don't worry, Parthenon. I've thought of an interesting idea! Since we're the remaining fighters in our teams...
Grr... You're...
Okay, we accept.
What do you say? As a tag team of Choujin Olympic champions, you shouldn't worry about it!
Why don't we conclude this with a tag match? That way, we can finish this match quicker and see which team advances to the finals.
This is one heck of a development! Team Zebra and Kinnikuman have both decided to conclude this semi-final match with a tag match!



And there's the bell for the first match on the Sekigahara battlefield to determine which team will be heading for Osaka Castle for the finals!
First ones to fight are Advance Guards Kinnikuman and Zebra!
Have a taste of my SAINT MUSCLE PUNCH!

Hmm hmm, you should know that I was once the Choujin Boxing Super Heavyweight Champion...
Gurgh!
Woah! This guy doesn't pull any punches!
Here's my prided Mephisto Punch!
Kinnikuman's trying to escape Zebra's fast punches!
Hmph! Hah!

Hurmph!
Then...
Have a taste of it yourself!

KINNIKUMAN VS. KINNIKUMAN ZEBRA

Long ago, when the Choujin World was in it's infancy...
できたばかりの頃
A wise member of the Kinniku Clan wrote a book of prophecies...

One of them had predicted that 'In October of 1984, when the prince of Planet Kinniku finally ascends to the throne...

Kinnikuman Mariposa

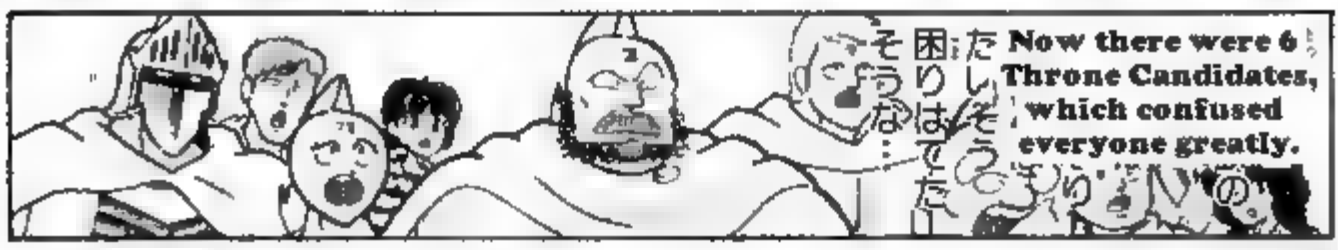
These 5 Choujins were named...
Kinnikuman Big Body

Kinnikuman Super Phoenix!
And finally...

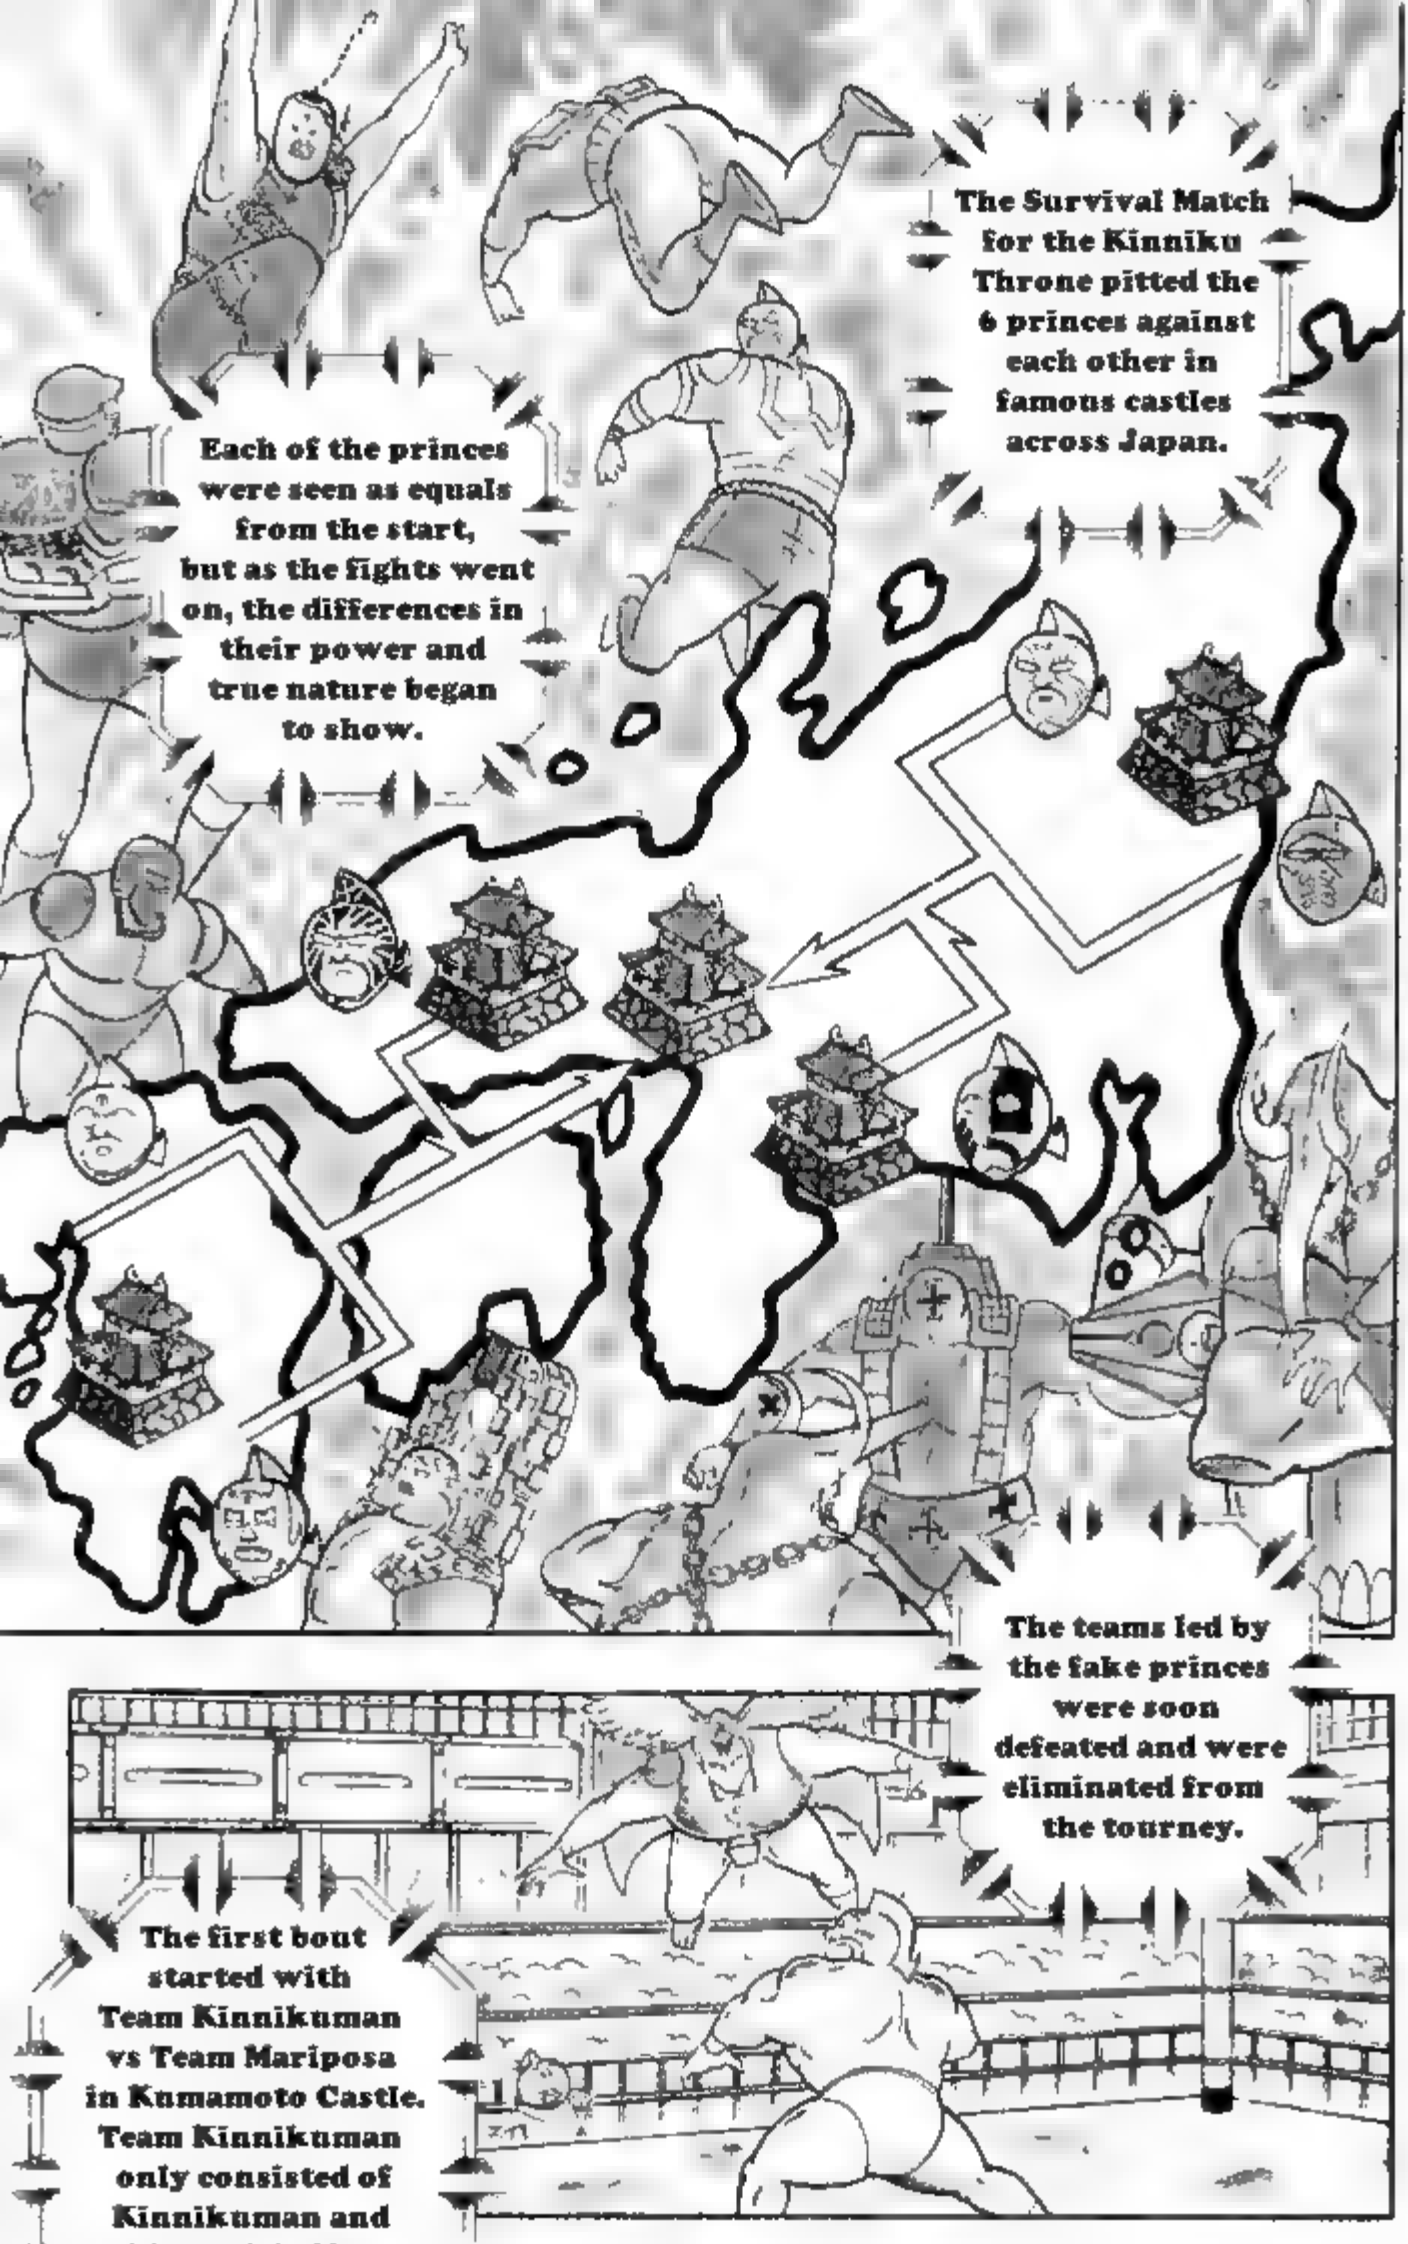
And just as the book had predicted as well, they proclaimed Kinniku Suguru to be a imposter and that they were the actual princes descended from the Kinniku Clan.
Just as the book had foretold millions of years ago, the 5 Chouiin had arrived.



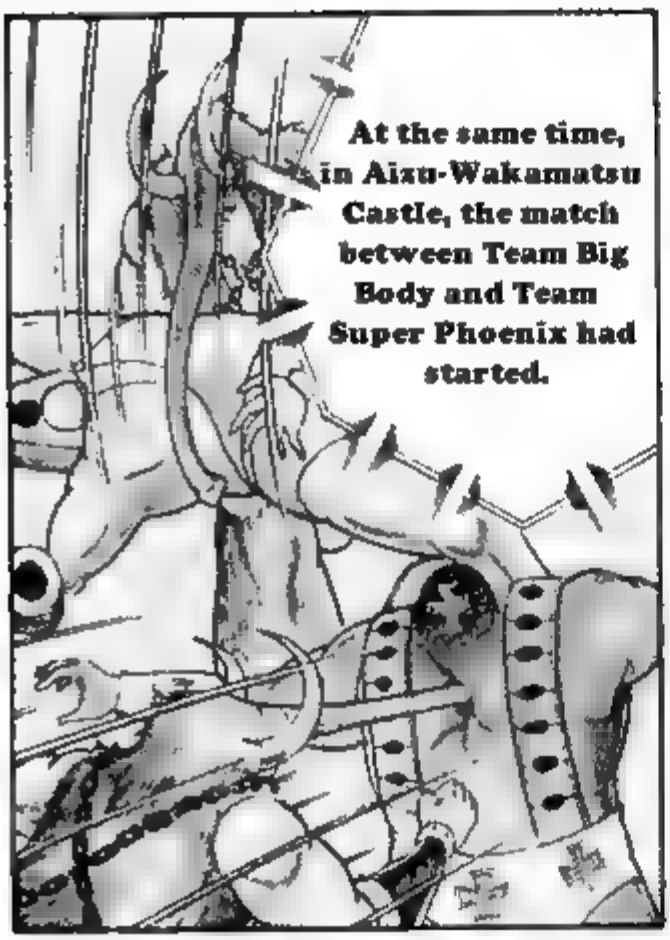
Now there were 6 Throne Candidates, which confused everyone greatly.

The leader of the team who wins this competition would be recognized as the legitamte heir to the Kinniku Throne.
So after some discussion, it was decided that the 6 Throne candidates would assemble teams to fight in a team wrestling match.
And fought in heated battles every day...
And so started the battle called the "Survival Match for the Kinniku Throne", where the 6 heirs scattered across famous castles throughout Japan
But no one knew of their plan...
But this fight was a ploy devised by the 5 Evil Gods, who felt the threat of Kinniku Suguru's inner strength and knew who could stop him.

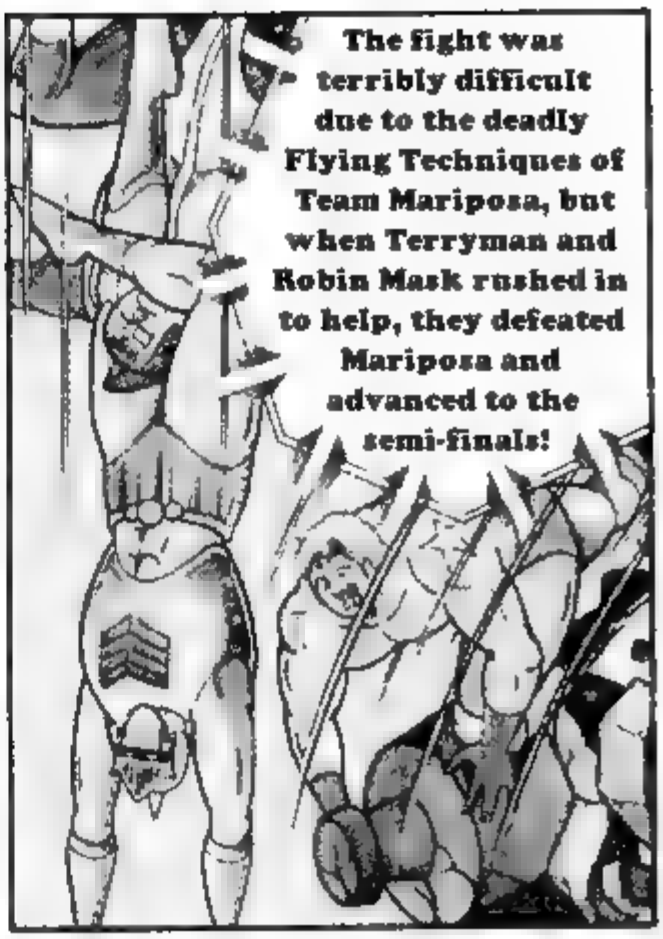
The Brutal Fighting Expert!



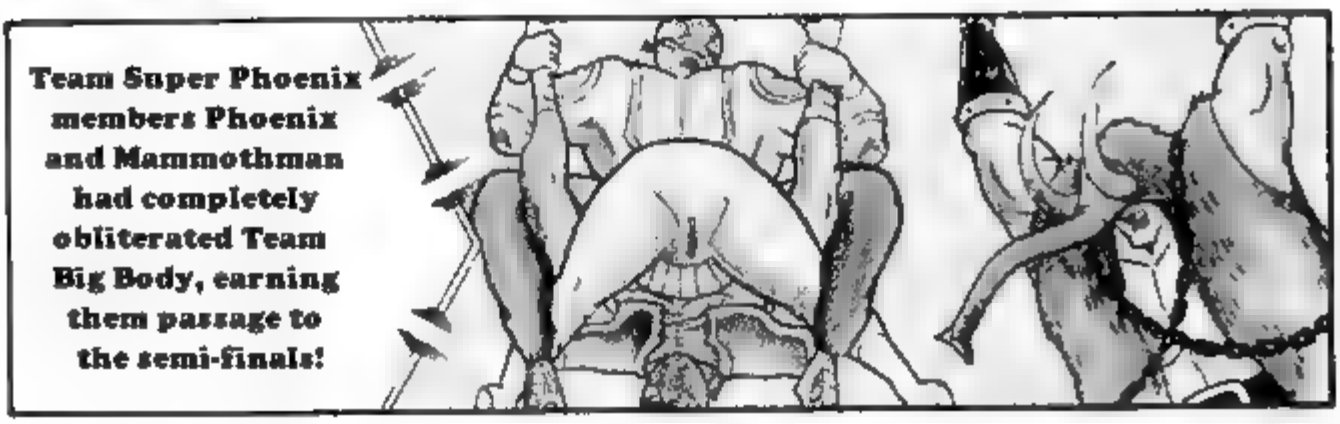
The Survival Match for the Kinniku Throne pitted the 6 princes against each other in famous castles across Japan.
Each of the princes were seen as equals from the start, but as the fights went on, the differences in their power and true nature began to show.
The teams led by the fake princes were soon defeated and were eliminated from the tourney.
The first bout started with Team Kinnikuman vs Team Mariposa in Kumamoto Castle. Team Kinnikuman only consisted of Kinnikuman and Alexandria Meat at first.



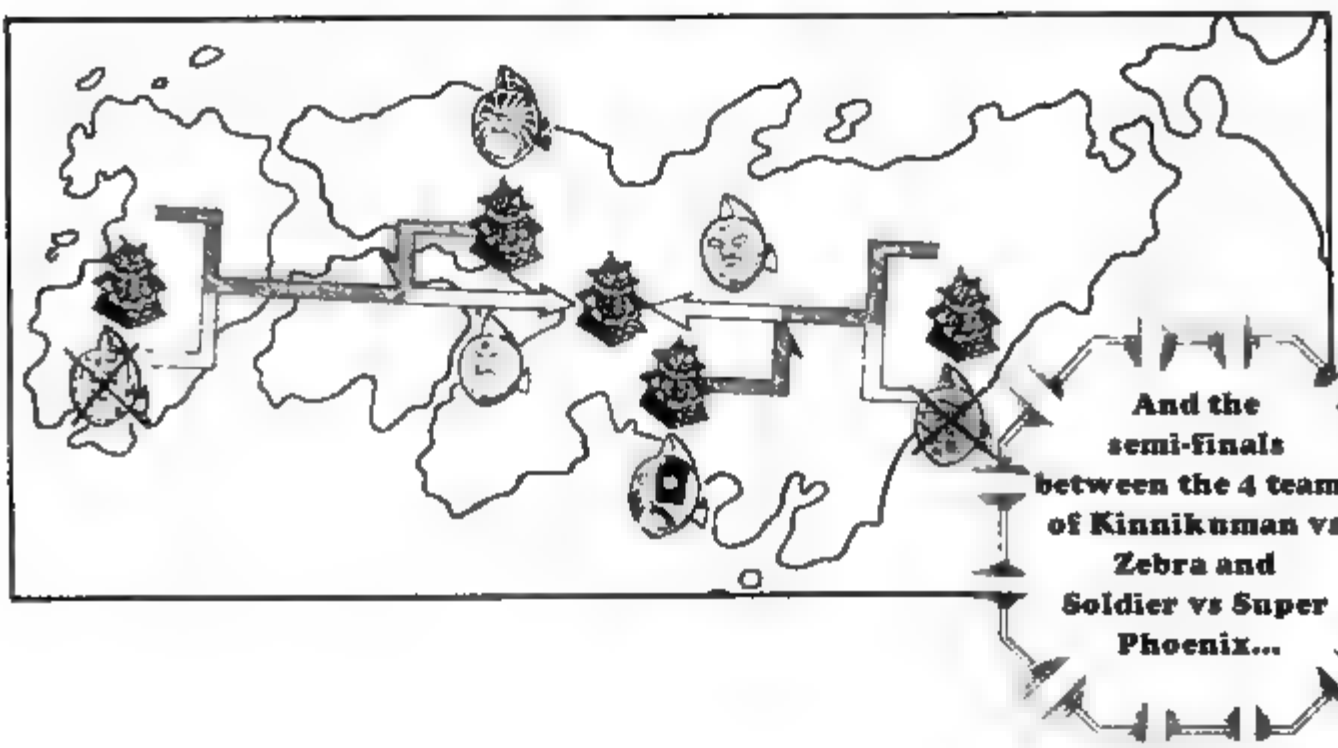
At the same time, in Aizu-Wakamatsu Castle, the match between Team Big Body and Team Super Phoenix had started.



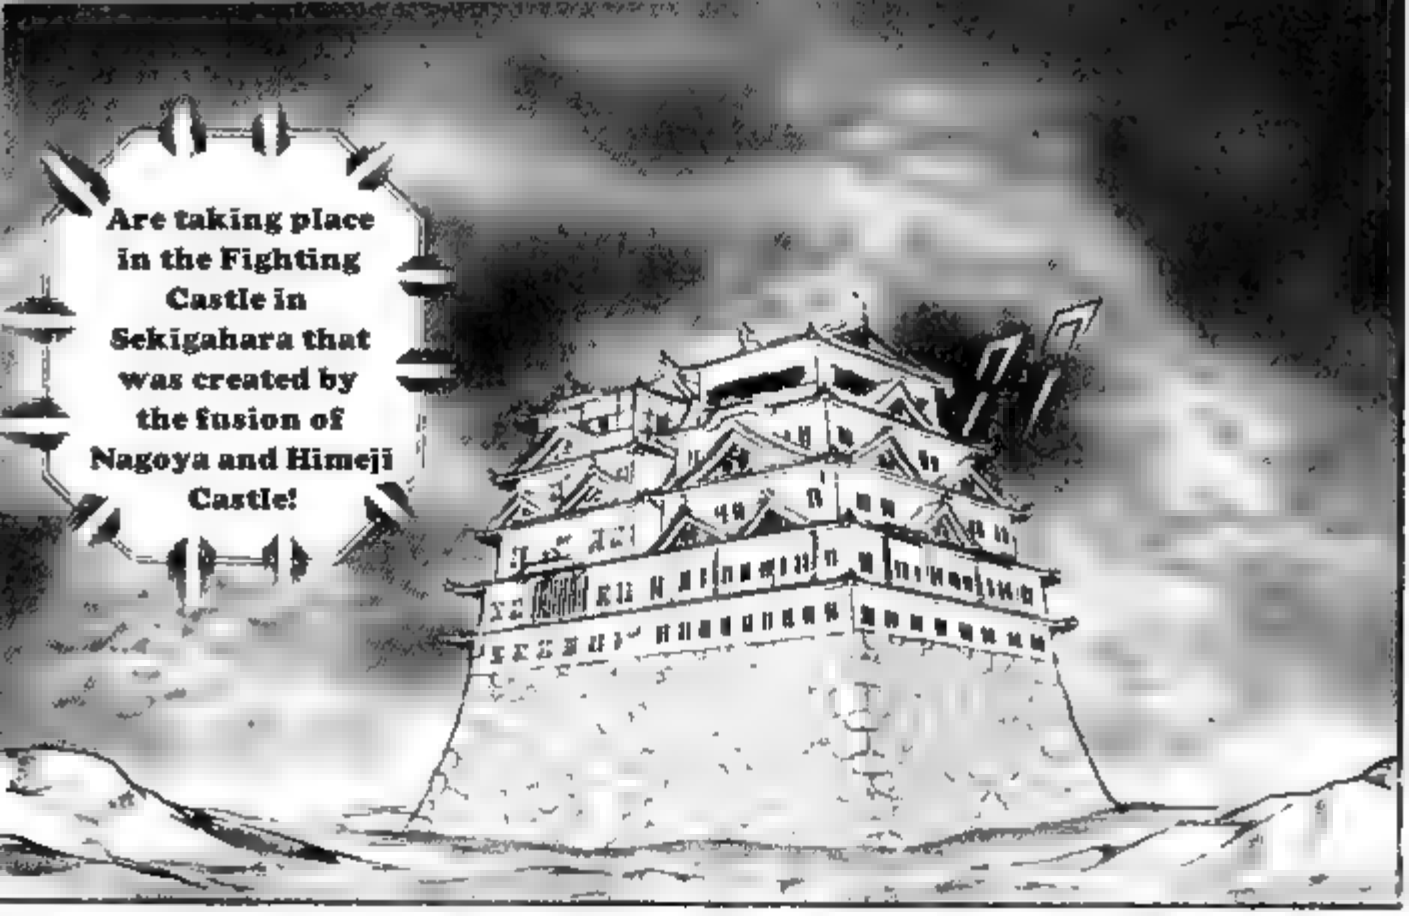
The fight was terribly difficult due to the deadly Flying Techniques of Team Mariposa, but when Terryman and Robin Mask rushed in to help, they defeated Mariposa and advanced to the semi-finals!



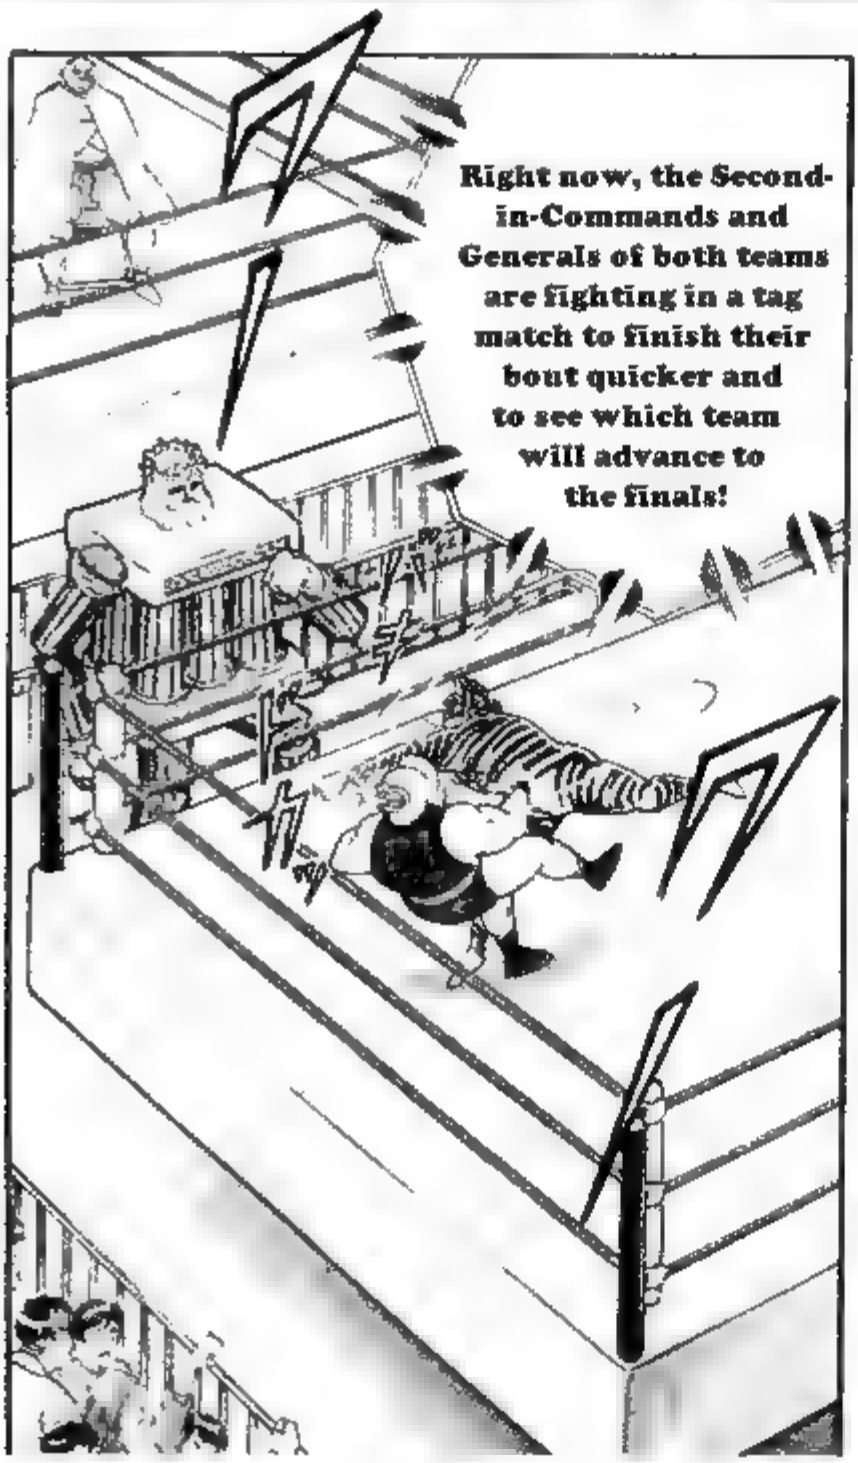
Team Super Phoenix members Phoenix and Mammothman had completely obliterated Team Big Body, earning them passage to the semi-finals!



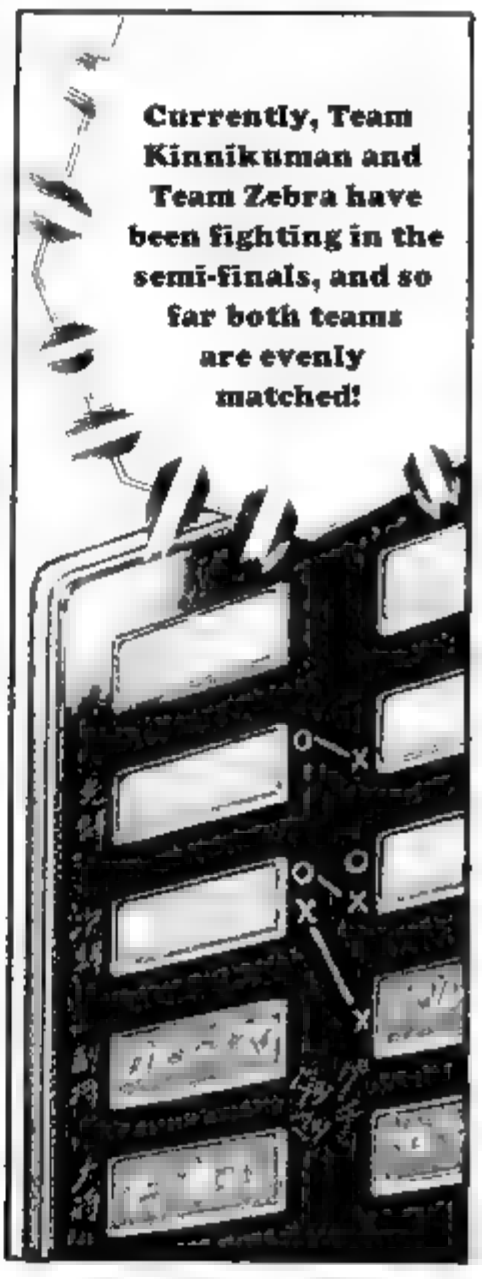
And the semi-finals between the 4 teams of Kinnikuman vs Zebra and Soldier vs Super Phoenix...



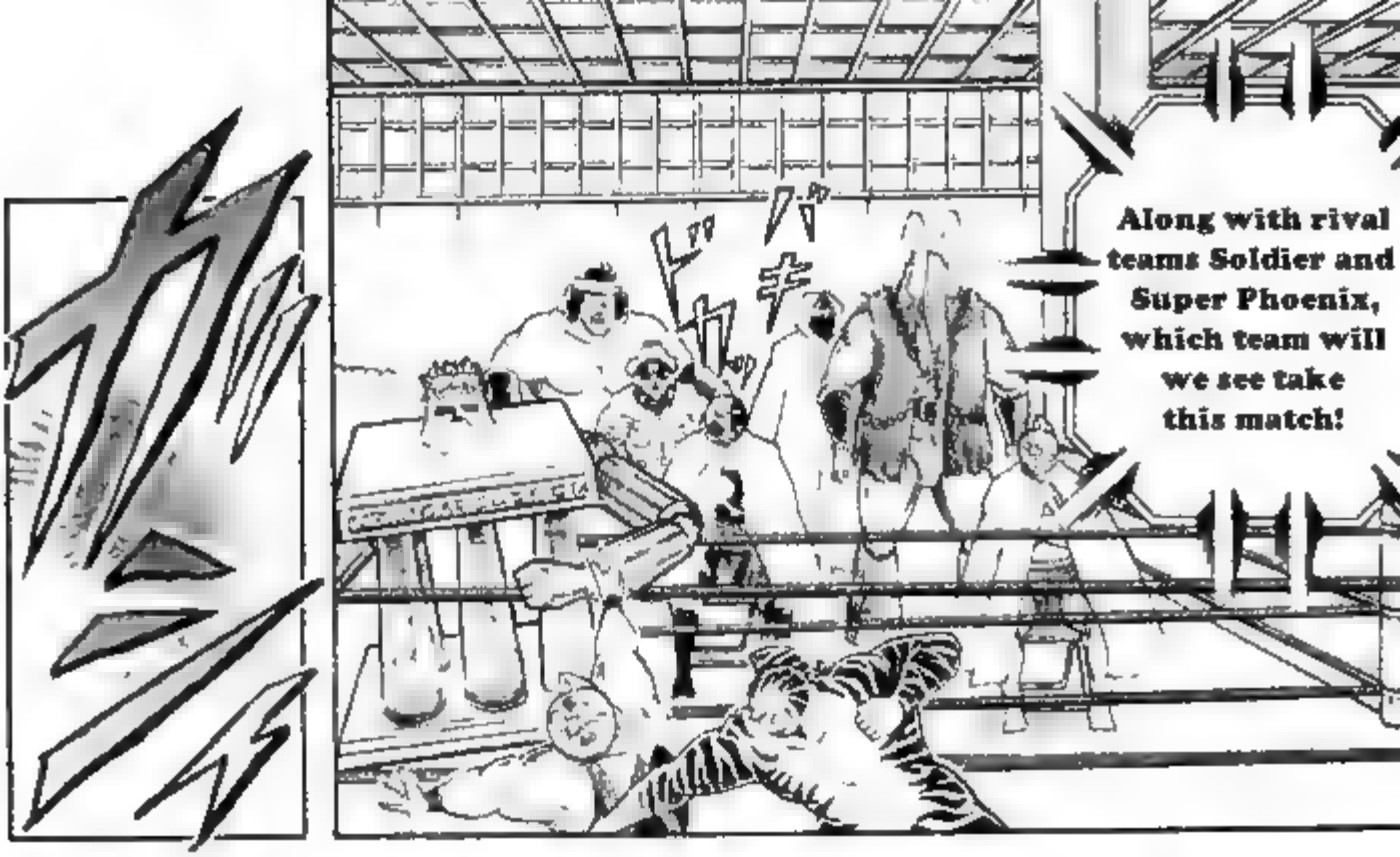
Are taking place in the Fighting Castle in Sekigahara that was created by the fusion of Nagoya and Himeji Castle!



Right now, the Second-in-Commands and Generals of both teams are fighting in a tag match to finish their bout quicker and to see which team will advance to the finals!

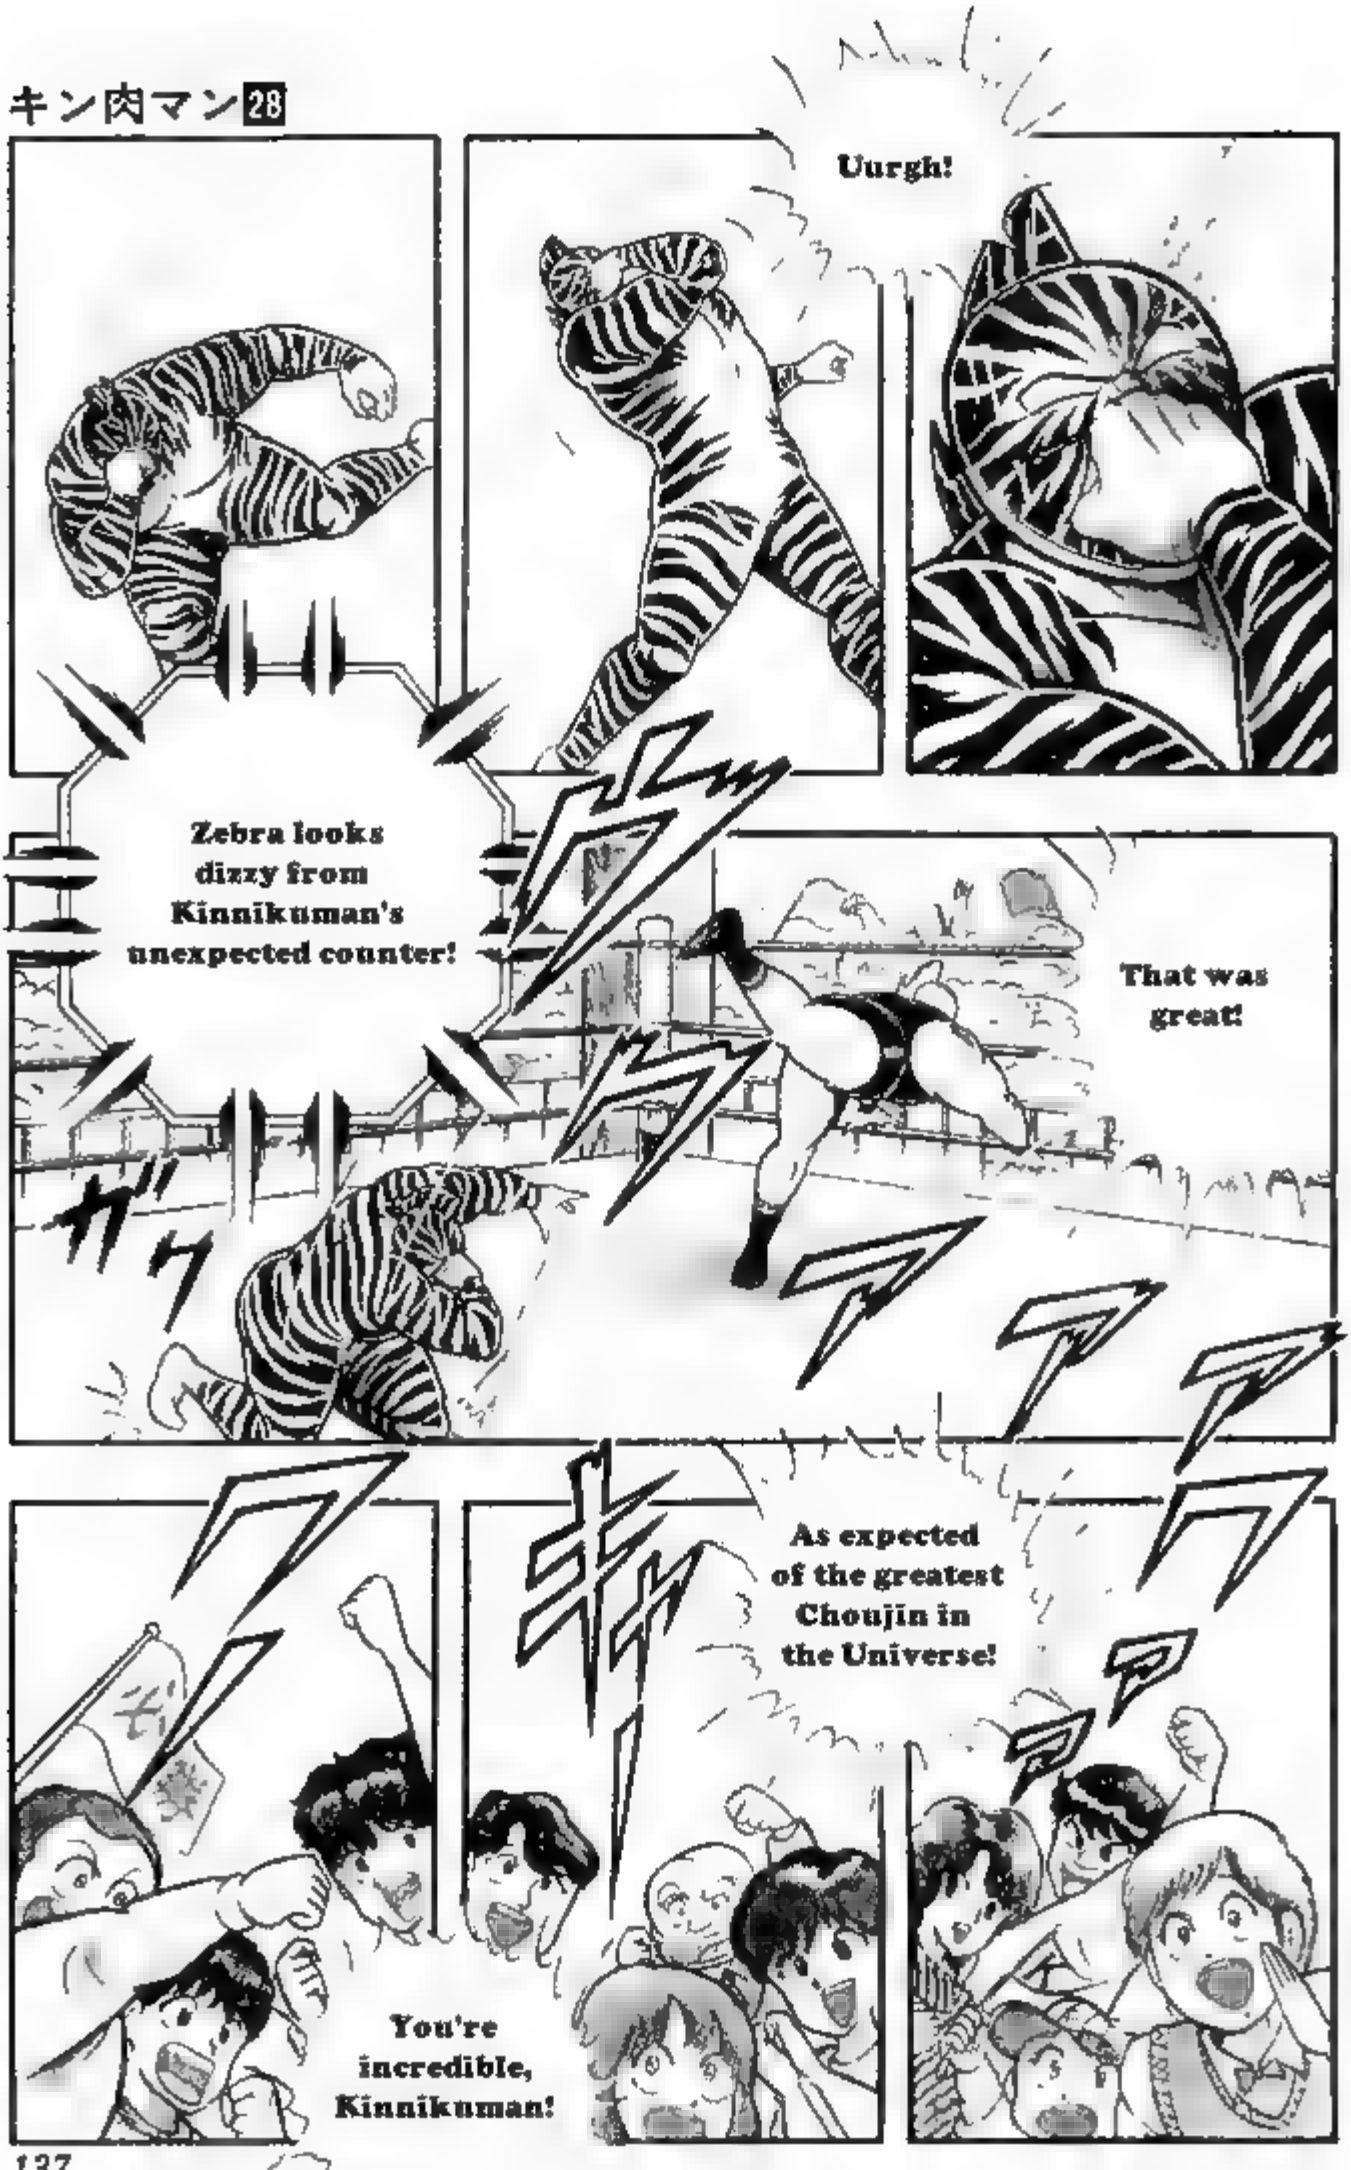


Currently, Team Kinnikuman and Team Zebra have been fighting in the semi-finals, and so far both teams are evenly matched!

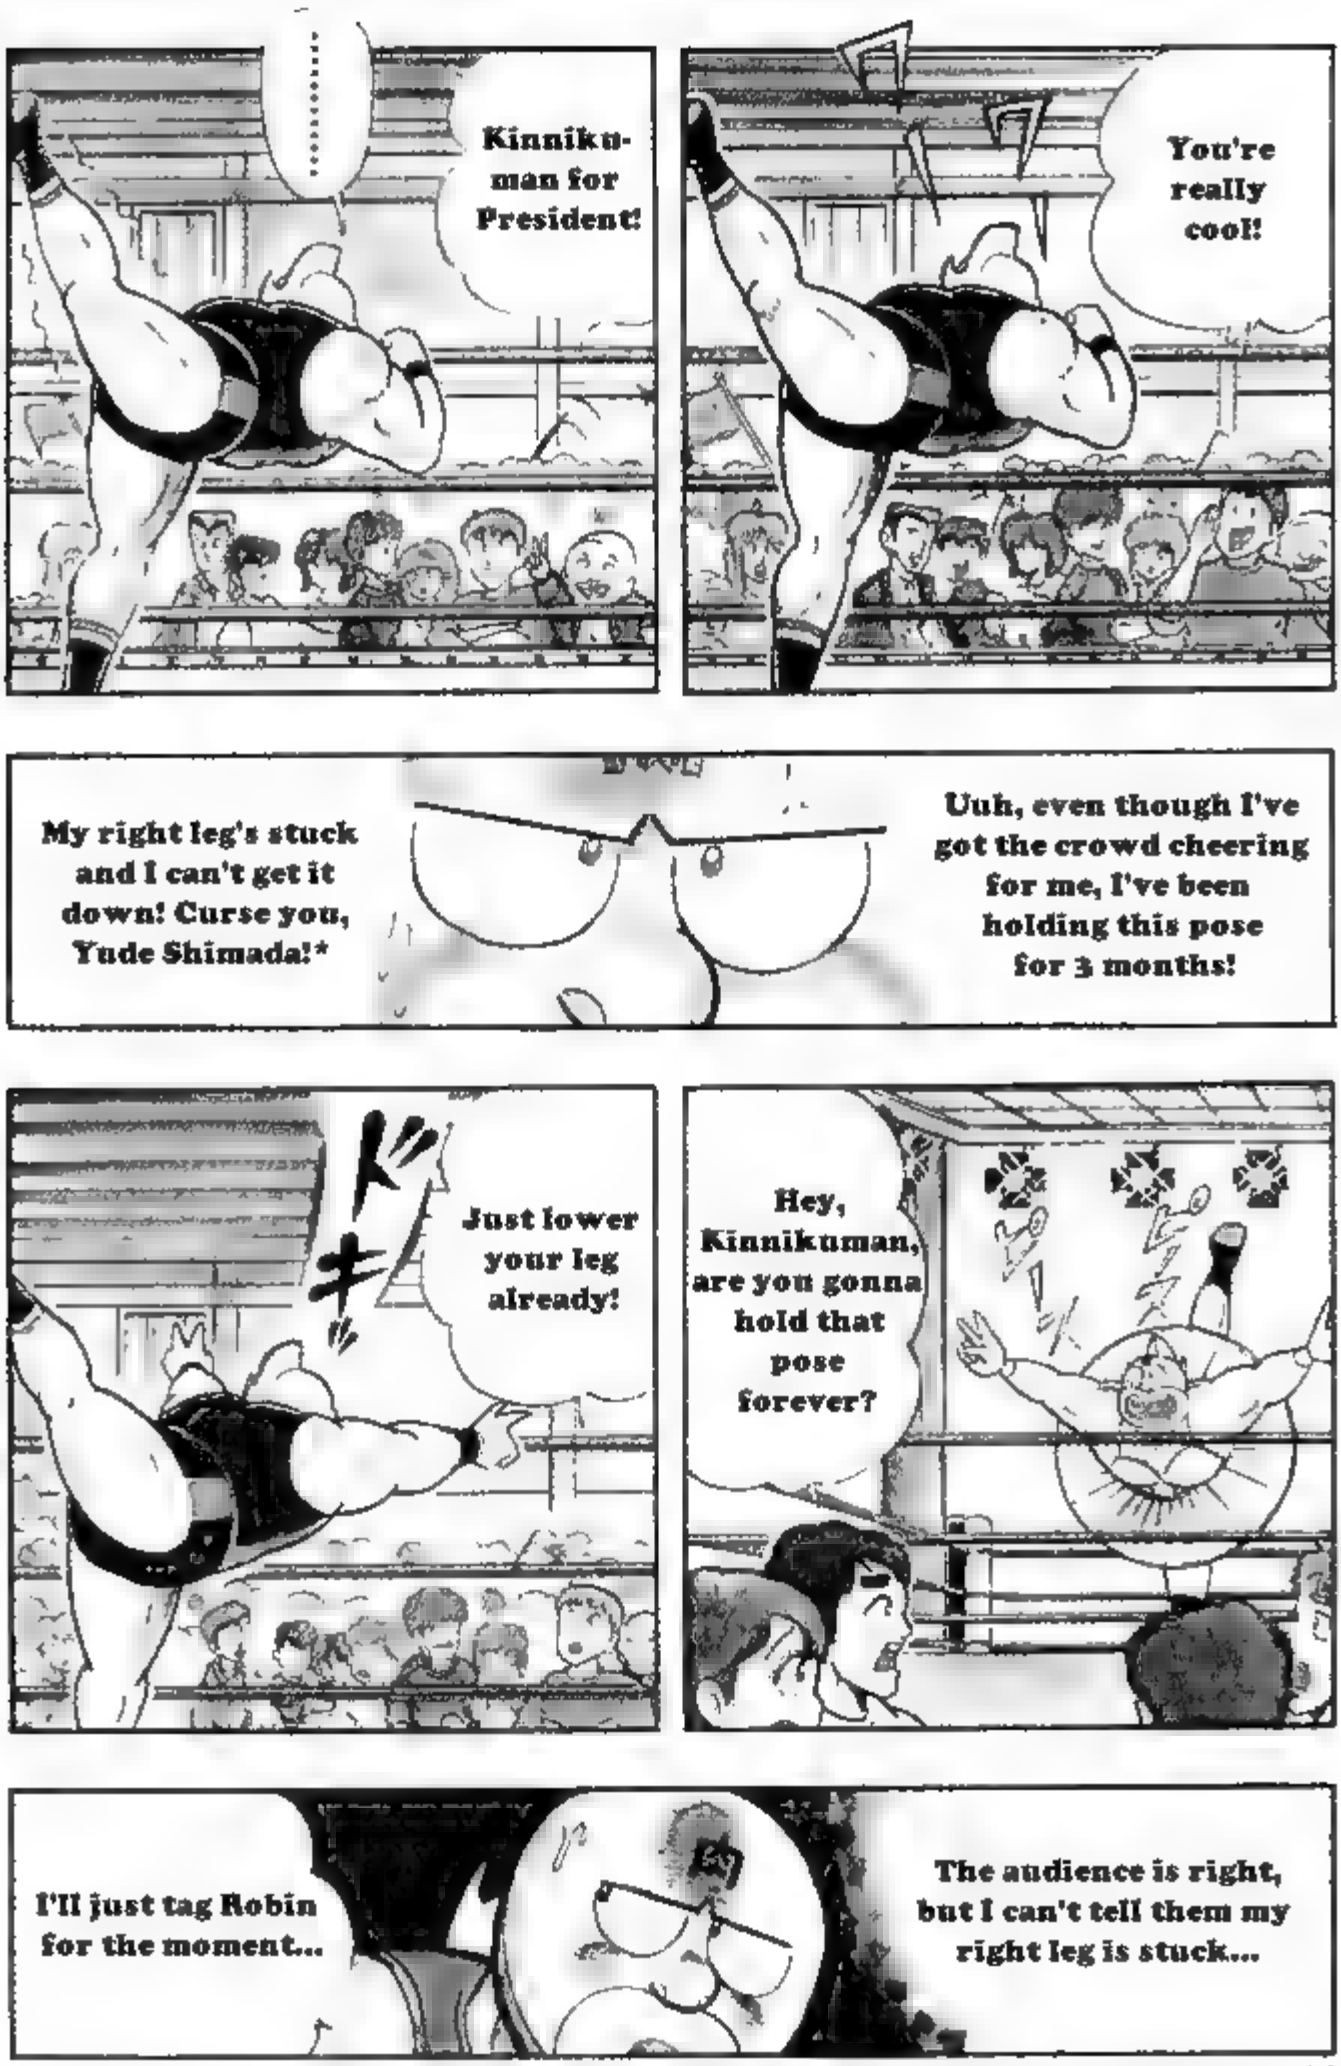


Along with rival teams Soldier and Super Phoenix, which team will we see take this match!

Zebra's fist has hit his own face thanks to Kinnikuman's kick diverting his punch!



Uurgh!
Zebra looks dizzy from Kinnikuman's unexpected counter!
That was great!
As expected of the greatest Choujin in the Universe!
You're incredible, Kinnikuman!

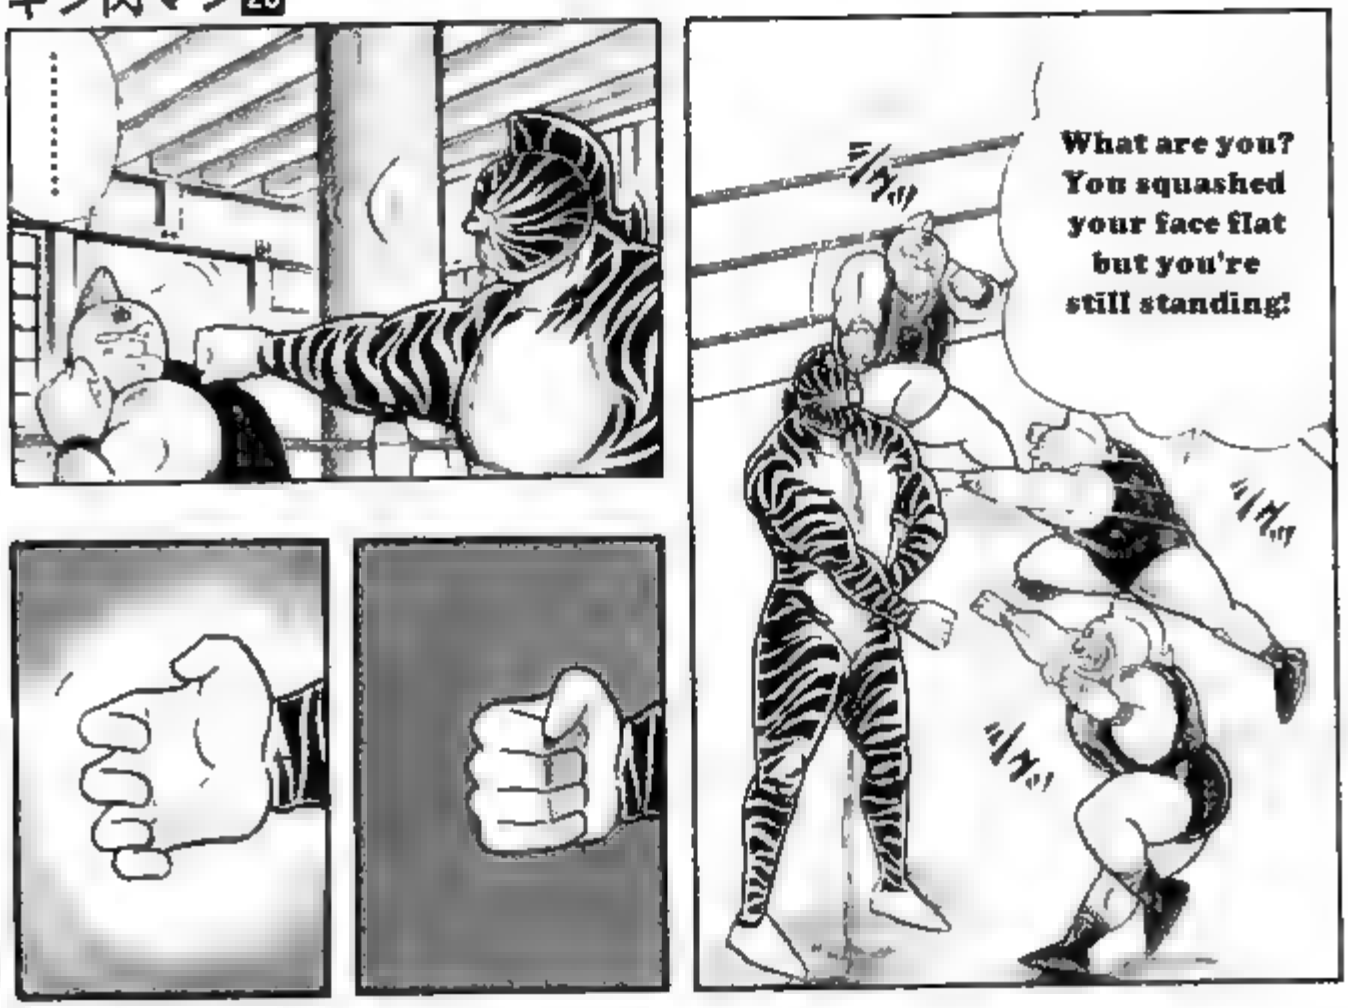


Kinnikuman for President!
You're really cool!
My right leg's stuck and I can't get it down! Curse you, Yude Shimada!*
Uuh, even though I've got the crowd cheering for me, I've been holding this pose for 3 months!
Just lower your leg already!
Hey, Kinnikuman, are you gonna hold that pose forever?
I'll just tag Robin for the moment...
The audience is right, but I can't tell them my right leg is stuck...

*In 1985, Takashi Shimada, the writer of Kinnikuman became sick, forcing Kinnikuman into hiatus after the previous chapter was released until 3 months later when this chapter was released.

Wha-
What are you doing sound asleep!?
Hey Robin! You should be helping me out! This is a tag match!
Ooh.. Sorry about that, mate. I just dozed off in the 3 months that I've been standing here in the corner...

ボタ…
Kinniku-man! Behind you!
Well, at least the shock from that loosened my right leg.
Wah!
ゴロゴロ

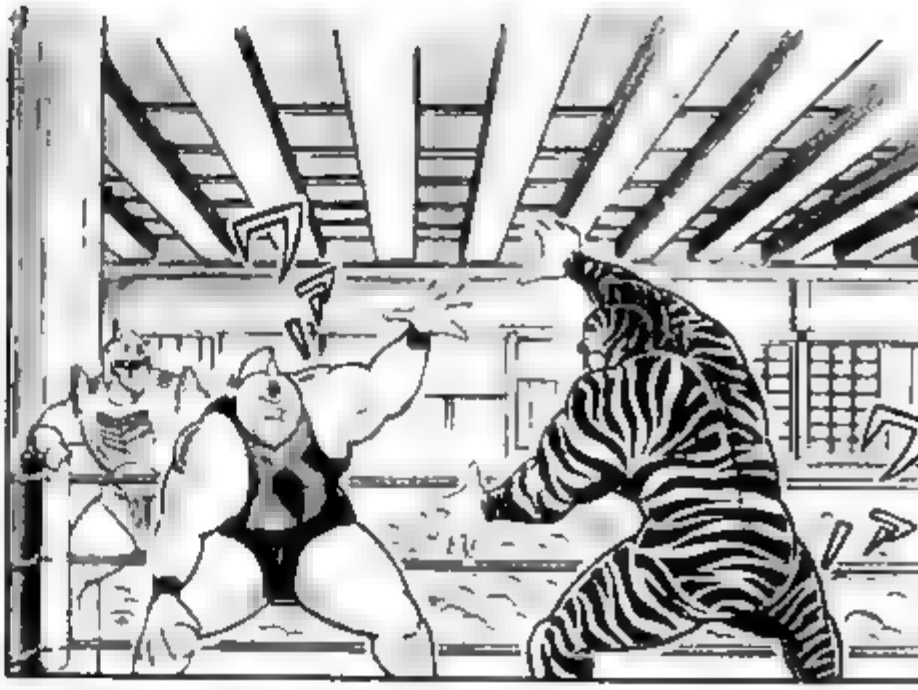


.....
What are you? You squashed your face flat but you're still standing!

Let's continue to have a good fight from here on out.
That was a pretty good move, Kinnikuman. As expected of the universal wrestling champion.

I-is he angry? He's just challenging me to a contest of strength.
Then come at me!
E-eh? Shouldn't Choujin usually get mad at falling for such a fierce counter?
肉

Kinnikuman and Zebra aren't fighting rough like the other Throne Candidates. They're having a clean and orthodox fight.



The ring will become a portrait of hell.

But should his anger be triggered and it explodes...

Guohuohuo... They don't know that Zebra does not need to fight rashly since he can manage both of them by himself...

Kinnikuman and Zebra are now trying to best each other in a contest of strength!

ナガキッ!!

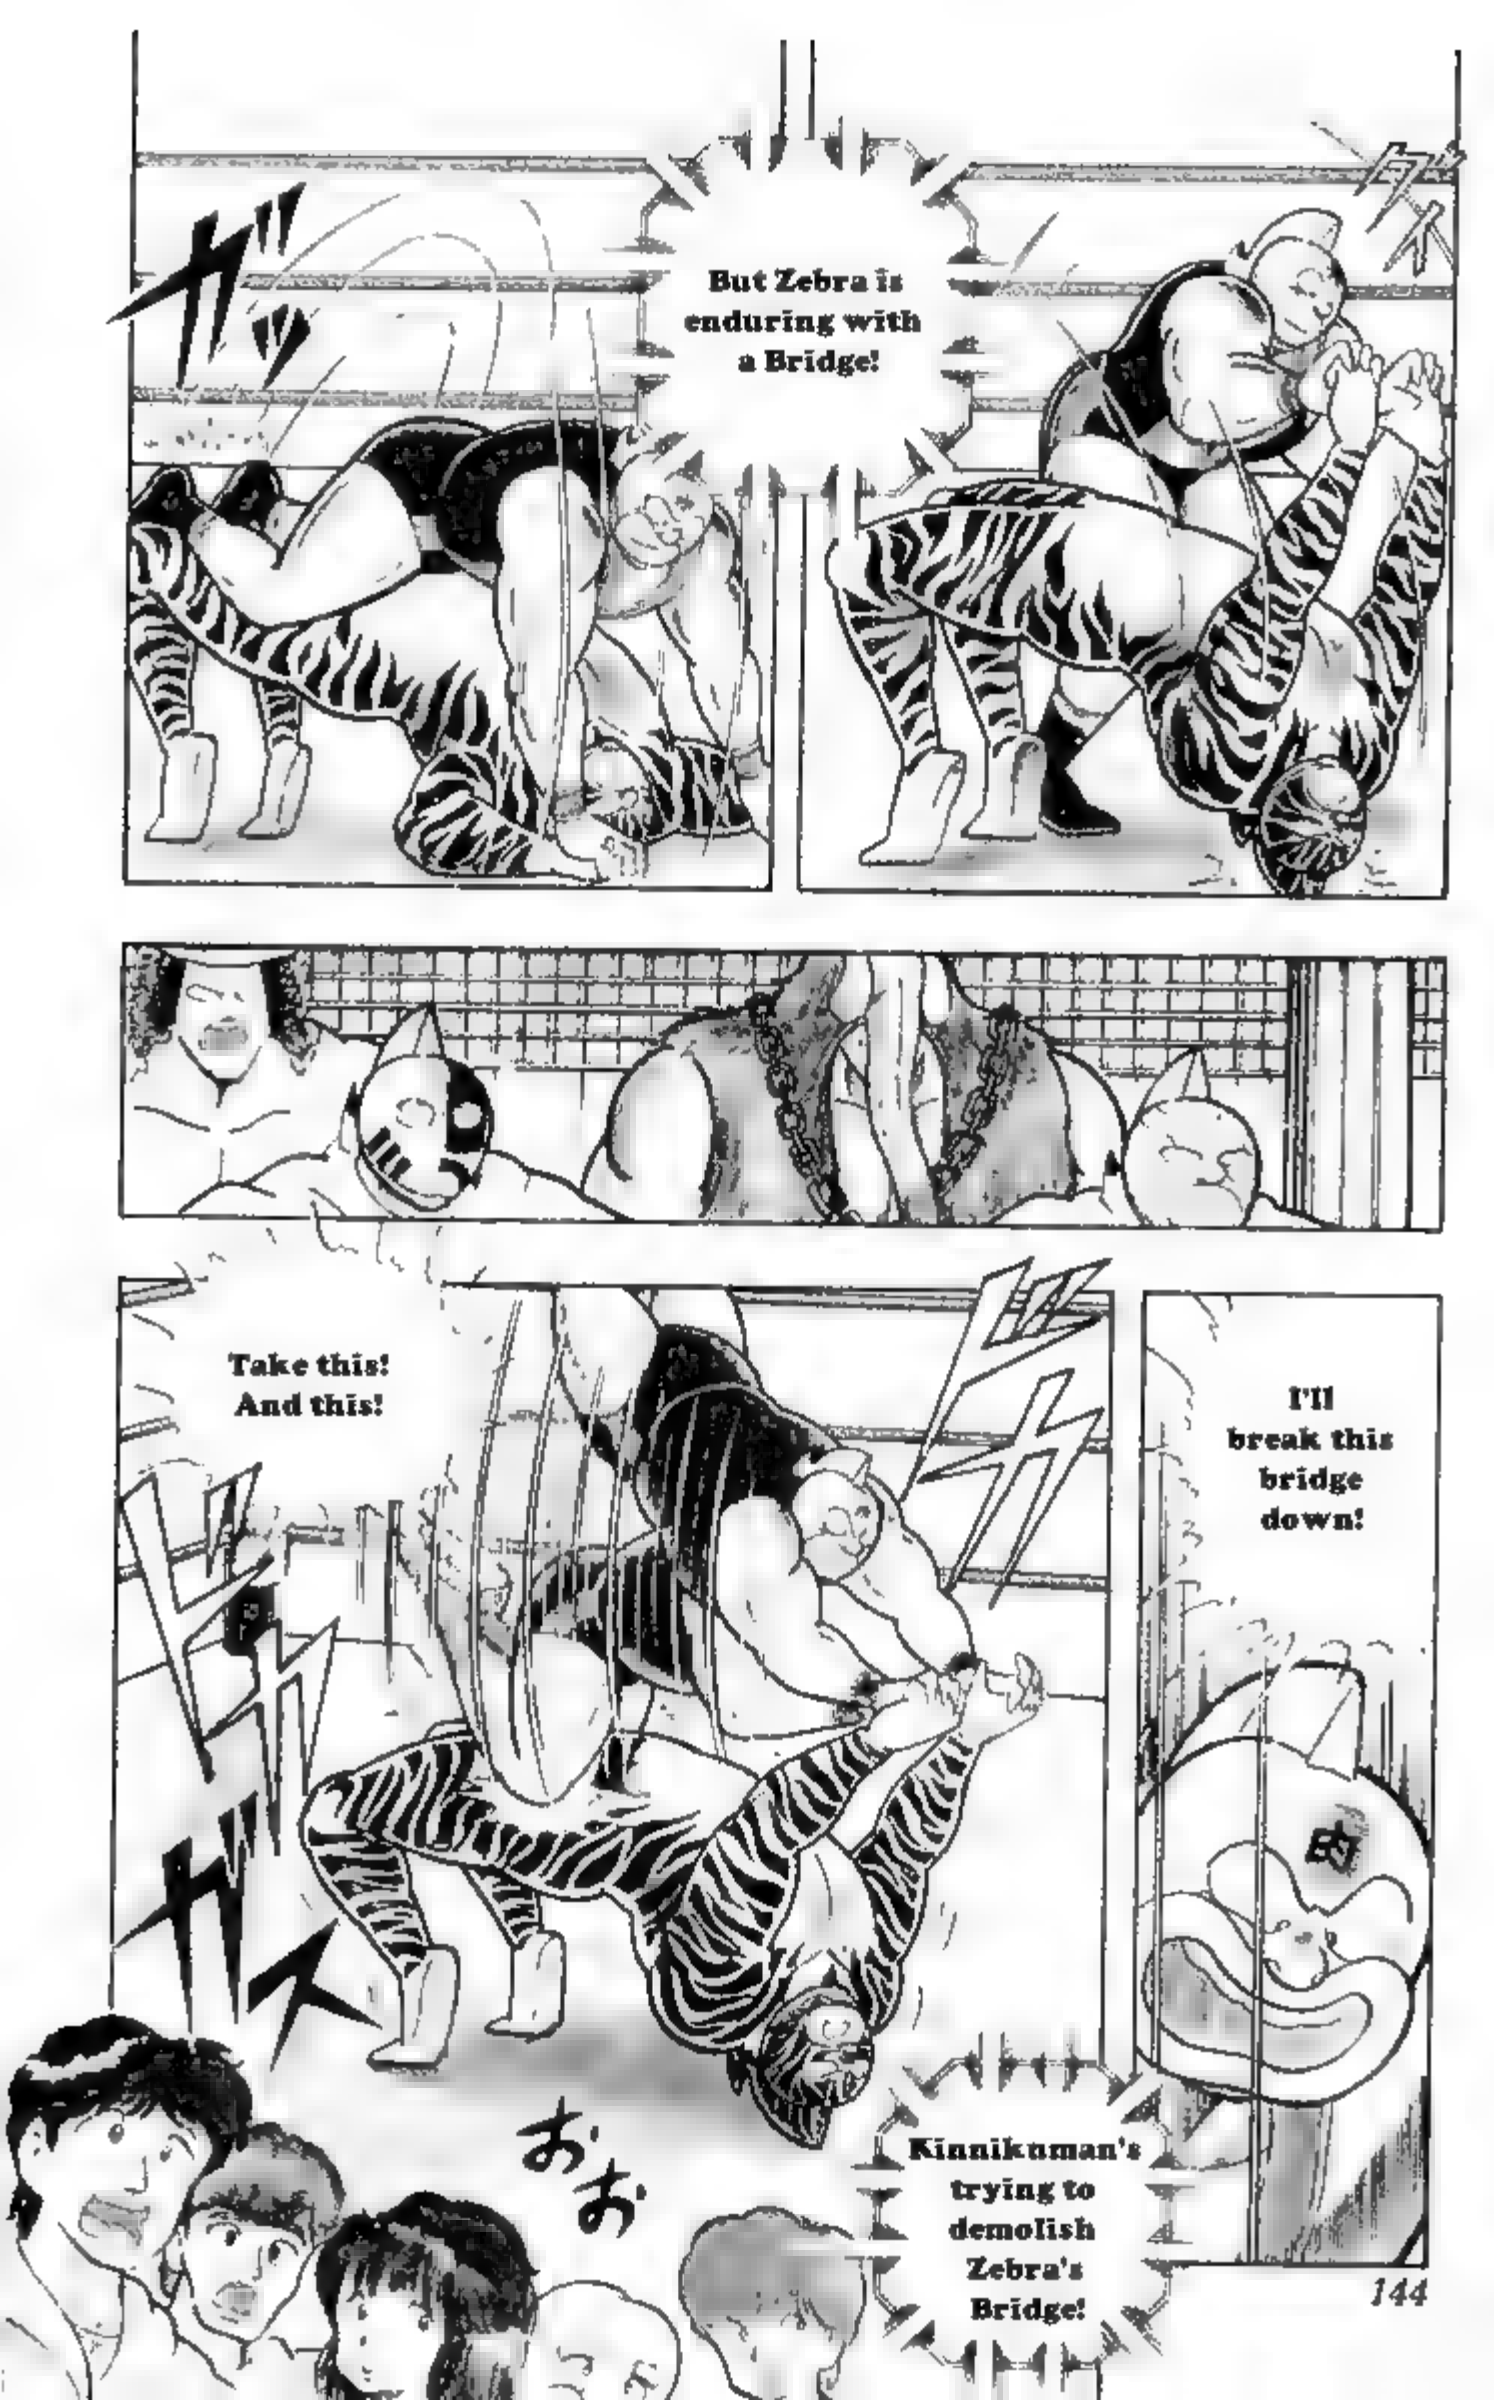
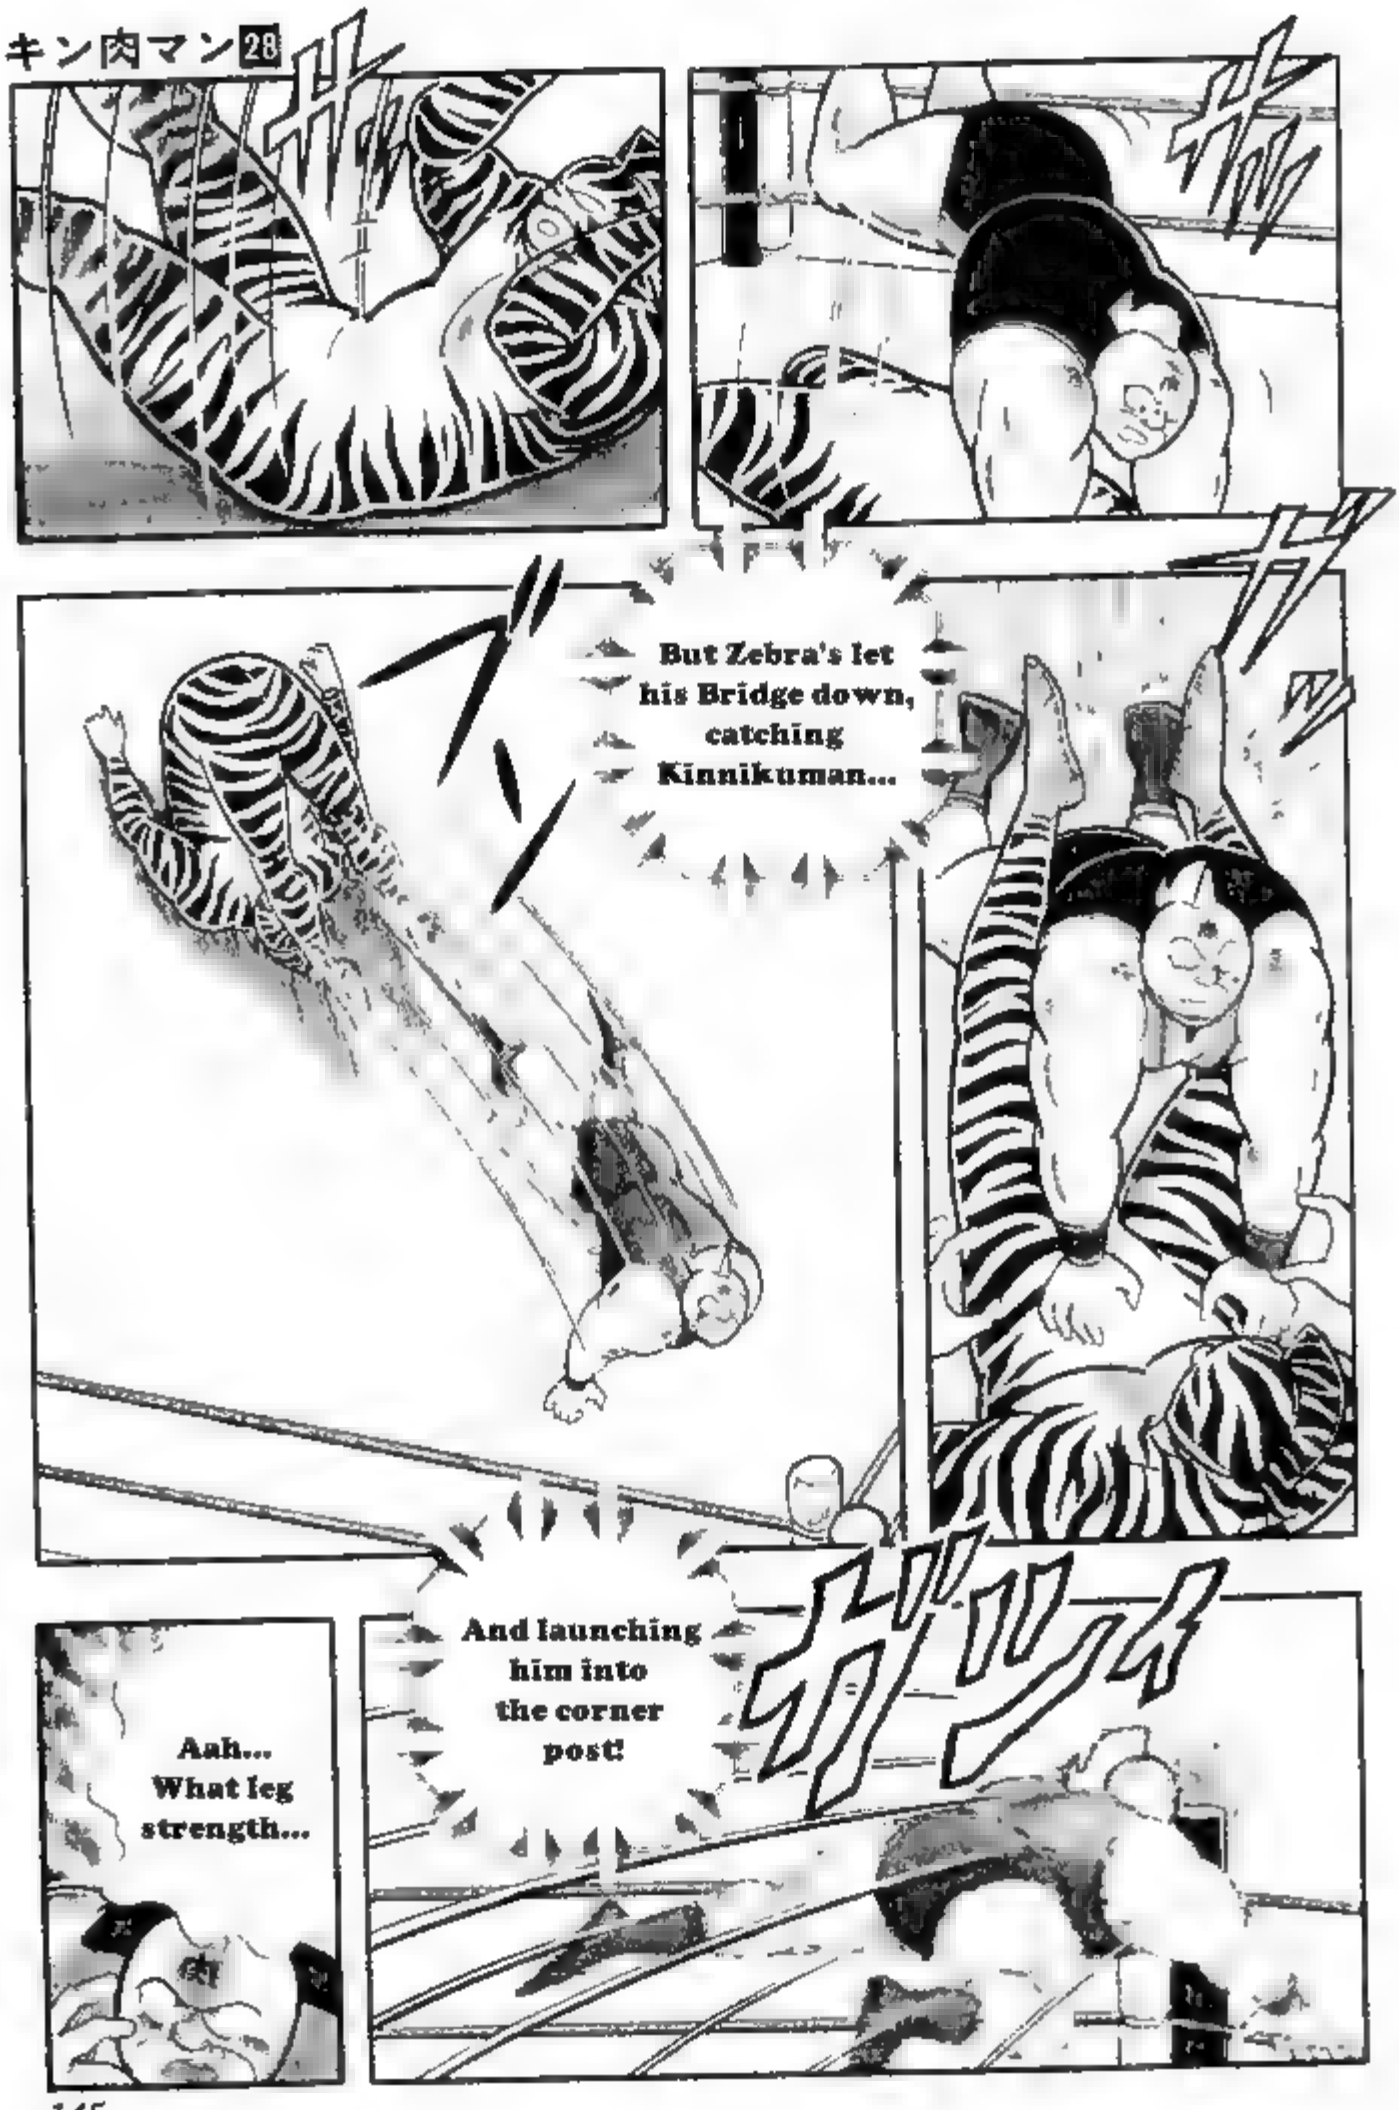
Nunoo! Get him, Suguru! You can overpower him!
Dear, be careful with that book.
Osaka Castle
Gaaaah!
Who will triumph over who? Kinnikuman or Zebra!?
Somehow, Kinnikuman has gained the upper hand in this contest of strength!
Crap! If this is it, I'm gonna have to be stronger!

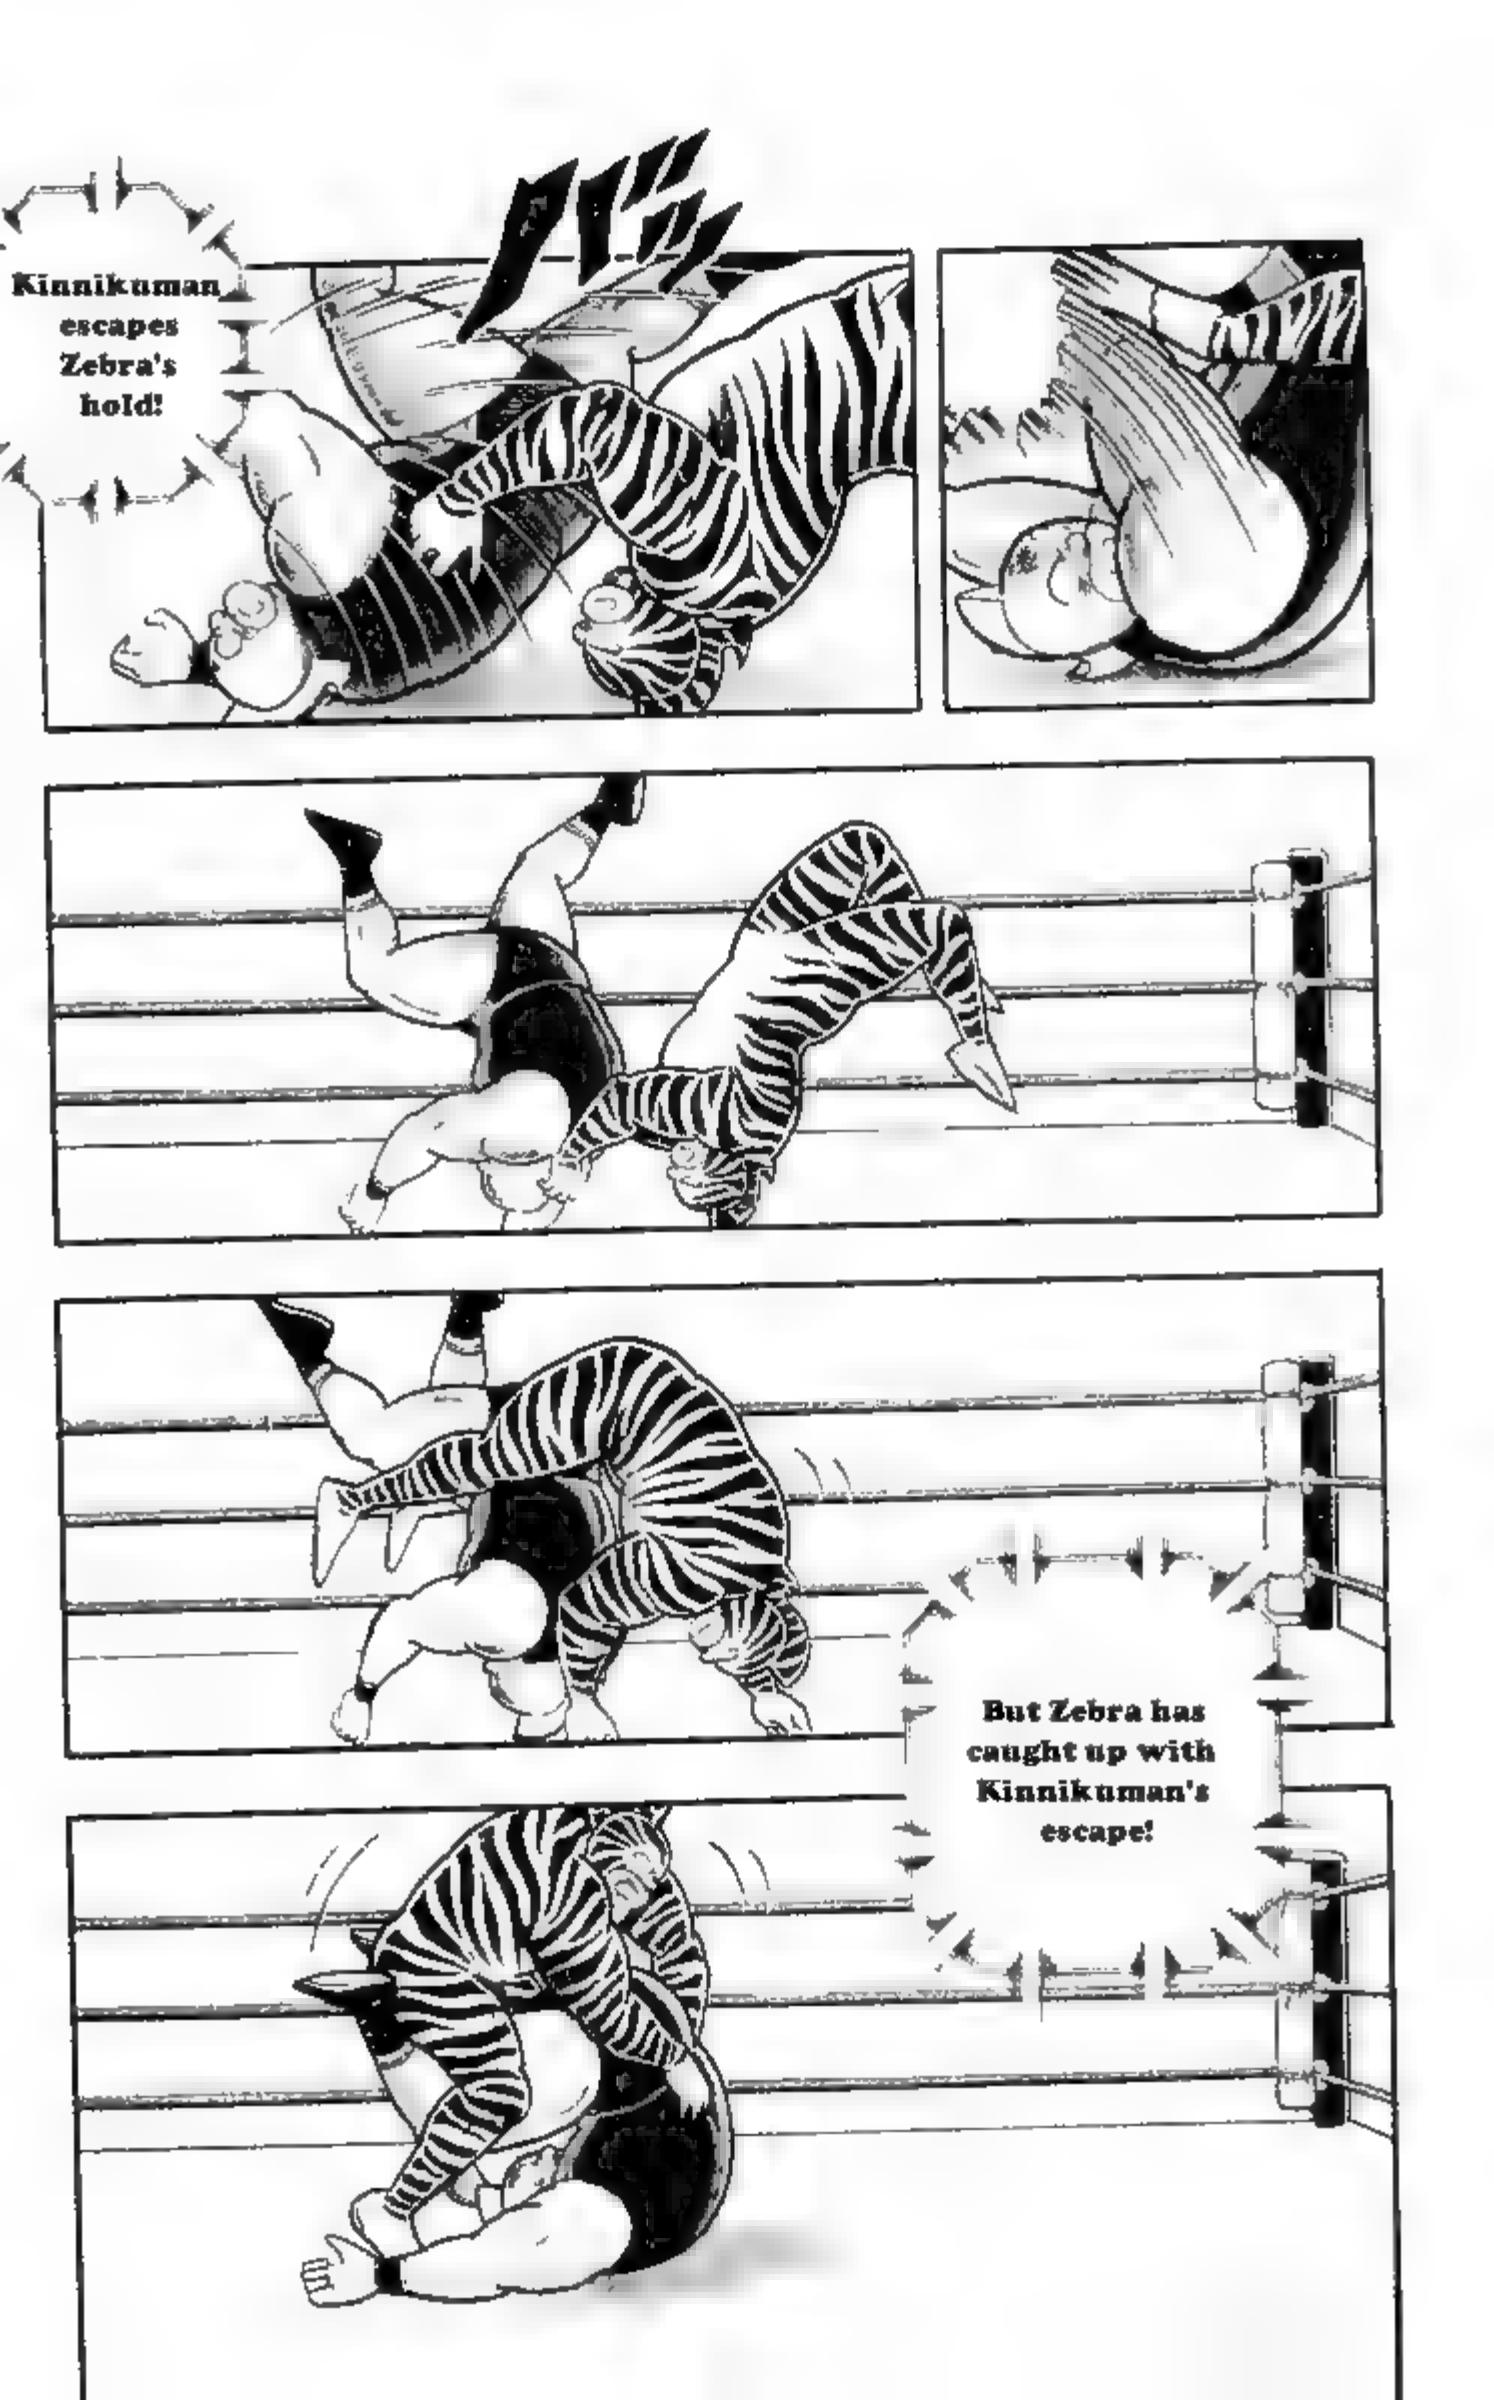


But Zebra is enduring with a Bridge!
Take this! And this!
I'll break this bridge down!
Kinnikuman's trying to demolish Zebra's Bridge!



But Zebra's let his Bridge down, catching Kinnikuman...
And launching him into the corner post!
Aah... What leg strength...

Hiyah!
Kinnikuman is bleeding out!
Zebra's grabbed Kinnikuman as he stood up and has got him in a German Suplex!
Get out of there, Kinnikuman!



Kinnikuman escapes Zebra's hold!
But Zebra has caught up with Kinnikuman's escape!

Not only is he strong but he has good technique too!

Is Zebra Zebra's waiting for Kinnikuman to get back up and start fighting again? He's not attacking him at all!
ピヨー
How will Zebra now finish off Kinnikuman?

You're awesome, Zebra!
I've seen many Choujin over my career, but this is the first I've seen a Choujin amaze his fans this much!
Way to go, Zebra!
Zebra, you won't win this tourney just by being cool.
Damn! Robin Mask sneaked up behind me...
Zebra, you let your technique go straight to your head, making you already forgot...
Even though your technique and power may tower over all Choujin, your fighting style is useless in a tag match.
Huh?

Kinnikuman has sprung from the canvas!
That this is a tag match!
Robin Mask's undone his chokehold and has placed his left elbow on the back of Zebra's head!

The Cross Bomber, once the finishing move of the Hell Missionaries, has been revived by the Kinnikuman and Robin Mask, the Blue Impluse!
ANGLO-JAPAN CROSS BOMBER!

Alright, time to finish this with a Lou-Thesz style Backdrop Suplex.

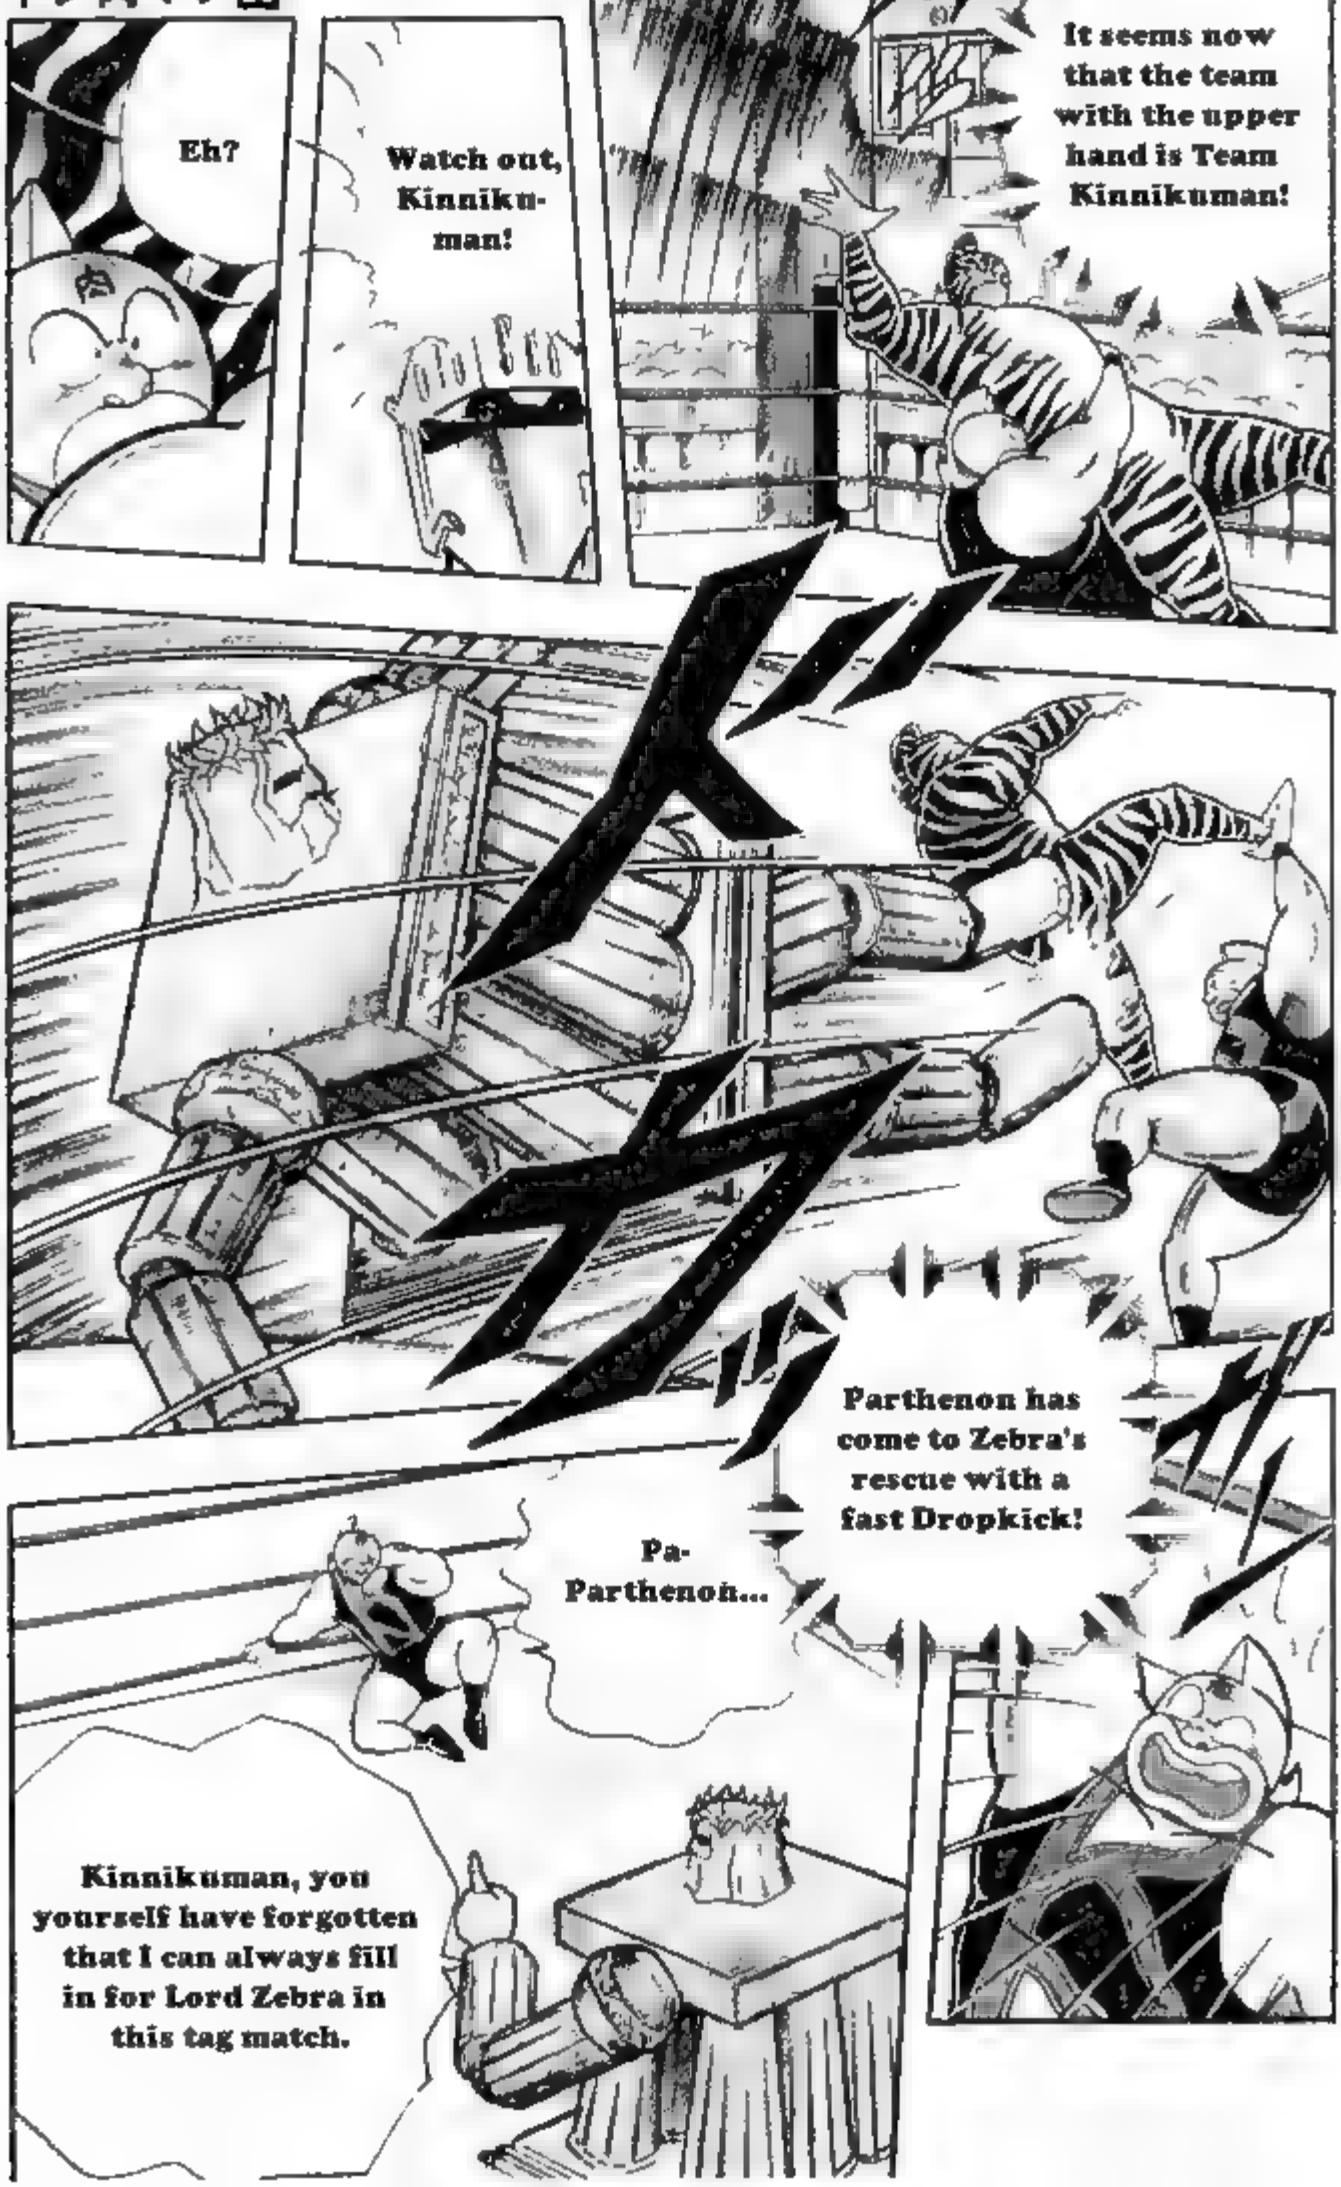
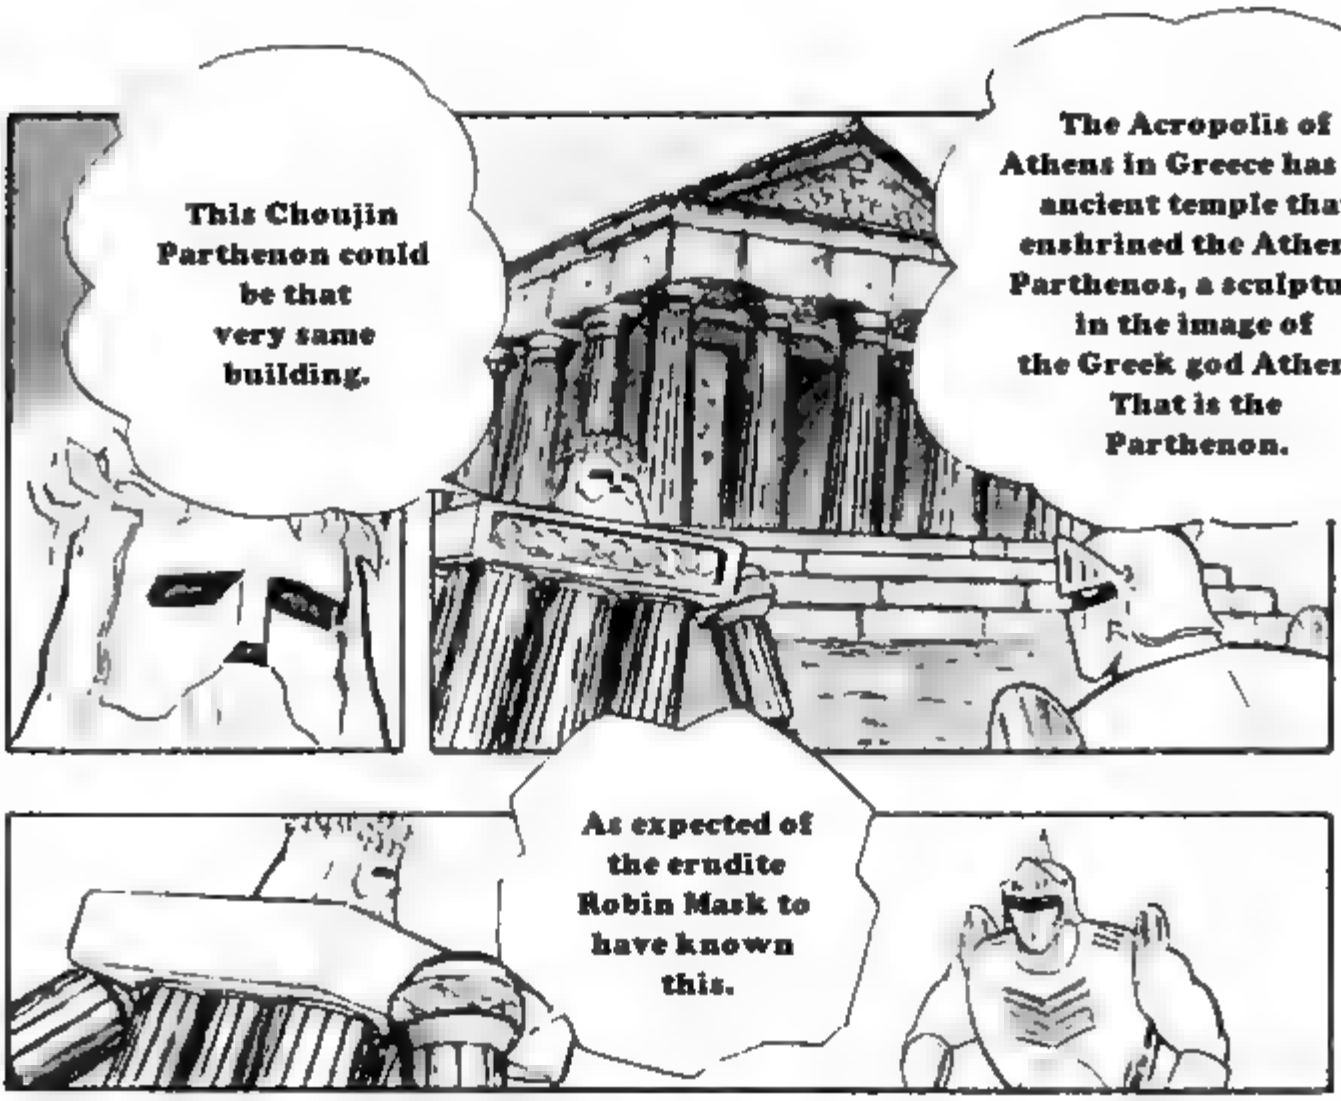
Gurgh!

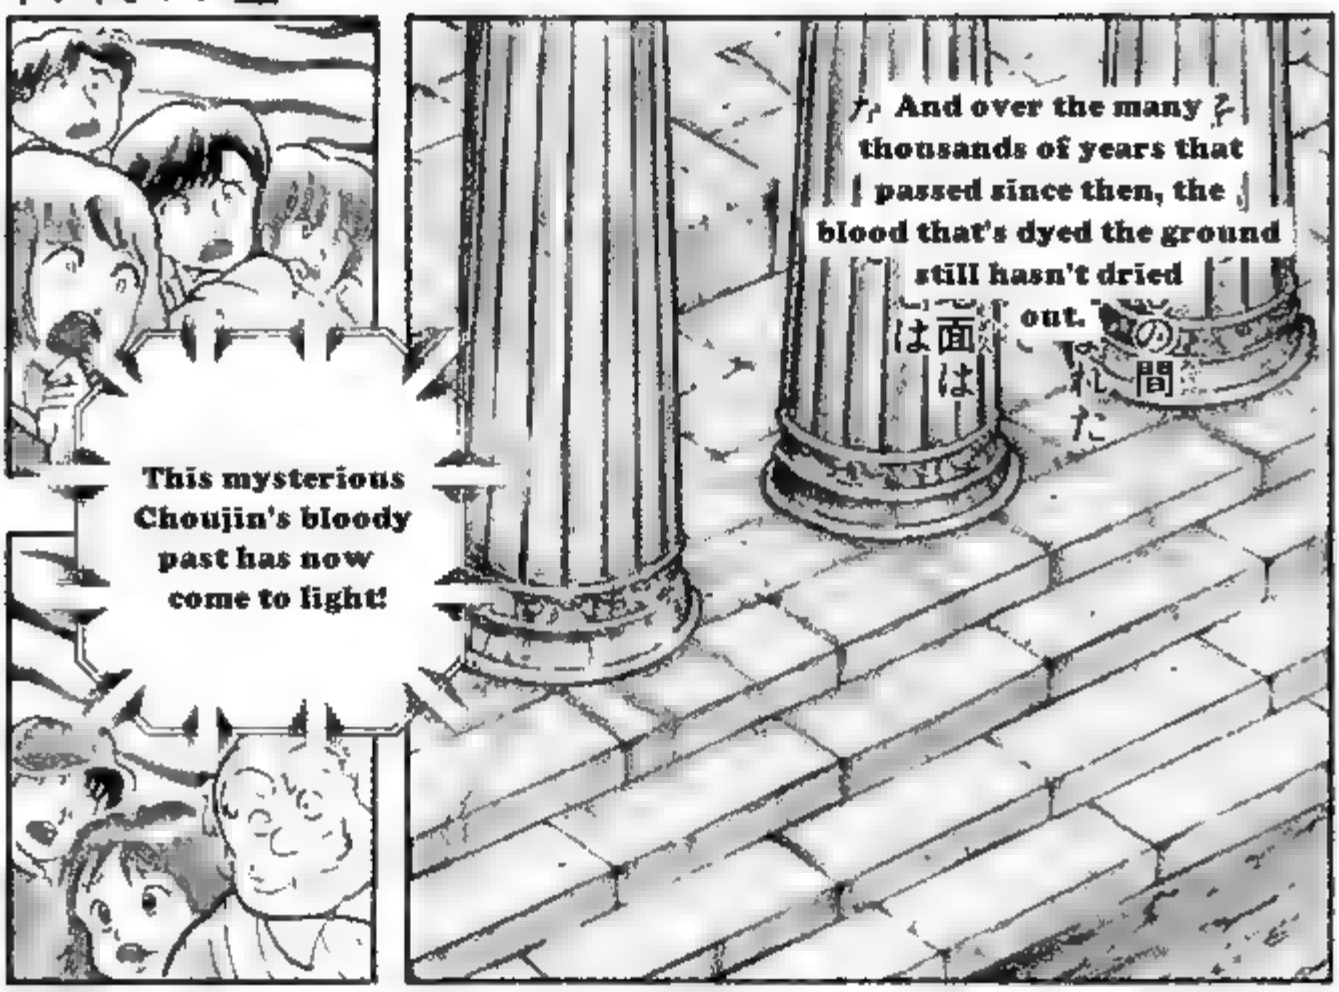


Eh?
Watch out, Kinnikuman!
It seems now that the team with the upper hand is Team Kinnikuman!
Parthenon has come to Zebra's rescue with a fast Dropkick!
Pa-Parthenon...
Kinnikuman, you yourself have forgotten that I can always fill in for Lord Zebra in this tag match.



This Choujin Parthenon could be that very same building.
The Acropolis of Athens in Greece has an ancient temple that enshrined the Athena Parthenos, a sculpture in the image of the Greek god Athena. That is the Parthenon.
As expected of the erudite Robin Mask to have known this.

When the humans created my body, young burly men who were sacrificed to the goddess Athena were buried in my pillars, making them human pillars...



This mysterious Choujin's bloody past has now come to light!
And over the many thousands of years that passed since then, the blood that's dyed the ground still hasn't dried out.

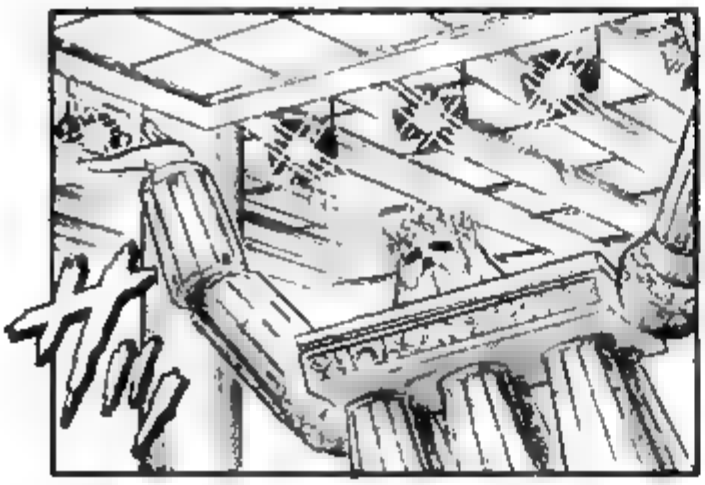
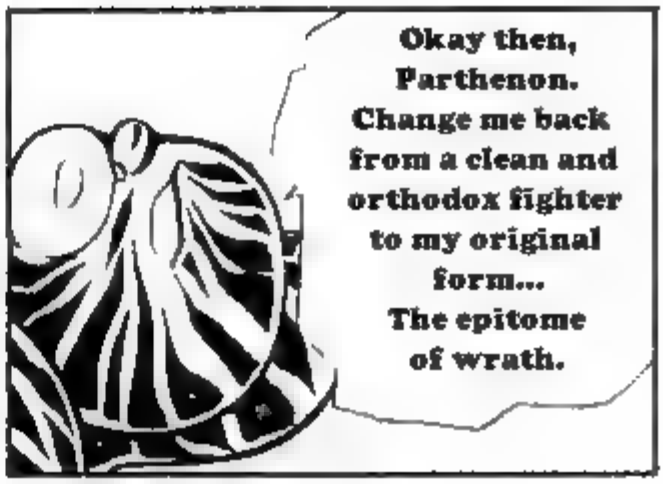
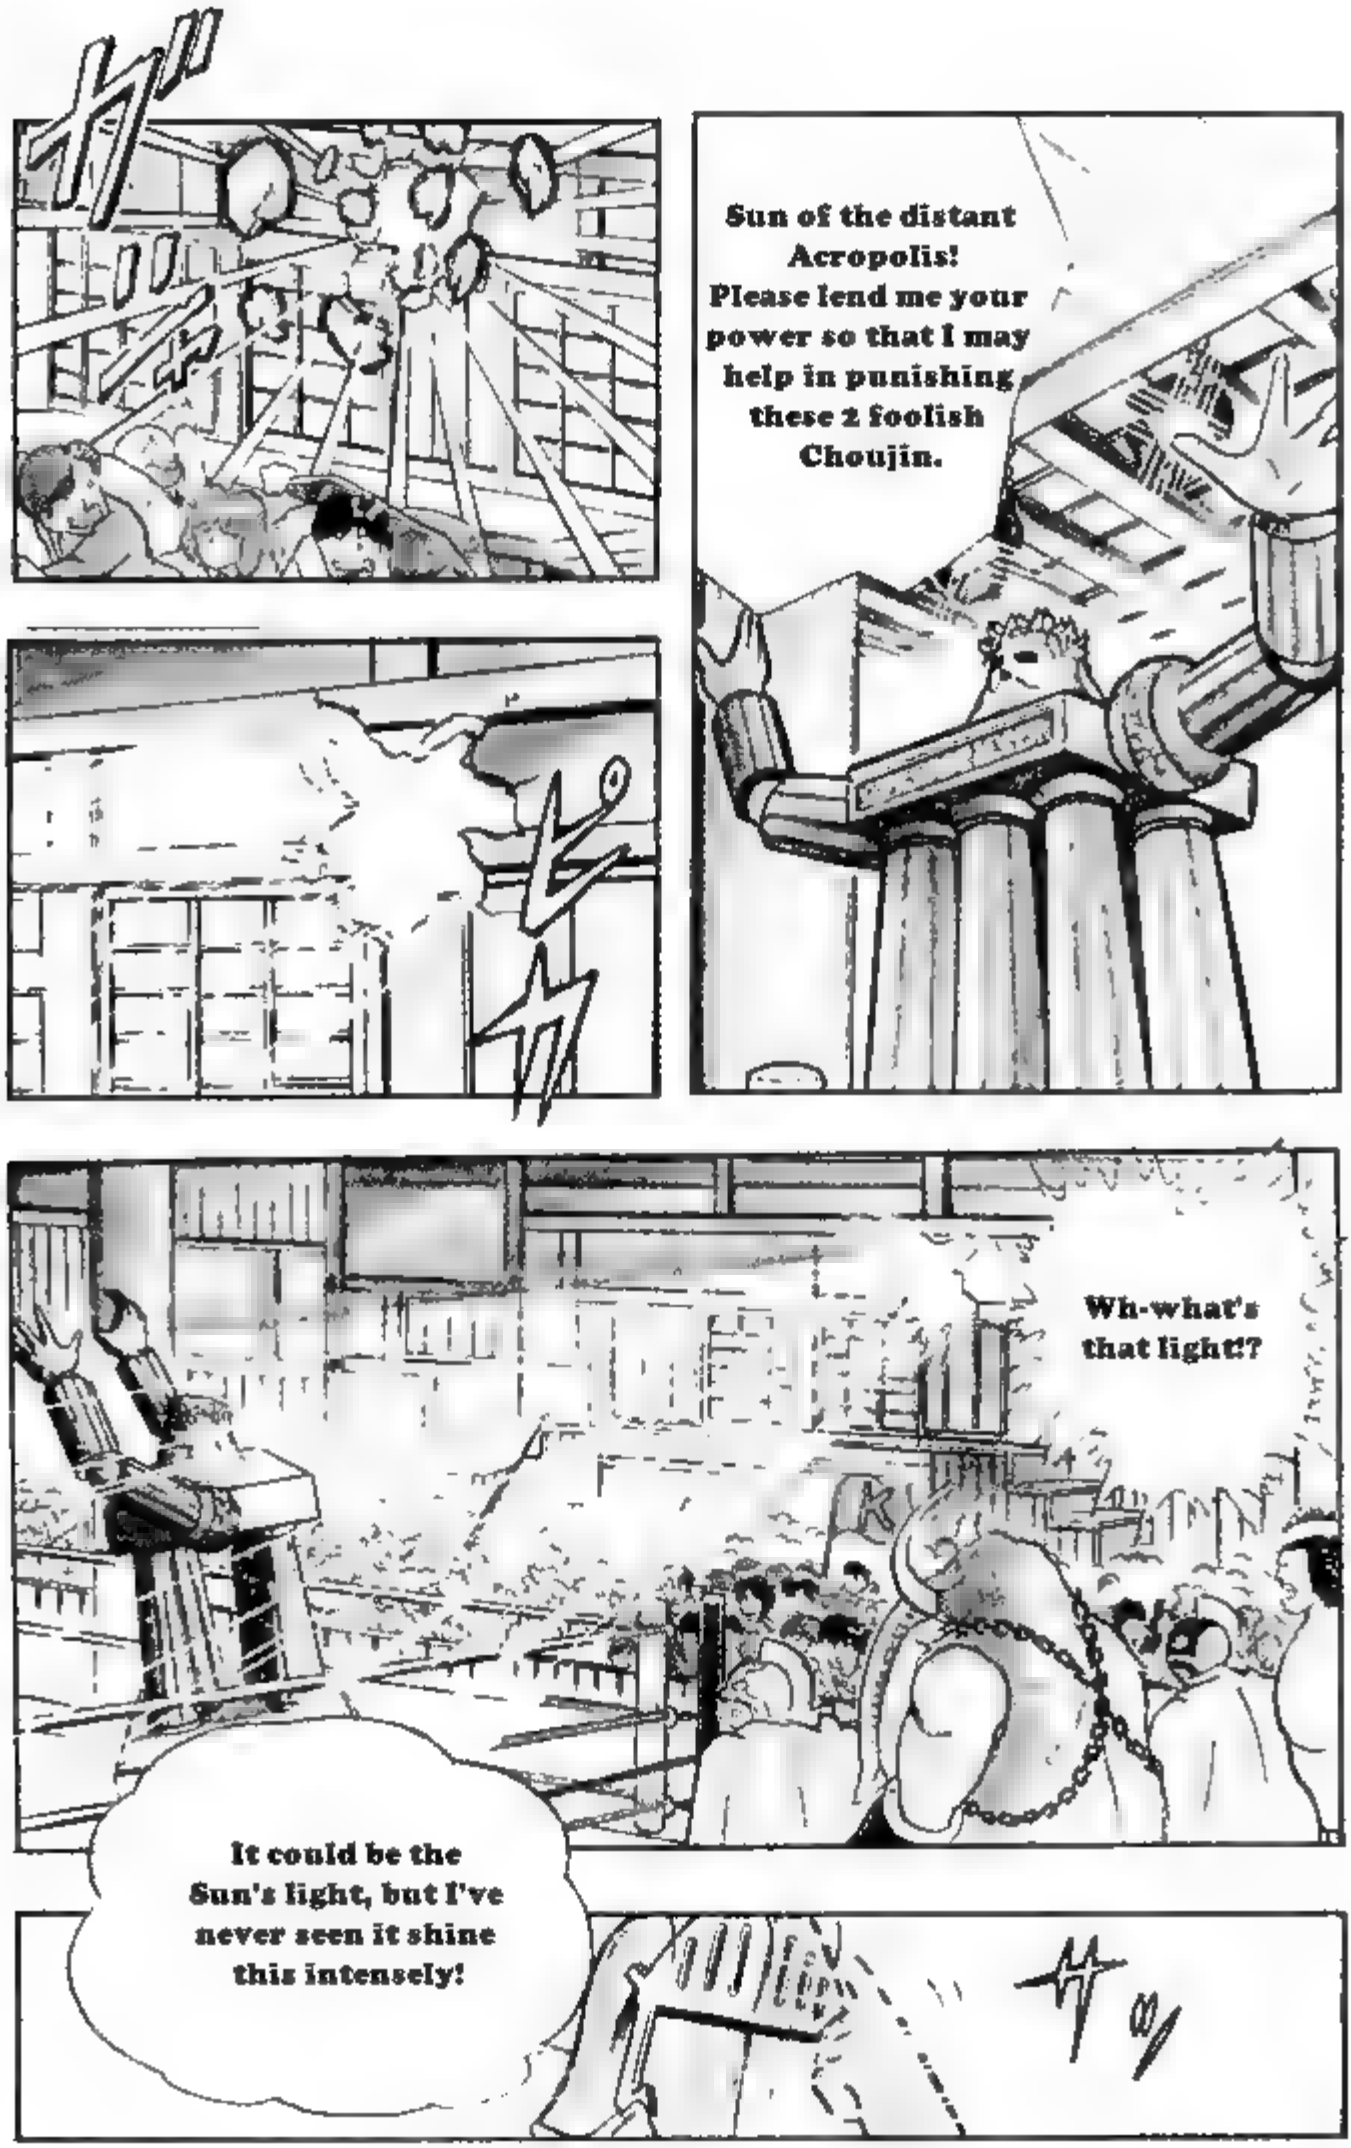
And now I have come from the distant Acropolis to Japan so my blood-stained grudge and power of hatred can help with Lord Zebra's ascent to the Kinniku throne.

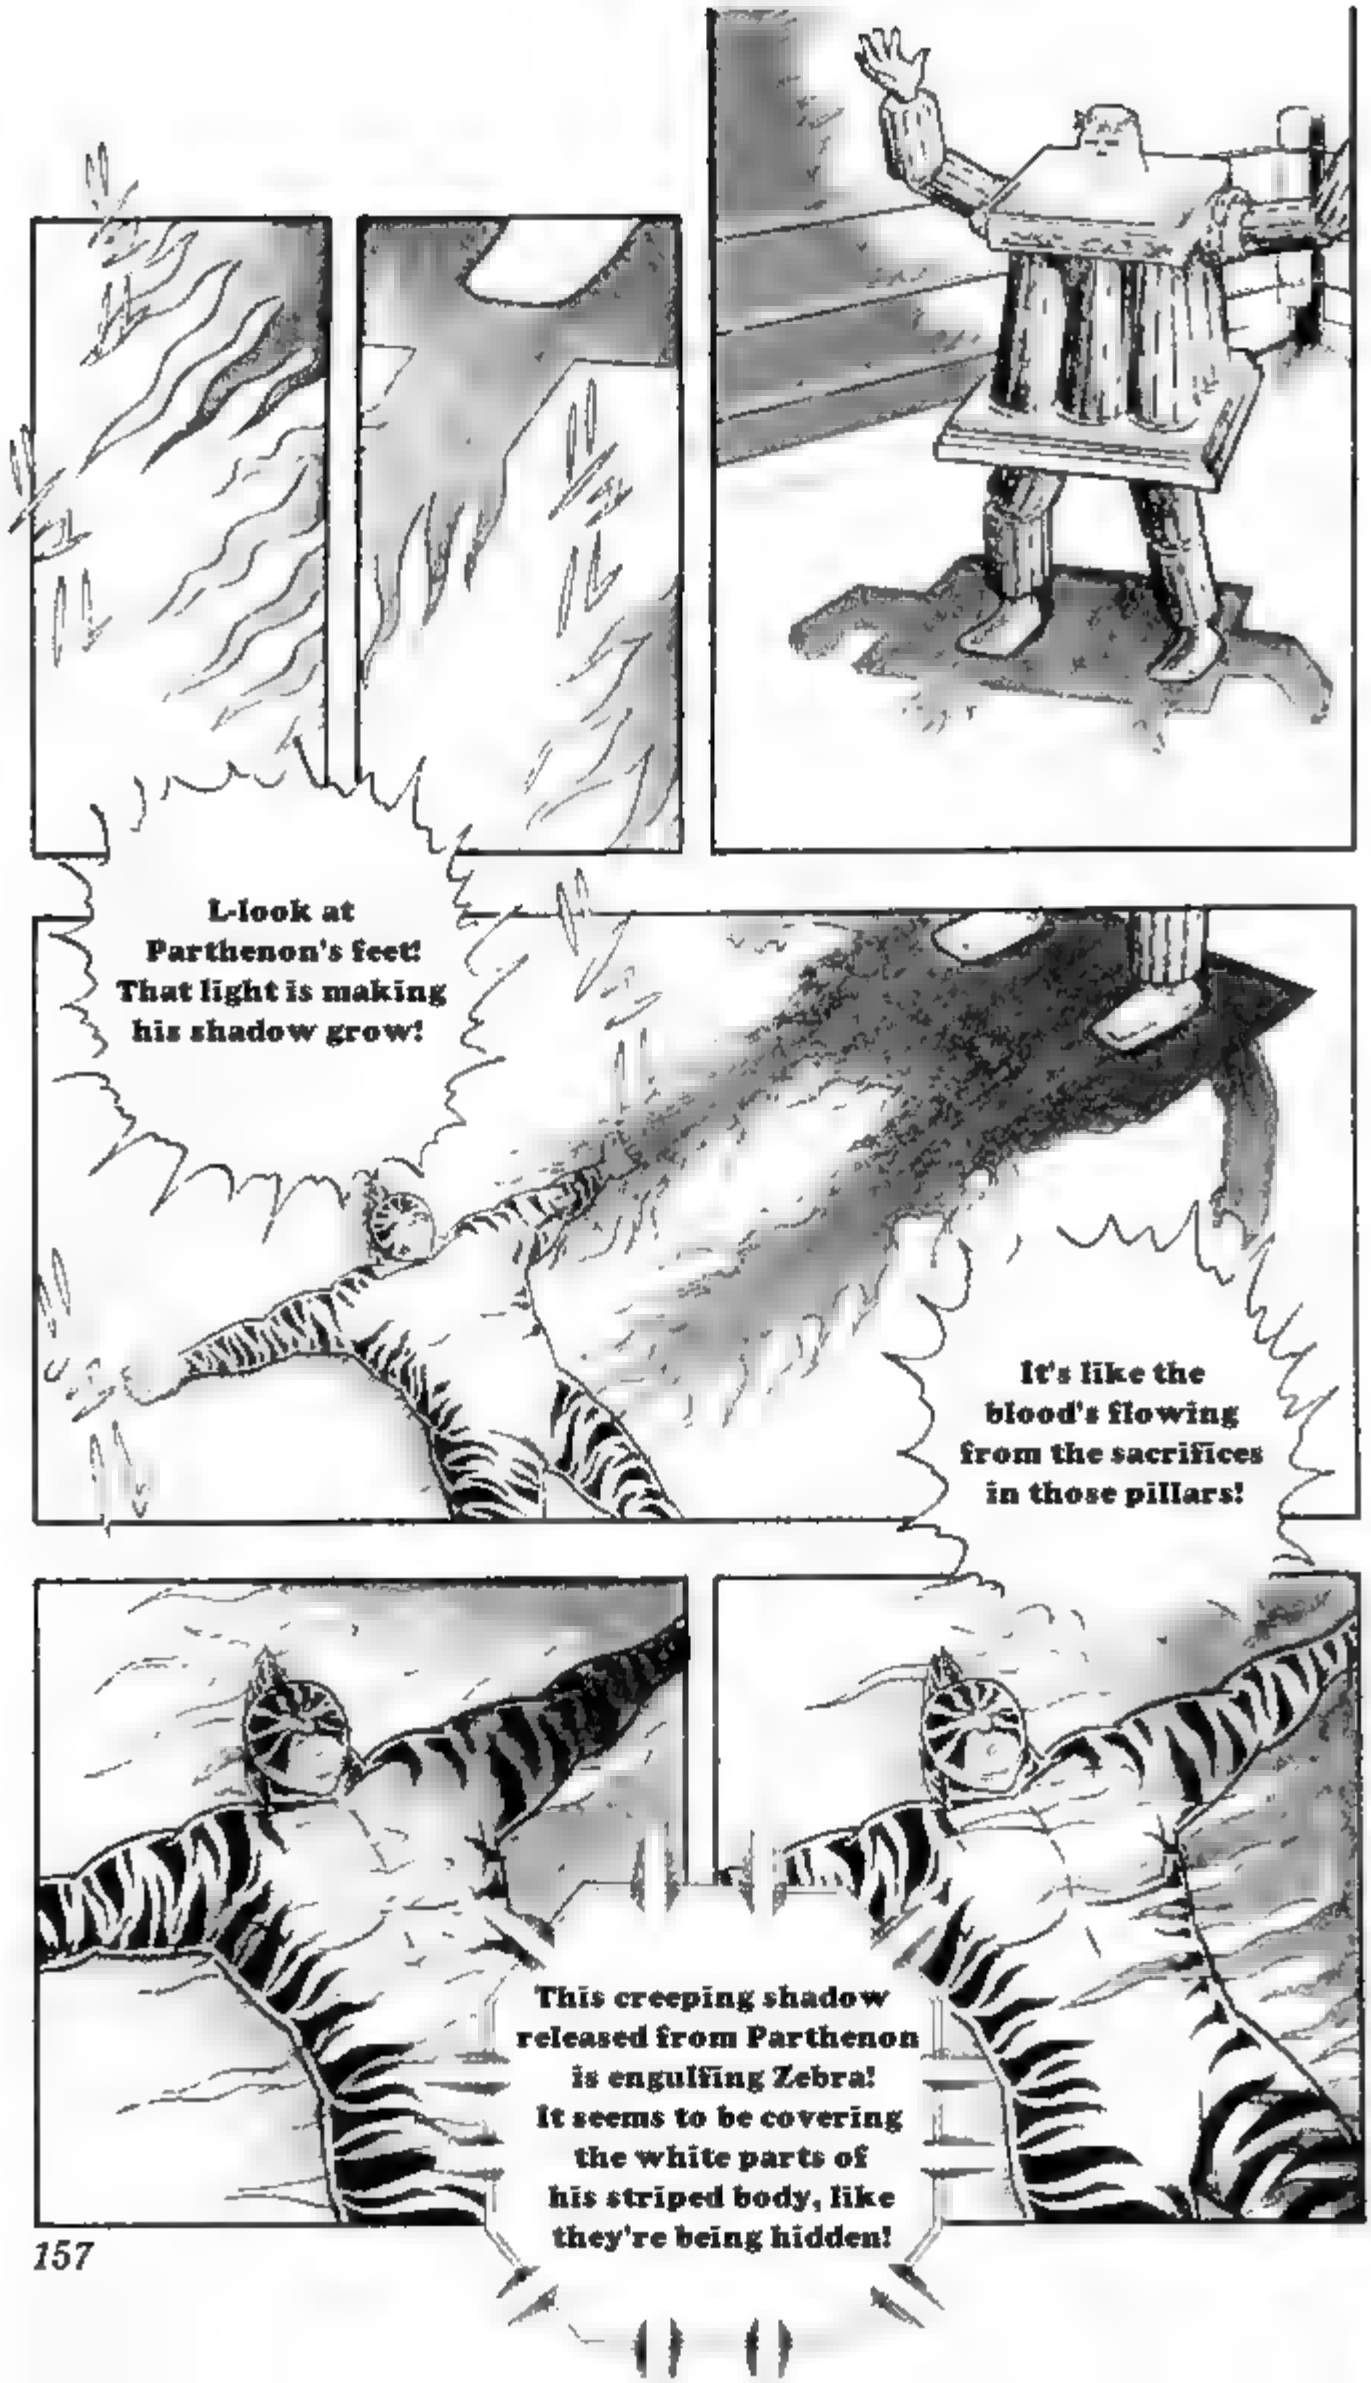




Okay then, Parthenon. Change me back from a clean and orthodox fighter to my original form... The epitome of wrath.

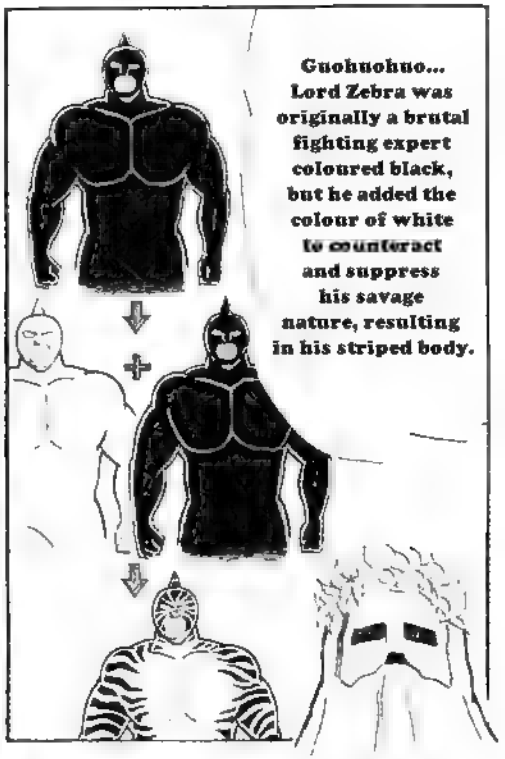


Sun of the distant Acropolis! Please lend me your power so that I may help in punishing these 2 foolish Choujin.
Wh-what's that light!?
It could be the Sun's light, but I've never seen it shine this intensely!



L-look at Parthenon's feet! That light is making his shadow grow!
It's like the blood's flowing from the sacrifices in those pillars!
This creeping shadow released from Parthenon is engulfing Zebra! It seems to be covering the white parts of his striped body, like they're being hidden!

Thanks, Parthenon. Your shadows of hatred have turned me back to Kinnikuman Zebra, the brutal fighting expert!
Aah!



Guohuohuo... Lord Zebra was originally a brutal fighting expert coloured black, but he added the colour of white to counteract and suppress his savage nature, resulting in his striped body.

What?

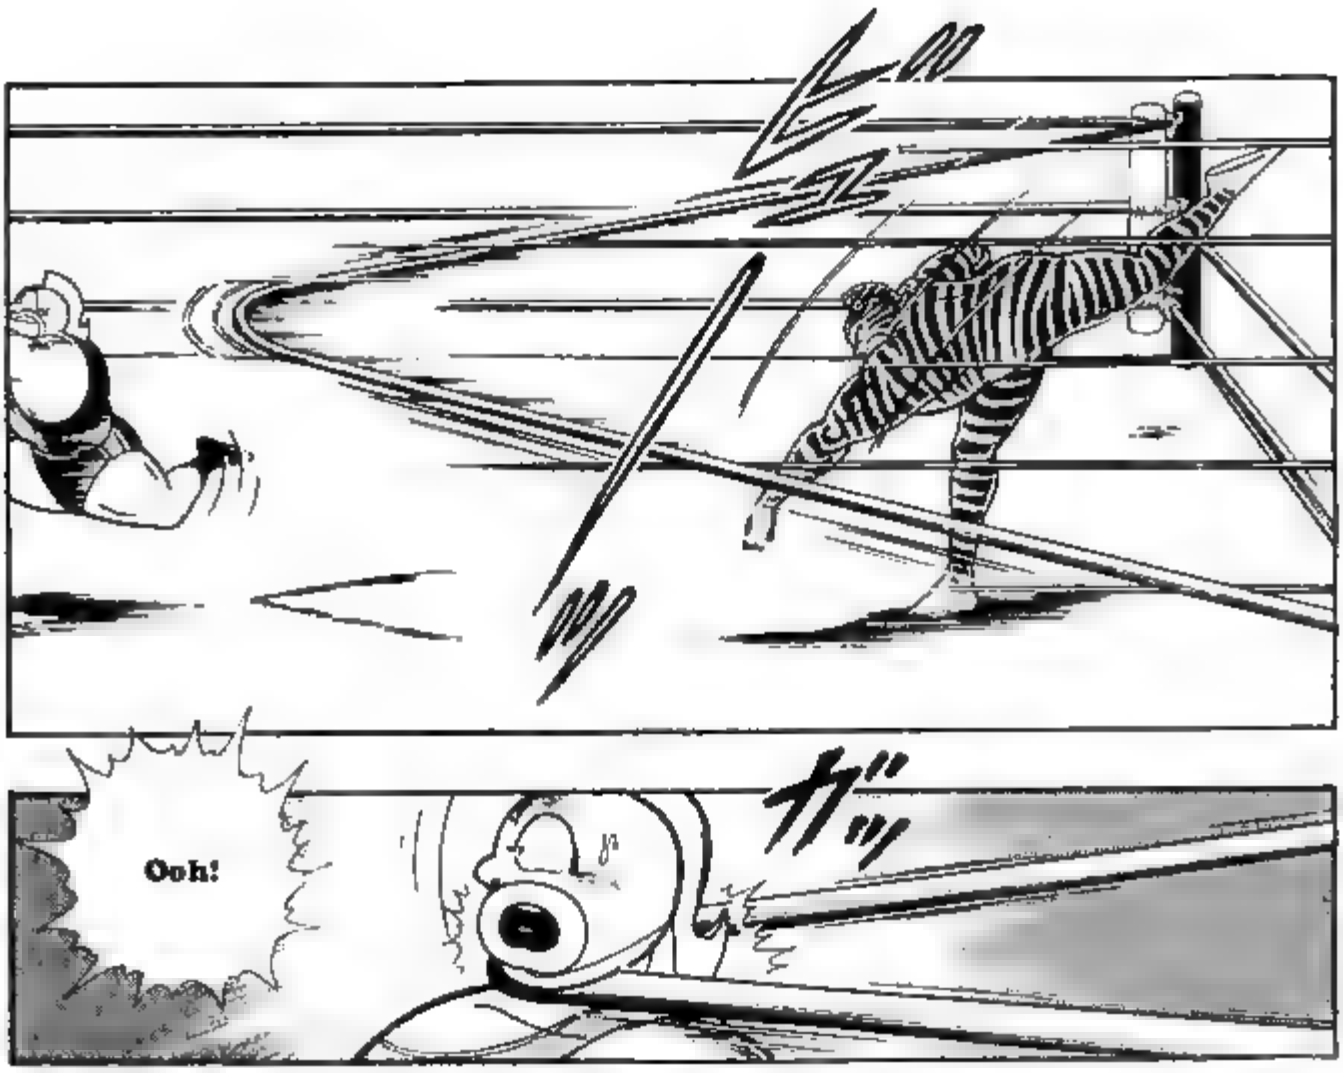
Sun of the distant Acropolis! Shower my malice and hatred onto Lord Zebra!
A shadow is crawling from Parthenon's feet is covering the white parts of Zebra's body!

I Saw Light At The Edge Of Death!

That Zebra took our Cross Bomber and should have at least been knocked out, but he...
Wh-what's going on?
Kehehe hehe...
It's like I said, when Lord Zebra is angered, the ring turns into a picture of hell...
...It seems that Parthenon's shadow healed Zebra, making it look like he's just entered the ring now.
Waah!



Ooh!
Uurgh!
Zebra has utilized the elasticity of the rope and hooked it onto Kinnikuman's neck, reeling him in!
Wow! That Zebra's pretty strong, using a steel-wire rope like a lasso with one hand...

Kinnikuman is again caught in Zebra's Savannah Punches!
Good, it's that same punch we saw at the start...
あ
あ
It's useless now. Kinnikuman! Counter it with a Superkick!
THOROUGH-BRED HOOK!
THOROUGH-BRED UPPER!

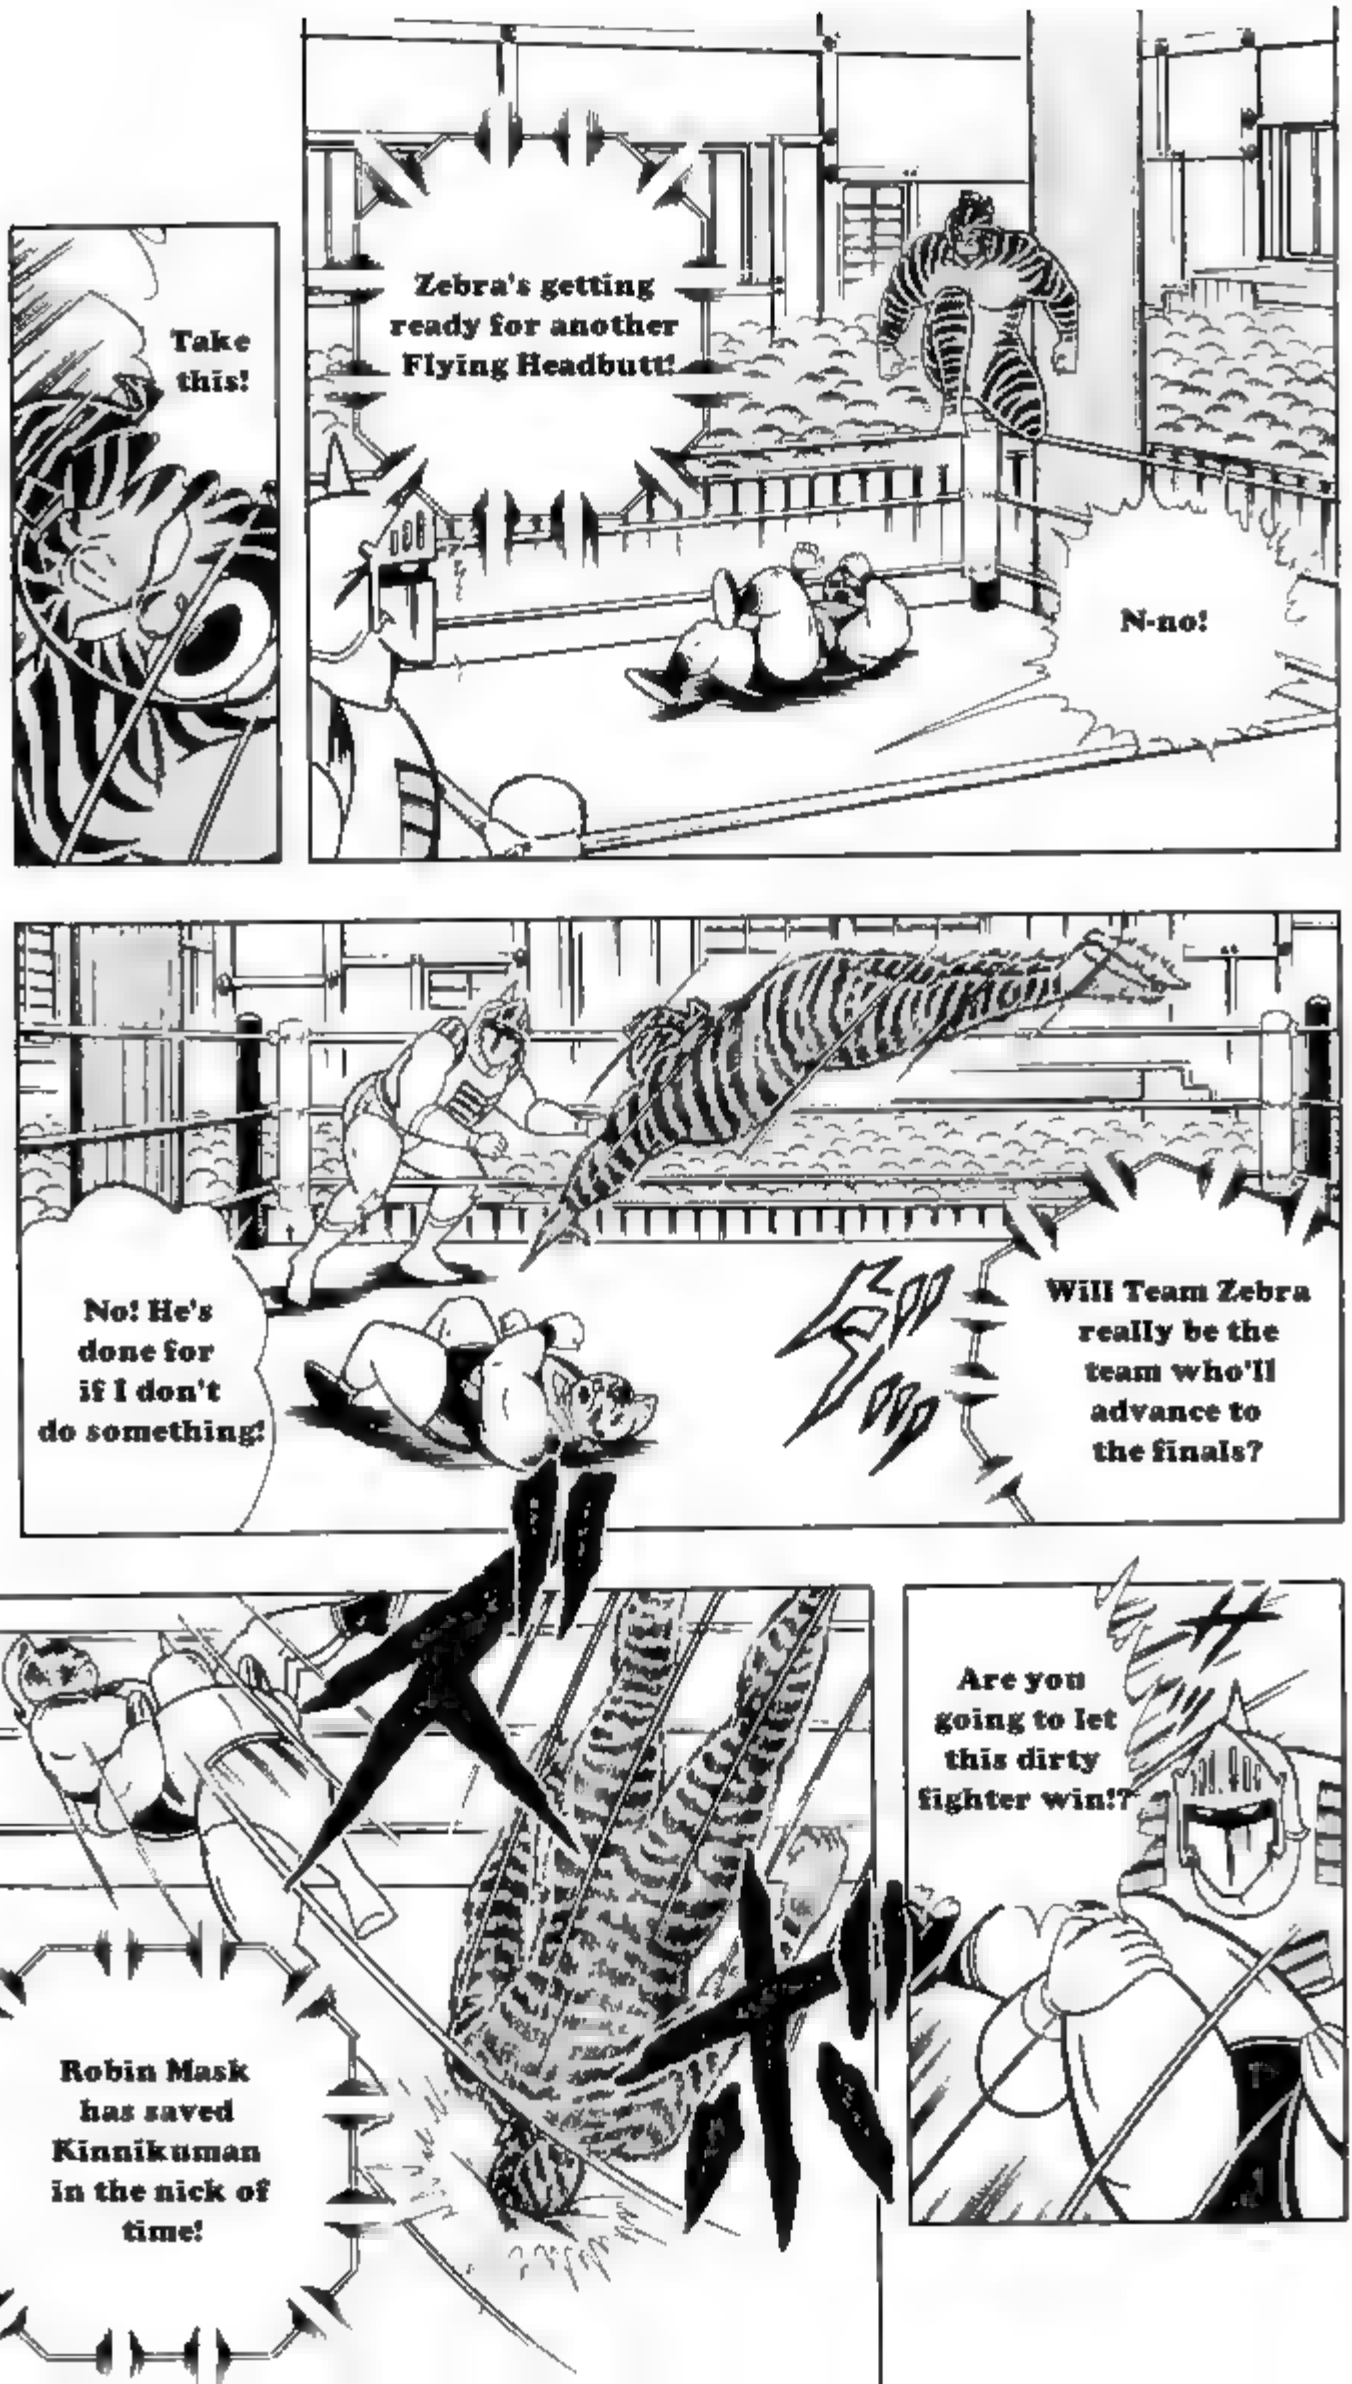
Th... That was Zebra's Punch...
Th-these ones feel different...
Kinnikuman is looking pretty dazed!
Kehehe... Here's how. Landing a good punch and seeing him fall feels like heaven...
How? How are your punches hurting Kinnikuman so much even though they're the same punches as before?

So... That's why those punches hurt so much...
Hey, aren't those iron balls?
Ah, right! He was landing all those punches holding those iron balls!
Using dangerous weapons!? It seems the Zebra that fought fair has been transformed into a brutal fighter!
ギョギョ
Like I said before, Lord Zebra was originally a brutal fighter covered in the evil colour of black.

But the reason he didn't start out brutal in this match was because he had the colour of justice, white, covering his black body. He couldn't bring out this side with those stripes on him...
A Choujin with 2 personalities... His body seems to adapt to being an angel or a devil.
It seems that by covering his body with Parthenon's malevolent shadows, he's brought back his brutal fighting nature.
I thought I would have been able to defeat Zebra in a normal fight if he was like Kinnikuman, but that doesn't seem to be the [illegible].
Zebra's getting ready to land on Kinnikuman from the top of the corner post with a...

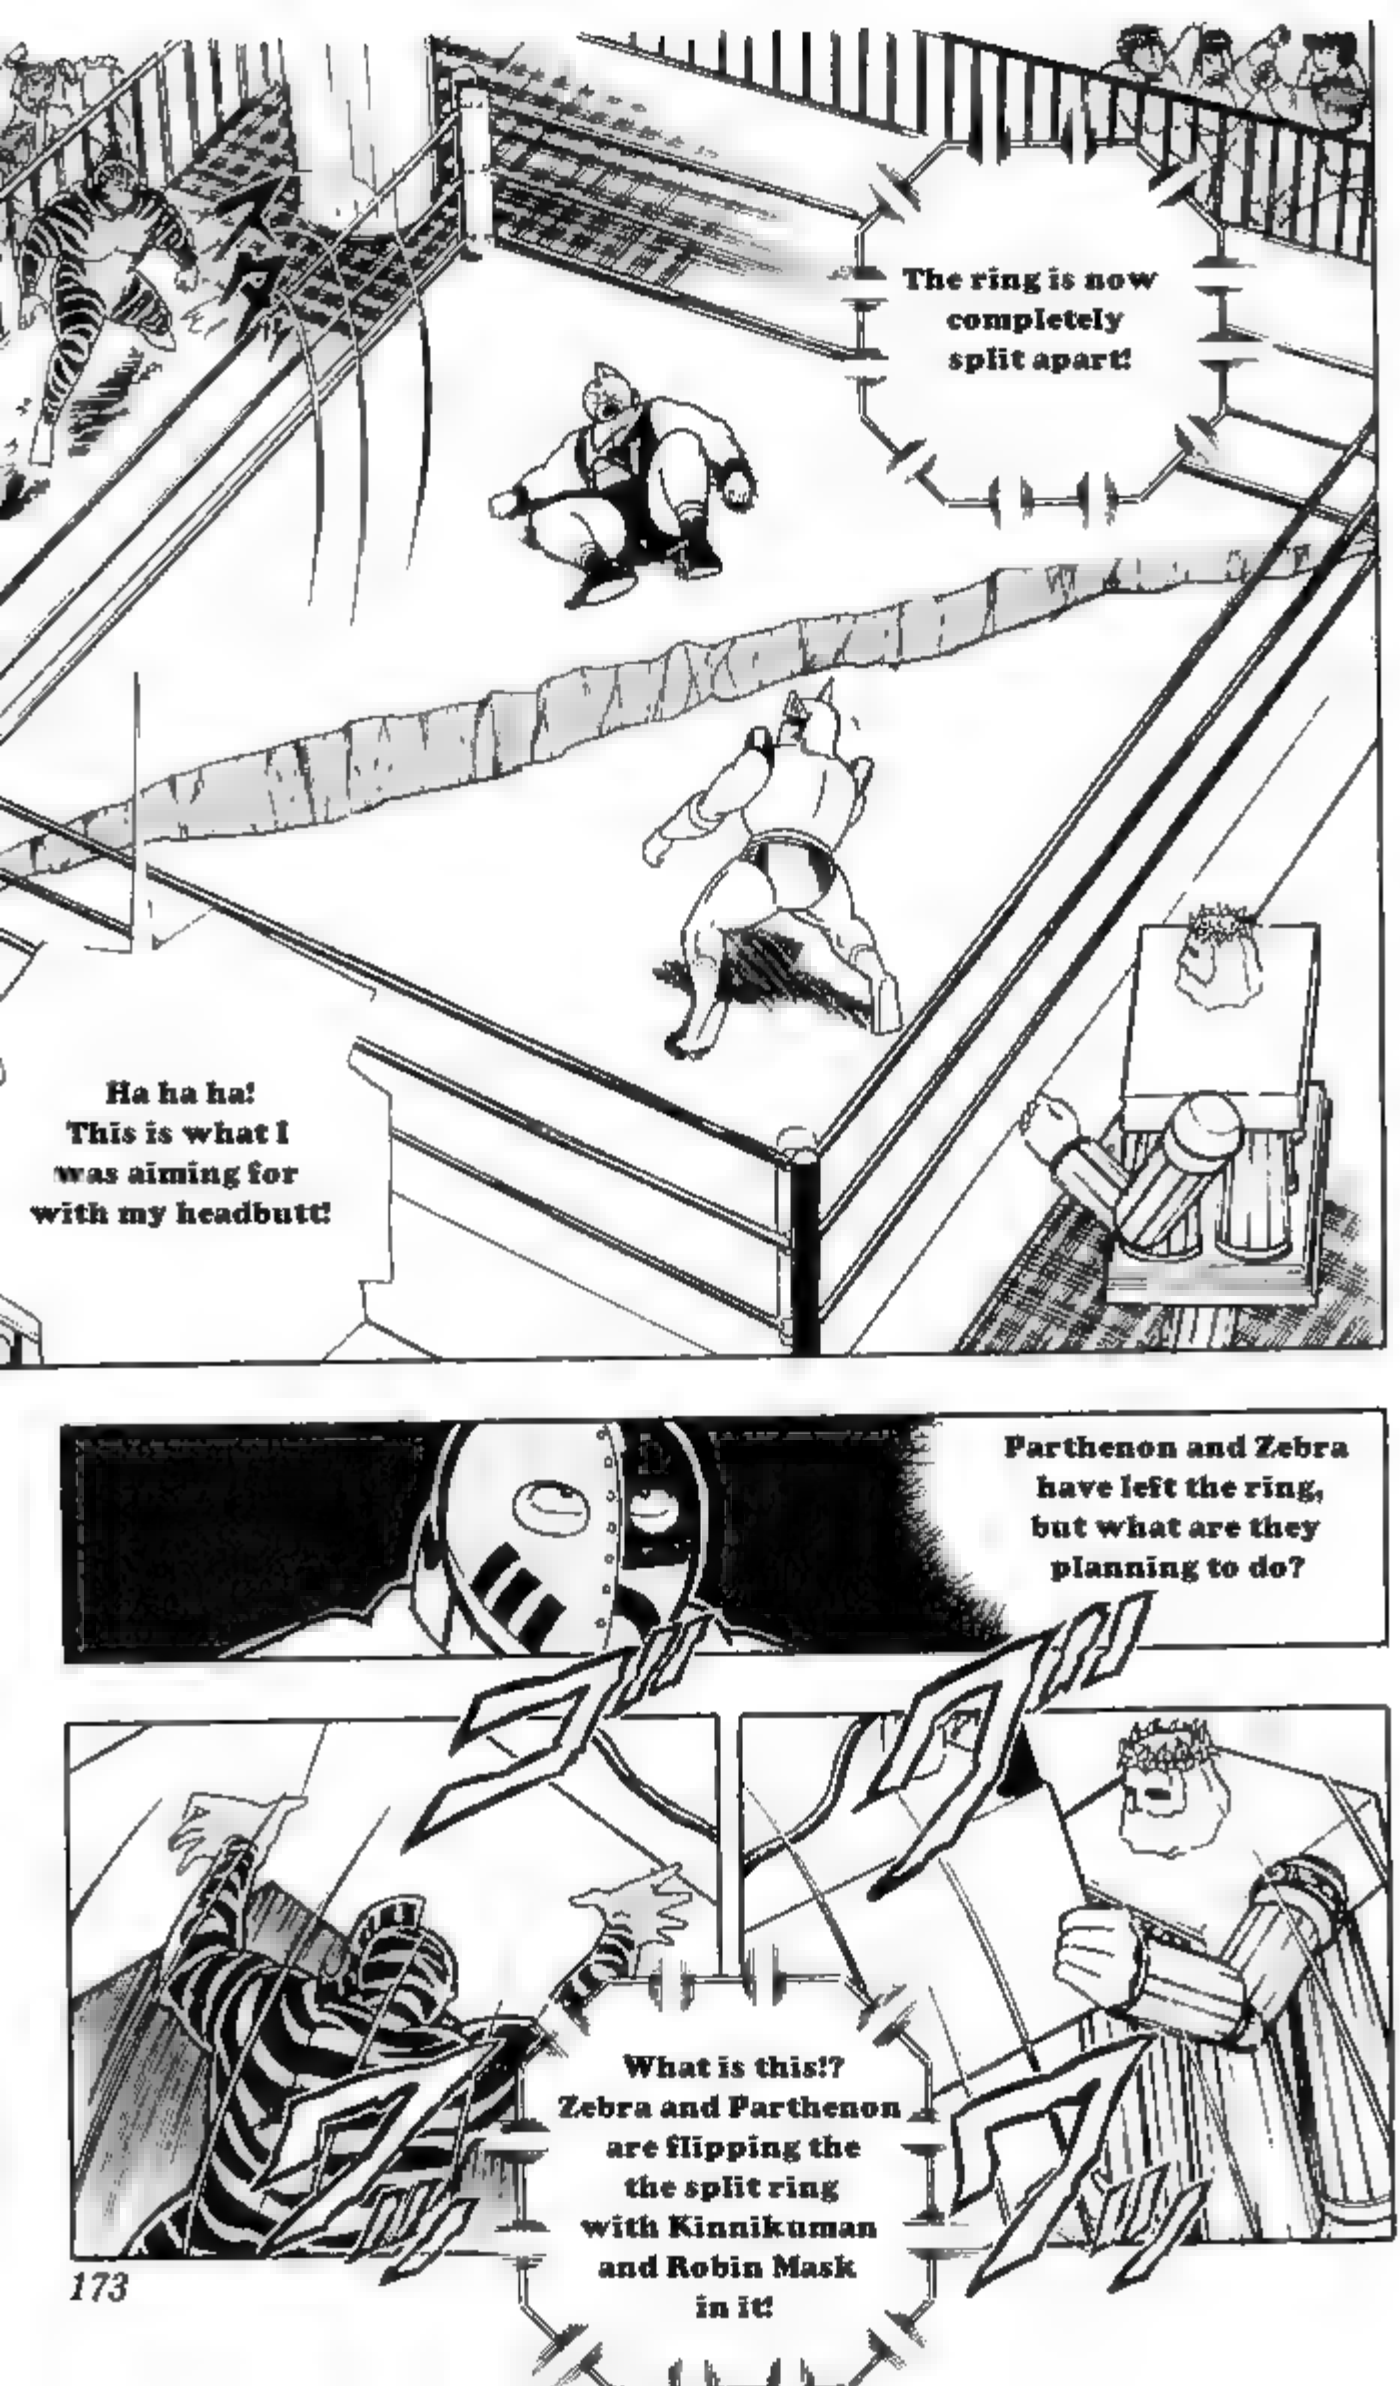
A Flying Headbutt!
This is not a pretty sight! Kinnikuman's head is spouting blood like a water fountain!
Wh-what did you do, Zebra? That headbutt shouldn't have caused this much bloodshed...

He had an iron nail under his mask!
Aah! Look!
It's just like Mammothman said. He's an angel when a clean fighter, and a devil when a brutal fighter. It all depends on Zebra's body...



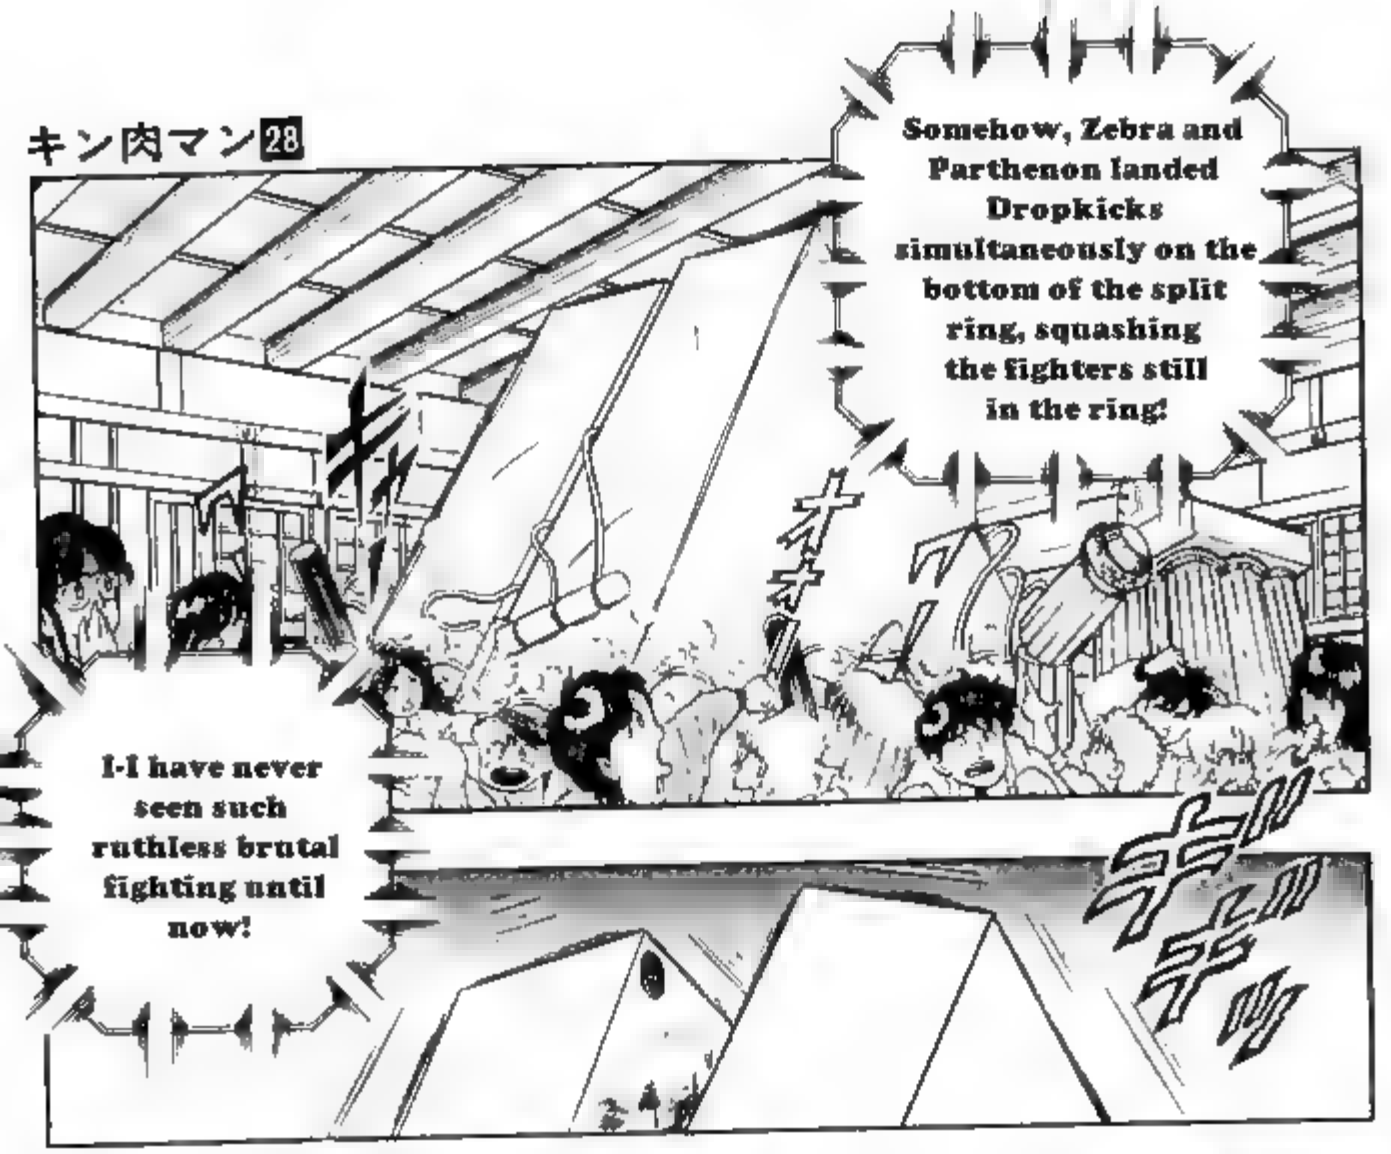
Take this!
Zebra's getting ready for another Flying Headbutt!
N-no!
No! He's done for if I don't do something!
Will Team Zebra really be the team who'll advance to the finals?
Robin Mask has saved Kinnikuman in the nick of time!
Are you going to let this dirty fighter win!?

Hmm hmm, do they really think I missed?
Zebra's dangerous headbutt has missed and planted him into the canvas!
That iron nail Zebra has under his mask cracked the ring when he missed!
Oh no! The ring has begun to split where Zebra landed his headbutt!
Perhaps that failed headbutt was for splitting Kinnikuman and Robin Mask apart...
The newly made fissure is quickly getting wider!

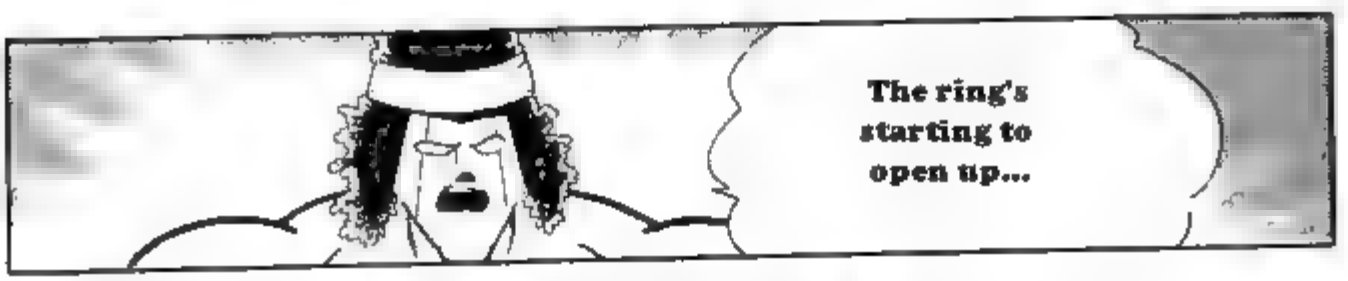


The ring is now completely split apart!
Ha ha ha! This is what I was aiming for with my headbutt!
Parthenon and Zebra have left the ring, but what are they planning to do?
What is this!? Zebra and Parthenon are flipping the the split ring with Kinnikuman and Robin Mask in it!

BRUTAL ART!
CANVAS
PRESSER!



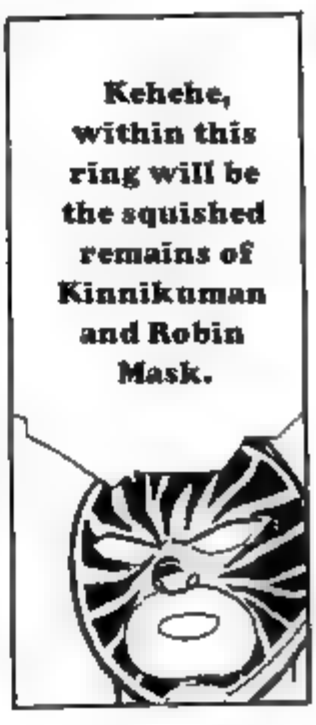
Somehow, Zebra and Parthenon landed Dropkicks simultaneously on the bottom of the split ring, squashing the fighters still in the ring!
ズオオ
I-I have never seen such ruthless brutal fighting until now!
ゴゴゴ
ゴゴゴ



The ring's starting to open up...

Wait, what is this!?

Oof, It looks horrific already.



Kehehe, within this ring will be the squished remains of Kinnikuman and Robin Mask.

Sorry we're not squashed remains!
Somehow, Kinnikuman isn't dead!
This... This is impossible! How could he take our intense Canvas Presser and just stand there so calmly like it was nothing!?

It made a dirty river clean enough for fish to live in when he showed it for the first time and saved Terryman from King the 100 Ton's See-Saw attack the second time...

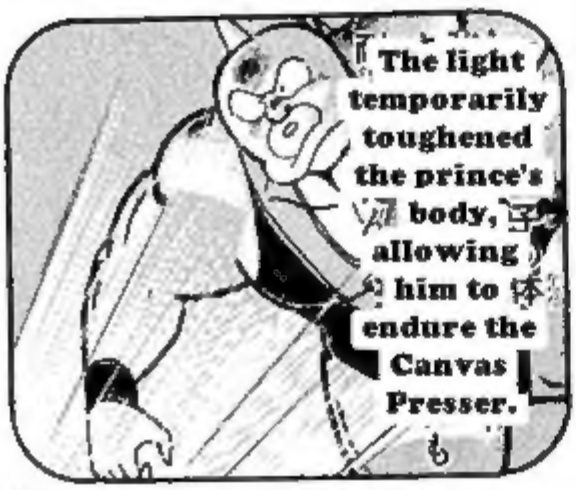
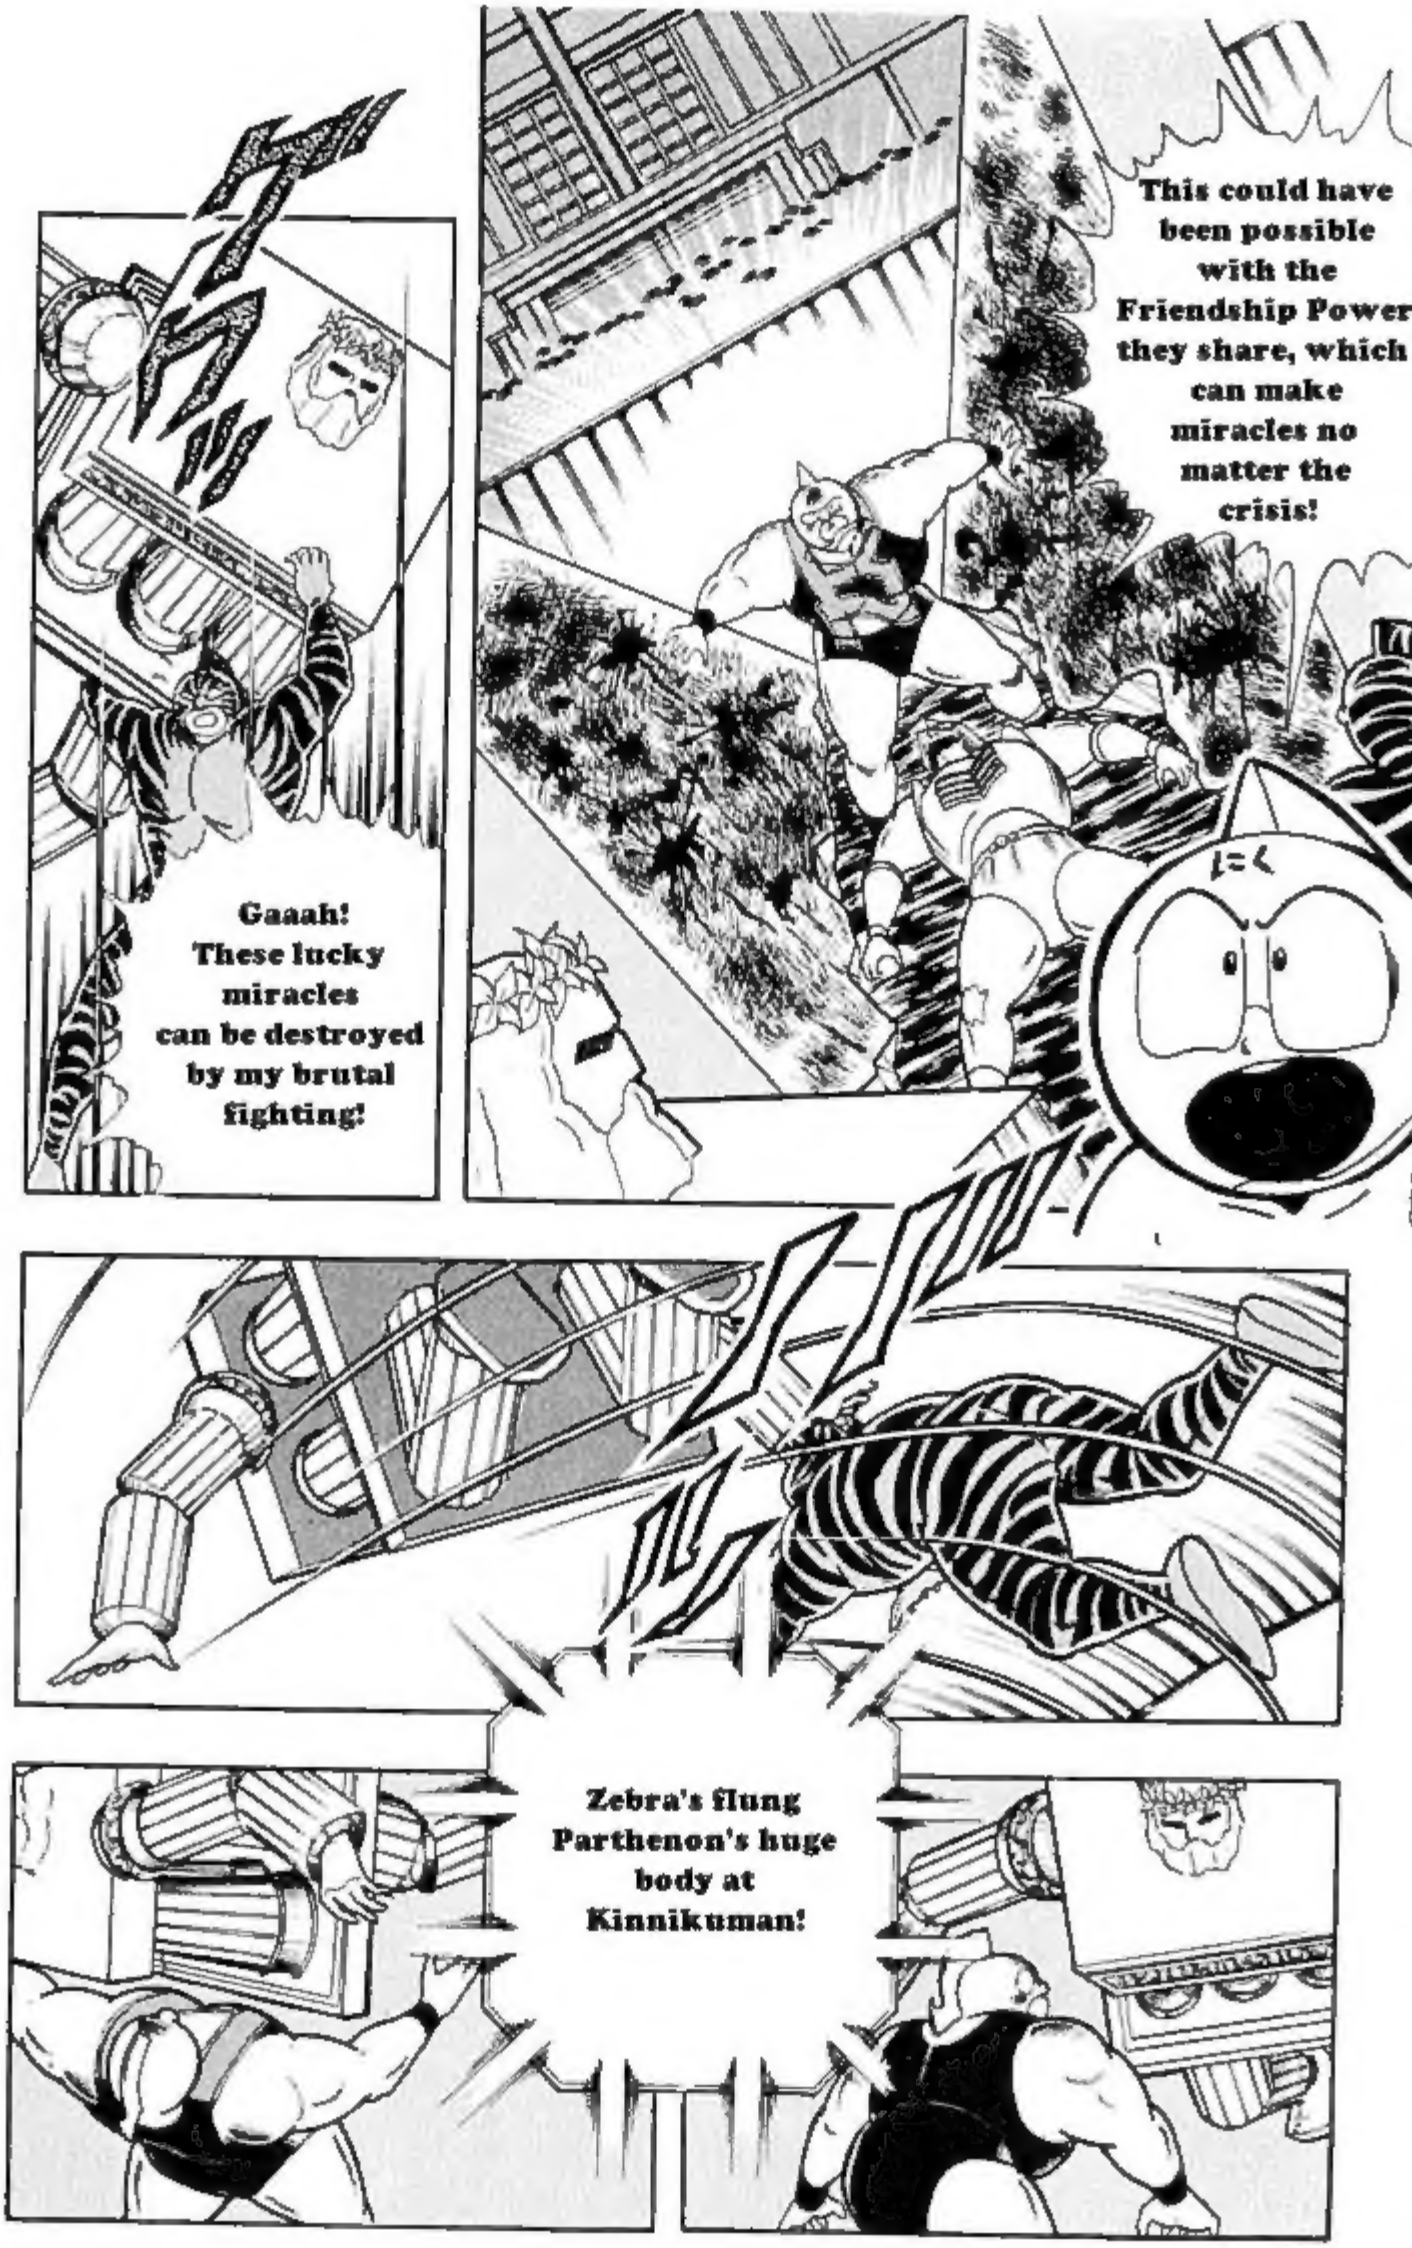
It was that light again, the light from the prince's real face...

He reflected the light on Robin's armour, covering his body in the light.

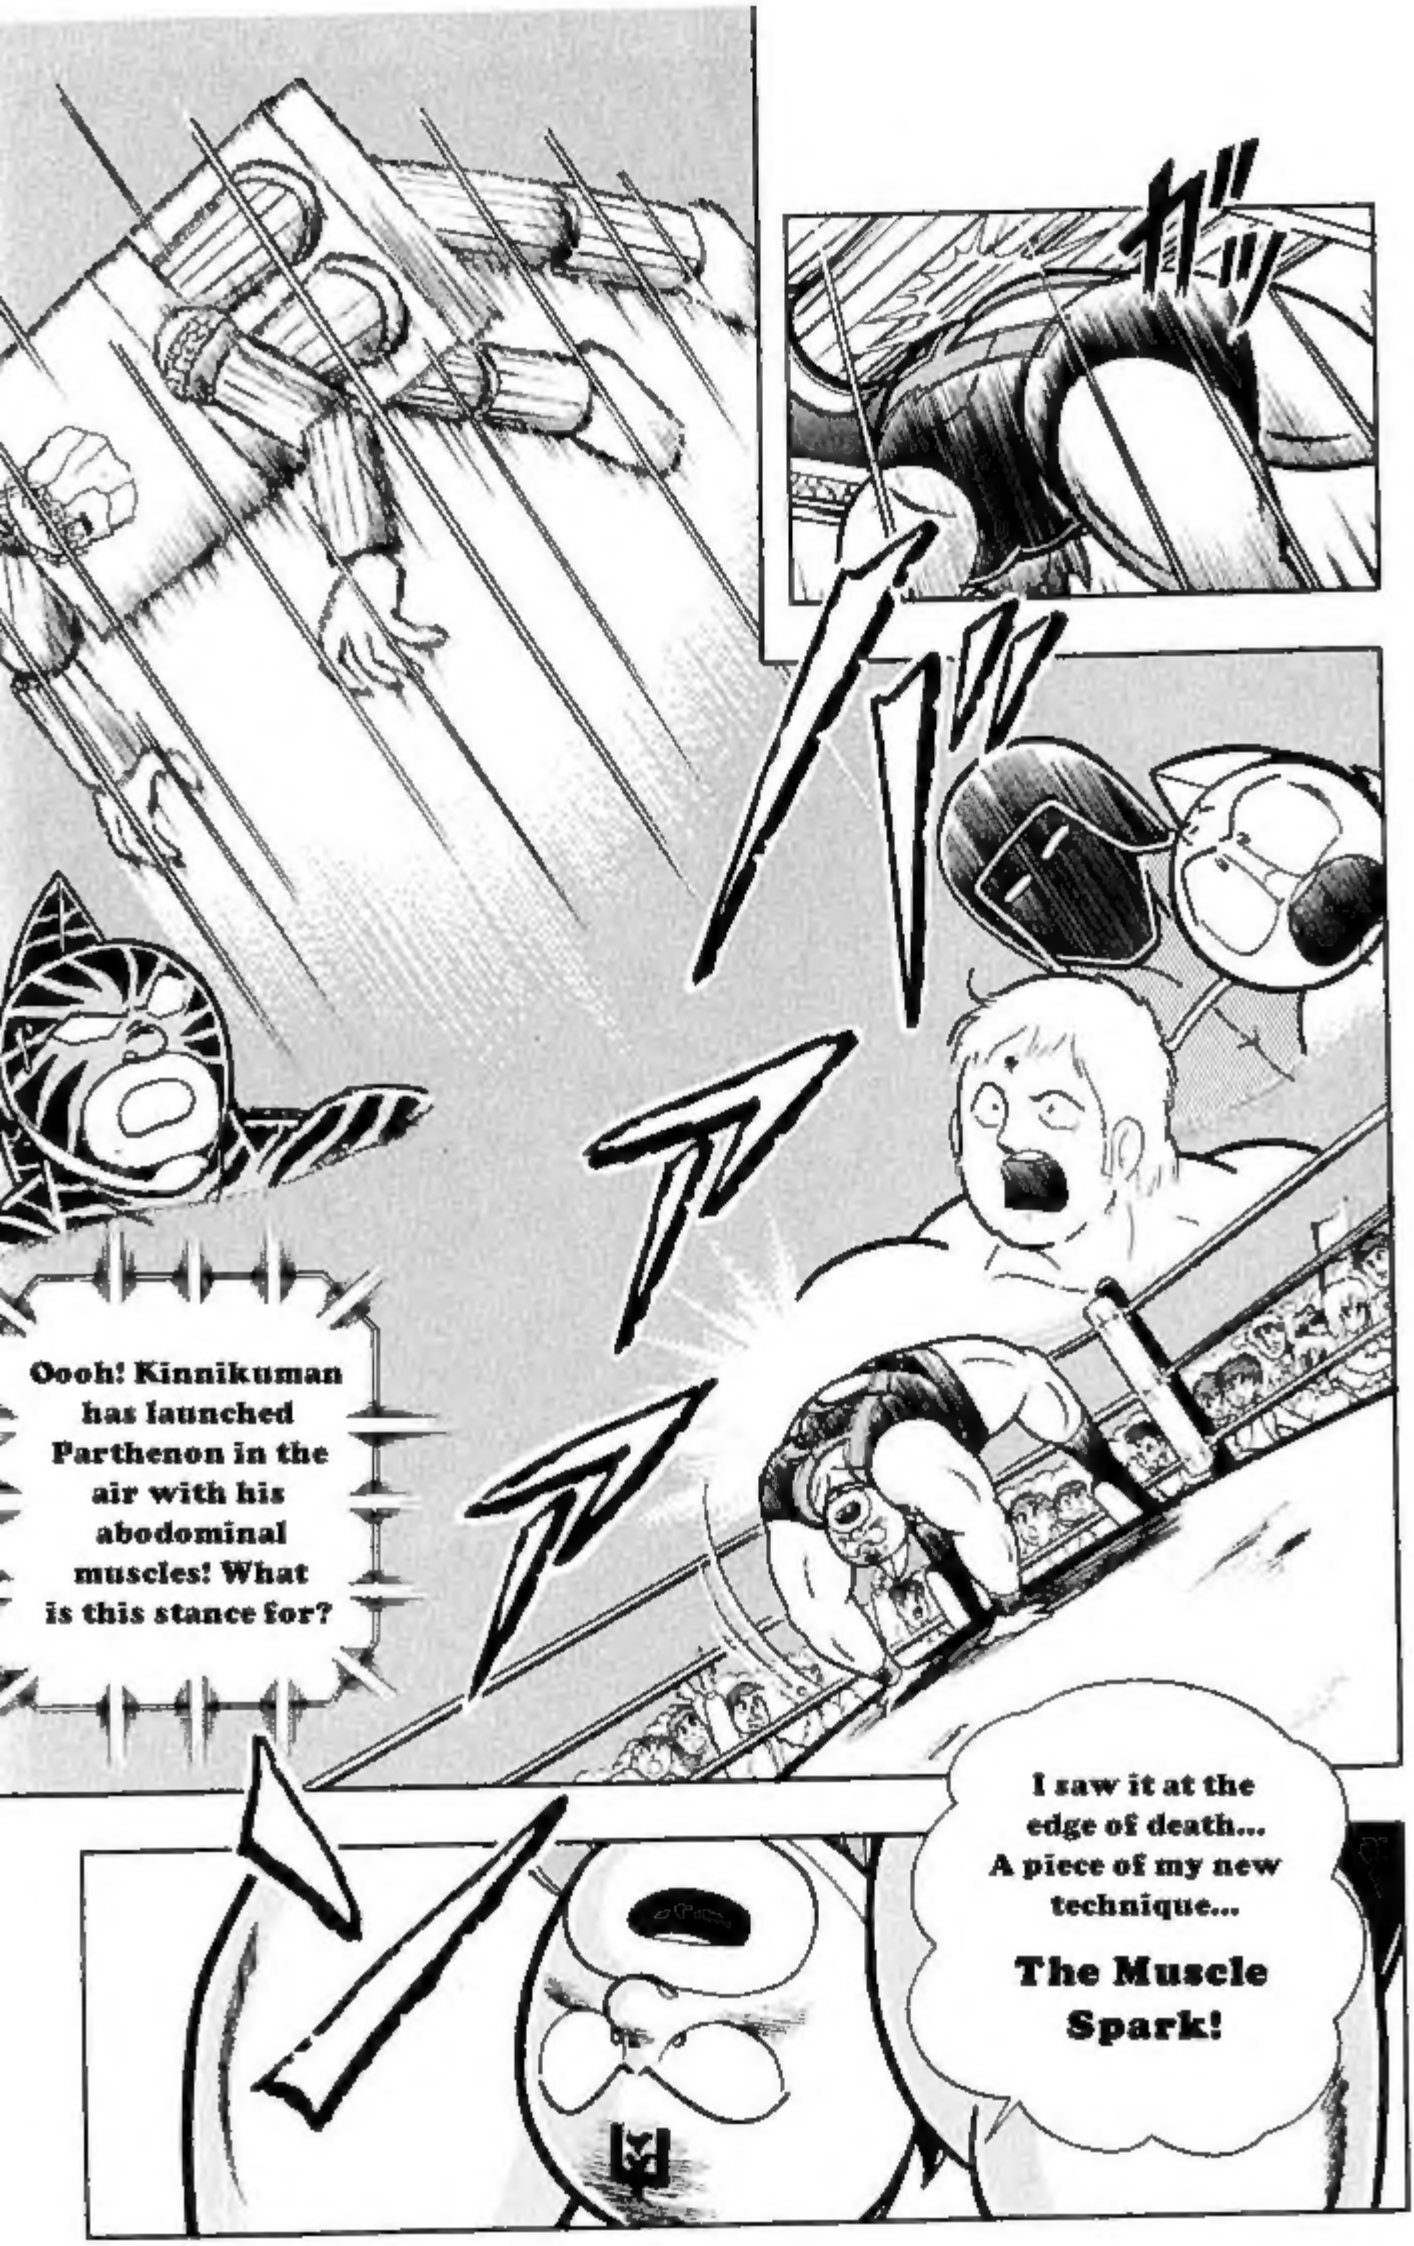


The light temporarily toughened the prince's body, allowing him to endure the Canvas Presser.

And this time, when he was caught in Zebra's Canvas Presser, the prince took his mask off
And shot off that light, hoping to get a bit of it on him.



Gaaah! These lucky miracles can be destroyed by my brutal fighting!
This could have been possible with the Friendship Power they share, which can make miracles no matter the crisis!
Zebra's flung Parthenon's huge body at Kinnikuman!



Oooh! Kinnikuman has launched Parthenon in the air with his abodominal muscles! What is this stance for?
I saw it at the edge of death... A piece of my new technique...
The Muscle Spark!
